DEDICATION

*To Cousin Josephine Patterson (Thompson) Zell, without whose initiative, enthusiasm and inspiration

PREFACE

In no way can one obtain a better idea of the character of the records it was originally hoped would be included in the present book than by reading carefully the following instructions which were sent to every descendant of Pioneer John Thomson whose address was known, on at least two occasions, namely, when the work of compilation was first started in 1912, and after the records then on hand were placed in type in 1916.

The information we wish to obtain on the family tree, arranged in the order of importance, is as follows:

FIRST—The Full Name (not merely initials) of every descendant of the Pioneer, the Full Name of the person married in each case, and the Full Name of each child born to every couple.

SECOND—The Dates of all births, marriages and deaths.

THIRD—The Present Address of every living descendant.

FOURTH—The Place of birth, marriage and death of every descendant.

FIFTH—A Brief Life Sketch of every descendant—giving only the important items, such as military service, training, education, profession and present occupation.

SIXTH—The Ancestry—with available dates—of each person who has married into any branch of our family. That is to say, we want the Complete available Ancestral Record of every descendant.

If in doubt as to exactly what is wanted, send all obtainable items of genealogical and biographical nature that would be of interest to any of the descendants of the Pioneer of our family.

It is appreciated that no one person can supply all of the information desired. It is hoped, however, that each person addressed will send all information obtainable and give Clues as to sources of additional information. Please send whatever you have whether it is little or much.

Notwithstanding the above seemingly explicit instructions, many descendants have expressed surprise that the records of certain other branches were more complete than those of their own branch—to which latter they may or may not have contributed. It can safely be stated again, as was stated in the circular letter sent to every descendant whose post office address was known in 1916, that in not one single branch are the records as they now stand too elaborate; in some branches they are quite complete, while in others they are too brief to be dignified by the title "record."

The compiler believes he is correct in stating that, without a single exception, every item of the above-described nature submitted by any descendant of John Thomson has been utilized in the present book—not always, however, in the exact form in which it was submitted. To all those contributing to these records, and especially to those few who have supplied material relating to branches or sub-branches other than their own, the compiler desires to express his sincere thanks and appreciation.

To the Guarantors, without whose aid the publication of the records would not have been accomplished, all members of the family are indebted for placing at the disposal of the publication committee sufficient funds to insure the prompt payment of the printer's and engraver's bills. For this purpose, a total of $900 was advanced to the committee (to be returned subsequently in the form of books or cash at their option) by the following Guarantors: Catherine Nelson Janney, J. Howard Neely, Edward S. Thomson, Lewis C. Thompson, Henry Walters, Lucian M. Zell, and T. Burd Zell.

Originally the intention was to keep the expense as low as possible and to publish the book without illustrations, but sufficient funds having been provided, it was decided to include a limited number of illustrations.

Descendants of John Thomson

Pioneer Scotch Covenanter

THE PRESENT RECORDS.

To the excellent preliminary compilation made by Theodore Samuel Thompson, of Thompsettown, Juniata County, Pa., by the aid of information obtained from his mother, Mrs. Charlotte Chambers (Patterson) Thompson, wife of William Thompson, Jr., son of William Thomson, Sr., and grandson of John Thomson, the Pioneer, must be attributed the completeness of the records herein presented. Without the T. S. Thompson notes which were added to and printed for distribution to the various branches of the family in 1887, by Heber S. Thompson of Pottsville, Schuylkill County, Pa., it would not have been possible for the numerous descendants scattered throughout the United States to have kept so fully in communication with each other.

To the oldest living descendant of the Pioneer, "The Queen of the Thompson Family," Mrs. Josephine Patterson (Thompson) Zell, daughter of Mrs. Charlotte Chambers (Patterson) Thompson, must be given full credit for the present compilation, for it was she who first called attention, in January, 1911, to the neglected resting place of the common ancestor, John Thomson, in the old Lock Graveyard near Thompsettown, which through her efforts has since been marked by an appropriate monument erected by the descendants. It was she who inaugurated and has kept alive the Thompson Family Assemblies, that have been held annually at Thompsettown since 1911.

To the records as they now appear, all branches of the family have contributed, but the work of co-ordinating the information collected for revising the "Thompson Family" booklet was undertaken by a committee, appointed at the second Assembly in 1912, consisting of Messrs. Edward S. Thomson, Thompsettown, Pa.; James B. Wylie, Washington, Pa., and Addams S. McAllister, New York, N. Y.

The financing of the undertaking, by obtaining advanced subscriptions for the publication and guarantees of the disposal of the requisite number of copies has been taken care of by a committee consisting of Mr. T. Burd Zell, Chairman; Miss Margaret Shippen Crowther, Mrs. Catherine Janney, Mr. Edward S. Thomson, and Miss Juniata M. Wilson. A list of the Guarantors, who practically acted as underwriters for the publication, appears in the Preface. At the 1916 assembly, at which the compilation of genealogical data was presented in proof form, appointment was made of a special committee to attend to the final details relating to the printing of the book and selection of the illustrations, consisting of Messrs. Addams S. McAllister, J. Howard Neely, Edward S. Thomson, and T. Burd Zell.

THOMPSON FAMILY ASSEMBLIES.

From the issue in January, 1911, by Mrs. Josephine Patterson (Thompson) Zell of a call for funds from his descendants for placing a substantial head-stone over the grave of Pioneer John Thomson, must be dated the beginning of the movement which resulted in the establishment of the Thompson Family Assemblies, as well as the erection of the John Thomson monument.

On March 25, 1911, an executive board was organized consisting of Mrs. Josephine P. Zell, president; Mr. Theophilus Thompson, Mr. Edward S. Thomson, Mrs. Wilson Lloyd, Miss Cora E. Thompson, Miss Clara J. Thompson, Mr. Banks C. McAllister, Mrs. Ella Neely, and Mrs. C. N. Janney, with Miss Annie G. Thompson as secretary, and Mr. Theophilus M. Thompson as treasurer of the John Thomson Fund.

Chief interest naturally centers in the First Reunion of the family on August 11, 1911, when the monument to the pioneer ancestor, John Thomson, was dedicated. Mr. Edward S. Thomson was master of ceremonies. Following a prayer by Rev. Dr. J. Gray McAllister, Louisville, Ky., the monument was presented to the descendants by Mrs. Josephine P. (Thompson) Zell, of Passaic, N. J., and accepted for the descendants by Mr. John A. Thompson, of Cleveland, Ohio. The dedicatory exercises of the morning were then brought to a close by a prayer by Mr. William Thompson Zell, of Reading, Pa. In the afternoon was held the organization meeting of the Thomson Assemblies, in which the following persons took part: Misses Helen and Eunice Skaer, Augusta, Kan; General James Addams Beaver, Bellefonte, Pa.; Miss Blanche Thompson, Logansport, Ind.; Miss Edith Crowther, Philadelphia, Pa.; Miss Mary Thompson, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. Josephine P. (Thompson) Zell, and Rev. J. Gray McAllister.

In presenting the monument Mrs. Zell stated that "We honor his name not simply because he was the progenitor of a large family, but that he was one of those who bravely stood for civil and religious liberty, for the equal rights of humanity, and for an open Bible, the results of which we Americans can enjoy to-day."

The monument bears the following inscription:

Advocate of the Open Bible,
Civil and Religious Liberty
Wives
—— Greenlee
—— Slocum
Sarah Patterson
Erected by a Grateful
Posterity, 1911.

Since 1911, the Assemblies have been held annually, the meeting place being furnished by Edward S. Thomson, Thompson-town, Pa., who has acted as master of ceremonies and treasurer, under the presidencies of Jerome N. Thompson, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; John A. Thompson, Cleveland, Ohio, and J. Luther Thompson, Mifflintown, Pa. Andrew Banks, Mifflintown, elected secretary at the first assembly, has held that office continuously since then, with Miss Clara J. Thompson, Mifflintown, as recording secretary. Rev. J. Gray McAllister, Louisville, has served as chaplain of the assemblies.

In addition to those who took part in the first assembly, the following persons have read papers at the later assemblies: James B. Wylie, Washington, Pa.; Miss Adele Thompson, Middlefield, Ohio, on the "Lost Uncle Isaac;" Walter M. Thompson, Topeka, Kan.; Mrs. W. H. Zeiders, Mifflintown, Pa.; Miss Clara J. Thompson, Mifflintown; J. Howard Neely, Mifflintown, and William Thompson Zell, Reading, Pa.

At each assembly, the descendants residing in the neighborhood of Thompsettown have provided a most bountiful dinner for those attending the meeting from far and near. Much of the preliminary work connected with the assemblies has fallen on the willing shoulders of the Committee on Invitations, of which Mrs. Catherine N. Janney, Miss Junie Wilson, and Miss Clara J. Thompson have been active members.

EARLY FAMILY HISTORY.

According to the "Thompson Family" booklet of 1887, John Thomson and his brother James, originally from Scotland, emigrated from County Antrim, Ireland, about 1735 to Cross Roads, Chester County, Pa., and moved to Hanover Township (which was then in Lancaster County and is now in Dauphin County, Pa.) near to Derry Church, still preserved and rebuilt in 1886. They were Scotch Covenanters and doubtless worshipped at Derry Church.

"From Hanover Township they moved to near (about 10 miles from) Harrisburg where John married his second wife, Miss Slocum; thence he moved to the farm three miles east of (what is now) Thompsettown, Pa. He and two wives are buried in a graveyard one and one-half miles east of Thompsettown.

"James Thomson settled along South Mountain (then Cumberland Valley and Cumberland County, but now Franklin County and Chambersburg) and his descendants reside there still.

"John Thomson came up the Susquehanna and Juniata Rivers and landed at the mouth of the river three miles east of what is now Thompsettown. His first wife was a Miss Greenleaf (or Greenlea), his second wife was Miss Slocum, and his third, Sarah Patterson. As his oldest daughter married a Greenleaf, the marriage of John Thomson with Miss Greenleaf may be a mistake, although marrying cousins was common."

In an old account book of Robert Thomson (born 1790; died 1866), son of William Thomson, of Thompsettown, Pa., there is a memorandum stating that "John Thomson, my grandfather came from Antrim, Ireland, and wore the Scotch kilt and bonnet until his death." The Thomson or Thompson family belonged to the Clan Campbell of Argyll. The first of the Campbell family to take the title of Argyll was a great-grandson of Neill Campbell, King Edward's Baillie of Lands in Argyll from Lochfyne to Kilmartin, who was created Lord Campbell by James II. Argyllshire is in the southwestern portion of Scotland just across the North Channel from County Antrim, which is in the extreme northeastern part of Ireland.

SCOTCH-IRISH CHARACTERISTICS.

Of John Thomson's ancestors we have no record other than the firmly believed, if not established, tradition that he was one of a number of Presbyterians who fled from Scotland to Ireland and subsequently came to America to escape persecution, oppressive taxation and political troubles. Family records were not kept in Ireland and no records from Scotland were brought to America. However, of the predominating characteristics of the people to whom he belonged we know much.

In "Scotch-Irish Pioneers in Ulster and America," Charles Knowles Bolton says: "New scenes must have quickened the mental processes of the transplanted Scot, and the greater community life enlarged the social instinct. The Episcopalians, all-powerful in government, and the Roman Catholics, strong in numbers, pressed in upon every side, and forced the Presbyterians to an exercise of their loyalty and patience, while the spirit of proselyting which existed everywhere in Ulster sharpened their wits. Under a century of these social and religious influences, the Scotch character must have changed."

"It was," said Mr. Morrison, in his life of Jeremiah Smith, "the sternness of the Scotch Covenanter, softened by a century's residence abroad amid persecution and trial, wedded there to the pathos and comic humor of the Irish."

The transplanted Scot was more versatile and more fertile in resource, less clannish and less pugnacious, or in other terms, a man of wider vision. His beliefs were consistent and well defined. Against the Puritan's town meeting, the Scotch-Irishman placed the legislature; for the congregation he substituted the assembly; instead of laying stress upon personality, he emphasized partnership.

Whatever of military science the Scotch-Irish did not learn at the siege of Londonderry, they acquired in the French and Indian wars in the New World. Their rugged life fitted them to endure camp and march; and their inborn hostility toward England led them to forge to the front in the early weeks of the year 1775 when many good men of the old English race wavered in the face of war with Great Britain.

An excellent resumé of the causes leading to the emigration of the Scotch Covenanters, first to Ireland and then to America, was given in a paper read before the Thompson Family Assembly in 1916, by Mr. J. Howard Neely, who stated that "during the reigns of Charles I, Charles II and James II, bigotry and despotism marked their conduct towards the Presbyterians, and persecutions in Ulster and Scotland were employed to break down the Presbyterian faith and establish the Church of England over Scotland." The meetings of the Covenanters were denounced as seditious and to frequent them or to hold communion with those frequenting them was forbidden on pain of death. For this reason the Covenanters abandoned the land of their birth and sought an asylum among their countrymen in Ulster, in the north of Ireland. However, the British government soon began to burden the Scotch in Ireland with taxes and exactions upon their industry and trades, and the large landed proprietors demanded extravagant rents for their lands on which long time leases had expired, resulting in two great Scotch-Irish migrations to America, the first from 1717 to 1750, during which time Pioneer John Thomson came to Pennsylvania, and the second from 1771 to 1773, immediately preceding the Revolution in America against British misrule.

As Mr. Neely truly said, "the industry, frugality, energy, resource and endurance fitted well the Scotch-Irish to meet the conditions in America. This race in enterprise, intelligence, education, patriotism, religious and moral character, the maintenance of civil and religious liberty, in all things that have contributed to the economic, social and religious life, has been surpassed by none other."

EARLY PROPERTY OWNERSHIP.

In his "memorandum of ancestors" Robert Thompson, already referred to, showed that Pioneer John Thomson came to America in 1730, not 1735. He states that "on the 2nd day of May, 1768, grandfather John Thomson sold his estate in Hanover Township, then Lancaster County, Pa., now Dauphin County. He then purchased a warrant for land granted to Samuel Sturgeon of the same place, lying in the upper end of Pfoutz Valley, which with other purchases included all the lands of Rumbaugh up to the Micheltree place (old graveyard). The deed from Sturgeon to Thomson is dated May 2, 1768. John Thomson died on the place now owned by John P. Thompson."

On page 870 of the "History of Susquehanna and Juniata Valleys in Pennsylvania," published in 1866 by Everets, Peck & Richards, Philadelphia—a book containing much information of interest to the descendants of John Thomson, and frequently referred to herein, it is stated that "John Thomson, or Thompson as later spelled, from whom most of the family of that name in Juniata County, Pa., descended, was one of several brothers who resided in Paxton Valley, and about 1768 or 1769, came up the Juniata with his family and purchased a tract of 200 acres of land (which had been previously warranted) about three miles from the present borough of Thompsontown. His name is not mentioned in the tax rolls of Fermanagh Township until 1769, when he is assessed on 200 acres (now owned by Uriah Shuman). Robert, his eldest son, was also assessed on 200 acres adjoining and below Lockport.

William, the second son of John Thomson, in 1785, sold his farm adjoining his father's farm in Pfoutz's Valley and purchased the tract on which Thompsontown was located. He also bought the "Happy Banks of Goshen," a farm of 400 acres three miles west of the present site of Thompsontown on the south side of the Juniata River, and also the lands (about 400 acres), mills, etc., at what is now Mexico, originally owned by Capt. James Patterson.

Thomas and Peter Thompson, the youngest sons of John Thomson, inherited the homestead of their father and on Feb. 28, 1807, they purchased 84 acres of land of Frederick Keller, which had been patented in two tracts by Isaac Yost—one named Green Plains and the other Rivulet Grove, which two tracts they sold in 1809 to Andrew Thompson, farmer. Thomas died a bachelor and the old farm which then embraced 433 acres passed to Peter.

Property tax and transfer records show that Pioneer John Thomson owned about 500 acres of land partly on the Juniata River and adjoining Pfoutz's Valley. His sons owned all the lands west along the Juniata to a line three-quarters of a mile west of what is now Thompsontown, the plots containing about 1,200 acres. In an easterly direction from Thompsontown, Pa., there were seven adjoining farms owned by the Thompson family.

HOMESTEAD OF PIONEER JOHN THOMSON.

According to Mr. William Albanus Logan Thompson (who was born 1848 at the Peter Thompson homestead, about three miles from the site of what is now Thompsontown, Juniata County, Pa.), the home of Pioneer John Thomson was about 40 rods south of the old stone house erected in 1810 by Peter Thomson, in the upper end of Pfoutz Valley, in what is now Juniata County, near the Perry County line, which runs just east of the farm. It was near a spring that was shaded by a big oak tree. A stone fence built by John Thomson, the pioneer, surrounded the meadow. The remains of this fence now form a pile of stone by the side of the road leading south to the river.

By his will, John Thomson left his farm of 412 acres to his sons James, Thomas and Peter. James died young, while Thomas died a bachelor and Peter inherited all of the land.

