SOUPS.

BROWN STOCK.

2 lbs. shin or shoulder of beef.

Small carrot.

Small onion.

10 small peppercorns.

Stick of celery, or $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful celery seeds tied in muslin.

2 quarts of cold water.

Measure the water into a strong pan ; add salt. Wipe and cut the meat into small pieces, removing fat and skin, and add to the water. Scrape the bone well, remove the marrow, wash to remove the fat, and put into the pan. Bring the stock slowly to boiling-point ; about three-quarters of an hour. Remove any grey-looking scum ; add the prepared vegetables cut into large pieces. Simmer the stock from three to four hours. Strain through a hair sieve. When cold, skim thoroughly. The stock is then ready for soups, etc.

WHITE STOCK.

Proportion and preparation the same as for brown stock ; only use knuckle of veal or bones and trimmings of chickens or rabbits instead of beef. For white stock omit the carrot.

FISH STOCK.

Twopennyworth of fish	6 white peppercorns.
trimmings.	1 blade of mace.
1 onion.	Salt.
1 stick of celery.	1 quart of cold water.

Thoroughly cleanse the trimmings, and put them into a saucepan with the water and salt. Bring slowly to the boil, and skim thoroughly ; add peppercorns, celery, and mace, and allow all to simmer for forty minutes, then strain. This stock can be used for fish soup or sauce.

NOTE. — (1) If better stock is desired a haddock or a cod's head can be used instead of fish trimmings. (2) If fish stock is cooked too long a bitter flavour is extracted from the bones.

CONSOMMÉ.

To clear 1 quart of stock.

Small piece of carrot.	Blade of mace.
„ onion.	6 white peppercorns.
$\frac{1}{4}$ lb. lean juicy beef.	Salt.
1 white and shell of egg.

The stock should be cold for clarifying. Remove all fat, shred the lean beef, and soak it for fifteen minutes in one gill of water. Prepare the vegetables, and cut in slices. Put all the ingredients into a clean rinsed pan, and whisk over a clear fire until almost at boiling-point. Remove the whisk, and allow the stock to boil up with force; then let it infuse for thirty minutes, and strain through a dry cloth. The consommé is then ready for reheating, and may be garnished according to taste. A little light sherry may be added if desired.

N.B.—All garnishes should be rinsed if possible.

CONSOMMÉ À LA ROYALE.

1 quart of clear stock.

Garnish.—1 tablespoonful of milk, white stock, or cream.

1 yolk of egg.

Pepper and salt.

Beat the yolk, add the liquid and seasoning, and strain into a small greased basin. Cover with greased paper, and steam the custard gently. When set, turn out, and cut into fancy shapes.

CONSOMMÉ À LA JULIENNE.

1 quart of clear stock.

Garnish.—1 tablespoonful shreds of carrots.

1 " " turnip.

1 " " green leek.

Cook each separately in boiling salted water till tender ; strain, and rinse with cold water. Add these to the boiling consommé.

CONSOMMÉ À LA JARDINIÈRE.

1 quart of clear stock.

Garnish.—1 tablespoonful turnip in pea shapes.

1 „ carrot in pea shapes.

1 „ green peas.

1 „ cauliflower sprigs.

Cut out of the carrot and turnip round pieces the shape of peas, using a special vegetable cutter for the purpose. Use the red part only of the carrot. Cut the pieces of cauliflower in small sprigs. Cook the vegetables in separate pans of boiling salted water until tender, then drain. Put the clear stock into a saucepan, and bring to the boil. Add the garnish of vegetables, and the consommé is ready for serving.

CONSOMMÉ À L'ITALIENNE.

1 quart of clear stock.

Garnish.—1 dessertspoonful of Italian paste.

Cook the Italian paste in boiling salted water; drain well. Bring the stock to the boil in a clean saucepan, add the cooked paste, and serve.

CONSOMMÉ À LA FRIAR TUCK.

1 quart of clear stock.

Garnish.—1 well-beaten egg.

Bring the stock to the boil; strain into it very slowly through a fine strainer the well-beaten egg, stirring carefully all the time.

