24. The Artikles for Instructioun of the Borrowis producet be Sir John Drummond commissioner dervetit be the Kingis Majestie to the Commissioners and Conventiounes holdin at Selkirk.—1616.

AND for als muche as we understand that you have buldit ane verrie fair Inne for the commodious resait of all passingeris within our burgh of Lynlythgow and being desyrous that the lyk suld be bulditt in all utheris burghs and cietties of our kingdome and knawing no mair meit than yourself to be a presedent in Lynlythgow we ar thairfoir to will you to attend the meitting of commissioneris quhiche will be in Julij and thair to delyver unto them this our utheris letters and to insist for ane resolvit answer from them everrie poynt thairof as speciallie.

That in everrie burgh or cietties of this our kingdome thair may be according to the quantetic thairof and frequencie of travellouris a mor sewer Innes buldit according to the apoyntment and discretioun and thais to be buldit so neir the forme heir as may be with all possibill easment and provesioun for man and horse and als that mair thair may be singes hung at everrie hous efter the forme of this kingdome.

And in regard that the lying of muck and fewell in greit heippis and middingis upone the hie streittis, or within any uther places of our saidis burghs and cietties is not onlie noysome to all strangeris and passingeris bayth in smell and sycht but is daingerous also in tyme of plaig being ane speciall nurischer thairof that thairfoir thair suld apoynt the streitis of thair townes to be keipit clein as also that within thair greit cities and townes skaffingeris may be apoyntit efter the forme heir used for cariage furth of thais townes of all sort of filth that so thair contre attending us in our intendit jurnay thidder the next yeir may not reproche the uncleinnes of the townes and cietties of that our kingdome.

And als that all suche filthie beastis as swyne be not sufferit to hant in the oppin streittis.

And because the habeit and heid attyre of the wemen and speciallie within the burghs and cieteis of that our kingdome is no way comlie decent in the weiring of clokis and plaiddis is all togidder scoffat at by straingeris being utheris wyse most costlie than the habeittis and garmentis used heir that thairfoir the borrowis at this our meitting wald consult upon sume decent and handsume comlie sort of habeit aperrell and heid attyre for the wemen within distinctione according to thair severall qualeteis and that the same be apoyntit to be observed heirefter thair being no doubt at all it will be sone enuch followit in the contrie.

And speciallie that no wemen nor maiddis do draw any wynes or aill bot to be done be men and boyis for avoyding of all suspicioun of the uther uncleannes behaviour and careage.

ANSWERIS

And as to the first containing the bigging of Inns because it is ane mater that will requyre ane lairg tyme and no les expenss to that effect and is to be done be particular personis in everie cittie quhais hartis may be movit thairto be tyme the saidis commissioneris declairis that at thair return thai suld mak report to thair magistratis and his Majesties counsall and desyre to do thair indeavour to move thame thairto according to thair habillities and the lyk answer thai mak to the singis to be hung in everie hous.

And as to the nixt heid consarning to the muk fewall and swyne declairis that in ilk burgh thair is everie yeir thair particular actis and statutis sett doune for removing of all sik fylthe and swyn and thairfoir thai ordan that ilk burgh sall caus put the samin to executioun mair cairfullie and degentlie nor hes ben done hertfoir within xx dayis nixt efter the returne of thair present commissioneris and the said swyne and filth to be removit thairefter within fortie aucht houris and to renew thair yeirlye statutis thairupone for the better expeditioun of his Majesties will and intentionis and that ilk burgh hintenewit his ordenance to thair burgh and report thair deligence thairupone to the nixt convention under the pain of ane unlaw of xl^{lib}.

Anent the third heid concerning the atyre of wemen thairfoir thai ordan that ilk commissioner sall mak thair report of his Majesties provesion to thair Magistratis and counsall and desyre thame to consult and deliberat thairupone and to send thair commissioner sufficient instructit to the nixt conventioun of borrowis thair advyse and judgment upone the alteratioun of the said attyres and habet of wemen and deferent formis thair of according to his Majesties will and mynd under the pain of xx^{lib.}

And anent the last part of the article concerning the wemen tavereneris the saidis commissioneris thinkis the samyu maist resonable and thairfor ordanis that ilk burgh sett furth thair particular actis and ordenanceis for dischairging the said wemen taverneris and tapsteris of wyne beir and dry aill tapsteris and put the samin to sufficient executioun and report thair deligence thairupone the nixt conventioun under the pain of ane unlaw of xx^{lib.}

And that this thair answer may be the mair better knawin to ilk burgh the saidis commissioneris ordanis that ilk commissioner present sall tak ane copie of this present act and instructions that nain pretend ignorance.

42. Petition of Hew Ross, Schoolmaster, to the Magistrates of Irvine.—
12th December 1656.

To the Right Honorabill the Magistrats and Councell of the Burgh of Irvin.

HUMBLIE showing unto your honours that whereas a bargane and condition was made with me by some of your number sent from you in Apryl 1652 for keeping the Schoole to be doctour to the children which were learning to reade and wryt in the which condition their was agreed and promised to give unto me fourtie merks in the yeare Of the which I have gotten nothing but onlie twentie merks And now it is foure yeare and ane half bygane since the condition was made with me I did supplicat your honours befor and you promised to take some course in it but hes done nothing to my knowledge. Therfor I beseech your honours that yow would consider my poore condition haveing a familie and not able to sustaine them by reason of the want of meanes and daylie kept in the schoole that I can use no other meane for their reliefe. And haveing also contracted upon myselfe some debt for their supplie expecting alwayes some helpe from your honours according to condition. Therfor I desyre your honours to take ane course heirin and to cause your thesaurer to pay me otherwayes I will be forced to goe out of the towne a beggar. And your honours answer humblie I crave, your honours servant,

thesaurer's books for fyve preceeding years which is considered and stated in the answer to the first article, and that ther equis amounts to, with the clerks and other dewes, 17th 10^s

6. As to the sixth article, its answered that these fyve preceeding years all the forraigne trade they have hade is the particulars following, viz., ane ship of 70 tunn burden from France loadned with salt and brandie ; item, another small veshell from Norway, loadned with tarr and dails, of burden about 30 tunns ; and that they have exported about thritie pack of wooll or thereby yeirly for these two years bygone, each of which packs weighs about twelve stone ; also about seaven or eight small barks, about 20 tunn the piece, loadned with victuall, the beginning of the Irish troubles, anno 1689 and 1690, wherein there were some strangers concerned, and a fourth pairt of ane small veschell from Norway, there pairt of the loadning therof came to 600 dails ; and ane other ship from France, of 70 tunns, loadened with salt, and a small litle brandie. And that ther inland trade is verie inconsiderable, and what they have is by retaiill of some brought from Glasgow, and other royall burghs, and that they have vented about a tunn of wine, seck, and brandie, each year, these fyve years bygone ; and that they will consume about forty bolls of malt, Lithgow measour, weekly, and that they hade a small quantity about twelve daces imported by strangers.

7. As to the seventh article, its answered that they hade eight small ships, barks, and boats belonging to them, whose burden value and how employed is conform to ane particular accompt in answer to this article given in under ther hands to the saids visitors, of which eight ships they have latly lost one.

8. As to the eight article, it is answered that they are concerned in matters of shipping in soe far it is mentioned in the above mentioned article, and that they are no other wayes concerned with unfree traders in matter of trade.

9. As to the nynth article, it is answered that ther cesses is pairtly payed by tax on ther inhabitants and pairtly out of ther comon good, as is at more length contained in ther answer to the nynth article.

10. As to the tenth article, it is answered that ther pairt of ther minister's stipends, schollmaster, and other publict servants, are payed and mantainet out of ther comon good.

11. As to the eleventh article, it is answered that all ther publict works are mantaneit out of ther comon good.

12. As to the twelth article, its answered that these houses where the heretors themselves doe stay are not stented, and the remainder pocest be tenents payes monthly thrie pennies on each mark piece of rent by a stranger and two pennies by a freeman, and the rent of ther hail sett houses extends to 1621^{lib} 13^s 4^d, but of these there are a great many waist and that ther borrow aikers payes two pennies on each mark rent without any rebatement.