In 1810 Peter Thomson built the old stone house and here most of his children were born. At his death his son John Peter bought the interests of the other heirs and kept the old homestead until 1865 when it was sold to Judge Samuel Hepburn, of Carlisle, who sold it on Mar. 4, 1869, to Uriah Shuman.

SPELLING OF THE FAMILY NAME.

In the early records the name of the family was spelled Thomson, and the wording used on the house erected by the Pioneer's son, who located at what is now Thompsontown, Juniata County, Pa., was "This House Built by W. & J. Thomson, 1798." Even at a date earlier than this the records show a different spelling of the name. There are now in existence commissions to the son who built the above house, as second lieutenant, on May 3, 1775, in Cumberland County, Pa., Associators; first lieutenant on May 1, 1783, in Cumberland County militia and captain on July 11, 1792, in Mifflin County militia, in each of which the name is spelled William Thompson. Doubtless the records kept by the family showed how the individual spelled his own name while the other records indicated how other people believed the name should be spelled.

On the mill at Mexico, Juniata County, Pa., appears the following: "New Mexico Mill Built by William Thomson, 1810."

There is now in the possession of the descendants of William Thomson a note book owned by his son James, who had a perfect right to take pride in his excellent penmanship. This book was started by him on May 23, 1799, at which time he entered his name as James Thomson. On Jan. 18, 1800, he wrote James Thompson for the first time in this book, as his descendants now believe, because the letter p added to the grace of his autograph. He is given credit for setting the fashion among the family for spelling the name Thompson.

WIVES OF JOHN THOMSON.

On page 483 of Vol. III, Third Series of "Notes and Queries," by W. H. Egle, appears some items relating to the Thomson family prepared by Mrs. Charlotte Chambers (Patterson) Thompson (born 1794; died 1863), widow of William Thompson (descendant No. 33). In these it is stated that John Thomson, the Pioneer, "married first a Miss Greenlee, a daughter of James Greenlee of Hanover Township, then Lancaster County, now Dauphin County, Pa., and connected with the Greenlees of Little Britain Township, Lancaster County, and thus with the Baldridges and Achinsons. Captain Greenlee, the Indian fighter, of Westmoreland County, Pa., was of this family. By this marriage, John Thomson had the following children: Margaret, Sarah, Elizabeth, William, Robert, Susan, Jane, and Isaac. Margaret Thompson married a Mr. Greenleaf. The latter was killed by the Indians near Sunbury, Pa. The children of the family moved west."

In his will dated Mar. 5, 1779, John Thomson makes no mention of a daughter Margaret, but refers to his daughter Mary. According to all evidence at hand, this daughter married William Greenlee, son of James Greenlee, and he it was who was killed by the Indians in Pennsylvania. His descendants went first to the Southern and Western parts of Pennsylvania and later to Ohio.

One of the sons of William and Mary (Thompson) Greenlee, Robert Greenlee, who was born in 1773 in Juniata County, Pa., and was 7 years old when his father was killed, lived for nine years with William Thomson (doubtless his mother's brother), and nine years in Stone Valley, after which in 1798, he moved to Venango County, Pa. In 1892 there was in the possession of Theodore Samuel Thomson, a grandson of the above William Thomson, the original "power of attorney" given by Jean Greenlee of Washington County, Pa., under date of Oct. 27, 1795, to William Thomson, "to collect all moneys due her from the estate of William Greenlee then in the hands of James Greenlee, the administrator." This James Greenlee was doubtless the oldest son of William and Mary (Thompson) Greenlee who is known to have been born about 1754 in Pennsylvania, and died 1840 in Venango County, Pa. The witnesses to the "power of attorney" were Isaac Kerr and Robert Wylie. Doubtless the last named was the husband of her mother's sister, Jean Thomson.

Concerning the accuracy of the statement that John Thomson's first wife was a daughter of James Greenlee of Hanover Township, in what was then Lancaster County, Pa., there seems considerable doubt, although this James Greenlee did have a daughter Mary who married a Mr. Thompson. The doubt expressed is based partly on the assumption that the marriage of an uncle (William Greenlee) with his niece (Mary Thomson) would not have been sanctioned, although the marriage of cousins was of common occurrence at that date. While it is highly improbable that John Thomson's first wife was a daughter of James Greenlee—in which case, his daughter, Mary Thomson, married her uncle William Greenlee—yet it seems probable that John Thomson's first wife was James Greenlee's sister—in which event, Mary Thomson's husband was her first cousin.

James Greenlee, the father of Mary Thomson's husband (and probably the brother of the first wife of Pioneer John Thomson), was born in the north of Ireland about 1718, and certainly was not the grandfather of, say, William Thomson, son of John Thomson, who was born in 1752, but he probably was his uncle. He was certainly not the grandfather of Mrs. Mary (Thomson) Greenlee, whose son James Greenlee was born about 1754, but was probably both her uncle and the father of her husband, William Greenlee.

James Greenlee, the Pioneer, died in Hanover Township, Lancaster County, Pa., in 1778, only one year earlier than the death of Pioneer John Thomson. He is said to have been a son of Alexander Greenlee. The date of his emigration is not known, but his name appeared as early as 1738 on the tax list of Hanover Township, Lancaster County, Pa. He may have come to this country with John Thomson, probably then or subsequently his brother-in-law. In his will dated Mar. 8, 1772, he mentioned his wife, his oldest son William, his sons James, Alexander, and Robert, and his daughter Mary Greenlee. Of the descendants of his sons James, Alexander and Robert, we have no record. His daughter Mary married a Mr. Thompson, but concerning him and his descendants, we have no information. She was certainly not the first wife of Pioneer John Thomson, because she was evidently unmarried in 1778 when her father referred to her as Mary Greenlee. The oldest son of James Greenlee married Mary Thomson, the oldest daughter of John Thomson, and the lines of many of their descendants have been traced to the present generation.

According to the notes of Mrs. Charlotte Chambers (Patterson) Thompson, referred to above, John Thomson's second wife was a "Miss Slocum, by whom he had a son John, who moved from Juniata Valley to Butler County, Pa." To what family she was connected is not known. At the taking of the first United States census in 1790, there were only three heads of families named Slocum in the State of Pennsylvania, all in Luzerne County, namely, Ebenezer, Ruth, and William.

According to Mrs. Charlotte Chambers (Patterson) Thompson, the third wife of John Thomson was Sarah Patterson, a daughter of James Patterson. She became the mother of Andrew Thomson who married Jane Stewart; of Peter Thomson who married Mary Patterson, and of Thomas Thomson. Mrs. Charlotte C. Thompson makes no mention of James Thomson, referred to in the will of John Thomson, and none of the "child yet unborn," when the will was written in Mar., 1779. Mary (Patterson) Thomson was the daughter of Andrew and Jane (Purdy) Patterson. Mrs. Charlotte Chambers (Patterson) Thompson, who was herself a granddaughter of Capt. James Patterson, Jr., and Mary (Stewart) Patterson, and a great-granddaughter of Capt. James Patterson, Sr., and Susan (Howard) Patterson, makes no mention of any relationship between her family and the third wife of John Thomson or the wife of his son Peter Thomson, and it is possible that none existed, although Col. Samuel Evans, who probably obtained his information from Mrs. Charlotte Chambers (Patterson) Thompson, is authority for the statement that Sarah (Patterson) Thompson was a daughter of Capt. James Patterson, Sr. This statement has added weight by reason of the fact that Capt. James and Susan (Howard) Patterson had a daughter named Sarah.

WILL OF PIONEER JOHN THOMSON.

By far the most reliable source of information concerning the immediate descendants of John Thomson is his will, which was written Mar. 2, 1779, in Fermanagh Township, in what was then Cumberland, but is now Juniata County, Pa., and was probated in Cumberland County, Nov. 26, 1779. The original is at Carlisle, Pa., which was then as now, the county seat of Cumberland.

I, John Thomson, of Fermanagh Township and Cumberland County, being sick in body, but of sound memory, blessed be God, do this 2nd day of March, in the year of our Lord 1779, make and publish this my last Will and Testament, in manner following:

1. I do give to my son Robert one coat and jacket, likewise to John one coat and jacket, also to my sons Isaac and William five pounds each. I also give and bequeath to my daughters Mary and Sarah five pounds each, and to Jean one horse and saddle, one cow, one bed, suitable furniture and five pounds money. I also allow my daughters Elizabeth and Susanna, if they conduct themselves prudently until they are capable of making a choice in marriage agreeable to those who shall have the oversight over them, to share equal with Jean.

I do give and allow to my dear wife the use and benefit of my estate while she remains a widow, to live upon with the children and to give them schooling and learning as they come to be capable to receive it, but if otherwise that she, when a suitable opportunity is offered doth marry again, she is then to have no claim to any interest in my land, or movable estate, further than to share equally with my daughters now living with me.

And I do give all my land to my sons James, Thomas and Peter, to be and remain their property with the rest of my household after every one hath got their share, but my son Andrew I allow to be put to a trade and after he hath sufficient learning and while learning his trade, he is to have necessary clothing out of my estate. If any of these heirs doth decease under the age of eighteen years, their part is to remain equally divided amongst the other heirs then living on the premises.

I also allow to my son Andrew when come to twenty-one years of age to have one horse and saddle out of my estate, and James to have one horse and saddle when come to twenty-one years of age.

I do also to the child unborn whether son or daughter, when come to the age of maturity, to have equal with Thomas and Peter.

I do also allow my daughters Jean, Elizabeth and Susanna each one chest and a spinning wheel.

I do make and ordain my wife and son Robert to be executors of this, my last Will in trust for the intents and purposes of this my last Will contained, to take care and see the same performed according to my true intent and meaning.

In Witness Whereof, I have set my seal to this my last Will and Testament this 5th day of March in the year of our Lord 1779, in the presence of William McAllister and Thomas Palloy.

NUMERICAL DESIGNATION OF DESCENDANTS.

As will be noted, each descendant has been designated by a number for convenience in cross referencing and ease in identification. For all purposes other than relationship determination, which is explained fully below, the designating numerals may well be considered as having been arbitrarily chosen in accordance with the plan practically universally employed of designating each descendant by a number when his or her name first appears in the records and subsequently referring to this descendant by the number already assigned.

A little study will show that in the present records the number assigned to each descendant has been selected in accordance with the assumed order of his or her birth in his or her immediate branch of the family. For example, the numerals 3742 would be given to the second child of the fourth child of the seventh child, of the third child of Pioneer John Thomson. This individual would belong to the fourth generation (four numerals) below the Pioneer. A person designated by the numerals 37156 would belong to the fifth generation below the Pioneer. The parent (No. 3715) is the first cousin of the one bearing the numerals 3742, because they have a common grandparent, designated by the number 37.

It should be especially noted by those inclined to use the numerals not only for purposes of identification (for which all systems of numbering are equally suitable), but also for relationship determination (for which the method herein employed is particularly advantageous), that absolutely no error is introduced into the relationship determination even when the assumed order of birth in a family is not the true order, provided only that the designating numerals when once assigned to the members of a family are adhered to consistently.

For the benefit of those familiar with the arbitrarily-selected, continuously-numbered system of designation, it should be stated that in the following pages all of the records of all of the descendants of an individual are covered completely, to and including the present generation consistently throughout, before any record whatsoever is given of the descendants of his or her younger brother or sister.

If the method of numerical designation be looked upon as being purely "decimal"—with the unnecessary decimal point omitted—it will be seen that the numbers have been arranged in a perfectly logical, consecutive order throughout the book, and no difficulty whatsoever will be encountered in locating at once the record of any descendant whose designating numeral is known. See "Index to Associated Family Ancestors," page 315.

BRANCH NO. 1.

1—Mary Thomson, born probably before 1734, died after March, 1779, and before May, 1780. Married William Greenlee, son of James Greenlee, who was born about 1718, in the North of Ireland and died between March 18, 1772, and Oct., 1778, in Hanover Township, Lancaster County, Pa. James Greenlee was said to have been a son of Alexander Greenlee—See the "Greenlee Genealogy," by R. S. and R. L. Greenlee, Chicago—The date of James Greenlee's emigration is not known but his name appears as early as 1738, on the tax list of Hanover Township, Lancaster County, Pa., where he spent the remainder of his days. In his will dated March 18, 1772, he refers to his wife, but not by name, to his oldest son William Greenlee, his son Alexander Greenlee, his son James Greenlee, his daughter Mary Greenlee, to his son William's oldest son James Greenlee, and to his son Robert Greenlee, whom he appointed his sole executor. The appraisal of the estate was made in Oct., 1778. William Greenlee, the oldest son, was born in Ireland. Possibly it was he, whose name appears on the roll of Captain John Clark's Company, attached to Colonel Potters, Second Battalion of Northumberland County Associators, in the Revolutionary service in 1776, see "History of Susquehanna and Juniata Valleys in Pennsylvania," p. 95—William Greenlee was killed by the Indians in Pennsylvania in May, 1780. According to traditions in the Thompson family, the man who married Mary Thompson "was killed by the Indians at Sunbury, Northumberland County, Pa.; the children of the family went west." Mary (Thomson) Greenlee died in Pennsylvania before 1780 and William Greenlee was soon to be married a second time when he was killed. He resided at Penn's Creek, near Swisher's Run in what is said to have been Juniata County, but was doubtless then Northumberland County, and is now Snyder County, Pa. Issue (1) James, (2) John, (3) Sarah, (4) Mary, (5) Elizabeth, (6) Susan, (7) Jane, (8) William, (9) Robert.

11—James Greenlee, referred to in the will of his grandfather as the eldest son of William Greenlee, was born about 1754, in Pennsylvania; died Sept., 1840, at the home of his son, James Patterson Greenlee. He was a miller and farmer; in politics a Democrat; in religion a Presbyterian; raised in French Creek Township, near Franklin, Venango County, Pa. He married Ann Patterson, who was born at Utica, Pa.; died in 1839, near Franklin, Venango County, Pa., daughter of Peter Patterson. Issue (1) William, (2) John, (3) Sarah, (4) James Patterson, (5) Margaret, (6) Elizabeth, (7) Samuel.

111—William Greenlee, born Jan. 5, 1785, or 1796, near Franklin, Pa.; died July 10, 1862 or 1864, near Franklin. He was a farmer, a Democrat, and belonged to the United Presbyterian Church. He married

