

A LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Hello to our members, friends and family of the SSI. The board of trustees are really moving at a good pace with everything that is happening for the latter half of the year. Contracts are being signed, great decisions are being made and we can say 2023 is a year that the society is coming back in full force.

We would like to note that our library is back up and ready for reviewing - we are looking to have an SSI librarian to join the society and help out with our library. We would like to have someone volunteer to help loan out books to those interested and to keep track of the inventory in person and through our online library. This volunteer will need to be in-person at the monthly meetings as well.

The games committee for this year's games and festival are so enthusiastic about what is coming - the board is ready to get the promotions started soon for this. The presentations for the months to come are going to be wonderful and even got some new ones that should attract more attendance. The society is continuing to monitor and make sure our membership grows, so please ensure that you pay for your memberships.

At this time, do not hesitate to reach out to our board if you have any questions or if you want your ideas heard. With the weather and seasons changing, please stay safe and healthy. Thank you! Slainte!

**INDY ROYAL SCOTTISH COUNTRY DANCING UPDATES****

Indy Scottish Country Dancers (ISCD) closed out 2022 with the Indy Folk Series group on December 31st, 2022. We were contacted in October to join Indy Fold Series for their New Year's celebration. This year's theme was Hogmanay. We performed several dance demos and then invited the crowd to join in with Ceilidh dancing. The highlight of the evening was enjoying the Celtic music of Hogeye Navy. Dancers closed the evening with a wee dram of excellent Laphroaig whisky provided by James and Heidi. See we do dance for fun, food and drink! Many thanks to Mario Joven for inviting us. We are looking forward to 2023 and especially our

Time to get excited! The SSI Board of Trustees along with the Scottish Foundation of Indianapolis are happy to announce that the 2023 Indianapolis Highland Scottish Games & Festival will be officially back this year. The event will be taking place on September 30th - this time at a new venue.

Thanks to the hard work of our games chairs Greg Bowers and Rebecca Lawson - the location will be at the Marion County Fairgrounds. ### Meeting Recap - March 2023 - Scottish Country Dancing with the Indy RSCD

In March, a fun Ceilidh occurred with the presentation of the Indy RSCD. We had a packed house and we had an amazing time. The Scottish country dancing was full of fun, dancing and laughs. The Indy RSCD had shown the following demos - "Mairi's Wedding" which is a dance you would typically dance at a Scottish County Dance

Ball and because we were celebrating International Women's Day by dancing "3 Feisty Women". The society then was asked to participate in a few dances that were group dances. It was a great night overall and one that is always a tradition for the SSI each March.

The board would like to thank Jane Patton and the fellow members of the Indy RSCD for the demos and dances that evening. We enjoy your continuous presentations for the month of March. If anyone is interested, this group does meeting regularly most Mondays of the month. Please check out the "INDY ROYAL SCOTTISH COUNTRY DANCING UPDATES" in the newsletter for their news and updates.

NEXT MEETING: April 2023 - Scots of the Titanic, Part 2

During the pandemic back a while ago, we had a presentation where one of our members was a historian and admirer of the stories, history of the Titanic. We learned about a group of passengers, guests and crewmen that were from Scotland. The presentation was so popular, the society found out there are more Scots that were on the ship that were not discussed. With presenter Debbie Lyle Owens, we would like to have you return to the Titanic for the presentation of "Scots of the Titanic, Part 2". This meeting will take place on Wednesday, April 12th.

Meetings take place at the Latvian Community Center. Social hour will be before 7:00pm with announcements following shortly after. Information about what to bring for the buffet will be provided in the next newsletter.

Presentation will start around 8:00pm or earlier if needed. The board will announce any changes prior to the slated meeting.