13. As to the thretteen article, it is answered that they have one yearly fair which begins the 8th and endest the 13 of August, wherof the Earls of Eglintowne are keepers, by ther deputs, fiscalls, and tenents, and have the one half of the customes; and they have two weekly marcats or fair dayes, and that the customes of the same are a pairt of ther comon good and soe stated in answer to the first article, and that ther are no other fairs in use to be held at the said burgh albeit by ther charter they have right to another which is no wont of use to be kepted.

14. As to the fourteenth article, its answered that the burghs of barronies and regalities lyeing within ther precinet are as followes, viz., one burgh of regality, Killwining; and of barronies, Kilmarnock, Kilmaars, Newmilns, Stewartoun, Beeth and Largs, which are very prejudiciall to them in point of trade, and serve the most pairt of the countrey with goodes by retails and that ther houses are better and more of them then many royall burghs, particularly Kilmarnock, which hath a comon good and keeps a marcat. A more particular [account] therof ther commissioner will represent to the nixt conventione of borrowes.

15. As to the fyfteenth article, it is answered that a litle casuall comon good accrewes to them by fines and burges admissione but not worth the mentioneing.

This is the trew accompt of the state and conditione of the said burgh of Irvine in answer to the forsaid instructiones, as it is given up upon oath by the saids magistrates and towne clerk, undersubscribeing, to the best of ther knowledg and surest informatione they can have to the saids visitors day and dait forsaid. 66. Letter from Lord Findlater to the Provost and Magistrates of Irvine requesting Contributions for the Harbour of Cullen.—17th February 1697.

GENTLEMEN,

YOUR Towns Contribution for repairing the harbour of Cullen being as yet uncollected, the particular interest which my son the Secretary and I have in the place, and the trust committed to us anent the improving of the said contributions, doe oblige me to intreat your assistance to this work, in extending your contribution to it as far as possibly ye can For it is weel known to you that if the contributions of such good towns as yours to any publick work of this kinde be not more considerable then these of the country parishes, the work will prove ineffectuall, and though this town be but one of the meanest burghs of the kingdom for the tyme, yet if this work prove effectuall (as I am confident it will doe so) it may come to conduce something for the publick interest of the kingdome, but more especially that of the Burrows And I assure you your concurrence and assistance herein will prove a singular favour to my son the Secretary and will also most singularly oblige Gentlemen, your ashured friend to serve you

69. Scroll Instrument upon the Election of a Commissioner to Parliament for the Burgh of Irvine.—17th September 1702.

Att the Burgh of Irvine the 17 day of September 1702 yeirs and of her Majesties reigne the first year :—

THE quhilk day the Magistrats and Counsell of the said Burgh of Irvine being conveyed within the Counsell house thair of in order to the choosing of ane Commissioner to represent the said Burgh att this ensueing Parliament indyted by her Majestie to sitt at Edinburgh the 12 November next Master Alexander Cunynghame of Collellan present Provost of the said Burgh imediatly after constituting the said meeting of Counsell in the usuall maner ordered the Nottar publict undersubscribeing Toun Clerk of the said Burgh to read in presence of the said Counsell her Majesties proclamatione to the effect forsaidd Whereupon William M'Taggart present Dean of Gild of the said Burgh before reading the said proclamatione told that James Boyle sone to James Boyle of Montgomriestoun late Provost of Irvine was desyring acces to the said Counsell that he might be admitted burges of the said burgh and give his oath de fideli and submitt himself to the determinatione of the Magistrats and Counsell for his fyne The said provost answered that the Quens busines which concerned the publict being now tabled no privat busines ought to be obruded to interfier thairwith and that after that was over M^r Boyle should have access Upon quhich the said William M'Taggart desired the libertie of a vote of the whole Counsell seing the provost had refused Which vote the said provost refusing the said William M'Taggart for himself and in name of the said James Boyle protested that seing he the said William and his adherents who he said were the pluralitie of Counsell desyred the libertie of the forsaidd vote it was a thing unpresidented for the preces of the Counsell to refuse what was desyred by a considerable part of their number to be voted. Quhairto it was answered by the said provost That the Queens busines being tabled as said is nothing ought to justle it out Quhairto the said William replied that there was yet tyme enough for voting a Comissioner it being a considerable tyme to sitting doun of Parliament and upon the whole took instruments Whereupon the provost desyred the said William M'Taggart to cary himself suteably and as became him in presence of the

Magistrats and Counsell And the said William insisting, the provest repeated that the Queens busienes ought to be prefered ut supra and ordered the election to go on Whereupon the said William said that the Toun was come to so low a pass that they were not in a capacity to allow anything for the Commissioners expensis bot will be obliged to choose one who would serve the Toun gratis. To quich no reply was given but that the Counsell would think on that. And the election going on William Stevinsone Baillie his vote being asked he voted the said M^r Alexander Cunynghame as Commissioner to the forsaid Parliament Thereafter the said William M^r Taggart Dean of Gild his vote being asked he answered that M^r Boyle being willing to serve the Toun gratis and to receive instructions he voted the said James Boyle to be Commissioner Upon quich the provest offered also to serve gratis To quich the said William answered The provest wes too long in saying so much, and that he continued firme in his resolutione and adhered to his vote for M^r Boyle And the votes going round the said James Boyle had eight voters who voted for him viz. The said William M^r Taggart John Calderwood thesaurer John Thomsonsone late bailly and William Broun Robert Hastie John Caldwell Michael Glasgow and William Thomsonsone Counsellors And the said M^r Alexander Cunynghame provest had four voters besyd his own viz. The said William Stevinsone Baillie M^r William Cunynghame late provest and George Monro and Alexander Dyet Counsellors After which election the provest alledgd that James Boyle was not qualified for representing the Burgh of Irvine in Parliament not being ane actual burges thair of Whereto William M^r Taggart for himself and in name of these who voted for the said James Boyle answered That James Boyle haveing formerly offered himself to be made burges, ut supra, and for that end was waiting access and it is not his default that he is not burges, being required and refused And being now chosen by plurality of votes to be Comissioner he adhered to the election and thairupon took instruments a second tyme, and added that it was very hard and without a president that one in M^r Boyles circumstances the sone of a provest and als considerable ane heritor as any at the table should be refused especially seing it was the desyre of the plurality to have him admitted burges Quhairto the provest repeating ut supra answered that it was in the Magistrats power to allow or refuse as they please Unto quich it was replied That quhat ever priviledge the Magistrats out of Counsell had to creat honourary burgessis yet in a constitute Counsell especially when it was the desyre of the plurality it was not in the Magistrats power to refuse, ffor if that should be sustained then the Counsell were to expect no burgess but if the preces please, quich is equal to a negative vote, a thing never pleaded by any inferior Magistrat. The provest answered that the Exchequer refused to receive vassals some-tymes Whereunto William answered that was nothing to this Counsell and thought that after constituting that honourable Meeting if the receiving a vassall was desyred by the plurality the Chancellour could not weill refuse. Thereafter the provest having retired from the Counsell table and after having walked a little alone he called all those who had voted for M^r Boyle three excepted and discoursed with them : Dureing quich space the said William M^r Taggart for himself and in name and behalf forsaid alleadged that the provest in ane most unusual maner did insinuate upon the said voters one by one to pass from their votes and to vote the said provest of new, and did severall tymes protest against the same as a singular method quich he alleadged could not be paralleled, that men after they had publickly declared the sentiments of their mynd should be so harrassed and that such violence should be offered to their naturall libertie alledging they were attacked some tuice and some thryce for their votes. And the provest haveing again returned to the Counsell table requyred the Counsell to vote of new again in respect they had voted a person not qualified according to law not being ane actual burges. Whereto it was replied by the said William M^r Taggart that he resumed his former protests and adhered to the former votes and protested against voteing of new and thairupon took instruments. And the votes haveing gone round again the hail forenamed persones who voted formerly for James Boyle adhered to their former votes except the said John Calderwood who being called to give his new vote answered Since it is so I vote your brother viz. M^r William Cunynghame late provest as Comissioner. Whereupon M^r William Cunynghame late provest protested that such as voted for M^r Boyle were not faithfull to their alleadgence, and had not acted according to their oath of fidelity in respect they had not voted a persone who was ane actual burges and that therein they had acted contrair to the law and priviledge of Burrowes. Quhairto the said William M^r Taggart answered that he and adherents did nothing but what was highly consistent with ther alleadgence and their oaths as burgesses and Counsellers, etc. And that the said John Calderwood was insinuat upon and harrassed to that degree that he gave his last vote in a confusion. The said M^r Alexander Cunynghame provest replied that there was no harrassing in the case, and that seing the pluralitie had refused to vote a person qualified according to law viz. ane actuall burges and that he haveing severall votes and his own and being qualified and the other not he himself viz. the said M^r Alexander Cunynghame was dewly elected. Quhairupon the said M^r William Cunynghame protested and the said present provest adhered thereto. Thereafter the said William M^r Taggart for himself and in name of adherents desyred that the minuts of Counsell and instruments might be read that it might be knowne if all was right written And in regard the provest refused to cause read the same instantly but delayed the same to the next sederunt and promiscing the minuttis sould be then read The said William thereupon did again take instruments. After all which compeared personally the said James Boyle who gave in the minut of protestatione written with his own hand and thereupon took instruments the tenor of quhich minut followes and is thus : Att Irvine the 17 day of September 1702. The quhilk day compeared personally I James Boyle sone to James Boyle late provest of Irvine within the Tolbuith of Irvine and past to the personall presence of M^r Alexander Cunynghame provest and William Stevinsone bailly sitting in Council with the members of toun Counsell, and desyred and required that they might enter and receive me conforme to the custome of Burgh to be ane burges thereof I being the sone of a burges most willing and ready to give my oath de fideli and pay all dewes requisite instantly and fulfill and performe whatever is usuall and incumbent in law for intrant burgessis to doe, and that the saids Magistrats might instantly administrate the necessar and usuall oath to me and order me to get ane extract from the Clerk on reasonable expensses and in case of refusall or unjust delay protested for coast skaith damage and remeid of law. And farder adds that I have attended within the Tolbuith since the down sitting of the Counsell in order to be made burges, quhich was denyed, and I being now elected Comissioner to the insueing Parliament by plurality of votes of the Toun Council protested against any new election and declaired I was willing to be burges and take all oaths requisite qualifeing myself for the said office. And I haveing entred the Counsell house door in order to take instruments in the Toun Clerks hand I was forced out of the door by the said M^r Alexander Cunynghame by thrusting me by the shoulder out of the said door. To the quhich minut of instrument it was answered by the said M^r Alexander