BRANCH NO. 3

3—William Thomson was born in Chester County, Pa., “in the year of our Lord 1752, January 2nd”—taken from his own personal Bible, now in the possession of Mrs. Catherine Nelson (Wilson) Janney (3814). He died at Thompsontown, Juniata County, Pa., Jan. 3, 1813, “in the 58th year of his age”—taken from his ledger gravestone in the family graveyard, 1½ miles from Thompsontown. This village was laid out by him in 1790 upon land purchased in 1785 from Michael Quiggle. Upon taking possession of the property he built thereon a store, a grist-mill, and a saw-mill. Near the grist-mill he erected later a stone dwelling house, still in the possession of his descendants, the corner stone of which bears the inscription “This House Built by W. and J. Thomson, 1798.” William Thomson owned a farm near what is now Mexico in Walker Township, Juniata County, Pa. He built at Mexico, a stone flour-mill on which there are two tablets containing the following inscriptions, “New Mexico Mill, Built by William Thomson, 1810” and “Virtue, Liberty and Independence Be Thine. Success to Farmers and Mechanics.” The farm near Mexico was inherited by his son Samuel. His son John inherited a tract of land opposite Van Dyke Station, patented as the “Happy Banks of Goshen” on account of its fertility, which was purchased from the heirs of Joseph Poultrety in 1804. William Thomson’s son, Isaac, was given by him a farm in Lost Creek Valley, “adjoining the Hugh McAlister property called Hugh’s Fancy.” Some interesting facts concerning the enterprises in which William Thomson (or Thompson, as later spelled) was engaged and the disposal made of his taxable industries, are given in the tax records of Fermanagh Township, Juniata County, Pa. From 1785 to 1813, he was taxed on a grist-mill at Thompsontown and from 1809 to 1813 on one at Mexico; he was taxed on a fulling-mill from 1809 to 1813, a distillery from 1809 to 1813, a saw-mill from 1790 to 1813 and on a store from 1801 to 1813 and a second store in 1812. After his death in 1813, these properties passed to his sons, who were taxed as follows: James and Samuel, grist-mill, 1814-31; William and Robert, grist-mill, 1814-31 and 1823-31; James and Samuel, fulling-mill, 1814-31; William and Robert, distillery, 1814, and 1823-31; William and Robert, saw-mill, 1814-22 and 1823-31; John, saw-mill, 1817-24; James and Samuel, saw-mill, 1817-31; William and Robert, store, 1814-27, James and Samuel, store, 1814-23. Some idea of the difficulty encountered in establishing the military record of early ancestors can be gained from the fact that in the Index to the Fifth Series of the Pennsylvania Archives (which Index in Part 1 and Part 2 is Vol. XV of the Sixth Series of Pennsylvania Archives) there are exactly 100 references under the name of William Thompson, showing conclusively that there were many of that name in the Revolutionary Service. According to Dr. William H. Eagle, editor of the Pennsylvania Archives, our William Thompson was chosen on July 12, 1774 a member of the committee on Observation, Cumberland County—see Penn. Archives, Second Series, Vol. XIV, p. 371—he was appointed second lieutenant of a company of foot, second division, Fourth Battalion of Associators of Cumberland County, on May 3, 1775, and was made captain of a company in the Fifth Battalion of Cumberland County Associators in July, 1776, in service in the New Jersey Campaign of that year.—See Penn. Archives, Second Series, Vol. XIV, p. 372. There is now in the possession of his great-granddaughter, Josephine P. Thompson (3312), the original of William Thompson's commission as second lieutenant and photographic copies of it have been obtained by other descendants. On account of his service in the Revolution, his descendants are eligible to membership in the "Sons of the Revolution" or the "Daughters of the Revolution"—see the sketch of his great-great-granddaughter, Henrietta Baldwin (34524). That he continued to hold the confidence of his fellow citizens is shown by the facts that at about the close of the Revolutionary War, on May 1, 1783, the Supreme Executive Council of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania gave him a commission as lieutenant of a company of foot in the Seventh Battalion of Militia of County of Cumberland, and, on July 11, 1792, Thomas Mifflin, Governor of Pennsylvania, gave him a commission as captain of the Fifth Company, of Foot in the Lost Creek Battalion of Militia, County of Mifflin. These two original commissions, dated 1783 and 1792—in times of peace—are now in the possession of Edward Shippen Thomson (3383). Among the papers now in the possession of the family of Edward Patterson Thompson (331) is one showing the activity of William Thompson in the public welfare up to the year of his death, as follows: "Headquarters, Meadville, Oct. 20th, 1812. I do certify that Captain William Thompson has served six days as a member of a General Court Martial, ordered by Brigadier General Tannyhill—signed by—(Gen.) James Irwin, President. William Thompson was married on March 30, 1780, by Rev. Alexander Dobbin of Gettysburg, Pa., to "Jane Mitchell of Letterkenny." (See p. 26, History of Adams County, Pa., published 1886 by Warner Beers & Co., Chicago.) According to Hugh Nelson McAllister (343) son of Sarah (Thompson) McAllister and grandson of Jane (Mitchell) Thompson. Jane Mitchell "was born within one mile of Strasburg, now Franklin (then Cumberland) County. Her father was killed by the Indians in a harvest field during the French and Indian War (1754-60) near what is now called St. Thomas, seven miles west of Chambersburg." Letterkenny is a township of Franklin County, Pa., of which Strasburg is the chief post office. The township extends from say 2 to 15 miles north of Chambersburg and from say 5 to 25 miles west of Shippensburg. Among the earliest of land titles in this township was that of James Mitchell, dated July 10, 1752. On May 9, 1754, Joseph Mitchell and William Mitchell were referred to as "neighbors" of John Maughan in that township. On p. 169 of the "History of Franklin County, Pa." . . . it is stated that "William Mitchell, living in Conococheague was shot and killed by a band of Indians while at work in the harvest field." On p. 59 of the "History of Cumberland County, Pa." (published in 1886 by Warner Beers & Co., Chicago) appears an account of an Indian raid during which four people were captured and ten people killed in a harvest field near Shippensburg on July 19, 1757. Among the killed were Joseph, James, and William Mitchell. According to Robert Thompson (35) son of Jane (Mitchell) Thompson, his father William Thompson "married Jane Mitchell, a daughter of James Mitchell in Cumberland Valley near Chambersburg." A sister of Jane Mitchell, Sarah Mitchell, married Robert Thompson (5) brother of William Thompson. It is probable that it was another sister, Agnes Black, who in 1812 wrote from Blount County, Tenn., to her "brother" William Thompson, at Thompsontown, Pa. This Agnes was not a daughter of Pioneer John Thompson—as stated on p. 871 of the "History of Juniata and Susquehanna Valleys in Penn.," and was not a sister but a sister-in-law of William Thompson. She may have married one of the sons of John and Abigail Black who went from Perry County, Pa., to Tennessee. (See p. 1108 of the history just mentioned.) Jane (Mitchell) Thompson died Feb. 9, 1813, "in the 57th year of her age" one month and six days after the death of her husband from camp fever (typhoid-pneumonia) which they both contracted from their soldier sons, William and Isaac, who recovered. They are buried in the Thompson family graveyard one and one-half miles east of Thompsontown. Children of William and Jane (Mitchell) Thompson (1) John "Goshen," (2) James, (3) William, (4) Sarah, (5) Robert, (6) Isaac, (7) Jane, (8) Elizabeth, (9) Samuel.

31—John Thompson, "Goshen John," was born Dec. 28, 1780; died Oct. 2, 1855. In 1809 he settled on the old Poultney tract on which was subsequently located the Van Dyke Station. This tract was known as the "Happy Banks of Goshen," and he was known as "Goshen John" or "John Goshen" to distinguish him from "Bridge John" Thompson, who lived below Thompsontown. John Goshen Thompson married Abigail North (born July 15, 1783; died Dec. 24, 1852). Issue (1) Jane, (2) Rachel, (3) Martha, (4) Wilhelmina, (5) William, (6) John.

311—Jane Thompson, married twice: first, William (or Joseph) Montgomery; second John Lukens of Port Royal—no data—see 533, 542 and 572—see also "History of Juniata and Susquehanna Valleys in Pennsylvania," p. 854—A certain John Lukens who died in Port Royal, Sept., 1885 was a son of Gabriel, grandson of Abraham and great-grandson of John Lukens of Juniata County, Pa.

312—Rachel Thompson, born Aug. 4, 1801; died March 22, 1842, in Milford Township, Juniata County, Pa. Married Jan. 8, 1835, William Sterrett, of Lancaster County, Pa. (born Jan. 25, 1801; died Jan. 25, 1889) son of James and Mary (McClure) Sterrett and grandson of James Sterrett, Sr. James Sterrett, Sr., lived near Mount Joy, Lancaster County, Pa. He had sons James, Jr., Robert, Charles, and William—see "History of Juniata and Susquehanna Valleys in Pennsylvania," p. 746. Robert removed to Mifflin County and had sons, David and John. Charles removed to New York. William remained in Lancaster County. The children of James Sterrett, Jr., who married Annie Kennedy were James, Samuel (who died near Academia in 1849) Polly (wife of Alexander Patterson) Robert (married to Margaret Patterson, daughter of John (died in 1862) Sarah, and William (married a daughter of John Goshen Thompson). The sons of Robert are Judge James P. Sterrett of the Supreme Court and Dr. John P. Sterrett, of Pittsburg. The statement that James Sterrett, Jr., "married Annie Kennedy" is probably a mistake because it was Dr. John P. Sterrett whose "wife was Annie Kennedy of Chester County, Pa." See "History of Juniata and Susquehanna Valleys," p. 606. James Sterrett, father of Robert and William Sterrett, purchased a tract of land in Milford Township, Juniata County, Pa., taken up in part by John Lyon, Sr., in 1767 and John Lyon, Jr., in 1793. Robert Sterrett married one of the daughters of John Patterson (the merchant) by his wife Isabella (Lyon) Patterson, daughter of James Lyon, son of John Lyon, Sr.—see "History of Juniata and Susquehanna Valleys," p. 760, 551 and 571. In 1773 James Sterrett was assessed on 600 acres in Armagh Township, Mifflin County, Pa. The first mill in the east end of Kishacoquillas Valley, Mifflin County, Pa., was erected in 1816 by John Sterrett, who died Nov. 7 of that year; this was sold by his widow Rebecca (Woods) Sterrett to his nephew John Sterrett, son of Robert Sterrett. Children of William and Rachel (Thompson) Sterrett, (1) John Thompson, (2) James A. McClure, (3) William North, (4) Robert.

3121—John Thompson Sterrett, born on July 16, 1836, at Milford Township, Juniata County, Pa. (died on Thursday, Dec. 14, 1911, at the home of Mrs. John Brown Mitchell, Lewistown, Pa., aged 75 years, 4 months and 28 days). He attended the Port Royal Academy. Served as Sergeant in Company A, First Pennsylvania Volunteer Cavalry. He married twice; first on Jan. 16, 1866 at Locks Mills, Pa., Margaret Isabella Sterrett (born in Mifflin County, Pa.; died Dec. 18, 1875 in Kansas) daughter of Nathaniel Woods and Rebecca (Sterrett) Sterrett, granddaughter of John and Rebecca (Woods) Sterrett and of Robert and Rosanna (Green) Sterrett and great-granddaughter of James Sterrett (father of John) of Scotch-Irish ancestry, who lived in Lancaster County, Pa. See "Biographical Encyclopedia of Juniata Valley," pp. 668 and 703. Issue (1) Nathaniel Woods, (2) Rachel Thompson, (3) Sallie Sterrett, (4) James Charles, (5) Margaret Isabella. He married secondly on April 2, 1878 at Mexico, Pa.,

- 33—William Thompson, Jr., born Dec. 15, 1785, in Pfoutz's Valley, Pa.; died March 18, 1834 at Thompsontown, Pa. He and his brother Isaac (36) served in the war of 1812 at Black Rock encampment. William Thompson was captain of the company from his county, which rendered service during that war. On Aug. 8, 1833 he set sail for England and France in search of health but evidently was not benefited by the trip for his death occurred at Thompsontown during the following March. He was married on June 14, 1816 at Chestnut Hill, Pa., by the Rev. Mr. Brown, of the Presbyterian Church, to Charlotte Chambers Patterson (born at Mexico, Pa., March 9, 1794; died at Marietta, Pa., March 20, 1863) daughter of George and Jean (Burd) Patterson, granddaughter of Capt. James Patterson, Jr., and Mary (Stuart) Patterson and of Colonel James and Sarah (Shippen) Burd; great-granddaughter of Capt. James Patterson, Sr., and Susan (Howard) Patterson of George and Jean (———) Stuart of Edward and Jean (Haliburton) Burd and of Judge Edward and Sara (Plumley) Shippen. Edward Shippen was the son of Joseph and Abigail (Grosse) Shippen, the grandson of Edward Shippen, the first mayor of Philadelphia, and his wife Elizabeth (Lybrand) Shippen, and great-grandson of William Shippen, member of Parliament, and his wife Mary (Nunnes) Shippen, daughter of John and Effan (Crossfield) Nunnes. Sarah (Plumley) Shippen was a daughter of Charles and Rose (Budd) Plumley and granddaughter of Charles and Margaret (Page) Plumley and of Thomas and Sarah (———) Budd. Abigail (Grosse) Shippen was a daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Atherton) Grosse, a granddaughter of Clement Grosse and a great-granddaughter of Isaac Grosse. The Shippen family occupied positions of importance, and were known for their integrity and honorable lives—see Provincial Councillors of Pennsylvania, pp. 46, 47, 48. Edward Shippen who was born on his ancestral estate, Hillham, England, moved to Philadelphia to better his fortune and was named the first Mayor of Philadelphia, Oct. 25, 1701, by William Penn. His country house stood near the present S. W. corner of South and Broad Streets, and his property stretched along the south side of the old city—from Front to 16th. His grandson Edward Shippen of Lancaster, as he was commonly known was Judge of the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas. His advanced age only, prevented his taking active service during the Revolution—but he was untiring in his efforts to help to the best of his ability. He was a Committeeman of Lancaster County. He did not live to hear of the surrender of Cornwallis—but his faith in the success of the righteous cause, seems never once to have wavered—see Provincial Councillors of Pennsylvania, pp. 46-52. Col. James Burd was captain, major and colonel in the Provincial Service of Pennsylvania 1755-64. He was colonel of Second Battalion of the Pennsylvania Regiment, Provincial Service—Jan. 2, 1758-64. He was a chairman of a Town Meeting in favor of Action of Colonies, in Middletown, Pa., June 8, 1774, and was Committeeman in Lancaster County, Pa., for Paxtang Township 1774-75. He was elected colonel of the Fourth Battalion of the Associated Battalion of Lancaster County, Sept. 18, 1775. He resigned Dec., 1776, owing to dissensions and reluctance of the men to serve in any place except in their own immediate neighborhood. His journal dating from 1756-57, giving interesting accounts of the operations of the Colonial forces—the building of Fort Augusta at Sunbury—and part of Washington's early career, was published by the State of Pennsylvania. Edward Burd, the son of Col. Burd, went to Boston in 1775, with Thompson's Battalion of Riflemen. He was major of Flying Camp, and taken prisoner at Long Island. For his active service, see Vol. XIII, Second Series, Pennsylvania Archives, p. 307. Captain James Patterson, son of James Patterson, Sr., who came from Salisbury, England, and settled in 1717 on the northern line of Conestoga Manor, Lancaster County, Pa., was "the most illustrious pioneer settler in Juniata County, Pa."—see History of Juniata and Susquehanna Valleys in Pennsylvania, p. 851. He obtained the first warrant for land in Juniata County on Feb. 4, 1755, for 400 acres at what is now Mexico, Pa. In 1767 he built the first grist-mill and saw-mill east of the river, then known as Patterson's Mills, but now Mexico. George, the youngest son of Capt. James and Mary (Stuart) Patterson, "married Jean, daughter of Colonel James Burd, the most noted military man in this province during the French and Indian War." 33(10)—Josephine Patterson Thompson, born Dec. 6, 1833, at Thompsontown, Pa. It was she who first called the attention of the family to the resting place of Pioneer John Thomson, and to her must be credited the enthusiasm that has kept alive the Thompson Family Assemblies. The "Queen of the Thompsons"—see the Introduction. She married on Dec. 23, 1851, at Green Dale Farm, Pa., Thomas Zell (born Mar. 18, 1821, at Marietta, Pa.; died Feb. 13, 1885, at Reading, Pa.), son of Jacob and Margaret (Evans) Zell and grandson of Squire John Zell, Churchtown, Pa. Margaret Evans was the daughter of Maj. Samuel and Frances (Lowrey) Evans and granddaughter of Col. Evans and Margaret (Niven) Evans and of Col. Alexander and Ann (Alricks) Lowrey. Col. Alexander Lowrey was a son of Lazarus Lowrey who was of Scotch-Irish ancestry and came from the North of Ireland and settled in Donegal, Lancaster County, Pa., in 1728. In 1729 he was licensed to trade with the Indians. He died in Philadelphia in 1753. His son Col. Alexander Lowrey was also a celebrated trader. His mansion, half a mile from the Susquehanna River, near Marietta, was built in 1750-60. The farm contained 391 acres, and was called "Locust Grove." He was quite celebrated in the early history of Pennsylvania. In July, 1774, he served on the Committee of Correspondence for Lancaster County, which met in Philadelphia, July 15, 1774, the Committee of Conference. He was elected Colonel of the Third Battalion of Lancaster County Militia in 1776, and commanded it at the Battle of Brandywine. He served as a delegate from Lancaster County to a convention at Carpenter's Hall, which on June 16, 1776, made a declaration in favor of Independence and instructed the members of Continental Congress to vote for it. He was a member of the committee which framed the first Constitution of the State. He was a member of the State Legislature for many years. For his active service see Vol. XIII, Second Series, Penna. Archives, p. 355, and Vol. XIII, Second Series, Penna. Archives, p. 370. Col. Evan Evans was Colonel of the Second Battalion, Chester County Militia. He was commissioned May 7, 1777. He was at Battle of Brandywine, and member of Carpenter's Hall Convention, in June, 1776. He was also member of Committee of Observation, being chosen Dec. 20, 1774. See Second Series, Penna. Archives, Vol. XIV, pp. 83-94; Second Series, Penna. Archives, Vol. III, pp. 543-638; Second Series, Penna. Archives, Vol. XIV, p. 65. Major Samuel Evans was the first Ensign in his father's (Col. Evan Evans) Regiment. He was afterwards Captain of the London Britain Company, Second Battalion of Chester County. He was also Major of the Sixth Battalion, under Lieut. Col. David McKay, and was in the Battle of Brandywine. See Second Series, Penna. Archives, Vol. XIV, p. 182 or 102 and p. 116 of the same volume. Squire John Zell was a descendant of Johannes Heinrich Zell, who came from Holland to America in 1684, and whose father Johannes Heinrich Zell, founded the city of Zell, in Baden on the river Wiese, and in 1690 organized out of the veterans of the 30 years war the Zell Guards, later the 4th Infantry which has always been commanded by a Zell. She married on Nov. 2, 1802, William McAlister (born Aug., 1775, in Lost Creek Valley, Juniata County, Pa.; died Dec. 21, 1847 in the 73rd year of his age), son of Hugh and Sarah (Nelson) McAlister and grandson of Hugh and ——— (Harbison) McAlister, Scotch Protestants, who emigrated from the north of Ireland to America in 1732 settling first in Little Britain Township, Lancaster County, Pa., and later in Tyrone Township in what was then Cumberland and is now Perry County, Pa. Hugh McAlister, Jr., was born in 1736 in Little Britain Township, Lancaster County, Pa. In 1758 he enlisted in Forbes campaign for the capture of Fort DuQuesne—on the present site of Pittsburgh. After his return home from that campaign he married Sarah Nelson of Lancaster County, Pa., and settled first on a farm, near what is now Icksburg, in Sherman's Valley, which he sold to his brother John. In 1762 he moved to land he had bought in Lost Creek Valley, Juniata County, Pa., named by him, "Hugh's Fancy." He fought against the Indians in Pontiac's War in 1763. He served as private soldier, sergeant, lieutenant and captain at different times during the Revolution and at about the close of the war was commissioned major—see 34524. Major Hugh McAlister died Sept. 22, 1810, and was buried beside his wife in the Lost Creek Cemetery. His record in the Colonial Wars and in the Revolutionary War has been compiled by his great-granddaughter, Mrs. Henrietta Graham (McAllister) Baldwin—3452. To her are indebted not only the descendants of Sarah (Thompson) McAllister, but also those of the other branches of the Thompson family, for much pains-taking care in the collection of a great amount of thoroughly reliable information relating to the Thompson and kindred families living along the Juniata and the adjacent country in the "Old Colonial Days," 1754-1764. William McAlister, son of Hugh and Sarah (Nelson) McAlister, was born at "Hugh's Fancy" in Juniata County, in Aug., 1775. Papers now in the possession of his descendants show that he served as paymaster of the 83rd Pennsylvania Regiment in 1812 and 1814. On March 4, 1842 he was appointed one of the two associate Judges of Juniata County, and he served as a trustee of the Lost Creek Presbyterian Church for forty years. Children of William and Sarah (Thompson) McAlister, (1) Jane Thompson, (2) Nancy, (3) Hugh Nelson, (4) Thompson, (5) Robert, (6) Elizabeth, (7) William, (8) son unnamed, (9) George Washington.