CONSOMMÉ À LA CÉLESTINE.

1 quart of clear stock.

Garnish.— $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. flour.

$\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful melted butter.

1 „ „ grated cheese.

1 „ „ chopped parsley.

Pepper and salt.

Make the garnish like ordinary batter, and fry in very thin pancakes. Drain, and cut in strips. Bring the stock to the boil, and add the garnish.

CONSOMMÉ À LA BRUNOISE.

1 quart of clear stock.

Garnish.—1 tablespoonful of carrot cut in dice.

1 ,, turnip cut in dice.

1 ,, celery cut in dice.

1 ,, leeks cut in dice.

Cook the garnish in boiling salted water till tender, then drain. Bring the clear stock to the boil in a saucepan. Add the vegetables, and serve.

CONSOMMÉ A LA MADELEINE.

1 quart of clear stock.

Garnish.—Yellow and pink custard.

1 dessertspoonful Julienne shreds of cooked carrot.

1 ,, ,, ,, leek.

1 ,, ,, ,, truffle.

$\frac{1}{2}$ oz. boiled spaghetti.

Make the custard as for the garnish à la Royale, colouring one half of it pink. When cooked, cut in fancy shapes. Cook the spaghetti and the carrot and leek in boiling salted water. Bring the consommé to the boil in a saucepan; add the garnish, and serve.

CLEAR MULLIGATAWNY.

1 quart first stock.	1 teaspoonful curry paste.
4 oz. juicy beef.	1 onion.
1 gill of water.	1 small carrot.
1 white and shell of egg.	$\frac{1}{2}$ apple.
1 tablespoonful of curry powder.	Salt.
	Lemon juice.

Garnish.—2 oz. cooked chicken.

Shred the beef, and mix it with the water; add to it the curry powder and paste; soak for fifteen minutes. Put all ingredients into a clean saucepan. Whisk till almost boiling. Simmer for thirty minutes, and strain. Re-heat; add the chicken cut in dice, and serve with dry rice.

CLEAR OXTAIL.

1 ox tail.	1 stick of celery.
1 lb. shin of beef.	1 blade of mace.
3 quarts of water.	$\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful white pepper-
1 carrot.	corns.
1 onion.	1 teaspoonful salt.

To clear 1 quart.

4 oz. lean beef.	1 small carrot.
1 gill of water.	$\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful white pepper-
1 white and shell of egg.	corns.
1 small onion.	Blade of mace.

Garnish.—Small rounds of carrot and turnip.

Joint, trim, and blanch the tail. Put on with meat, etc. Cook as for first stock (see p. 3). Simmer five to six hours. When cold, remove the fat, then clear as for consommé (see p. 5). Strain, then add the garnish.

CLEAR BEETROOT SOUP.

1 quart white stock.	½ teaspoonful peppercorns.
4 slices of raw beetroot.	Salt.
1 small onion.	½ gill sherry.
1 stick celery.	Few drops of carmine.
2 whites and shells of eggs.

To garnish.—1 steamed white of egg.

Put all the ingredients into a saucepan, and clear as for consommé (see p. 5). Garnish with the white of egg, cut in fancy shapes. Serve with whipped savoury cream.

DRIED TURTLE SOUP.

2 quarts good brown stock.	1 bay leaf.
1 carrot.	½ teaspoonful peppercorns.
1 onion.	Lemon juice.
1 stick of celery.	Cayenne and salt.

To thicken 1 quart.

1 oz. arrowroot.	1 wineglassful of sherry.

Wash and soak the turtle for four or five days. Rinse and cut in small pieces. Put it on with the stock and vegetables, and simmer for four to five hours till the turtle is tender. Strain through a hair sieve. Thicken with the arrowroot broken with the sherry; add brandy, lemon juice, cayenne, and turtle cut in dice.

MOCK TURTLE SOUP.

2 oz. lean ham.	1 blade of mace.
2 quarts water.	3 cloves.
1 carrot.	$\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful peppercorns.
1 onion.	Salt.

To thicken 1 quart.