Cunyngame provest that M^r Boyle haveing violently intruded himself into the Counsellhouse door when the provest had opened the door himself calling for ane officer, the said James Boyle did violently thrust himself upon the provest, who thereupon demanded what he meant by such violence, if he had anything to say to the Counsell he should be called in dew tyme Quhairupon he thrust himself violently in upon the provest as said is and threw in a piece of money takeing instruments. Upon all and sundry quibich premises the saids hail parties hinc inde asked and took instruments ane or mae ut supra in the hands of me notar publick Comon Clerk of the said Burgh underscryveing. All thir things were done within the Counsellhouse of the said Burgh betwixt three and fyve hours in the afternoon day month yeir of God and yeir of her Majesties reigne respective abovewritin in presence of the saids members of Council above named and als in presence of John Gray late bailly of Irvine and John Boyd merchant there who were witnesses to the said minut of instrument given in and instruments taken thereon by the said James Boyle.

70. Account by William M^r Taggart, Dean of Gild of Irvine, of the Election of a Commissioner to Parliament for the Burgh.—17th September 1702.

ANE account of the most materiall things that passed September 17, 1702, att the electing James Boyle sone to Provest Boyle of Montgomeriestoun Commissioner to represent this burgh of Irving att the Parliament endyted by Her Majestic, as given in by William M^r Taggart present Dean of Gild of Irving.

Immediatlie after constituteing our meeting the Provest told the designe of that Counsell wes to nominat a Commissioner to represent us in Parliament, and wes about to have ordered the clerk to read the proclamacione, upon quibich William M^r Taggart said that M^r Boyle wes desyreing access that hee might be admitted Burges, give his oath de fideli, and submitt himself to the determinatione of Magistrats and Counsell for his fyne, which the provest refusing, William in his own, and name of adherents who were the pluralitie desyred the libertie of a vote, which also being denyed, William ut supra protested and took instruments That it wes a thing unpresidented ffor our preses to refuse what wes desyred by a considerable pairt of our number to be voted. Hee answered The Queens bussienes must be preferred. It was replied There wes yet tyme enough for voteing a Commissioner. (It being a considerable tyme to the dounsitting of the Parliament.)

Thereafter the Provost desyred that the election of the Commissioner might goe on. Upon which William said That our Toun wes come to so low a passe that wee were not in a capacitie to allow anything for the Commissioners expence but would be obleidged to choose one who would serve gratis. To quich no reply wes given but that the Counsell would think on that. Thereafter Baillie Stevinsones vote wes asked who voted provest Alexander; after that Williams vote being asked, said that M^r Boyle being willing to serve the Toun gratis and to receive instructions hee voted him. Upon quhich and not before the Provost offered to serve the Toun gratis. To quhich William answered hee wes too long in saying so much, and that hee continowed firme in his resolutione and adhered to his vote. So it went round M^r Boyle having eight votes and provest Cunynghame only ffour. Upon which William ut supra adhered to his former instrument and took a 2d. That M^r Boyle wes by pluralitie of votes elected Commissioner. To quhich the Provost answered, M^r Boyle wes not qualified not being burges, William ut supra replied M^r Boyle wes and is still desyreous to be admitted and for that end waites access, and added, that it wes very hard, and without a precedent that one in M^r Boyles circumstances the son of a Provost of this Burgh, and als considerable ane heretor as any att the Board, should be refused, Especiallie sieing it wes the desyre of the pluralitie to have him admitted. It wes answered it wes the Magistrats prerogative to allow or refuse as they pleased. William replied that whatever priviledges Magistrats extra Concilium had to creat honorarie Burgesses, yet in a constitute Counsell, especiallie when it wes the desyre of the pluralitie it wes not in the Magistrats power to refuse, ffor if that should be sustained then wee are to expect no burges but if our preses please, quhich is equall to a negative voice, a thing never pleaded by any inferior Magistrat. The Provost replied that the Exchequer refused to receive vassalls sometymes. William answered that wes nothing to us, and presumed to think that after constituteing that honourabill meeting if the receiveing a vassall wes desyred by the pluralitie the Chancellour could hardly weill refuse: Much tyme wes spent in discourseing hinc inde upon this and the lyke subject too tedious to narrate: After voteing the Provost wes pleased to retire from the table, and having walked a little alone, hee called all those who had voted for M^r Boyle, 3 excepted, and in a most unusuall manner did insinuate upon them one by one to passe from their votes and vote him of new. His expressions would be too tedious and hardly convenient to narrate, dureing quihich att severall tymes William supra did protest against such a singular method, and said it could not be paralleled that men after they had publicklic declaired the sentiments of their myndes should be so harrassed, and that such violence should be offered to their naturall libertie. This did not prevail with the Provest, but round he went, and becaus they stood their ground some were attacked tuyce others thryce. After all hee came to the Board and said it wes necessary they should vote again, becaus one not qualified wes chosen. For answer William ut supra resumed the former protests, adhered to the former vote, and protested also against voteing of new, and took instruments. But this could not prevail, a new vote must goe on, when it came to William hee adhered to his former protest and vote. After this provest William after some privatt conference with his brother protested that such as voted for M^r Boyle, were not faithfull to their allegiance, and had much bold and darring discourse to force our partie from their ground.