James Banks was born 1732, probably in the town of Ayr, the son of Hugh Banks, of Ayrshire Scotland. He emigrated to America with his wife Anna (Small) Banks, settling at New London Cross Roads, Chester County, Pa. James Banks served for two years, 1756-7, in Captain William Clinton's company of volunteers under the command of Colonel George Washington. In 1758 he enlisted in the army of General Forbes against Fort Duquesne. In 1772 he purchased a tract of 172 acres in Lost Creek Valley, Juniata County, Pa., from William Sharon. Andrew Banks, his son, who was born in York County, Pa., Jan. 12, 1767, and died Dec. 28, 1855 in Lost Creek Valley, was for many years ruling elder in the Lost Creek Presbyterian Church. David Banks, his son, who was born May 23, 1798 in Juniata County, and died Mar. 6, 1870, served from 1856 to 1861 as one of the associate judges for Juniata County. See "History of Juniata and Susquehanna Valleys in Pennsylvania," p. 824-830. Issue (1) James Andrew, (2) William, (3) David Stewart, (4) John Edmund, (5) Robert Edwin, (6) John Nelson, (7) Lucien.

Distinguished lawyer of Bellefonte, Pa. Member of law firm of Potter & McAllister (1835-1859) and McAllister & Beaver (1859-1873). He first wed Henrietta Ashman Orbison, daughter of William and Eleanor (Elliott) Orbison, Huntingdon, Pa. William Orbison (born June 27, 1777, in York County, Pa.; died Aug. 23, 1857, in Huntingdon, Pa.) was a son of Thomas and Elizabeth (Bailey) Orbison and a grandson of Thomas and Elizabeth (Miller) Orbison and of Benjamin and Elizabeth Bailey. Thomas Orbison, Sr., who was born near Lurgan, Ireland, about 1715, came to America about 1741 settling first in Franklin County, Pa., and later in Peter's Township, Cumberland County, Pa., where he died in March, 1779. His wife whom he married on Oct. 19, 1744, was a daughter of James Miller of New Castle, Del. Eleanor (Elliott) Orbison was a daughter of Benjamin Elliott by his second wife Sarah Ashman and a grandson of Robert Elliott and of George and Jemima (Murray) Ashman. Robert Elliott who was of Irish ancestry died in Peters Township, Cumberland County, Pa., in 1768. George Ashman was a son of John and Constance (Hawkins) Ashman and a grandson of George Ashman who was born prior to 1660 in Lyminster County, Wiltshire, England, and came to America about 1670, settling first in Calvert County, Md. On Nov. 30, 1694, he received a grant from King William III of 500 acres in what was then Cecil County, which he called "Ashman's Hope." About 1687 he married Elizabeth Trahearne, widow of William Cromwell. When he died in 1699 he willed "Ashman's Hope" to his son John—see Biographical Encyclopedia of Juniata Valley, Pennsylvania, pp. 1-16. By his first wife, Mrs. Henrietta Ashman (Orbison) McAllister, Hugh Nelson McAllister had seven children, four of whom died in infancy. The first Mrs. McAllister died April 12, 1857, and on Sept. 12, 1859, he married Margaret Hamilton, of Harrisburg, daughter of Hugh and Rosanna (Whiteside) Hamilton, Harrisburg, Pa., and granddaughter of Captain John Hamilton, under whom his grandfather, "Major Hugh" McAllister, had served in the Revolution. During the War of 1861-5 Mr. McAllister did more than any one man to raise and organize the many companies which left his (Centre) county. He finally raised a full company (Co. F, 23rd Pa. Militia), was elected its captain and went with it to the field, serving faithfully until his place could be filled by a younger man. He was one of the projectors and constant supporters of the (now) Pennsylvania State College ("McAllister Hall" there is named in his honor); elder in the Bellefonte Presbyterian Church and one of the most learned of the fourteen delegates at large of the Pennsylvania Constitutional Convention. He died in Philadelphia as a member of that body May 5, 1873 (see "Constitutional Convention, McAllister Memorial"). Children of H. N. and Henrietta Ashman (Orbison) McAllister, (1) Mary Allison, (2) Ellen Elliott, (3) son, (4) William Orbison, (5) Sarah Banks, (6) Laura, (7) Nelson.

- 3431—Mary Allison McAllister, born at Bellefonte, Pa., Sept. 26, 1842. - 3437—Nelson McAllister, born Apr. 12, 1857, at Philadelphia; died Apr. 15, 1857.
- 344—Thompson McAllister, born Aug. 30, 1811, at the old homestead in Lost Creek Valley, Juniata County, Pa.; died March 13, 1871 at "Rose Dale" Covington, Va. Married on Feb. 14, 1839, Lydia Miller Addams (born Feb. 11, 1819, at Millerstown, Pa.; died Feb. 3, 1902 at "Rose Dale") daughter of Abraham and Lydia (Miller) Addams of Millers-town, Perry County, Pa.—see pamphlet on "Eightieth Anniversary of Lydia Miller (Addams) McAllister" and "In Memoriam—Lydia Miller (Addams) McAllister," by J. Gray McAllister. The ancestor of the present America family of Addams (name originally spelled Adams) came to this country from England about 200 years ago and acquired ownership of land in Pennsylvania. The records show that on Dec. 22, 1681, William Penn deeded 500 acres in the Province of Pennsylvania to "Robert Adams of Ledwell in Oxfordshire, England." (The name was spelled Addams on the map of the territory.) The will of Robert Adams, dated July 27, 1717 and probated June 6, 1719 refers to his nephew Richard Adams. Richard Adams was a son of John Adams, who was living in 1717. In the will of Richard Adams of what was then Philadelphia County, but is now Montgomery County, Pa., dated Feb. 1, 1747-8, and probated March 24, 1747-8, mention was made of ten children including William, who was referred to in the papers of the executors as of Brecknock Township, Lancaster County, Pa. This son William Adams founded Adamstown in Lancaster County, Pa., in 1761. He married Anna Lane, a daughter of Edward and Ann (Richardson) Lane. Edward Lane was an Englishman who came from Jamaica in 1684 and purchased on Dec. 12, 1698-9, 25,000 acres from Thomas Fairman which was confirmed to him by patent in 1701 by William Penn. When he died in 1710, leaving seven children including William and Ann—not then married—his son William became owner of that part of the property lying east of the Perkiomen, 218 acres of which he deeded to Richard Adams on Feb. 9, 1722. The youngest son of William and Anna (Lane) Adams was Isaac Addams (the additional having been reinserted, it is said, to distinguish him from a cousin of the same name), who married Barbara Ruth, daughter of Peter (died Sept., 1771) and Catherine Ruth, of German ancestry. Isaac Addams was captain of the Fourth Company of Associators in the Ninth Battalion under Col. John Huber. The youngest of the six sons of Isaac and Barbara (Ruth) Addams was Abraham Addams. As a young man he was a merchant in Reading, Pa. He moved, about 1811, to Perry County, Pa., and bought the land on which Millerstown is built. He was a member of one of the most important courts of the State. He was thrice married. First, to Lydia, daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth (Feather) Miller, of Reading. Elizabeth Feather was the daughter of Peter and Marie (Levan) Feather, granddaughter of Isaac and Mary Margaret Levan and great-granddaughter of Daniel and Marie (Beau) Levan, Huguenots who fled from France to Amsterdam, Holland, and subsequently, in 1715, came to America and settled in Exeter Township, Berks County, Pa. See "The Addams Family in America," "The Ruth Family" and "The Levan Family," by Addams S. McAllister. After his marriage to Lydia M. Addams, Thompson McAllister moved to the farm "Spring Dale," in Franklin County, Pa., seven miles from Chambersburg, later deeded to him by his father. He was elected member of the Pennsylvania Legislature in 1847. He moved to Covington, Va., in Dec., 1849 having purchased a 2,200-acre tract and built "Rosedale" the Virginia homestead in 1856-7. He and his younger brother Robert—345—spent much time together "studying military tactics, were always connected with military companies, and were both fond of drilling." Thompson formed, and was made captain of an artillery company near the homestead in Juniata County, and after removal to Franklin County was (in 1846) captain of an artillery company there. At the outbreak of the Civil War the brothers, under the firm name of T. McAllister & Co., were building the approach to Lewis tunnel (section 18 on what was then the Covington & Ohio, now the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad) between Lewis and Alleghany tunnels on the crest of the Alleghanies, Thompson being in charge of the work. In March, 1861, Thompson raised and at his own expense, largely equipped the first volunteer company, for the impending war, in Alleghany County or in that part of Virginia; and was made its captain. This company, organized and drilled for the purpose of being placed at the disposal of Virginia, whatever side the State might espouse, became Company A, Twenty-seventh Infantry, of the original "Stonewall Brigade"; Captain McAllister was the oldest (and his son William the youngest) member of the company. At the First Manassas battle both were wounded. His favorite brother and business associate, Colonel (afterwards General) Robert McAllister commanded the First New Jersey in the same battle, one of two regiments (First and Second New Jersey) that threw their columns across the road at Centerville and finally arrested the retreat that the Stonewall Brigade, more than any other, had brought to pass. (See "Sketch of Captain Thompson McAllister," by J. Gray McAllister). Camp fever and large, unsettled business interests necessitated, in August, 1861, the resignation of his command (furlough being denied). In the fall of 1861 he was placed in command of all the home-guards and reserves in the Alleghany section, continuing in this service throughout the Civil War. He was for many years an elder of the Covington Presbyterian Church. Children of Thompson and Lydia M. (Addams) McAllister (1) Clara Biddle, (2) Abraham Addams, (3) William Miller, (4) Edgar Thompson, (5) Annie Elizabeth.

- 3441—Clara Biddle McAllister, born Dec. 8, 1839, at "Spring Dale," Franklin County, Pa.; died May 28, 1869 at Covington, Va. Married on Sept. 29, 1859 at "Rose Dale" Covington, Va., Dr. Gabriel McDonald (born May 10, 1827 at Lynchburg, Va.; died Sept. 22, 1889, near Union, Monroe County, W. Va., buried beside his wife at Covington, Va.), son of James and Mary (Jordan) McDonald and grandson of Daniel McDonald and of Thomas and Ann (Withers) Jordan. Gabriel McDonald graduated from Hampden Sidney College and subsequently studied medicine at Jefferson College, Philadelphia, receiving the degree of M. D. He entered the confederate service in 1861, as surgeon of the Twenty-second Virginia Regiment and served for four years, being at the close, division surgeon under General Breckenridge. He served continuously as a member of the West Virginia State Board of Health and the State Board of Examiners from the enactment of the laws creating these bodies. He was a practicing physician with office at Union, Monroe County, W. Va., at the time of his death. Children of Dr. Gabriel and Clara (McAllister) McDonald (1) Mary Jordan, (2) Willie May, (3) James Addams, (4) Clara Gabriel.

Samuel Wilberforce Anderson was commissioned, by Governor Letcher of Virginia, captain to organize troops for the state line. See 34421. Address of Samuel W. and W. May (McDonald) Anderson, Warm Springs, Va.
- 34413—James Addams McDonald, born Sept. 22, 1867; died Aug. 6, 1868.
- 34414—Clara Gabriella McDonald, born May 11, 1869. Married Nov. 2, 1892, at "Rosedale," Covington, Va., Thomas Evred Buck (born Jan. 9, 1860, at Front Royal, Va.; died Jan. 21, 1911, at Lenoir City, Tenn.), son of William Mason and Elizabeth Ann (Ashby) Buck of Front Royal, Va., and a grandson of William Richardson and Lucy Neville (Blackemore) Buck. William Richardson Buck was a son of Capt. Thomas and Ann (Richardson) Buck, a grandson of Charles and Letitia (Lord) Buck of England, and of William and Isabella (Calmes) Richardson of Maryland and a great-grandson of the Marquis De La Calmes, a Huguenot refugee who settled on the Shenandoah in Virginia. Lucy Neville (Blakemore) Buck was a daughter of Capt. George Neville and Elizabeth (Mauzey) Blakemore, a granddaughter of Thomas and Annie (Neville) Blakemore and of John Mauzey, a great-granddaughter of George and Mary (Gibbs) Neville and of Col. Henry Mauzey. Thomas Buck, who was captain of a volunteer company at the close of the Revolution, was twice high sheriff of Frederick County, Va. He built and occupied Bel Air homestead on the Shenandoah. Col. Henry Mauzey was Washington's companion in surveying the Northern Neck of Virginia. Elizabeth Ann (Ashby) Buck was a daughter of William R. and Rebecca Richardson (Buck) Ashby, a granddaughter of Rev. Nathaniel Ashby of Fauquier County, Va., and Lexington, Ky., and of Thomas and Ann (Richardson) Buck, and a great-granddaughter of Capt. John Ashby, Indian fighter. T. - 344145—Lawrence Neville Buck, born Aug. 28, 1905, at Lenoir City, Tenn.
- 3442—Abraham Addams McAllister, born Aug. 25, 1841, at "Springdale," Franklin County, Pa; died Sept. 4, 1916 at Covington, Va. He enlisted 1862 in the Confederate Army in "The Monroe Artillery," soon known as "Bryans Battery, later a part of the Thirteenth Battalion of Virginia Artillery. He was successively corporal and sergeant of the Battery, participating in every battle in which the battery was engaged except that of Cedar Creek, Oct. 19, 1864, when he was absent on sick leave. He was mustered out with the battery at Christiansburg, Va., on Apr. 12, 1865. A. Addams McAllister was the senior partner of the milling firm of McAllister & Bell, Inc., and president of the firm of A. A. McAllister and Sons Company, Inc., Covington, Va. He was for many years president of the Covington Improvement Company, and was president of the Citizens' National Bank, Covington, Va., 1908-12, and director of the Covington National Bank. He was a successful and scientific farmer, and owned a controlling interest in a number of enterprises in and near Covington. He was an elder in the Covington Presbyterian Church. See "McAllister Family Records," by J. Gray McAllister. On May 10, 1865, at Covington, Va. A. Addams McAllister married Julia Ellen Stratton (born June, 1838, in Malden, Kanawha County, Va.; died Nov. 23, 1906 at "Rosedale," Covington, Va.), daughter of Joseph Dickinson and Mary Ann (Buster) Stratton, and granddaughter of Archibald and Edna (Dickinson) Stratton and of Claudius and Nancy (Moffet) Buster; the great-granddaughter of Henry and Sarah (Hampton) Stratton; of Joseph and Elizabeth (Wooldridge) Dickinson; of Claudius and Dorcas (Sumpter) Buster and of Thomas and Elizabeth (Johnson) Moffet; the great-great-granddaughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Elam) Stratton; of William and Jane (Woods) Buster; of Col. Philip and Ann (————) Johnson. See "The Buster Family" and "The Dickinson Family," by Addams Stratton McAllister. The Stratton line has been traced back to England through Edward Stratton (I) of Bermuda Hundred, Va., whose son Edward (II) married Martha Shippey, daughter of Thomas Shippey. Edward Stratton (III) who married Anna Batte, daughter of Henry Batte, was the father of Thomas Stratton, who married Elizabeth Elam, daughter of Robert Elam, and the grandfather of Henry Stratton (a lieutenant in the naval service during the Revolutionary War), who married Sarah Hampton, mentioned above. See "A Book of Strattons," by Hattie R. Stratton. Jane (Woods) Buster was a daughter of Michael and Ann Woods, a granddaughter of Michael and Mary (Campbell) Woods, and a great-granddaughter of John and Elizabeth (Worsop) Woods. Elizabeth Worsop was a daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Parsons) Worsop and a granddaughter of Richard and Letitia (Loftus) Parsons. 345—Robert McAllister, born June 1, 1813, at "Hugh's Fancy," the old homestead in Lost Creek Valley, Juniata County, Pa. Married on Nov. 9, 1841 Ellen Jane Wilson (of Mercersburg, Franklin County, Pa.), daughter of Moses Wilson of Hanover Township, Dauphin County, Pa., and his second wife Elizabeth (Boyd) Wilson, daughter of Benjamin Boyd, of Derry Township, same county, a farmer of Scotch-Irish descent, and a member of the Derry Presbyterian Church. The parents of Moses Wilson were Hugh Wilson and Mary (Wilson) Wilson, daughter of Moses Wilson of Lancaster County, Pa. The founder of this Wilson family in America was William Wilson, who emigrated about 1730 from the north of Ireland (whither his ancestors had emigrated from Scotland) and settled at the junction of the Swatara and Manarda Creeks, Hanover Township, in what is now Dauphin County, Pa., but was then Lancaster County. He died in 1736 and is buried in the graveyard of the historic Derry Presbyterian Church, as are also his son, Hugh Wilson, his grandson Hugh Wilson, and his great-grandson Moses Wilson, father of Ellen Jane Wilson, in the line given above. They were all farmers and Presbyterians. Moses Wilson was an elder in the Derry Presbyterian Church. Robert and Ellen (Wilson) McAllister moved in 1842 into the new house he had built on part of the old "Hugh's Fancy" homestead farm. He engaged in farming until he began railroad construction work in 1847, and even then supervised the farm until 1854, when he moved to Bethlehem, Pa, thence in 1857, to Oxford, N. J., where he was building a tunnel three thousand feet long for the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad (and he was also partner in railway construction work with his brother Thompson McAllister—344—in Virginia) at the outbreak of the Civil War. Always interested in military affairs, he had held while living in Pennsylvania several commissions in the militia service of that state, the last of which was from 1854 to 1859 as Brigadier-General in command of the Brady Brigade, of the uniformed militia of Pennsylvania. When the Civil War broke out he raised a company at Oxford, N. J., went to Trenton, was commissioned by Governor Olden a Lieutenant-Colonel in the First New Jersey Regiment and commanded it with rare distinction at First Manassas—see 344. On June 30, 1862, he was commissioned Colonel of the Eleventh New Jersey Volunteers, "thence as ranking Colonel to the command of the First Brigade, Second Division, Third Corps, to which his regiment was attached." He was one of the very few men who went through the war from its inception to its close, being present at Bull Run and Appomattox Court House, respectively, without missing any of the pitched battles (except South Mountain and Antietam) of the Army of the Potomac, to which he was attached from first to last. He was brevetted Brigadier-General for his behavior at Boydton Plankroad, Oct. 27, 1864, and Major-General for meritorious conduct throughout the war. A monument was erected to his command at Gettysburg, the Eleventh Regiment, New Jersey Volunteers, where he was severely wounded, a minie ball going through the left leg and a piece of shell hitting the right foot. In the second day of the Battle in the Wilderness, in 1864, two horses were killed under him and he was hit by a fragment of a spent shell. General De Trobriand says of him: "As punctual in his religious habits as he was sincere in his belief, he had Protestant religious services regularly on Sunday at his headquarters. The most pleasant attention we could pay him on that day was to listen to the sermon of his Chaplain." (See sketch of Gen. Robert McAllister, by General John Watts De Peyster, from "Representative Men.") After the war General McAllister was general manager of the Iron-ton Railroad Company, and resided from 1866-1883 in Allentown, Pa. Thence he returned to Belvidere, N. J., where he died Feb. 23, 1891. His widow died in Mifflintown, Pa., July 8, 1905. Children of Robert and Ellen (Wilson) McAllister (1) Sarah Elizabeth, (2) Henrietta Graham.