1 oz. cornflour.	Lemon juice.
1 wineglassful of sherry.	Cayenne.

$\frac{1}{2}$ oz. suet.	A little grated lemon
$\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful chopped parsley.	rind.
	Beaten egg.

Wash, soak, and blanch the head. Put on with water, salt, and ham; bring slowly to the boil, and skim. Add the vegetables, cloves, etc., and simmer for three to four hours.

Strain through a hair sieve ; leave till cold, and remove the fat. Thicken with the corn-flour broken with the sherry ; add the lemon juice and cayenne, and garnish with the pieces of the head cut in dice and the force-meat balls.

Force-meat Balls.—Mix to a firm consistency, form into small balls, and poach in boiling salted water.

HARE SOUP.

1 hare.	Blade of mace.
2 oz. butter.	$\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful pepper-
3 oz. lean ham.	corns.
2 oz. flour.	Cayenne pepper.
3 onions.	Salt.
3 quarts of brown stock.	Blood from the hare.
Bunch of herbs.	$\frac{1}{2}$ pint port or sherry.

Paunch the hare. Carefully remove the blood ; add to it a few drops of vinegar, and set aside. Joint the hare ; melt the butter ; fry the ham, hare, and onions. Add the flour, and fry to a dark brown. Add the stock, mace, and peppercorns ; bring slowly to the boil ; skim, then simmer for three to four hours. Strain, and remove the meat from the bones. Pass it twice through the mincer ; pound and rub through a hair sieve. Mix the stock carefully into it and bring the soup gradually to the boil. Strain in the blood and wine mixed together, and cook till thickened without boiling. Season and serve.

 Red pepper.

Melt the butter, add the bread-crumbs and the milk, and cook together till thick. Wipe and shred down the fish and pound it with the bread-crumbs mixture, egg, and seasonings. Rub through a wire sieve, add the cream, and shape into quenelles. Lay them on a greased frying-pan, pour round them enough boiling water to nearly cover them. Cover with greased paper, and poach gently for fifteen minutes. When firm, drain well on a heated cloth, dish on potato border, and coat with white sauce. Decorate to taste with red pepper.

LOBSTER CUTLETS.

4 oz. cooked lobster.
1 oz. butter.
1 oz. flour.
1 gill fish stock or water.
1 yolk of egg.
Cayenne, salt, lemon juice.

$\frac{1}{2}$ oz. lobster butter or carmine.
1 beaten egg.
Bread-crumbs.
Fried parsley.

Make a thick sauce with the butter, flour, and stock. Add the lobster, finely chopped, and the other ingredients. Cook over a gentle heat till the mixture binds; then turn out on to a plate to cool. Form into neat cutlets; coat with egg and bread-crumbs, and fry in deep fat. Dish neatly and garnish with fried parsley.

Lobster Butter. See Lobster Bisque, p. 17.

OYSTER CUTLETS.

Recipe and preparation the same as for Lobster Cutlets, substituting twelve oysters for the lobster and omitting the colouring.

ESCALOPES OF FISH.

$\frac{1}{4}$ lb. cooked fish.		A few white bread-crumbs.
$\frac{1}{2}$ pint thin white sauce.		A little melted butter.
Pepper, salt, lemon juice.

Grease some scallop shells and dust with white crumbs. Put a little sauce in each shell, lay in the fish broken in large flakes, and season it. Cover with the remainder of the sauce, sprinkle over a few crumbs, and pour a little melted butter on top. Brown quickly in the oven.

N.B.—Any cooked shellfish, or raw oysters, may be dressed in this way.

FRIED WHITEBAIT.

Pick the whitebait and rinse them very quickly in cold water. Shake them on a floured cloth to dry them. Lay them loosely in a frying-basket and cook in hot fat. Plunge into a second pan of very hot fat (temp. 400°) to crisp them. Drain well, and dish on a napkin. Garnish with lemon and fried parsley. Serve with thin brown bread and butter.

FRIED SMELTS.

Prepare and cook in the same way as white-bait.

RUSSIAN FISH PIE.

Flaky Pastry.—8 oz. flour, etc.