William answered wee did nothing but what wes highlie consistent with our allegiance and to our oaths as Burgessis and Counsellours, etc.

Thereafter a vote of the rest wes demanded, and when they adhered, they were asked a 2d tyme, yea some more then thryce, butt all in vain, excepting one, who when apart and called to give his new note (as they called it) wes so insinuat upon and harrassed to that degree that in a confusion hee said, Weill then, since it must be so I vote your brother, viz. provest William.

After this wes ended and some tyme spent in discoursing on what passed, William ut supra desyred that the minutts and instruments might be read, that it might be known if all wes right written, quihich being refused hee took instruments, etc.

71. Instrument upon the Election of New Councillors for the Burgh of Irvine.—25th September 1702.

Irving 25 September 1702 att the Tolbuith Stair foot betwixt 10 and 12 before noon :—

M^r ALEXANDER CUNYNGHAME present provest requyred Baillie M^r Taggart Dean of Guild and William Thomsone shoemaker both toun Counsellers to be present in the Counsell house this hour and place in order to their concurring in the choise of a new Counsell of the said Burgh for the year to come, and protested against the said William M^r Taggart Dean of Guild that he not only declyned himself to be present, but that hee withdrew and took away the said William Thomsone Counsellor from the meeting of the said toun Counsell to the effect forsaid contrair to his allegiance and oath of fidelitie as a burges and a Counsellour, and thairupon took instruments in presence of James Nisbet late baillie W. Cr. James Muir and Hugh Buckle officers and Hugh Henderson gardiner.

Eodem die et hora :—

The hail Counsellours called thryce by ane officer audible att the Tolbuith stair head None compeared to elect a new Counsell, except these named in this dayes sederunt, whereupon the provest protested that such of their number as are this day present might proccid to their choise of a new Counsell, and protested against all these who withdrew that they had acted contrair to their burges oath and their allegiance, and oath de fideli, and thairupon took instruments in presence of the witnesses forsaid.

Ditto in Moses Crawford's house circiter quartam post meridiem :—

The provest having withdrawn from the Counsell went with me nottar publick to the dwelling house of Moses Crawford, and to that roume quher the said William Thomson wes present in company with John Thomson late baillie Thomas Gray merchant and Moses Crawford wryter, and efter knocking severall tymes att the said chamber door, requyred in her Majesties name and in his oun as provest of the said Burgh the saids John Thomson Thomas Gray and Moses Crawford to open the said chamber door, and yeild the person of the said William Thomson who wes violentlic detained by them from coming to the Counsell this day to elect a new Counsell as one of the members of the said toun Counsell, who all of them refused so to doe Quhairupon the said provest protested against them as refusing to give obedience to her Majesties authoritie and the authoritie of the Magistrats of this Burgh contrair to their burges oath and allegiance, and thairupon took instruments in presence of Master Zacharias Gemmill of Boigsyde William Crawford and Hugh Buckle officers.

84. Proposed Address by the Freeholders of Ayr to the King in regard to Arming the Inhabitants for Defence of the Coast.—3d October 1759. [Print.]

Ayr 3d October 1759 :—

CONVEENED the Noblemen and Gentlemen following, viz. The E. of Eglingtoun, the E. of Lowdoun, Alexr. Boswell Lord Auchinleck, Sir Adam Fergusson of Kilkerran, Mr. Wm. Duff sherriff depute of Ayr, Allan Whitefoord of Ballochmile, Wm. Ramsay of Montfodd, Archibald Crawford of Ardmilland, Alexr. Crawford of New-wark, Rob. Hamiltoun of Bourtrees-hill, Andrew Hunter of Park, Jas. Whitefoord of Dinduff, Adam Crawford Newale of Polquharne, Wm. Logan of Castlemains, John Hamiltoun of Montgomeriestoun, Alexr. Campble of Drumgrange, the Provost of Air, Mr. George Reid Minr. of the Gospel at St. Evox, Mr. John Cunningham of Bridgehous Minr. of the Gospel at Dalmellington. The above Noblemen and Gentlemen having convened this day in consequence of a concert of the freeholders met at Michalmas head Court yesterday, made choice of Lord Auchinleck for Preses, and were unanimously of opinion

That a humble address be presented to his Majesty by the Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy of the shire of Ayr, congratulating his Majesty on the success of his Arms by Sea and Land :

Thanking him for his care and vigilance which hath hitherto given us the quiet enjoyment of our estates amidst the alarm of war to which other nations have been exposed.

Expressing our desire to contribute what is in our power to assist his Majesty in carrying on his salutary schemes for the liberty of Europe and the safety of his dominions :

To represent, that notwithstanding our zeal for these great things, we find that the want and disuse of Arms renders us at present in a manner incapable to be of any use to ourselves or the public should the French make a descent on these Islands.

To propose, that in order to render the people of more effectual service to the public, as well as to enable them to defend themselves should the enemy land, where the regular troops are at a distance, that his Majesty may be graciously pleased to order the Sheriff, according to the old laws of North Britain still in force, to appoint Officers to train the fencible men in each parish and to order one thousand stand of Arms to be delivered over to the Sheriff, to be by him distributed among the Officers by him to be appointed, who are to be answerable to him for the same. And this method it is hoped will have the effect to train a considerable number of men who may be depended on in case of necessity :

Proposed, that the Heritors of the county shall contribute conform to their valuations for purchasing ammunition to the extent of two or three hundred pounds sterl. and this to be distributed by the Sheriff in the same way as the Arms are, viz. conform to the number of inhabitants in the parish. As also, that the Chelsea men must assist in training the men. The county must be at the expence of paying them sixpence per day when employed. And further, that an adjutant for each district shall be employed, and payed at the rate of two shillings and sixpence per day when employed :

Proposed, that the two royal Burghs of Ayr and Irvine shall each address seperatly to the same effect, praying Arms for their Burgesses, and their addresses shall go up along with that from the county.

The meeting ordered the above proposals to be printed, and copies of them to be transmitted to the whole Noblemen and Gentlemen Heretors of the county, and Ministers of each parish, with a letter from the Preses desiring their attendance at Ayr further to deliberate on the subject matter of the proposals, on Friday the 12th of October current.

ALEX. BOSWEL.

GENTLEMEN—By appointment of the meeting of the Freeholders, there is herein transmitted certain proposals on a subject of the last consequence to the county and to the kingdom. They were such as the meeting this day unanimously approved of and wish earnestly that the meeting on Friday the 12th may be as frequent as possible, and hope that you will attend, or if you be by any accident prevented, that you will signify your mind upon the proposals by a letter. I am your most humble servant,

ALEXANDER BOSWEL.

SIR—Agreeable to your desire on Saturday I by this advise you that our Magistrates after converseing the inhabitants and finding them willing to be instructed in the use of and to bear arms in caice of any french partie landing on this coast and to co-operate with their neighbours and the forces if any should be got in defending against such partie, this day in Council agreed to address his Majesty in the terms annexed, which address is to be signed by our provest and sent to Lord Auchinleck to be forwarded with the address from the county, as our Member is not at present at Court, and which method I suppose you will also follow by sending yours to Lord Auchinleck some time on Wednesday. Our provest is to write his Lordship to hint to the Secretary of State that wee might imploy 300 stand of Arms. I told you before that you should vary as far as you please the form of the Address that at least they may not appear to be the same draught. Make my compliments acceptable to Provist Hamiltoun. Forgive my being hurried.—I am, Sir, your most humble servant,

[Addressed]

To Mr. James Allison present dean of Gild of Irvine.

[Address referred to in preceding Letter and on same sheet.]

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty. The Most humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Ayr in Council assembled. We Your Majesties most dutiful and loyall subjects beg liberty, with the most profound humility, to congratulate your Majesty on the glorious success of your Arms by Sea and Land, whereby the pernicious designs of our enemies have been hitherto baffled, our Commerce protected, and the peaceable possession of the fruits of our industry secured to us.