- 3451—Sarah Elizabeth McAllister, born Jan. 6, 1843, at "Hugh's Fancy," Lost Creek Valley, in Juniata County, Pa. Married on Aug. 13, 1863, at Belvidere, N. J. (where Col. McAllister was recuperating from wounds received at Gettysburg), Wilson Loyd (born Jan. 7, 1841, in Philadelphia; died Sept. 9, 1914, in Mifflintown, Pa. Buried in the Mifflintown Presbyterian Cemetery) son of William and Elizabeth Bellerby (Spackman) Loyd, of Philadelphia, and grandson of Thomas and Sarah (Smith) Loyd, and of Samuel Spackman and Ann (Bellerby) Spackman. The Loyds were Quakers. (The other I in the name, dropped by Thomas Loyd to avoid confusion with a cousin of the same name, has been resumed by the children of Wilson and Sarah Loyd. Wilson Loyd attended Penn Charter School and Nazareth Hall. He conducted a banking and brokerage business in Philadelphia until 1882, when impaired health necessitated a change and in 1883 Wilson and Sarah (McAllister) Loyd moved from Germantown, Philadelphia, to "Hugh's Fancy," where they lived until the Fall of 1911, when they sold the farm and moved to Mifflintown, Pa. Children of Wilson and Sarah (McAllister) Loyd (1) Robert McAllister, (2) Elizabeth Spackman, (3) Thomas Wilson, (4) Nelson McAllister, (5) William Henry.

The line of this Baldwin family in America begins with Joseph, son of Richard and Isabell Baldwin of Cholesbury, Bucks County, England. Joseph Baldwin and his two brothers Timothy and Nathaniel, came with Herefordshire people to America, (Cholesbury was near the Hereford County line) under the guidance of their pastor, the Rev. Peter Prudden. This company formed part of Rev. John Davenport's Colony, which arrived in Boston, A. D., 1637. In 1638 the Davenport Colony settled in New Haven, Conn. and in 1639 the Herefordshire people left that Colony, and with people from Wethersfield Conn., formed the Colony which settled at Milford, Conn., with the Rev. Peter Prudden as their pastor. They were Puritans, Joseph Baldwin, the first American ancestor and his first wife Hannah were among the first settlers of Milford, Conn., in 1639. Levi Reynolds was a son of Stephen Reynolds and his wife who had been the widow, Mrs. Elizabeth (Hartman) Kreider. Stephen Reynolds was a son of Benjamin and Mary (Job) Reynolds, and a grandson of Henry Reynolds, a preacher of the Society of Friends who came from Nottingham, England, at an early period in our Colonial history and settled in Cecil County, Md. See "Biographical Encyclopedia of Juniata Valley in Pennsylvania," p. 75.

35—Robert Thompson, born 1790; died Jan. 3, 1866, at Thompsontown, Pa., in the old stone house built in 1798 by his father, William Thompson—3. After the death of his father, he and his brother William—33—conducted the business at Thompsontown for many years, purchasing much additional land in different localities. They purchased at different times the Cuba Mills, the Oakland Mills and other mill properties. About 1829 they built a storehouse on the "Diamond" subsequently occupied by Wickersham Shelley; a storehouse was erected on the canal bank, and in 1835 the old mill was torn down and the present mill erected. He was a very exact man and upon his notes have been built the later records of the earlier members of the Thompson family. He accumulated a large estate, the bulk of which he left to the sons of his brother and business partner, William Thompson, with whom he made his home. He died unmarried at his father's homestead, then occupied by the family of his brother William—33.

36—Isaac Thompson, born Jan. 23, 1790; died May 3, 1835, aged 45 years, 3 months, 10 days. He inherited from his father a farm in Lost Creek Valley "adjoining the Hugh McAlister property called 'Hugh's Fancy.'" He served in the War of 1812, and was at the Black Rock encampment during that war. He carried on business at Newton Hamilton and Hollidaysburg. He married twice: first his cousin (77) Jane Boal (born June 16, 1801; died Nov. 20, 1833, aged 32 years, 5 months, 4 days), daughter of David and Sarah (Thomson) Boal and granddaughter of John Thomson, Sr. Issue (1) son. He married secondly Nancy Patterson of Butler County, Pa. No issue.

372—William Thompson Walters, born May 23, 1819, at Harrisburg, Pa.; died Nov. 22, 1894, at Baltimore, Md. Attended the University of Pennsylvania. At the age of 19, he was given charge of an iron furnace at Ferrandville, Clinton County, Pa., where he produced, for the first time in America, iron by the use of coked bituminous coal. He was a merchant, railway director, patron and connoisseur of art. He did much to develop transportation facilities in the South and was the president of first steamship line between Baltimore and Savannah; was Vice-President, Northern Central Railway when it was extended to Baltimore. With his life-long friend, Thos. K. Scott, President Pennsylvania Railroad, formed the Southern Security Co., which in the years 1866 and 1873 borrowed the money to rebuild the railroads between Richmond and Charleston, Richmond and Danville and Bristol to Chattanooga, Tenn., and built the Charlotte and Atlanta Air Line. After the panic of 1873 all these roads were sold except what now forms the Atlantic Coast Line, of which he was the Chairman of the Executive Committee until his death. For ten years he was Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Texas and Pacific Railroad, which he and his friend Thos. K. Scott had projected from the Mississippi River to San Diego, Cal., but which they sold to Jay Gould, who completed it to a connection at the Rio Grande with the Southern Pacific. He was one of the early art collectors in the United States and Chairman for many years of the Purchasing Committee of the Corcoran Art Gallery in Washington, D. C. He was also President of the Peabody Institute of Baltimore. He translated from the French, Charles Du Hay's authoritative treatise on the Percheon horse and for 20 years was an importer and breeder of this draught horse to introduce it into this country. From 1867 to 1869 he was Finance Commissioner of Baltimore City and in 1873 Commissioner to the Vienna Exposition. See Appleton's Encyclopedia of American Biography. The Walters Art Gallery, Baltimore, Md., is considered one of the finest in existence. W. T. Walters married in 1845, Ellen Harper (born ———; died 1862), daughter of Charles A. and Anna D. (———) Harper. Issue (1) Henry, (2) Jennie, (3) William Thompson.

- 39—Samuel Thompson, born 1792, in Juniata County, Pa.; died Mar. 7, 1851 in the 58th year of his age at Pottsville, Schuylkill County, Pa. "Possessed of wealth, energy and public spirit, he did much for the improvement of our town and its general prosperity as a member of the Building Committee to erect the new court house and public offices, he was prompt, active and efficient, while as a member of the town council, his cool dispassionate judgment and discretion gave him a large share of influence"—From the Pottsville Emporium, March 13, 1851. He married twice; first, on Nov. 6, 1827 at Newton Hamilton, Pa., Ann West Alricks (born Oct., 1798; died Aug. 27, 1828, aged 29 years, 10 months) daughter of James and Martha (Hamilton) Alricks and granddaughter of John and Margaret (Alexander) Hamilton of Shermans Valley, and of James Alricks, son of Herman Alricks, son of Wessells Alricks, son of Peter Alricks of Holland. No children. He married second, on Aug. 6, 1833, Elizabeth Cunningham of Newtown Hamilton, who was born March 3, 1805 and died Oct. 5, 1874 at Pottsville, Pa. Issue (1) William, (2) Lewis Cunningham, (3) Emily Jane, (4) Heber Samuel.

391—William Thompson, born May 22, 1834, at Pottsville, Pa.; died July 9, 1905. Prior to the Civil War when 27 years of age he was the head of a well established and profitable banking concern. In September, 1862, War Governor Andrew Gregg Curtin gave him authority to recruit a cavalry company in Schuylkill County, and on Nov. 1st he was mustered into the service as captain of Company H, 17th Pennsylvania Cavalry, which belonged to the 2nd Brigade, 1st Cavalry Division, and served under the successive commands of Generals Pleasanton, Buford, Merritt and Devin, with the greatest efficiency and distinction. For several months, commencing in May, 1863, Captain Thompson commanded Gen. George G. Meade's escort, Companies D and H, and later was with Gen. P. H. Sheridan in his battles; his active service, in fact, included participation in nearly every engagement in which the Union Cavalry took part in the operations of the Army of the Potomac during the last two years of the war. He was severely wounded in the right shoulder at Kearneystown, Va., when three divisions of the Union Cavalry made a charge upon Gen. Early's entire force, to divulge its strength and plans. He was elected major Feb. 13, 1865, and a month later, Mar. 13th, was brevetted lieutenant-colonel "for meritorious and distinguished services." It was only when incapacitated by his wounds that he was ever absent from the front; and with these exceptions, he never lost a day's duty while he was in the service. He was mustered out on June 20, 1865. Colonel Thompson's interest in his companions in the army did not end with the war. His regiment had the honor of firing the first gun in the great conflict at Gettysburg, and to him to a great extent is due the erection, on that historic field, of a grand monument to the memory of those who gave up their lives in the struggle. Upon the close of his service in the field, Colonel Thompson again turned his attention to the calling for which his early education and experience had so thoroughly fitted him. Possessed of a fair competence by inheritance from his father, he became a large stockholder in the Miners' National Bank of Pottsville, one of the oldest and most substantial banks in the state. He was elected a director of this institution on Jan. 13, 1882, and thereafter made its interests his life work, his long and honorable connection with it ending only with his death. He served as a cashier from May 23, 1882, until Jan. 25, 1893, when he became vice-president. He became president on Jan. 12, 1894. His property holdings included some of the finest business blocks in Pottsville. An attendant at the Presbyterian Church, Colonel Thompson was one of its most open-handed supporters. Colonel Thompson never married. He died July 9, 1903, at Pottsville, Pa., and was buried there in the Thompson family plot in the Charles Baber cemetery.

392—Lewis Cunningham Thompson, born Nov. 7, 1835, at Pottsville, Pa. Address, Pottsville, Pa. He attended school at Chambersburg, Franklin County, and continuing his studies at the Bolmar Academy, West Chester, Pa. His business life began early. In April, 1855, in partnership with Harry P. Stichter, he established a wholesale and retail hardware business at the corner of Centre and Market Sts., Pottsville, the firm of Stichter & Thompson being the pioneer in the town in that line. This association lasted until the spring of 1865, when Mr. Thompson purchased Mr. Stichter's interest and associated with him his brother, Heber S. Thompson, the firm becoming L. C. Thompson & Co. Later Heber S. Thompson withdrew, and from that time the business was carried on by Lewis C. Thompson himself until May 1, 1911, when it became incorporated, as previously stated, with the following officers: Lewis C. Thompson, president; Wm. M. Thompson, vice-president; J. Harry Benner, secretary and treasurer; and L. C. Thompson, William M. Thompson, J. Harry Benner, and W. K. Woodbury, directors. Though Mr. Thompson's time and attention have been directed principally to the affairs of this concern, he has formed other associations, and is, at present, director of the Miners' National Bank of Pottsville, and a director of the Union Hall Association. He has always taken an active interest in the life of the city, as a member of the Pottsville Club, and a prominent worker in the First Presbyterian Church; he served as president of its Board of Trustees when the present church building on Mahantongo Street was erected, in 1874. During the Civil War, Mr. Thompson enlisted in Company A, 27th Emergency Regiment, raised when Lee invaded the State in 1863. He married on June 10, 1862, in Chester County, Rebecca Frances Bruner (born in Chester County, Pa., near the line of Berks County), daughter of John and Maria (Jones) Bruner. Issue (1) Elizabeth May, (2) Marie Louise, (3) Carrie Frances, (4) William Mitchell, (5) Elsie.

BRANCH NO. 4

4—Elizabeth Thomson, born _____; died _____. On _____ she married Robert McAlister (born _____; died May 26, 1828; probably buried in Tuscarora Valley, Juniata County, Pa.), son of Hugh and Sarah (Nelson) McAlister and grandson of Hugh and _____ (Harbison) McAlister, Scotch protestants, who came from Ireland to America in 1732, settling in Lancaster County, Pa. See 34, 56 and 6. The will of Hugh McAlister, Sr., was dated Apr. 19, 1769, and probated Aug. 15, 1769, at Carlisle, Pa. Hugh McAlister, Jr. (born 1736 in Lancaster County, Pa.; died Sept. 22, 1810) joined the forces of Forbes in the French and Indian War. He served as sergeant, lieutenant and captain in the army of the Revolution, and was commissioned major of the Seventh Battalion of the Militia in Cumberland County, Pa., May 1, 1783. See "History of the Susquehanna and Juniata Valleys in Pennsylvania," pp. 123 and 834. After their marriage, Robert and Elizabeth (Thomson) McAlister settled at Nook, in Tuscarora Valley, in Juniata County, Pa., where doubtless he and she died and were buried, although their graves have not been located. From May 5 to Nov. 5, 1813, Robert McAlister served as corporal in Captain Matthew Rodger's Company of Pennsylvania Militia belonging to the regiment commanded by Colonel Reese Hill. Robert and Elizabeth (Thomson) McAlister died without issue.