Filling.

1 filleted haddock.	A little grated lemon rind.
1 teaspoonful parsley.	2 tablespoonfuls white sauce.
1 hard-boiled egg.	Pepper and salt.

Cut the fish in small pieces and mix all the ingredients together. Roll the pastry into a square, trim, and turn it, and lay the mixture in the centre. Brush the edges with beaten egg and fold the pastry to the centre. Brush with egg, decorate with leaves, and place on a wetted baking-sheet. Bake in a hot oven for forty to forty-five minutes.

NOTES.—Rough puff pastry may be substituted for flaky. Oysters, prawns, etc., may be added. Cooked fish may be used if liked.

CURRY OF FISH.

1 lb. fish.	1/2 oz. rice-flour.
1/2 oz. butter.	1/2 pint fish stock.
1 teaspoonful chopped onion.	lemon juice.
1 ,, ,, apple.	1 tablespoonful cream.
1 ,, curry powder.

Fry the onion and apple in the butter; add the curry powder and flour, and fry without browning. Add the fish stock and seasonings, and simmer for half an hour. Strain; add the fish cut in neat pieces. Simmer until the fish is cooked. Add the cream and lemon juice, and serve. Hand boiled rice separately.

DRESSED CRAB.

1 cooked crab.

Take off the claws, break them, and remove the white meat. Take out the meat from the shell, and remove the bag near the head. Chop up the creamy meat from the inside with the meat from the claws; season with salt, cayenne, and lemon juice, and mix to a soft consistency with mayonnaise or cream.

Pepper, salt, and cayenne.

 $\frac{3}{4}$ gill aspic.

2 sheets gelatine.

Dishing.—Salad. Chopped aspic.

Line some small cutlet moulds with jelly and decorate them with peas and truffle. Chop the sweetbread very finely, stir in the sauce, seasonings, and the gelatine dissolved in the $\frac{3}{4}$ gill aspic; add this to the beaten cream, and mould when beginning to thicken. When set, turn on to a bed of salad and decorate with chopped aspic.

GALANTINE OF FOWL.

1 large untrussed fowl.	1 dozen pistachio nuts.
1 lb. sausage meat or quenelle meat.	1 truffle.
1 thick slice ham or tongue.	Aromatic spice.
2 hard-boiled eggs.	Pepper and salt.
1 dozen almonds.	Glaze.
	Chopped aspic.

Pick and singe the bird, remove the legs at the knee, wings at the first joint, the head, neck, windpipe, and crop. Cut down the centre of the back and bone the bird. Lay the meat flat and season thoroughly, spread thickly with the sausage meat and arrange the ham, eggs, etc., in strips from head to tail. Roll up tightly, tie in a cloth, and cook in stock, with the bones, from two and a half to three hours. Tie tightly in the cloth and press lightly till cold. Brush over with liquid glaze or coat it with chaud-froid sauce. Dish and garnish with chopped aspic and salad.

GALANTINE OF VEAL.

Proceed as above, using $2\frac{1}{2}$ lb. of breast of veal instead of chicken.

RAISED PIGEON PIE.

Hot Water Pastry.—8 oz. flour, etc. (see p. 194).

1 raw pigeon.	Pepper and salt.
2 sausages.	Stock.
2 pickled walnuts.	Glaze.
Small piece of ham.	Chopped jelly.
3-4 pistachio nuts.	Force meat balls (see Jugged Hare).

Have a raised pie tin greased and line it with pastry. Fill with layers of the pigeon, sausage meat, etc. Add a little stock and cover with a lid of pastry. Make a hole in centre and bake for one and a half to two hours. Fill up with good stock, remove the tin, and leave until cold. Take off the lid, brush the outside with glaze, and decorate the top with chopped jelly. Glaze the forcemeat balls and the pigeon's feet and arrange them on the top of the pie.

VEGETABLES AND SALADS.

ARTICHOKES.

1 lb. artichokes. | $\frac{1}{2}$ pint Béchamel sauce.