Being sensible of these inestimable blessings enjoyed by us under your Majesties most auspicious Government, we are ready to hazard our lives and fortunes in defence of your sacred Person and of our Country, now threatened with an invasion from a perfidious enemy rendered desperate by repeated losses and disappointments.

As your Majesties troops are at present necessarily employed at a distance from us, we and our fellow Burgesses are very desirous of being put in a condition of making all the defence in our power and of co-operating with the regular forces against the enemy should they attempt to land on our coast or to destroy the shipping in our harbour. But the want of Arms and ammunition renders us unable to accomplish these good purposes.

Allow us further, with the greatest submission, to lay before your Majesty the defenceless state of the whole Firth of Clyde, in the trade whereof many thousands of your faithful subjects are interested, and to pray in the most humble manner that your Majesty will be pleased to give such orders for defence of the said Firth against our enemies, as the exigence of the times will admitt; and also for putting the inhabitants of this burgh in such posture of defence as your Majesty in your great wisdom shall judge proper.

That Your Majesty may have continued success against your enemies, and long reign over a free and happy people, and there may never be wanting of your royal line, inheriting your princely virtues, to sit upon the throne of these Realms, is and shall be the constant prayer of your Majesties most faithful subjects the Magistrates and Council of your Burgh of Ayr.

Signed by our Præses in our presence and by our appointment.

MINUTS the Magistrates and Council of the BURGH of IRVINE against Mr. JAMES KEMPT, Schoolmaster of the English School in the said Burgh.—Actor Millar—Alter Hamilton Gordon.

MILLAR repeated in his charges ane Act of the Toun Council of Irvine of the date the twenty eight of December j^m vij^e and fiftie four electing and nominateing William Henderson precentor of the Church of Irvine for one year commencing at Whitsunday j^m vij^e and fiftie fyve, and ane other Act of the seventh of May j^m vij^e and fiftie fyve, whereby it is declared that it was the intention of the Council that the Suspender was not to gett ane sellary as English Schoolmaster at Irvine after the comeing Whitsunday and craved the letters may be found orderly proceeded.

HAMILTON GORDON repeated his Reasons of Suspension, and alleged that by ane advertisement at the publick Newspapers the 6th of Aprile 1747 the Magistrats of the burgh gave notice that the Schoolmaster who then taught English was to leave the place and that the vacancie was to be supplied by the first of June thereafter And for the encouragement of a person suiteably qualifed for teaching English after the modern way that the yearly sellary or profites would amount to upwards of threttie pounds sterling per annum besides two pounds ten shillings yearly as precentor of the Church which the former Schoolmaster did not enjoy That in consequence of this advertisement the Suspender appeared as a candidate for the office and tryall being taken by a skilled person of the Suspender's abilities and qualifications for teaching English and writeing And tryal being likeways taken of his presenting and the Magistrats and Council weell satisfied therewith they did unanimously elect nominat and choose the Suspender to be teacher of English in the burgh after the modern way and precentor of the Church giving him the whole emoluments of marriages and baptisms by their act of the date the twenty sixth of May 1747 That albeit the Act of Councill bears his election to have been for one year after the date thereof, yet the Suspender being assured . . . at limitation of . . . was only to pre . . . the form of the . . . commissions . . . to the School . . . and as . . . there was no instance of a Schoolmaster being removed he brought up his family from Aberdeen and continued in the exercise of his offices for eight years, and contended that the Suspender being thus established in the office and no objection made either to his morall charachter or fitness for the office he cannot be removed arbitrarily therefrom, from the nature of the office as weell as in good policie were such a practice . . . indulged it behoved to be a very great disadvantage to the education of youth And with respect to the office of precentor the pouer of disposall thereof was not in the Magistrats and Councill but in the Kirk Session And the Suspender accordingly holds that office by ane Act of the Kirk Session of the nynteenth of July 1747 That these proceedings of the Magistrats and Councill did not proceed from anie just exception that could have been made against the Suspender either from anie thing in his morall conduct or for any incapacitie for teaching, but merely by the influence of some of the Councill with a view to serve a friend or favourite of their own And the injustice of their proceedings appears the more remarkable that the Act by which they would deprive him of the sallary as Schoolmaster bears date on the 7th of May and the deprivation was to take place at the Whitsunday thereafter And that the Suspender's charachter is unexceptionable appears from a certificate from the Minister and Elders and the greater part of the most considerable inhabitants of the burgh Notwithstanding whereof the Suspender is willing to subject both his charachter and capacity to the strictest tryall And therefor the acts complained of fall to be suspended.

MILLAR answered That the teacher of ane English School in the Burgh of Irvine has not his office by anie publick law nor any legall establishment but meerly a voluntary act of the inhabitants, and as the Suspender was nominated to the office for one year only on the expirie of the year his office ceased That the Suspender was in no ways in the case of a Schoolmaster of . . . or anie such office which hath its establishment . . . That the Magistrats and Council did remove the Suspender . . . give place to a person of greater merit And it is . . . Suspender to object to the Councells pouer of . . . especially as it was in virtue of their act he was admitted to the office and only in consequence thereof continued the office for the interim till a question which then subsisted between the Council and Kirk Session with respect to the pouer of electing the precentor should be determined From all which it is evident the Suspender was removeable at pleasure and the act electing Mr. Henderson into the office of precentor is dated in December And his entry was not . . . till the Whitsunday thereafter . . . the act of the 7th of May was only an explanation of the Magistrats intention by the Act in December occasioned by some . . . of the Suspender's that notwithstanding the said act he would claime right to the salery which had been on his nomination agreed to be payed him by the . . . Schoolmaster.

HAMILTON GORDON replied That tho' the Suspender was only elected for one year, yet having continued in the office for eight years his election can at no rate be worse then his commission had been during pleasure And in that case the Suspender could not be arbitrarily removed but upon reasonable grounds as was found in a case betuixt the Magistrats of Edinburgh and Mr. Massie a regent of their College and a latter case between the Magistrats of Montrose and

MILLAR duplyed That the case of a regent of a College and the present are in no ways similar, and in the case of the toun of Montrose the Schoolmaster . . . without mentioning anie time . . . during pleasure That the . . . character founded on which bears date . . . by the Suspender with a view as he pretended to service in another place That the Magistrats could give a reas . . . cause for what they did if it were necessary But as they apprehend the Suspender had no title to continue in the office if another was chosen into it they would rather for the Suspender's sake avoid entering into the . . . But if this is found necessary they will be at . . . descend upon the strongest reasons for turning . . . out of this office and electing a fitter person in

[This paper is much wasted by damp.]

Having advised the foregoing debate Finds that the Suspender having in consequence of the advertisement mentioned in the debate offered himself as a candidate for the office of Teacher of the English School at Irvine and Precentor and after tryall of his qualifications been admitted to that office and had been continued in it for severall years altho' he was originally elected only for one year that he could not be removed from the said office by the Magistrats arbitrarily and without just cause, such as incapacity immorality or malversation and therefore suspends the letters simpliciter and decerns.

ROBERT PRINGLE.

1st August 1755.

Dear Sir—I have read Provost Campbell's letter of the 5th of August and I think the Magistrats may stop the payment of Mr. Kempt's sallary and of the ffecs of Baptisms and Marriages in the meantime till the discussion of the Suspension. I am also of opinion that there is no occasion for entring upon a proof of Mr. Kempt's unfittnes or incapacity for the office And that the Act of Council dismissing him from his office will be reported independent of any such proof And I hope the Lord Ordinary will alter his Interloquitor, or if he does not I think the cause may be carried to the Inner House with probability of success.—I am, Sir, your humble servant,

THO. MILLER.

8th August 1755.

Mr. Peter Spark, Writer in Edinburgh.

8th August 1755.