BRANCH NO. 5

5—Robert Thomson, born —————; died on the farm three miles below Thompsettown, Pa., on the Juniata River. Doubtless he was the Robert Thompson of Fermanagh Township, in what is now Juniata County, Pa., whose will dated Feb. 24, 1787, and probated April 5, 1787, at Carlisle, Pa., gives his estate to his son William (51), a minor, and other minor children and to his wife—not mentioned by name. He appointed as his executors his wife and David Boal—probably the husband of his sister Susanna (7). This will is recorded in Cumberland County Will Book E. P. 105. It was witnessed by Gerard Ferrill; Samuel Willy, possibly a relative of the husband of his sister Jean Thomson (2); and Thomas Palley, probably the person who witnessed the will of Pioneer John Thomson. Robert Thompson was taxed on a saw-mill in Fermanagh Township, Juniata County, Pa., in 1785-6, the two years preceding his death. He may or may not have been the Robert Thompson who served as a private in Captain John Clarke's company of Associators of Northumberland County in 1776. In this company was William Greenlee, presumably the husband of his sister Mary Thomson (1). Robert Thompson married Sarah Mitchell, a sister to Jane Mitchell who married William Thompson (3). By some the father of Sarah and Jane Mitchell was said to have been David Mitchell of Chestnut Level, Lancaster County, Pa., and by others James Mitchell of Cumberland County, Pa. A certain David Mitchell whose will—witnessed by William Mitchell—was dated 1756, Chestnut Level, Lancaster County, Pa., left children Samuel, Jean, Abram, Margaret Eleanor, Sarah, George and David. He may have been a son or a brother of John Mitchell of Drumore Township, Lancaster County, Pa., who died in 1759 leaving sons Samuel, William, John, George and David. See "Notes and Queries," Vol. III, Third Series, by W. H. Egle, page 483. It is possible that John Mitchell who came from Ireland to Lancaster County, Pa., served as colonel of the Cumberland Militia at Lancaster, and died about 1785 in what is now Perry County, was of this family. See "History of Susquehanna and Juniata Valleys in Pennsylvania," p. 1130. According to Robert Thompson (35), son of William and Jane (Mitchell) Thompson, his mother was a daughter of "James Mitchell of Cumberland Valley, near Chambersburg." According to Hugh Nelson McAllister (343) grandson of Jane (Mitchell) Thompson, she "was born within one mile of Strasburg, now Franklin (then Cumberland) County. Her father was killed by the Indians in a harvest field during the French and Indian War (1754-60) near what is now called St. Thomas, seven miles west of Chambersburg." Among the early land titles in Letterkenny Township, in which Strasburg is located was one granted July 10, 1752, to James Mitchell. Joseph and William Mitchell also owned land there in 1754. Among the persons killed by Indians in a harvest field near Shippensburg on July 19, 1757, were James, Joseph and William Mitchell. It is not improbable that the father of Jane and Sarah was James rather than David Mitchell and that he was of the Lancaster County Mitchells who were progenitors of many of the Mitchell families throughout the Cumberland Valley. See No. 3. Children of Robert and Sarah (Mitchell) Thompson, (1) William, (2) John, (3) Robert, (4) James, (5) Andrew, (6) Jane, (7) Mitchell.

51—William Thompson (called Little), born ————, 1774; died July 7, 1847, in his 73rd year; buried at Thompson's Lock, Pa. Married on April 16, 1818, in Juniata County, Pa., Hannah Mincer (born 1790; died Sept. 29, 1840, in her 51st year buried at Thompson's Lock, Pa.). He lived in Thompsontown, Pa. Issue (1) Josiah, (2) Isaac Ambrose, (3) Sarah Mincer, (4) Mary, (5) Rebecca.

513—Sarah Mincer Thompson, born Feb. 25, 1826; died Sept. 26, 1869, aged 43 years, 7 months and 1 day; buried at McAlisterville, Pa. Married her cousin (665) Isaac Thompson McAllister (born April 30, 1830; died Nov. 19, 1894 at West Newton, Pa.) son of Robert Harbison and Mary (Crawford) McAllister and grandson of William and Sarah (Thomson) McAlister. Issue (1) William, (2) Mary Thompson—see 665.

514—Mary Thompson, born Dec. 8, 1824; died Apr. 6, 1896, at Mifflintown, Pa. Married on June 20, 1861, her cousin John Hutchinson McAlister (born March 10, 1818; died May 16, 1890; buried at Mifflintown, Pa.), son of John Bell and Jane (Thompson) McAllister and grandson of William and Sarah (Thomson) McAlister. They lived at Mifflintown, Pa. No issue. See 56 and 637.

515—Rebecca Thompson, born 1830; died Sept. 19, 1840, in her 10th year; buried at Thompson's Lock, Pa.

52—John Thompson, born Oct. 30, 1776; died Jan. 6, 1830, aged 58 years; buried at Locks, Pa. He and his brother James—54—settled in Lost Creek Valley. In 1803 they sold their property to Michael Bashore and purchased the tract of land originally granted to James Micheltree. In connection with his brother Robert—53—John Thompson purchased in Nov., 1811, an adjoining tract which had also been granted to James Micheltree—see "History of Juniata and Susquehanna Valleys in Pennsylvania," p. 871. John Thompson was a farmer, but he is said to have acted as a pilot for arks and rafts on the Juniata River. He owned two boats, built by himself, which he used to convey his produce to Harrisburg and other points. He is said to have erected one of the first brick houses in this section of Pennsylvania, the bricks for its construction having been made on his own farm—see "Biographical Encyclopedia of Juniata Valley, Pa.," p. 997. He was a member of the United Presbyterian Church. He was twice married. His first wife was Rachel Stewart (born May 8, 1780; died May 9, 1813, in Delaware Township, Juniata County, Pa.), daughter of William and Elizabeth Stewart and granddaughter of Archibald and Margaret Stewart—see (10). Issue (1) Jane, (2) Mary, (3) Martha. John Thompson married secondly on Oct. 14, 1816, in Perry County, Pa., Jane Gilfillen (born Sept. 25, 1797; died Feb. 16, 1855), daughter of James Gilfillen—see 72. Children of John and Jane (Gilfillen) Thompson (4) William Gilfillen, (5) James, (6) Robert Mitchell, (7) John, (8) Rebecca.

BRANCH NO. 6.

6—Sarah Thomson, born ———, 1748; died Jan. 3, 1814, aged 66 years; buried with her husband at Brown's Mills, in what was then Mifflin and is now Juniata County, Pa. Married on June 30, 1772, William McAlister (born ———, 1745; died July 7, 1819, aged 74 years), son of Hugh McAlister, Scotch Protestant who married a Miss Harbison and emigrated from the north of Ireland to this country, settling first in Lancaster County and later in what is now Perry County, Pa., where he died in 1769—see 3, 44, and 56. At the age of 18 years in July, 1763 he was one of a party of twelve who pursued and fought a band of twenty-five Indians who invaded Tuscarora Valley—see "History of Juniata and Susquehanna Valleys in Pennsylvania," p. 75. On page 835 it is stated that "William McAlister, with his older brother Hugh and others returned to Juniata Valley after the Indian troubles had ceased in 1766 and he settled on a tract at the head of the Cocolamus which was taken up by John Gallagher, June 4, 1762. On (Aug. 13,) 1766 he purchased and (on Oct. 29, 1766) he obtained an order of survey for a (107-acre) tract called the 'Addition' (in Fermanagh and Greenwood Township, Mifflin County, Pa., for which the warrant of acceptance was issued on Nov. 11, 1790). In 1812 he obtained a warrant for 73 acres south and west. He also purchased other tracts of land in the neighborhood. On the Gallagher tract he settled, and, on June 30, 1772, married Sarah Thompson. He joined Captain John Hamilton's Company during the Revolution. Before leaving home he made his will, dated Dec. 21, 1776, leaving his estate to his wife Sarah, and only son Hugh (61) then three years old. He went to the army and returned in safety. He cut his name out of the will he had written with his own hand. It is now in the possession of his grandson John B. McAlister (624). He was one of the party who gathered May 21, 1780 to organize to protect the frontier. In 1789 he built at the place now known as Brown's Mills, a grist-mill, saw-mill and distillery, and in 1790 was assessed on 150 acres of land, the mills, distillery and a slave. He lived at the farm until his death July 7, 1819, aged 74 years; his wife, Sarah, had died a few years previous. The grist-mill was burned in later years and rebuilt by John McAlister (63). It was about one mile below the Mansion House, and later was sold by the McAlisters to the Stitzer Brothers (632) who sold the property to Peter Brown. William McAlister built a fulling-mill on the main road, at what is now Cocolamus, in 1814, which was completed, however, by his son William (62), who fitted it up for fulling and put in carding machines. The mill was torn down in 1848 and a tannery built which was run by John McAlister until 1862." As a result of the labors of Mrs. Henrietta (McAlister) Baldwin (3452), who is doubly related to the descendants of William and Sarah (Thompson) McAlister, although not herself a descendant, there has been collected a complete record of William McAlister's Revolutionary Service, and as a result of the labors of Miss Jane Elliott McAlister a relative but not a descendant, much information has been collected concerning the descendants. The will made by William McAlister prior to going to war is now in the possession of the family of John Edmund Jamison (6441). It bears the date of Dec., 1776 in which month the company under Captain John Hamilton was raised in and left Lost Creek Valley. On pp. 248, 249, Penn. Archives, Fifth Series, Vol. VI., appear the names of William McAlister and his brother Hugh, as members of the Associators and Militia, County of Cumberland, Fourth Battalion, in service Jan., 1778. In Jan., 1779 their names appear on the muster roll of Capt. James Gibson's Company of Militia of the Fourth Battalion of Cumberland County, commanded by Col. James Wilson—see Penn. Archives, Fifth Series, Vol. VI, pp. 259 and 243. He was a member of Capt. Hugh McAlister's Company, Seventh Battalion, Cumberland County Militia, commanded by Col. Purdy, May 1, 1780—Fifth Series, Vol. VI, p. 478 also pp. 483, 484. His name appears on the pay roll of Capt. Daniel McClellan's Company of Cumberland County Associators and Militia in service from Sept. 1, 1780 to Nov. 2, 1780—Vol. VI, Fifth Series, pp. 614, 619 also pp. 471, 472. William McAlister received depreciation pay for service in the Cumberland County Militia—Vol. IV, Fifth Series, p. 294. The descendants of William McAlister are eligible to membership in the "Sons of the Revolution" or the "Daughters of the Revolution." In his last will, dated May 31, 1819 in Greenwood Township, Mifflin County, Pa., William McAlister makes no mention of the only persons referred to in his earlier will, namely, his wife and son Hugh, both of whom had died before the later date. He devises to his sons John, son William, son Robert H., grandson William Harrison McAlister, son John's children, grandson William son of Isaac, son Isaac's children; grandson William Bell son of daughter Mary; sons William John and Robert; children William, John, Isaac and Mary who married Thomas Bell. He appointed his "sons William and John, both of Greenwood Township" his executors with David Boal (7) and Robert Thompson (3) as arbitrators in case of dispute. The children of William and Sarah (Thomson) McAlister were (1) Hugh, (2) William, (3) John, (4) Isaac Thompson, (5) Mary, (6) Robert Harbison.

BRANCH NO. 7.

7—Susanna Thomson, born —————; died Oct. 11, 1824. Married on ————— at —————, Capt. David Boal of Pfontz Valley, Perry County, Pa. (born 1739, died Aug. 11, 1814 in the 75th year of his age; buried near Thompsontown, Pa). That it is unsafe to depend upon the spelling of family names, and especially that of the Boal family, is shown by the following item on page 784 of the "History of Juniata and Susquehanna Valleys in Pennsylvania," referring to Beale Township, "David Bowel warranted sixty-seven acres Mar. 23, 1767, now owned by James Beale. The names David and Thomas Bowel (the latter having land near the old forge) may be supposed to be varied spellings for Beale; but they belonged to a family after whom Boalsburg, Pa., was named." On Nov. 5, 1795, Nathaniel Dickey conveyed a tract of 239 acres in Fayette Township, Juniata County, Pa. to "David Bole of Pfontz Valley (now Perry County); Thomas Bole, son of David settled upon the place and upon the death of his father in 1824 he inherited it and in 1840 sold it to William McMeen." This tract was near the site of McAlisterville. In 1797 "Major Hugh McAlister and David Boles each donated a plot of ground on their farms adjoining" for the Lost Creek Presbyterian Church—"History of Juniata and Susquehanna Valleys," pp. 809, 834, 838, and 840. David Bole (spelled also "Bowel" in public documents) was appointed one of the trustees to organize Mifflin County in 1789, but he declined to serve because he resided below the Narrows in Greenwood Township, then Cumberland, now Perry County, and hence did "not reside within the limits of the said Mifflin." Pfontz Valley, the home of the husband of Susanna Thomson was in Greenwood Township, which is now partly in Perry and partly in Juniata County, Pa. in both of which are to be found descendants of David and Susanna (Thomson) Boal. David Boal served in the Revolutionary War under Colonel Purdy of Cumberland County, as a private in 1776 and as a captain in 1780. His company of Cumberland County Militia was reported in service with him as captain from June 22 to Aug. 22, 1782. In 1787 he was appointed one of the executors of the will of his brother-in-law (7) Robert Thompson of what was then Fermanaugh Township, Cumberland County, Pa. and is now Greenwood Township, Juniata and Perry Counties, and Fermanaugh Township, Juniata County, Pa. Children of David and Susanna (Thomson) Boal. (1) Sarah, (2) John, (3) Nancy, (4) Elizabeth, (5) Thomas, (6) William Alexander, (7) Jane.

BRANCH NO. 8.

8—Isaac Thomson, born 1751, in Pennsylvania; died in the summer of 1823 at Middlefield, Ohio, aged 72 years. Pension records show that he enlisted in the Revolutionary War first as a private at Carlisle, Pa., county seat of Cumberland which then included what is now Juniata and adjacent counties. He re-enlisted as a lieutenant in 1777. It is a tradition in the family that he was accustomed to ride to Harrisburg to collect the money due from the United States Government which the state had assumed to pay. When informed that payment would not be made in full, he told the committee that they were a lot of thieves and refused to accept anything. Robert Thompson, probably his brother—7—afterwards collected in part, sending the money to Isaac Thomson who had then left Pennsylvania. Isaac Thomson owned the farm at the east of the homestead of Pioneer John Thomson in Juniata County, Pa., which he sold to his brother William—3—on Apr. 27, 1779, the year and probably the month of his father's death. In 1781-3 he was taxed on a saw-mill and in 1782-3 on a grist-mill in Fermanagh Township, Juniata County, Pa. It was probably in 1783 that he began his wanderings which took him first to the western part of Pennsylvania, then to New York State and finally to Geauga County, Ohio. He was referred to by other members as "Old Uncle Isaac" and by some as "Lost Uncle Isaac" for reasons that will be apparent from the following excerpts from the "Pioneer History of Geauga, Ohio." "The first permanent settlement in Middlefield was made in March, 1799, by Isaac Thomson and his wife Jane, and three sons, James, William and John—the last a child two months old; also a daughter, Eliza, aged 3 years. The family was originally from Washington County, Pa., leaving that place about 1795. Their first settlement was on the Genessee River, in the state of New York, where they resided one year. From there they started for the unbroken wilds of the west. Their route was down the river, to Lake Ontario by boat; up the lake and Niagara River to the falls. Hauling their boat around Niagara, with a team, they re-embarked, ascending the river to lake Erie, coasting on the lake as far as Erie harbor, where they were overtaken by a storm, and lost everything except the clothes upon their persons. From Erie they hauled their boat across country to a stream called French Creek, coasted down the creek to the Ohio River, and down the river to a little village called Charlestown, on the Virginia side. At Allegheny they left Sarah Wells, a daughter of Mrs. Thompson by her first husband. The family resided in Charlestown about two years; became disgusted with the society; packed up their goods and started up the river, leaving their daughter Polly, aged 13, with an acquaintance on the Ohio side of the river. Arriving at the mouth of Beaver River, they found an empty cabin, in which they stored a part of their goods, packing the remainder on an old horse they brought with them from Charlestown, and mounting the wife and child also on the horse, the husband on foot, they started for the lake, with no road but an Indian trail. The son James, had gone to Mentor the spring before. In the January following this date their son John Thompson was born. They remained in Mentor until the middle of March, and started for the Ohio River. They stopped for the night at a place later known as Johnson's corners, in a cabin occupied by two men, Hill and Lemoin. They selected a site on the blazed road running from Fairport Harbor, Lake Erie, to the Mahoning River at Warren, Ohio, and near the center of the township. Hill and Lemoin helped them build a cabin and soon after left for parts unknown, leaving them the first permanent settlers in the township. "The first white person born in the limits of the township, was a daughter of Isaac Thompson (88—Lydda), on the 6th of Apr., 1801." About two weeks after the birth of Thompson's daughter, in 1801, he and his son James, located a lot of land in Richmond, near the mouth of Grand River. While (away), working on this land, two Indians came to their house in Middlefield, acting in a cowardly, sneaking manner; peering through the cracks of the house, talking low, and conducting themselves badly. After more ill behavior they left. The family was thoroughly frightened, and the more so for knowing the Indians to be bad characters. One was part French and could speak English well. Mother Thompson was not well, and besides herself and babe, she had only her son William, a lad of 12 years, and a hired girl. They expected the Indians back the coming night. The boy and hired girl barricaded every entrance to the house, and by night, had a pretty strong fortress. As soon as it was dark, they put out the light and fire, and huddled in one corner and listened, in terrible suspense, for the cat-like tread of the Indians. Soon a step was heard. Some one approached the door and knocked. No sound within. Then a louder rap. Then conversation in English. The inmates began to take courage, and enquired: "Who is there, and what is wanted?" The answer came: "We are travelers, and want supper and lodging; we are friends." Being satisfied they were friendly, they quickly unbarred the door, and were overjoyed to see two stalwart white men walk in. They were soon furnished with supper, the best the house afforded. When Mother Thompson told the men of the visits of the Indians, they put their rifles in order, and laid themselves down before the fire. About midnight, one of the Indians came and opened the door, looking in very cautiously. He saw the two men, and hurriedly withdrew and disappeared in the darkness, and was never seen afterwards. In the summer of 1823, Isaac Thompson sickened and died, after a residence of a little over 24 years in a new country, and most of the time in an unbroken wilderness. Enduring hardships and privations almost unheard of in any country, he quietly fell asleep in death, honored and respected by all who knew him. At the time he settled in the Genessee country, it was very new, as also was his sojourn on the Ohio River; at Charlestown, Va., in an almost unbroken wilderness. The same is true of his stay in Mentor, and of his final settlement in

Thompson Homestead, Middlefield, Ohio

Built in 1818 by James Thompson (No. 81) on land where Isaac Thomson (No. 8) and his son James settled in 1799.