Wash, peel, and rinse the artichokes, having a little vinegar or lemon juice in each water to preserve the colour. Cook in boiling salted water, with a few drops of vinegar or lemon juice added, for thirty minutes. Drain, dish, and coat with the Béchamel sauce.

ASPARAGUS.

1 bunch asparagus. | A little oiled butter.
1 slice toast.

Trim the hard ends of the asparagus, scrape lightly, and tie up in bundles according to the thickness. Cook till tender in sufficient boiling salted water to just cover the asparagus, from twenty to thirty minutes. Drain, dish on the toast, and serve with oiled butter or mousseline sauce. An asparagus kettle should be used if possible.

NOTE.—Too much water should not be used for boiling delicately flavoured vegetables.

BRUSSELS SPROUTS AU JUS.

1 lb. sprouts.

Trim and wash the sprouts, and cook in boiling salted water with a pinch of soda for five minutes. Drain, and put them on with the boiling stock. Cook till tender, about twenty minutes, dish neatly; reduce the stock by quick boiling, and pour it round the sprouts.

NOTE.—Carrots, turnips, cauliflower, etc., may be cooked in the same way.

CAULIFLOWER AU GRATIN.

1 cauliflower.

1 oz. butter.

1 gill water.

2 oz. Parmesan cheese.

Cayenne and salt.

1 tablespoonful cream.

Trim, wash, and boil the cauliflower. Drain it and put it on a fireproof dish. Make a thick sauce with the butter, flour, and water; add the seasonings, cream, and half of the cheese, and coat the cauliflower with it. Sprinkle the remainder of the cheese over, and brown in a hot oven.

NOTE.—Artichokes, parsnips, turnips, vegetable marrow, haricot beans, etc., may be served in the same way.

CELERY.

1 head celery.

| $\frac{1}{2}$ pint Béchamel sauce.

Wash and scrape the celery very thoroughly; cut it into lengths, and tie it into bundles. Put them in a pan, cover with cold water, and bring to the boil; skim and strain off the water. This blanching removes the strong taste and whitens the celery. Put sufficient milk and water into a pan to almost cover the celery; add a pinch of salt. When boiling, put in celery and stew till tender, about one hour. Drain thoroughly; dish on a square of toast, and coat with the Béchamel sauce.

CUCUMBER.

Peel the cucumber, and cut it in neat pieces ; scald it, and boil in white stock till tender, about ten minutes. Arrange in a dish, and coat with Béchamel, Hollandaise, or Soubise sauce, etc.

FLAGEOLETS.

Soak the flageolets over night Cook in boiling salted water, with a pinch of soda in it, till tender, from forty to fifty minutes. Drain, and toss in melted butter, or coat with sauce.

DRESSED FRENCH BEANS.

$\frac{1}{2}$ lb. French beans.		Lemon juice.
1 oz. butter.		Glaze.
2 tablespoonfuls velouté sauce.		Pepper and salt.

Garnish.—Fried bread. Chopped parsley.

Wash and string the beans, and cut them into strips. Cook in boiling salted water till tender, about fifteen minutes, and drain thoroughly. Melt butter, add French beans, sauce, glaze, and seasonings, and heat thoroughly. Pile in a vegetable dish, garnish with neat pieces of fried bread and a little chopped parsley.

NOTE.—The beans may be steamed instead of boiled, and may be tossed in a little melted butter.

SAVOURY HARICOT BEANS.

 1 oz. butter.
 1 yolk of egg.
 1 oz. Cheddar cheese.

1 dessertspoonful chopped
 parsley.
 Cayenne and salt.
 A little cream.

Soak the beans over night in plenty of cold water; rinse and put them in a pan with cold water and salt. Boil gently from two to three hours till tender. Drain, and remove the skins. Melt the butter in a pan; add all the other ingredients, and shake over the fire till the beans are well coated with the mixture, without allowing it to boil. Dish and garnish with fried bread.

PEAS.

1 lb. peas.
Boiling water.
Salt.

Sugar.
Sprig of mint.

Rinse the peas and shell them. Have a pan with just enough boiling salted water to cover them. Add the peas with the mint and a pinch of sugar; boil gently till soft, from ten to twenty minutes. Drain thoroughly, toss in the melted butter, and serve.