Unto the Right Honourable the Lord Edgefelde The REPRESENTATION of the Magistrats and Councill of the BURGH of IRVINE

Humbly Sheweth—That in the process of Suspension at the instance of Mr. James Kempt late Teacher of English after the modern manner and Precentor of the Kirk within our burgh your Lordship 1st August 1755 having advised the debate ' finds that the Suspender having in consequence of the advertisement mentioned in the debate offered himself as ' a candidate for the office of Teacher of the English Schooll of Irvine and ' precentor and after tryal of his qualifications been admitted to that office ' and continued to serve in it for severall years altho' he was originally ' elected only for one year that he could not be removed from the said office ' by the Magistrats arbitrarily and without just cause such as incapacity ‘immorality or malversation and therefore suspends the letters simpliciter and decerns.’

The Magistrates and Council beg leave to [offer] a few considerations to your Lordship in hope of [some] alteration of the above interloquitor. And in the first place It appears from the Extract of Suspenders admission, dated 26 May 1747, ‘that he was appointed Teacher of English after the modern manner and Precentor of the Church of Irvine for one year after the date with a salary of £8 for teaching and £2:10 sh. for precenting in terms of the prop[osal] published in the Newspapers, providing that the Emoluments of Baptisms and Marriages thereby granted to Mr. Kempt should be accounted for and implied in part payment of the said salary.’

These are the words of the Suspenders commission, and with regard to his office of Precentor the Chargers cannot conceive upon what ground it is that the precentor of this burgh should hold his office upon any other terms than his predecessors and the precentors of all the burghs in Scotland have always held this office. It cannot be disputed that the precentors of the churches of Edinburgh, Glasgow, and in all the burghs of the kingdom are in the absolute disposall of the Magistrates and Council who may turn out their precentors and appoint others in their place at pleasure without assigning any reason for their choice. And the Chargers cannot find any reason why they should not have the same power in disposing of this office within their burgh as the Magistrates and Council of other burghs have. The terms of the Charger’s commission do not surely alter the nature of his office so as to make him independent of the pleasure of the Magistrates, at least after the expiry of one year. The Suspenders was pleased to lay hold of a dispute which sometime subsisted between the Magistrates and Council and Kirk Session touching the right of appointing the precentor and he was pleased to take the side of the Kirk Session and to plead that they only and not the Magistrates and Council could turn him out of that office.

But in answer to this the Chargers again referred to the Suspenders Act of Admission, from which it appears that he derived his office from the Magistrates and cannot therefore challenge their right. It is true he also obtained an act of the Kirk Session approving of his election to the office of precentor.

But your Lordship will please know that this act is likewise recalled by the Kirk Session, as Mr. Henderson is now appointed to that office by the joint acts of the Magistrates and Council and Kirk Session.

2dly, As to his other office of Teacher of English after the modern way the Chargers are equally at a loss to conceive upon what ground their Act of Council dismissing the Suspender from that office should be suspended.

Your Lordship will please observe that the office is not established in the burgh by any law or publick foundation which can oblige the Magistrates and Council to continue it longer than they think proper. It was sett up not many years ago when teaching of English after what is called the modern manner first came in vogue rather by way of experiment than with an intention to establish a perpetual office in the burgh, and therefore independant of every other consideration. The Chargers would willingly know from the Suspender upon what ground in law the Magistrates and Council can be decerned to continue such an office in the burgh and to pay a yearly sallary therefor any longer than they think proper.

The Magistrates and Council after tryall a good many years have found this modern manner of teaching English a mere farce and have therefore put an end to the office and to the sallary bestowed upon it, and have left it to the Parochial Schoolmaster or other private Teachers of English in the place to follow what method of teaching they think most proper. And they cannott conceive that it is in the power of any Court to decern them to continue the office and sallary of a Teacher of English after the modern way for the behoof of this Suspender unless he can show some publick Law or Act of the burgh which obliges them to keep up such a Teacher.

At the same time the Chargers admitt that if there is any obligation upon them whether expresst or implied in the Suspender's Act of Elcction whereby he can claim to be continued in this office or in the sallary therewith given for any continuance beyond their pleasure the same must be effectuell against the Chargers.

But instead of any such obligation in the Suspender's Act of Admission your Lordship will please observe that he is elected to the office of Teacher of English and Precentor of the Church for one year after the date, which is long since expired, and consequently he must be removeable at the absolute will and pleasure of the Magistrates and Council.

Where indeed the publick law has fixed the endurance of any office to be ad vitam aut culpam, such as the offices of all the Supreme Judges, Masters of Universities, Ministers and Parochial Schoolmasters, the Chargers will admitt that the Commission or Act of Admission to these offices ought to be always so explained as to import the endurance which the law has given them, but your Lordship will observe that the office in question does not fall under the above description.

It was lately introduced, and the Magistrates and Council are under no obligation either by law or from their own deed to continue the office longer than they find it to be for the advantage of the burgh, and therefore they must beg leave to insist upon the rule of law that where a person accepts of a private office or employment either from a Corporation or private person for the continuation of one year expressed in his Commission he cannott of right claim to be continued in the office after the expiry of that year, but for thereafter must depend upon the absolute will and pleasure of his employers; the obligation upon them is limited to one year, after that expires they are at entire freedom to continue the person in their employment or not.

If the Chargers had appointed a law agent for the affairs of the burgh for the space of one year or more years express'd in their Commission, or should appoint a jaylor, town officer, or teacher of French, or of Navigation and Book-keeping, with a sallary for the space of one year it would be extraordinary to mentain that when the obligation ceased by the expiry of the year, and because the Magistrates and Council voluntarily kept any of these persons in their office and [employment] for some years after, that thereby they became entitled to hold these employments and sallarys for life, so that the Magistrates and Council would be oblidge to continue them in the office and sallary unless they would bring prooff before your lordship of some incapacity immorality or malversation which disqualified these persons for holding such offices: With great submission these cases are entirely parallell to the present, for the Chargers can perceive no difference betwixt a Teacher of English after the modern way, which is not an office established by law, and a Teacher of French, a Dancing Master, or a Mistress of Sewing, all these are entirely dependant upon the pleasure of the Magistrates and Council except in so far as they have bound themselves down by their own act. The Suspende was pleased in the debate to quote two decisions: The first in the case of a Professor in the University of Edinburgh and the other of a Schoolmaster in the Burgh of Montrose. The Chargers' procurator has not been able to discover the first of these decisions. And at no rate can the parrallel lye betwixt a Professor of an University which is a publick office importing continuance for life and the present case of a private office and employment which has no establishment either by law or by any act of the burgh, and for the same reason the decision of Montrose will as little apply to the present case where the question was concerning the office of Schoollmaster of the burgh, which is also a publick office established by law and which the Magistrates and Council are obliged to keep up. And such a Schoolmaster the Chargers do also support within their burgh entirely distinct from the office which this Suspende lately enjoyed.

And 2dly, It appears from the decision in this case of Montrose, as collected in the Dictionary, voce publick officer, page 292, that the Act of Election of the Schoollmaster of Montrose was in generall terms, neither bearing ad vitam or during pleasure, which therefore cannot apply to the present case where the Act of Admission expressly limits the endurance to the space of one year. And it seems . . . absurd to maintain that when the obligation expired at the end of the year that it should become perpetuall by the continuance of the Suspende in the office for sometime longer.

The Chargers will still avoid entering upon the reasons which determined them to remove this Suspende founded upon his unfittness and incapacity in many respects for doing the business and duty of his office.

The whole inhabitants were so sensible of this that they had taken their children from him and put them to other schools so that for some time his school . . . only attended by a few poor schollars educated by the charity of the Kirk Session. So that the Chargers submit it to your lordship if it was consistent with the duty of the Magistrates and Council to continue a sallary payable by the burgh to a person who could do so little for it.

May it therefore please your Lordship to alter your former Interloquitor, and in respect of what is above sett furth to find the letters orderly proceeded.

According to Justice, etc.

RO. PRINGLE.

ANSWERS for Mr. JAMES KEMPT, Schoollmaster of the English Schooll of the BURGH of IRVINE, to the REPRESENTATION of the MAGISTRATES of the BURGH of IRVINE.

The Interlocutor of which the Magistrates complain was pronounced by your Lordship upon hearing parties at great length and advising Minutes of Debate containing in substance every thing that seems to be material in the Representation.