Middlefield, when all things were in a primeval state. Mr. Thompson was a lieutenant in the Revolutionary War, and connected with the body guard of General Washington. He drew a pension from the government, and to obtain his money he was obliged to travel all the way to Pittsburg (this should be Harrisburg) for each installment. At the time of his death he was 72 years old. His widow survived him about 19 years. We consider grandmother Thompson, one of the most useful women who ever lived in the township. By the sickness in her own family and amongst neighbors, she acquired considerable knowledge of the medicinal properties of roots and herbs and barks, which grew in the woods. She was useful as a nurse and also as a physician. In those early times, there were but few doctors, and those not the best; grandmother having many calls, both in town and out of town; for her fame as a nurse had extended far and near. Perhaps no woman that ever lived in our town, or ever will live here, so much endeared herself to all the people of the town as this good old lady. She died in 1842, without an enemy in the world, aged seventy-eight. Isaac Thompson was twice married. His first wife, whom he married at about the end of the Revolutionary War, was Martha Larimore of Philadelphia. Issue (1) James, (2) John, (3) Polly, (4) William. He married secondly Mrs. Martha Jane (Evans) Wells (born 1764; died 1842, aged 78 years) widow of Benjamin Wells, of Fermanagh Township in what is now Juniata County, Pa. Issue (5) Robert, (6) Eliza, (7) John, (8) Lydda, (9) Robert E.

81—James Thompson, born 1779 in Pennsylvania; died Oct. 15, 1877, at Middlefield, Ohio. He accompanied "Old Uncle Isaac Thompson" on his wanderings through western Pennsylvania and New York into Ohio, and having become tired of the nomadic life, compelled the family to halt in Geauga County, Ohio. He became a man of influence in that community, and organized a company in the War of 1812. He was twice married: first to Sarah Wells, daughter of his step-mother Martha Jane (Evans) and Benjamin Wells. Issue (1) Isaac Newton, (2) Harriet, (3) Martha, (4) James Madison, (5) Edward, (6) Edmond. He married secondly at Mesopotamia, Ohio, Mercy Tracy, daughter of Gilbert and Deborah (Woodworth) Tracy and granddaughter of Ezra and Jemima (Kimball) Tracy and of Jonathan and Mercy (Parker) Woodworth. Gilbert Tracy (born 1761 at Preston, Conn.; died 1841 at Scipio, N. Y.) was in the army during the entire period of the Revolution; he served in the brigade commanded by Lafayette. He was a descendant of Thomas Tracy, who came to Salem, Mass., in 1636, and in 1659 was one of the four men granted the town of Norwich, Conn., by Uncas, Sachem Mohegans, in gratitude for services rendered when besieged by Sachem Narragansetts. He sat in the Colonial Assembly for twenty sessions, and was lieutenant in the Indian wars. Issue (7) Philander Tracy, (8) Mary, (9) Clarinda, (10) Delia, (11) Susan, (12) Maria, (13) Pauline, (14) Robert.

- 811—Isaac Newton Thompson, born at Middlefield, Ohio, June 18, 1805; died Nov., 1879; buried at Middlefield, Ohio. He engaged in the mercantile business at Middlefield, Ohio, the business now being carried on by his son Henry. I. N. Thompson never held any public office, and was never affiliated with any fraternal order, being much opposed to secret societies. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. In August, 1832, at Burton, Ohio, he married Jedidah Anne Foot, a descendant of Nathaniel Foot who located at Wethersfield, Conn., in 1632. She was a daughter of Aaron and Jedidah (Sherman) Foot and a granddaughter of Aaron and Mary (Bronson) Foot and of Elihu Sherman of Williamstown, Mass. All of her ancestral lines are of New England stock, and date back to 1630-5. A full account of the Foot line is given in "The History of the Foots in America." Children of Isaac Newton and Jedidah Anne (Foot) Thompson, (1) John, (2) Henry, (3) Sarah.
- 8111—John Thompson, born at Middlefield, Ohio, 1837; died at the age of 14 years, being killed by lightning together with his cousin Henry Thompson (849).
- 8112—Henry Thompson, born at Middlefield, Ohio, Oct. 10, 1840. Merchant, Middlefield, Ohio. He was educated at the Western Reserve Seminary at Farmington, Ohio. Upon the completion of his studies, he entered upon a mercantile career with his father at Middlefield, Ohio. Upon the death of his father he assumed charge of the business. For twenty-five years after the Civil War, he served as postmaster at Middlefield. He married twice: first in Jan., 1863, at Ashland, Ohio, Eliza Jane Poe (born —————; died Dec. 25, 1887), daughter of Daniel and Jane West (Ingram) Poe. She was descended from the Maryland Poes. George Jacob Poe was a soldier of fortune, born in the Palatinate, on the upper Rhine. He served under the English Queen Anne, came with his family of several children to Antietam Creek, Md., in 1745. Among the children was Adam (the ancestor), born at sea. Adam married Elizabeth Cochran from the west coast of Ireland. He held a captain's commission in the Revolution, was detailed to border warfare, became an Indian fighter, and was in many battles that are recorded in the histories dealing with that period. The fight of which most has been written was that known as the fight with Big Foot on the banks of the Yellow Creek. In this battle the Wyandotte nation was practically exterminated. In 1910, the citizens of Stark County, Ohio, erected a monument in commemoration of his services. Among his children was Andrew (the ancestor), who married Nancy Hoy, daughter of Charles Hoy, of York County, Pa., and there was born to them 12 children. Daniel (the ancestor) became a Methodist circuit rider and while on an errand for the church found Jane West Ingram, a girl of 21, teaching among the Indians on the Green Bay, Mich., 200 miles from civilization. They were married and were sent by the church to the then republic of Texas, where in the midst of their activities they were stricken with fever and died within a half hour of each other. They were buried in one grave under the pulpit of the Methodist Church of San Augustine. Jane West Ingram was of Puritan ancestry, each branch of which came to America in 1630. They all located in Hadley, Mass., and include Montagues, Smiths, Boltwoods, Hubbards, Dickinsons, Lewises and Gardners. A full history of each family is given in Judd's "History of Hadley." Issue (1) John Andrew, (2) Agnes Maria, (3) James Harry, (4) Christine. He married secondly, in Feb., 1889, at Middlefield, Ohio, his cousin—81(11)1—Eugenie Squibb (born Sept., 1863), daughter of David Bower and Susan (Thompson) Squibb and granddaughter of Robert and Margaret (Bower) Squibb of York, Pa. Eugenie Squibb was educated at the Western Reserve Seminary. Address, Middlefield, Ohio. No issue.

81121—John Andrew Thompson, born Feb. 25, 1866, at Middlefield, Ohio; died 1916, at Cleveland, Ohio. Graduated from the Ohio Wesleyan University, 1889. He was admitted to the bar in 1891 and practiced law at Cleveland, Ohio, until his death. He was a member of the Sons of the American Revolution, by virtue of the services of five ancestors in that conflict. He served for two years as president of the Thompson Family Association. He married on July 6, 1896, at Newton, Mass., Lois Belle Cory, daughter of Rev. John Bruce and Emily (Gates) Cory of Puritan and English ancestry. Lois Bell Cory graduated from the Ohio Wesleyan University in 1889, and thereafter spent three years studying music in Dresden, Germany. Issue (1) Emily Gates, (2) Deborah Lois.

BRANCH NO. 10.

(10)—Andrew Thomson, born —————; died —————. He first settled at Thompsontown, Juniata County, Pa., but sold his land and in 1803 went to Ohio, settling at Chillicothe. He married on June 30, 1798, Jane Stewart (born April 17, 1778, in Scotland; died Dec. 21, 1874, aged 96 years, 9 months; buried at Monmouth, Ill.), daughter of William and Elizabeth Stewart and granddaughter of Archibald and Margaret Stewart. William Stewart with his parents came to America from Newry, Ireland, in Oct., 1752. In 1753 they moved to Cumberland County, Pa., and occupied a tract of land on what was later known as Stewart's Branch of the Little Juniata Creek. In 1765 William and Elizabeth Stewart occupied a plantation adjoining the west end of the Bark tract south of the Mahonoi Mountain, on both sides of the Little Juniata Creek, in Rye Township, then Tyrone, Cumberland County, as shown by an affidavit made before Justice David Walker at Andrew Thompson's in Greenwood Township, Mifflin County, Pa., Aug. 3, 1810. This land was known as the Bark Tavern tract and contained 348 acres. On Nov. 17, 1761, William Stewart purchased a tract of 300 acres one mile above what is now Thompsontown and in Sept., 1763, he warranted 43 acres adjoining. On Aug. 13, 1768, he purchased additional land on the opposite side of the river from his settlement. He served in the Fourth Class of Cumberland County Militia in 1778. He died July 29, 1784, and his wife Elizabeth whom he married in 1765 died Aug. 12, 1822. Three of their daughters were married to Thompsons, as follows: Jane to Andrew Thompson—(10); Rachel to John Thompson—52, and Rebecca to Andrew Thompson—55. See "History of Juniata and Susquehanna Valleys in Pennsylvania," pp. 866, 867, 871 and 1083. The family name is spelled at times Stuart, and some of the members claim descent from the Royal House of England. Children of Andrew and Jane (Stewart) Thompson, (1) John, (2) Elizabeth, (3) William, (4) Mary, (5) Stewart, (6) Julia Ann, (7) Andrew Patterson, (8) Mary Jane, (9) Rebecca Stewart, (10) Margaret Stewart, (11) Gracy, (12) Thomas Boston. BRANCH NO. 11.

(11)—Peter Thomson (called Uncle Peter), born _____, 1776, two miles from the present site of Thompsontown, at the home of John Thomson, the Pioneer; died Nov. 3, 1831. According to his will in 1779, Pioneer John Thomson gave all of his lands to his sons James, Thomas and Peter. What became of the interests of James we do not know definitely, but Thomas, who evidently lived with his brother Peter, died a bachelor and willed his share of the home farm to Peter. At that time the farm contained 433 acres. In 1810 Peter Thomson erected on the old family farm, about 40 rods north of the site of the homestead of Pioneer John Thomson, the stone dwelling house in which most of his nine children were born. This house is still in existence. At the death of Peter Thomson, his son John Peter bought the interests of the other heirs and kept the homestead until 1865 when it was sold to Judge Samuel Hepburn, who sold it to Uriah Shuman, the present owner. It is stated that the property passed from the control of John P. Thomson as the result of an unsuccessful attempt to manufacture iron at the "Maria Furnace," the only furnace ever erected in Juniata County. Peter Thomson married in 1804, in what is now Walker Township, Juniata County, Pa., Mary Patterson (born 1775 in Walker Township; died Dec. 6, 1845, aged 70 years), daughter of Andrew and Jane (Purdy) Patterson, granddaughter of Alexander Patterson, and of James Purdy. Andrew Patterson, Scotchman, settled in York County, Pa., about 1745. His sons Andrew and James lived for a time in Bucks County, Pa., before moving to Juniata Valley about 1770. Mary (Patterson) Thompson was affectionately known by her friends as "Aunt Polly." She and Peter Patterson, called "Uncle Peter," were members of the "Seceder Congregation" which subsequently became the United Presbyterian Church at Mexico, Pa. The portion of the congregation in their neighborhood met at the Peter Thompson homestead with "Aunt Polly" as leader and instructor in the Bible and the Catechism both before and after the death of Peter Thompson in 1837. Children of Peter and Mary (Patterson) Thompson, (1) John Peter, (2) Margaret, (3) Mary, (4) Samuel, (5) Susanna, (6) Silas, (7) Elenor, (8) Thomas Boal, (9) William Patterson.

(11)₁—John Peter Thompson, born Oct. 6, 1806, at the homestead of John Thomson, Sr.; died Apr. 10, 1882. He purchased the interests of the other heirs and thereby acquired possession of the home farm of his father which was also that of his grandfather, Pioneer John Thomson. On this he and George Moss erected in 1863 the "Maria Furnace" which they continued to operate until the sale of the homestead property including the stone house and the furnace, to

"Lobenia" Home of Peter and Mary (Patterson) Thompson, Delaware Township, Juniata Co., Pa.

Built by them in 1810, on the homestead farm of Pioneer John Thomson.

- (11)3—Mary Thompson (twin of Margaret), born Sept. 7, 1809, at Thompsonstown, Pa.; died June 30, 1887, at Sandusky, Ohio. Married on May 15, 1833, at the old Peter Thompson homestead, James Curran, Jr. (born in Mifflintown; died June 26, 1882), son of James Curran, Sr., and Jane (Riddle) Curran of Ireland. In the early records of Juniata County the family name seems to have been spelled in several different ways. In the first of warrantees of land in the neighborhood of what is now Mifflintown appears the name of William Curran. On page 854 of the "History of Juniata and Susquehanna Valleys," under Walker Township, Juniata County, it is stated that the name of William Cochran appears among the list of warrantees and he took out a warrant for 103 acres of land, Mar. 8, 1755. From all indications the name is the same as Corran and Curran and the one here given is the ancestor of the family who settled in this section of the country. His name as Curran appears in the assessment of Fermanagh in 1763, as owning 200 acres; in 1768 as William Corran owning 600 acres, and James Curran as in possession of 60 acres. William Corran remained here until 1771 when he appears to have removed to Donegal, Lancaster County, Pa. On Dec. 17, 1772, William Cochran or Corran warranted a tract of land in Tuscarora Valley which he patented June 18, 1773, at "Williamsburg." In 1775 he is mentioned as having 10 acres cleared, and in Lack Township James Corran is assessed on 100 acres, and 20 acres cleared. William Curran, who died in Rapahoe Township, Lancaster County, Pa., in 1787, designated his sons Samuel and James as executors in his will. This James Curran may or may not have been James Curran, Sr., who married Jane Riddle, but it is probable that, in any event, James Curran, Jr., was a descendant of William Curran. James and Mary (Thompson) Curran lived in Brown County, Ohio, Monmouth, Ill., and Topeka, Kan. In 1795 their son, Jacob Adams (born Sept. 23, 1758; died Aug. 23, 1803) settled on a farm adjoining that of Robert Wilson (grandfather of Lucien Wilson—381) in what is now Fayette Township, Juniata County, Pa. He married Mrs. Catherine (Lintner) Wilson, widow of a younger brother of Robert Wilson. She was the daughter of Christian Lintner (born in Holland; died 1803 in Fermanagh Township, Mifflin County, Pa.) whose daughter Elizabeth (Lintner) Banks was the mother of Judge David Banks—341. See "History of Juniata and Susquehanna Valleys," pp. 821 and 859. Of the four children of Jacob and Catherine (Lintner) Adams, two were ancestors of descendants of Pioneer John Thomson, namely, William Adams the father of Mrs. James Luther Thompson—5275; and John Adams the father of Mrs. Thomas Boal Thompson—(11)8. John Adams (born Feb., 1797 in Fermanagh Township, Juniata County, Pa.; died Nov., 1857) married Jane Rodgers (born July, 1802, in Walker Township, Juniata County, Pa.; died Dec., 1879). Of the six children of John and Jane (Rodgers) Adams, two were married to Thompsons, namely, Catherine Adams to William Patterson Thompson—(11)9 and Isabella Adams to Thomas Boal Thompson. Children of Thomas B. and Isabella (Adams) Thompson (1) Alton Howard, (2) Arretta Bell, (3) Clara Jane. Thomas B. Thompson married secondly on Nov. 29, 1859 in Perry County, Pa., his cousin—721—Jane Boal (born Dec. 21, 1833, near Millerstown, Perry County, Pa.; died Dec. 5, 1910 at Topeka, Kan.), daughter of John and Sarah Ann (Gifillen) Boal; granddaughter of Capt. David and Susannah (Thompson) Boal and of James and Sarah (Jones) Gilfillen, a great-granddaughter of Pioneer John Thompson, of James and Nancy (Watts) Gilfillen and of Lewis and Patience (Londen) Jones; a great-great-granddaughter of Robert and Jean (McConnell) Gilfillen, of David and Sarah (Bertram) Jones, and a great-great-granddaughter of James and Margaret (Briton) McConnell and of Rev. William Bertram—see 721 and (11)1. Children of Thomas B. and Jane (Boal) Thompson, (4) Charles Stuart, (5) Minnie Alfaretta, (6) Sarah Alberta, (7) Bessie Marguerite, (8) Frank Carroll, (9) Henrietta, (10) Mary Mabel, (11) Grace Eolene.