The Suspender was invited by a publick advertisement¹ in the two Edinburgh publick papers to offer himself to tryall for supplying a vacancy occasioned in the office of English Schoollmaster by the resignation of Mr. Baillie who then had it.

Upon a proper tryal the Respondent was found duely qualified and elected into the office of Schoolmaster by Act of Councill for the space of one year after the date of the Act,² whereby the Council also gave him all the right they had to the emoluments of Baptisms and Marriages which Mr. William Dickie had that day resigned, provisionally that the Respondent should be accountable in so far as these should happen to exceed the sallary of eight pounds sterling which was then provided to him as Schoolmaster. He was also elected Precentor at a yearly sallary of £2 : 10s. sterling ; and

It was declared ‘ That if the emoluments did not fully pay up both ‘ these sums to Mr. Kempt yearly the Treasurer should pay up the ballance
 ‘ out of the Town’s revenue, and this to be the rule of his payment untill
 ‘ the difference betwixt the Magistrates and Councill and Kirk Session be ‘ determined by the arbiters.’

These are the words of the Act of Council, and for understanding the nature of the difference therein referred to the Respondent begs leave to appeal to two Extracts of the Minutes of the Kirk Session of Irvine lying in process and marked No. 12. The one is dated the 12th and the other 19th July 1747. By the first the Minister reported to the Session a proposall of the Town Council for supplying a vacancy of English Schoolmaster Precentor and Session Clerk, and for ending amicably pro hac vice a dispute that had arisen between the Magistrates and Session concerning the right of presentation to the two offices last named. The particulars the Respondent has avoided, as your Lordship will no doubt think proper to read the

Acts themselves, only by the last dated 19th July, it's agreed Mr. Kempt should present and officiate as Session Clerk till the right of presenting be ended by the arbitration. The Respondent was therefore invested in both offices.

The Magistrates and Town Council took upon themselves to elect him into both; but the Respondent's right to the office of Precentor and Session Clerk did not rest upon the authority of the Act of Council, he was elected by the Kirk Session; and whether they or the Council have the legall title it is immaterial in the present question, as it cannott be denied but that the Kirk Session were and have been time immemorial in the possession and consequently as in possession fell to be preferred, that is, during the dependance of the arbitration, or till such time as the Magistrates shall declare the right of patronage in this Court.

If it was proper or necessary to prove the possession, the Respondent is willing to undertake the proof by the Records of the Session, tho' he can hardly think the Magistrates will call it in question, as the Acts of Council show these offices were not possessed by Mr. Baillie the former Schoolmaster, upon whose resignation the Respondent was elected.

It may suffice to notice that he continued to exerce the offices to the general satisfaction of the Magistrates Town Council and Inhabitants and also with the approbation of the Session from his admission in May 1747 to December 1754, that upon these revolutions which occur in the government of these little Burrows the Provest and the Schoolmaster of the Grammar Schooll had a freind of their own to provide, and this appeared to be a proper occasion for voting a demission per saltem of the Respondent from these three offices so as to make way for their own freind.

The apparent hardships of such an attack upon the Respondent, who had left Aberdeen upon the publick faith, who had been unanimously elected into all the three, who had continued for 8 years to discharge his duty without any complaint, and had endeavoured to avoid every ground of offence, induced many of the Council to differ in sentiments from the Provost, so that the demission was carried in the Council only by a single vote.

The Motion was first moved in Council¹ upon the Petition of Mr. William Cunninglame, the Teacher of the Grammar Schooll, to have a favourite of his own, Mr. William Henderson, appointed Precentor of the Church of Irvine, which the Act of Council of that date bears, the Council by a majority of votes complied with.

The next step was by another act of this date¹ to declare that it was and is their intention that Mr. Kempt is not to get any sallary as English Schoolmaster here after Whitsunday ensuing, and this they ordained to be notified by one of the officers leaving a copy of it at his dwelling-house.

Then about 8 days before Whitsunday the Respondent had notice given him to provide for himself and family, tho' the former Act of the 28th December related singly to the office of Precentor, whereof the sallary was no more than £2: 10s., the sallary of the Schoolmaster being by agreement £8 sterling. And as to this office he had no notice given of the Magistrates' pleasure except as abovesaid 8 days before the term of his removall.

The Respondent having thus stated the form and manner of his election, with the Acts of Council appointing his deprivation, he apprehends it will greatly shorten his answers to the grounds of the Representation.

The first argument is founded upon the Act of Council in May 1747, and from them the Chargers are pleased to affect a great difficulty to conceive upon what grounds the Precentor should hold his office independant of the pleasure of the Magistrates after expiration of the year limited by the Act of admission.

To this the answer is obvious, unless the Petitioners are resolved to doubt if two and three make five. The Session have in the nature of the thing the right to elect the Session Clerk. They have also the same right in law to chuse a Precentor; his sallary is paid out of those emoluments that pertain to the Session. The Magistrates had no earthly connection with the perquisites that are paid at Baptisms or Marriages as a recompence to the persons who are concerned in making the proclamations or providing for the Baptisms, but be it sic aut sicut it is in virtue of the Kirk Session's election the Respondent entered upon and enjoyed the Precentor's office, and of consequence he could not be legally dispossess'd by the Act of the Council without previously having the right declared to obviate this objection.

The Representers talk of an Act of the Kirk Session appointing Mr. Henderson to that office. The Respondent's doers, as they are not informed of the fact, need only observe till they have an opportunity of hearing from their client, that is no sort of evidence yet produced in support of the alleadgance and therefore they cannott agree to hold it upon the Chargers' word.

They have also been pleased to form another doubt with respect to the Respondents being entitled to suspend the Act of Councill depriving him of his other office of Teacher of English. And in illustration of their doubt they compare the office to that of a Dancing Master, Writing or ffrench Master, a Teacher of Navigation, and at length descend to the Mistress of a Sewing Schooll, or even to the jaylor's office, and then ask if they could insist to be continued longer than the Magistrates shall please to allow.

It is answered There is no occasion to argue from imaginary cases to explain the present. Here is no new creation of an office, for there has been for near a century past a Grammar Schooll and an English School in the Burgh and parish of Irvine, and the Respondent's procurators will be forgiven to doubt whether it would not be more conducive to the publick good to suppress the Grammar Schooll rather than the other, for without the help of Grammatical learning the Countrey may be supplied with good manufacturers farmers or tradesmen, and those for whose children the learned languages may be fitting and proper can be under no great difficulty to give them that education tho' the Irvine School should be suppressed. But the Respondent has no occasion to carry the argument so far. Here is a very aneient establishment which was judged always proper and the present Magistrates do not mean so much to suppress as to transferr the office to a greater favourite, and the question is if they have that power arbitrarily without assigning or being able to prove what the law calls a bene placitum rationale. In the first place as to argument drawn from the stile of the Commission. The Respondent apprehends there is nothing in it, for that it is only a consequence of the old maxim Nolumus leges Scoticanas mutare. But the effect and explanation must be gathered from the practise, and the Respondent believes the Commission to the Grammar Schoolmaster runs precisely in the same stile and yet the Magistrates do not pretend a power to turn him out without a better reason than to make way for another.

2dly, Tho' it should be supposed the Magistrates have a power to turn out the Schoolmaster at the end of the first year, it will not follow that the same liberty subsists during the remaining years of his incumbency.