(11)81—Alton Howard Thompson, born Apr. 8, 1849, in Logansport, Ind.; died July 13, 1914 in Topeka, Kan. He attended McAlisterville Academy and Airy View Academy in Juniata County, Pa., and graduated from the Dental College, Philadelphia, 1872. He assisted in establishing the Kansas City Dental College in 1884, and lectured there subsequently and until his death. He lectured at the Philadelphia Dental College 1899-1900, and contributed frequently to dental journals and was the author of a text book on dental anatomy. He was an elder in the Presbyterian Church. He married twice: first on Dec. 9, 1875 at Topeka, Kan., Fannie Geiger (born Jan. 1, 1857; died Feb. 17, 1903), daughter of George and Rebecca (Wallace) Geiger and granddaughter of John and Agnes (Culbertson) Wallace. Issue (1) Isabella, (2) Wallace McGrath. He married secondly on Oct. 30, 1906 at Topeka, Kan., Helen Moon, daughter of John Ervin and Malvina (Price) Moon, a granddaughter of Jonathan and Rebecca Lemon (Ervin) Moon and of Hugh Roberts and Ann (Thomas) Price. Jonathan Moon was born in Ireland, Hugh Roberts Price in Wales and Ann Thomas in England. John Ervin Moon (born March 13, 1846 at Leesburg, Ind.; died Aug. 5, 1912) was first sergeant of Company C, 138th Indiana Regiment and first lieutenant of Company B, 151st Indiana Regiment during the Civil War. BRANCH NO. 12.

- (12)—Thomas Thomson, born in Pennsylvania; died in Juniata County, Pa., two miles east of Thompsontown. He and his brothers James and Peter inherited the homestead property of Pioneer John Thomson. His brother James probably died before reaching the age of 18, under which condition his share in the estate passed automatically to Peter and Thomas by the provisions of their father's will, because the latter two early came into full possession of the homestead property. On Feb. 28, 1807 they purchased 84 acres of land from Frederick Keller, which had been patented in two tracts by Isaac Yost, which they sold on May 1, 1809 to their nephew—55—Andrew Thompson, the farmer. Thomas Thompson, who died a bachelor, doubtless at the home of his brother Peter Thompson, willed to Peter his share in the old farm which then embraced 433 acres.

BRANCH NO. 13.

- (13)—James Thomson, born certainly after 1758, probably well after 1761; probably died young. He was joint heir with his brothers Thomas and James in the homestead property of Pioneer John Thomson, under the following provision in the will in 1779. "I do give all my land to my sons James, Thomas and Peter. If any of these heirs doth decease under the age of eighteen years, their part is to remain equally divided amongst the other heirs then living on the premises. I do allow my son James to have one horse and saddle when twenty-one years of age." The property transfer records are silent as to the interest of James, but show that the homestead estate was in the possession of Peter and Thomas at the time of the death of the latter who willed his share to Peter, and hence it is to be assumed that James Thomson died young, probably under eighteen years. See page 283.

BRANCH NO. 14.

- (14)——— Thomson, possibly a child was born after Mar. 2, 1779, when John Thomson wrote his will in which he said, "I do also allow to the child unborn whether son or daughter, when come to age of maturity to have equal with Thomas and Peter." There is nothing in available records to indicate that such a child ever reached maturity, and shared in the property of Thomas and Peter all of which finally became the property of the heirs of Peter Thompson. However it might seem possible, though it is highly improbable, that this child was named Agnes and that she married a man named Black and lived in Blount County, Tenn., as implied on page 871 of the "History of Juniata and Susquehanna Valleys in Pennsylvania." The statement there found has been based on the fact that a certain Agnes Black wrote a letter, undated, to William Thomson, son of Pioneer John Thomson, whom she addressed as "Dear Brother," thanking him for some money he had sent her and requesting him to see that she obtained her share out of her father-in-law's estate. On Mar. 2, 1812, a person evidently a son of Agnes Black wrote from Blount County, Tenn., to William Thomson, Thompsettown, Pa., stating that he is "six feet two inches" tall and has a brother of the same height, and that he is the "oldest of the family and looks after the family affairs." It might seem that this Agnes Black was indeed a sister to William Thomson and hence the posthumous child of Pioneer John Thomson. However it would hardly be considered within the range of possibility for a person born after Mar. 2, 1779, to become the mother of two sons over six feet tall less than 32 years later. It is almost absolutely certain that Agnes Black was a sister-in-law and not a sister to William Thomson—see 3.

JOHN THOMSON'S BROTHER JAMES.

In the "Thompson Family" pamphlet of 1887, it is stated that a brother of Pioneer John Thomson, who accompanied him to America, James Thomson, "settled along South Mountain, Cumberland Valley and County then (now Franklin County and Chambersburg), and his descendants reside there still." It has not proved possible to verify this statement. Dr. W. H. Egle, formerly State Librarian of Pennsylvania, who made a life study of Pennsylvania and its early inhabitants, expressed the opinion that James Thomson was Pioneer John Thomson's son and not his brother. John Thomson did have a son James, to whom he left land at his death in 1779, and we have no other record of this son. It is highly probable that this James Thomson died young, but he may indeed have "settled along South Mountain." It is said that Judge James Thomson, who lived in Chambersburg where he died before 1857, was of this branch. A careful search of available records has failed to verify this statement.

It is difficult to establish the identity of individuals whose names are found upon various lists, and it is unsafe to draw definite conclusions from such lists without independent sources of identification. However, some interesting facts are disclosed by the assessment lists relating to Hanover Township, Dauphin County, Pa., at the time when our Pioneer John Thomson and his brother James are said to have lived there. On the assessment list of 1750 for the east end of Hanover appear the names of John Thomson for 40 acres, William Thomson for 50 acres, and Alexander Thomson for 100 acres, and the name of Jas. Greenlee for 50 acres. On the 1756 list for the east end of Hanover appear the names of John Thomson and William Thomson, but not those of Alexander Thomson or Jas. Greenlee. There also appear the names of John Thompson and William Thompson on the 1756 list for the west end of Hanover. In the 1769 list for the whole of Hanover Township, Dauphin County, appear the names of William Thompson (weaver) for 100 acres; James Greenlee for 100 acres; John Thompson for 200 acres; John Thompson for 100 acres; William Thomson for 80 acres, and John Thomson for 100 acres. On the assessment list of the Township for 1782 appear the names of John Thompson and John Thompson, Sr. This was 14 years after our Pioneer John Thomson purchased property in Juniata County, and presumably sold his property in Dauphin County. It is noteworthy that the name of James Thomson does not appear on any of the lists.

According to family tradition James Thomson, the brother of Pioneer John Thomson, settled near Chambersburg. A search of available records produces no evidence to substantiate this tradition, and it is possible that there may have been a confusion in locations, given names or family connections. About five miles northeast of Chambersburg on the Conococheague Creek there was established by Scotch Covenanters named Thomson and Torrence, a village called Scotland. There came to this place in 1771-2 a certain Alexander Thompson with a large family and purchased the land subsequently owned by S. Garve. Alexander Thompson was said to have come to that locality directly from Scotland, but it is possible that he removed from Chester or Lancaster (Dauphin) County to Cumberland (Franklin) County. One of Alexander Thompson's thirteen children was James who married Nancy Wright. It is possible that he was the James Thompson who "settled in Cumberland Valley." In families of Scotch origin similarity in given names is of no importance, but it is at least interesting that of the thirteen children of Pioneer Alexander Thompson, six had given names identical with six of the thirteen children of Pioneer John Thomson, namely: William, John, Andrew, James, Mary and Jean; his other children were named Alexander, Archibald, Margaret, Barbara, Nancy, Jennie, and Ann. All thirteen children reached maturity and married.

Among the early land warrants in Hanover Township, in what was then Lancaster County, but is now Dauphin County, Pa., were two to persons named Thompson, one for 100 acres, to Alexander Thompson, dated Nov. 26, 1748, and one for 150 acres to John Thompson, dated March 1, 1757. Alexander Thompson may have been a son of James Thomson, whose Chester County will of 1749 is referred to below, and John Thompson may have been our Pioneer John Thompson who is supposed to have located in Chester County before going to Lancaster County with his brother James, and to have sold his land in Lancaster County, before removing in 1768 to what is now Juniata County, Pa.

In Chester County, Pa., Will Book C, page 163, is recorded the will of a certain James Thomson, of Londongrove Township, Chester County, Pa., dated Feb. 3, 1748-9 and probated Oct. 2, 1749. In this will James Thomson refers to his wife Ruth, and leaves his plantation to his sons Alexander, Samuel, James, Robert and William, "when the youngest is 21 years old." He appointed as his executors his wife Ruth and his brother John Thomson. The last-named may or may not have been our Pioneer John Thomson—but probably was not.

In Jordan's "History of Juniata Valley and its People"—1913, Lewis Publishing Co., New York—it is stated that Rev. James Thompson, who was the first minister of the Presbyterian Church, at Alexandria, Huntingdon County, Pa., where he died in 1830, was a descendant (grandson) of James Thomson, brother of our Pioneer John Thomson, as was also Capt. James Thompson, the Indian fighter, whose family is referred to on page 1335 of "History of Susquehanna and Juniata Valleys." This statement may or may not be correct. Among the noteworthy descendants of Rev. James Thompson is his son William, born 1823 in Alexandria, and now living in Philadelphia at the age of 94 years, who was one of the donors of the Alexandria Memorial Library erected in memory of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gemmill (Stewart) Thompson, and Mrs. Ann Maria Woolverton Kinsloe, granddaughters of Mrs. Elizabeth (Porter) Gemmill, founder of that town.

If the tradition concerning the existence of a brother of Pioneer John Thomson named James is correct—and its accuracy has certainly not been established—it is quite possible that the last-mentioned clue to descendants is the correct one. Of the known children in this line, the son James, called "Uncle Jimmie" was the well-known Indian fighter, Captain James Thompson, who lived in Spruce Creek, Union County, Pa., and in 1781 was captured by the Indians and carried to Canada with a Miss Young, who was sold in Montreal to a man named Young, who proved to be her cousin. James Thompson escaped, and returning to his family, removed them to Chester County. He subsequently located in Buffalo Township, Union County, Pa., and died at the home of his son-in-law Gideon Smith, at the mouth of Little Buffalo near Jersey Shore, on Feb. 9, 1837, aged 93 years, 9 months and 9 days. In addition to the daughter who married Gideon Smith, he had at least one child, William, who married in 1804 Susan Linn, daughter of John Linn, who was probably a son of William Linn, Jr., and grandson of William Linn, Sr., of Scotch-Irish stock, who emigrated to America about 1722, settling finally in Cumberland County, near Shippensburg. To this family belonged John Blair Linn, author of "Annals of Buffalo Valley." William and Susan (Linn) Thompson had four children: (1) James, who was killed by an explosion in 1833; (2) Ann, who married John B. McCalmont, Esq., nephew of Judge McCalmont, and died in 1849; (3) John Linn, who died in Venango County, Pa., leaving a family; (4) William, who lived in New Brighton, Beaver County, Pa.

"Uncle Jimmie," Captain James Thompson, had a brother William, who married Jane Cochran, daughter of George and Ann (Henry) Cochran, and granddaughter of James and Isabella (Cochran) Cochran, and of Rev. James Henry. Of two of their children we have record, namely: Ruth Thompson, born 1781, who died 1874 in Lewisburg, Pa., aged 93, and James Thompson (the Presbyterian minister already referred to), who was born 1791 in Buffalo Valley, Pa., and died Oct. 8, 1830, aged 39 years, in Alexandria, Pa. Rev. James Thompson married Elizabeth Gemmill Stewart, daughter of Thomas Harris and Annie (Gemmill) Stewart, and granddaughter of Zacharia and Elizabeth (Porter) Gemmill. To the memory of Mrs. Elizabeth Gemmill (Stewart) Thompson, who died in 1877, after being a widow for 47 years, was dedicated the Alexandria Library by her son William, as already noted. Rev. James and Elizabeth Gemmill (Stewart) Thompson had four children: (1) William, referred to above, unmarried; (2) Ann, who died unmarried; (3) Elizabeth, who died in infancy; (4) Jane, who died 1880, unmarried.

INDEX TO DESCENDANTS OF PIONEER JOHN THOMSON

Names of descendants are in bold-faced type. The name of the father is also in bold-faced type when he is a descendant of Pioneer John Thomson.

In other cases the father's name is in light-faced type.

INDEX TO ASSOCIATED FAMILY ANCESTORS

The "Descendant Number" referred to is the numeral by which has been designated (in accordance with the plan described on page 15) that individual descendant of Pioneer John Thomson of whose descendants these associated families are ancestors. If each number be looked upon as a decimal fraction, as indicated below, one can readily locate the proper descendant, because the records of the individual descendants have been arranged throughout the book in exact agreement with a consecutive decimal notation.

See page 15.

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

The information we wish to obtain on the family tree, arranged in the order of importance, is as follows:—

FIRST:—The Full Name (not merely initials) of every descendant of the Pioneer, the Full Name of the person married in each case, and the Full Name of each child born to every couple.

SECOND:—The Dates of all births, marriages and deaths.

THIRD:—The Present Address of every living descendant.

FOURTH:—The Place of birth, marriage and death of every descendant.

FIFTH:—A Brief Life Sketch of every descendant—giving only the important items, such as military service, training, education, profession and present occupation.

SIXTH:—The Ancestry—with available dates—of each person who has married into any branch of our family. That is to say, we want the Complete available Ancestral Record of every descendant.

If in doubt as to exactly what is wanted, send all obtainable items of genealogical and biographical nature that would be of interest to any of the descendants of the Pioneer of our family.

It is appreciated that no one person can supply all of the information desired. It is hoped, however, that each person addressed will send all information obtainable and give Clues as to sources of additional information. Please send whatever you have, whether it is little or much.

To the Thomson Cousins :

Now that the Christmas season is upon us, please turn your thoughts towards the best type of gift—one that is valued fully when first received and appreciated more and more as the years go by. To such a gift it is now within your power to contribute without cost to yourself and for the benefit of all your Thomson cousins of not only the present generation, but also the generations yet to come. We refer to the records of the descendants of "John Thomson, Pioneer and Patriot" partly in type and soon to be published in book form.

The value of these records will depend upon their accuracy and completeness. In not one single line are the records as they now stand too elaborate—in some lines they are quite complete, while in others they are too brief to be dignified by the title "record."

No matter whether you have already sent in the records on your branch of the family or not, please devote a few moments of your time to sending, at once, complete records of your immediate family to the compiler,

ADDAMS S. McALLISTER

261 West 23rd Street

New York

THE PRINTED RECORDS

We have no hesitancy in stating that every living descendant of John Thomson, if not now, will later want a copy of the book soon to be published—the grown ones for their own information and the children for use when they in turn grow up.

For your convenience, in case you agree with this statement, an order blank is enclosed. The price has been placed at $5.00, every cent of which will represent money actually spent on the published book itself, the number of illustrations in each copy depending on the number of copies ordered in advance of publication. There will be no reprint, so if you want a copy for yourself or copies for the young ones of your family when they grow up, fill out at once the order blank and send it to

EDWARD S. THOMSON

Thomsontown,

Juniata Co., Pa.

PLEASE NOTE

Even though you do not order a copy of the book (which would be a valuable gift to yourself) please send in the records of your immediate family—which would be a highly prized gift to all of the other Thomson cousins.