What he intends is, the first year may be understood as a seasonable time for the Magistrates or these interested to judge of his qualifications, but the year being expired and no objections, his office must be understood according to the nature of the thing to continue ad vitam aut culpam. My Lord Fountainhall in reporting the case of the Town of Montrose against Strachan states the argument upon this head in its proper light as taken from the prejudice it must be to the nation to allow a diversity of Schoolmasters upon the whim of one sett of Baillies who have all of them freinds to provide. He says such a diversity of Masters and way of teaching will ruin any school. And that in the case of Mr. Andrew Massie, the Regent whom the Magistrates of Edinburgh had deposed, his Gift not bearing ad vitam, the Lords reponed him, as the Magistrates could show no good cause to remove him and appealed to the authority of Bartolas, That where offices stand upon the foot of pleasure even that must be a bene placitum rationale. The Magistrates in the case of Montrose insisted they were bound to give no reason, as the office wholly depends both as to sallary and admission upon the Town, and states the case, What if a Baron establish a Schoolmaster to serve within the bounds of his barony, will he pretend to sitt against his master's will? and a Burgh Royall cannott have less power. They also affirmed the Town had suffered exceedingly by the continuance of Strachan, as in place of 100 scholars they had not twenty now. But notwithstanding of all this reasoning the Lords ordained the Town to condescend on some rational grounds of their dissatisfaction either from immoralities, insufficiency, malversations, or unsuccessfulness in his way of teaching or discipline, and to give some evidence or instruction thereof that the Lords might consider whether they merited deprivation or not.

The Respondent has stated the case at greater length to satisfy the Lord Ordinary that the same chain of reasoning which the Chargers now make use of was found insufficient in that instance.

It's true the Magistrates of Irvine pretend to make a difference betwixt this office and the office of a Regent or Parochial School, as partys are always willing to admitt distinctions and differences which they think don't hurt them. But where is the law or reason for the distinction? The reason against an arbitrary deposition is the prejudice and ruin to schoolls and scholars from a diversity of masters and the manner of teaching. And tho' the Magistrates cannot suppress a parochial school or a colledge yet what is that to say upon the generall point of deposing or admitting masters ad libitum.

But 3dly, The stile of the Commission supports the Respondent's argument and shows it was not meant to limite his continuance to a year.

It has been already noticed the Respondent's sallary was proposed to be paid out of the emoluments of Baptisms and Marriages, and that there was then a subsisting difference betwixt the Magistrates and Councill and Kirk Session as to the right for naming the Precentor.

The Commission referring to these particulars appoints ' That if these ' emoluments do not fully pay up both these sums to Mr. Kempt yearly ' that the Treasurer shall pay up the ballance out of the Town's revenues ' and this to be the rule of his payment untill the difference betwixt the ' Magistrates and Councill and Kirk Session be determined by the ' Arbiters.' Comparing this with the advertisement it is impossible to doubt of the terms of Mr. Kempt's election, or that it was not understood he should hold the office quam diu bene gesserit.

The provision respects a future period, namely, till the issue of the Arbitration, and that period is not yet come.

Upon the whole the Respondent hopes he has fully obviated what appears material in the Representation that there is no sort of affinity betwixt this and any of the supposed cases that are therein putt He does not deny he may be turned out for such malversations as are referred to in the Interloquitor in the case of Montrose nor will he object to allow the Magistrates a proof of such as soon as they shall be pleased to give in a pointed condescendance.

In respect whereof, etc.

CHA. HAMILTON GORDON.

Edinburgh, 13th June 1759.—The Lords having advised this Petition with the Answers thereto Replies and Duplies, Find that the Magistrates and Town Councill of Irvine with concurrence of the Kirk Session have properly removed Mr. James Kempt from the office of Preecentor in the year 1755 and Decern. But find that Mr. Kempt is entitled to the bygone sallaries of said office till this date in respect of his having continued to officiate. But quoad the office of teacher of the English School they adhere to the Lord Ordinary's Interloquitor in respect the Councill for the Magistrates have produced no authority for insisting in a Reclaiming Petition as to that point.

ROB CRAIGIE, I.P.D.

Unto the Honourable Magistrates and Councillors of the Burgh of Irvine

The PETITION and COMPLAINT of Mr. WILLIAM CUNINGHAM, Master of the Grammar School of Irvine,

Humbly Sheweth—That I was chosen Master of the Grammar School about 36 years ago by the Magistrates and Councillors at the time, and have ever since continued in the exercise of that office to the satisfaction of the best judges without any competitor, untill of late that one Reid, a stranger from the North of Scotland, came here and had the assurance without so much as producing testificates or demanding your consent to ineroach upon my office as the established master of the Grammar School by setting up a School within the town and teaching Latine and other parts of education, and to impose upon the inhabitants by exacting extravagant prices for teaching as appears from his discharged accounts.

That tho' this stranger soon deserted his school yet it has been continued and kept up by Mr. Kempt a teacher of English, who daily taught Latine and other branches of knowledge, which I conceive are my proper province. And again one Lesly, another stranger, is lately come to town, pretending to take up and teach in the said school notwithstanding of the Provost's order to the contrary, whereby divisions and animosities amongst the inhabitants (which are so destructive of the trade and prosperity of the burrow) may arise, and I who have an assistant approved of by the Council and likewise another helper suffer great prejudice.

That I conceive Mr. Kempt's acting such a part is the more inexcusable that he is only intituled to teach English, and has no authority to teach any other language, and yet seems to arrogate to himself the liberty of teaching what he pleases in defiance of the Magistrates and Council against whom he has been so litigious as to maintain a law plea before the Lords of Session at Edinburgh for some years with respect to his continuance in the offices of Teacher of English and Precentor in the Church, which is at last finally determined against him by an Interloquitor of the 13th of June last.

May it therefore please the honourable Magistrates and Council to give me such relief in the premisses and such security against future ineroachments as you shall find just, according to Justice.

WILL. CUNINGHAM.

Irvine 16th October 1759 :—

Mr. George Leslie proposed before Baillie Reid one of the present Magistrates of this burgh to teach in Mary M'Kelvie her house, Greek, Latin, French, Arithmetic, Writing, Book-keeping, Navigation, and most other practical parts of the Mathematics, in order to the Registration of the same in books competent, in terms of an Act of Parliament in the 19 of his present Majesty's reign.

The Provost of Irvine's message to Mr. Leslie, the stranger who wants to sett up Schooll here, to tell him that his proposal to Baillie Reid in my absence was communicated to me yesternight when I came home and that I will take advice about it, and that in the meantime I discharge him upon his perill to teach in any Schooll in Town untill the Magistrates and Councill know better what he is and give their consent.

88. Memorial and Queries for the Magistrates of Irvine, in reference to the use of the Bridge.—12th August 1783.

MEMORIAL and QUÆRIES for the MAGISTRATES and COUNCIL of the BURGH of IRVINE.

THE Harbour of Irvine is situated upon the Water of Irvine about half a mile from the Burgh It is within the Royalty and under the direction of the Memorialists.

Many years ago the Memorialists' predecessors erected a Bridge over the Water of Irvine in order to form a communication betwixt the town and harbour.

In the neighbourhood of Irvine there are a number of Coal mines from whence a considerable quantity of Coal is exported.

In going from these Coal pits to the harbour it is necessary to cross the water, which was done at a ford below the Bridge, where there is easy access; but the Coal carriages either in carts or on horses' back were not allowed to pass the Bridge, on which posts was put up to prevent them.

In 1748 the Bridge was rebuilt at the sole expence of the Town, and since that time Coals have been allowed to be carried along the Bridge and until lately they were of no great detriment to it.

For sometime bypast the exportation of Coal and the heavy carriages for transporting it to the harbour have greatly increased, and the Bridge is thereby much damaged which occasions a heavy expence to the Memorialists to keep it in repair while the Coal carriers refuse bearing any proportion thereof. It is material for the Memorialists either to put a stop to the practice altogether, or to fall on some means for making the Carters bear a proportion of the expence of the Bridge And therefore Quæritur

1^{mo} Is it in the power of the Memorialists to prevent coals from being carried along the Bridge as was the case previous to the 1748, by erecting posts and otherways defending the avenues of the Bridge from Coals being carried along the same; or

2^{do} Is it in the power of the Memorialists to levy a voluntary Toll on the Bridge to assist them in repairing the same It was mentioned that the place they formerly crossed the water was att a ford below the Bridge The Memorialists do not propose shutting up the ford and forcing the carriers to go by the Bridge, but in case they or any of them chose rather to go by the Bridge than the ford, could not the Memorialists exact a duty for that liberty without incurring any blame?

Edinburgh 12th August 1783:

These are the queries referred to in my Opinion.