POTATO CHIPS.

Two or three potatoes.

Pan of fat.

Scrub and peel the potatoes and cut into very thin slices. Keep for half an hour in cold water. Drain very well on a dry cloth. Have the fat smoking hot. Put the chips into a frying-basket and cook until tender, about three minutes. Lift up the basket and let the fat reheat. Put the potatoes into the fat again for a few seconds, until they are crisp and brown. Drain thoroughly on paper, and serve.

POTATO CROQUETTES.

$\frac{1}{2}$ oz. butter.		1 oz. Parmesan cheese.
1 yolk.		Cayenne and salt.

Rub the potatoes through a wire sieve. Melt the butter in a pan ; add all the other ingredients, and cook over the fire till the mixture will roll smoothly into balls. Cool slightly, form into balls, rolls, or fancy shapes ; coat with beaten egg and bread-crumbs, and fry in smoking hot fat. Drain well ; dish and garnish with parsley.

SALSIFY.

1 bundle salsify.		Salt.
Boiling water.		Lemon juice.

Wash and scrape the salsify thoroughly, using lemon juice or vinegar in each water to preserve the colour. Boil in boiling salted water, with few drops of lemon juice or vinegar, till tender, about thirty minutes ; drain and dish. Pour over melted butter, or coat with Béchamel, Hollandaise sauce, etc.

SEA-KALE.

1 basket sea-kale.

Boiling water.

Salt.

Wash and scrape the sea-kale thoroughly, and tie it up in bundles of even thickness. Boil gently for thirty minutes till tender; drain, and serve on toast. Pour over melted butter, or coat with Hollandaise or mousseline sauce.

SPINACH.

Wash the spinach very thoroughly and remove the coarse stalks; put it into a rinsed pan with the water that clings to the leaves. Put the lid on the pan and cook till tender, stirring frequently. When ready, drain and rub through a sieve. Put it into a pan with a small pat of butter and pinches of pepper and salt; allow it to heat thoroughly. Pile neatly on a hot vegetable dish. Garnish with tiny croûtons of fried bread.

STUFFED TOMATOES.

3 medium firm tomatoes.

Stuffing.—1 teaspoonful butter.

1 dessertspoonful chopped ham.

2 chopped button mushrooms.

1 tablespoonful white bread-crumbs.

A little brown sauce or tomato pulp.

Cayenne and salt.

Garnish for Top.—Brown crumbs and cheese.

Dishing.—Rounds of fried bread. Parsley.

Have the tomatoes of equal sizes ; wipe them and cut a small round from each at the end opposite the stalk. Scoop out all the pulp from the inside, and turn the cases upside down for a short time to drain. Melt the butter in a pan and fry the onion and ham thoroughly ; stir in the other ingredients, and have the mixture rather soft. Fill the tomatoes with this ; sprinkle with cheese and crumbs on top, and bake in a moderate oven, from twelve to fifteen minutes, till soft. Dish on the rounds of fried bread and decorate with small sprigs of parsley.

N.B.—Scraps of chicken, sweetbread, game, etc., may be substituted for ham and mushrooms.

VEGETABLE MARROW.

1 medium marrow.		Boiling water.
		Salt.

To coat.— $\frac{1}{2}$ pint melted butter.

Wipe and peel the marrow thinly ; cut in four from end to end, remove the seeds, and cut in neat pieces. Place in the boiling salted water, and boil gently till tender. Drain, dish on toast, and coat with the melted butter.

N.B. — Any good sauce as Hollandaise, maître d'hôtel, cheese, etc., may be substituted.

CRÈME DE LÉGUMES.

1 gill vegetable purée.		$\frac{1}{2}$ gill cream.
3 eggs.		Cayenne and salt.
1 gill milk.

Sauce.

1 $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. butter.		1 oz. Parmesan cheese.
1 oz. flour.		Pepper and salt.
3 gills milk.		Little cream.

Beat the eggs ; add the vegetable purée, cream, milk, and seasonings. Have a plain soufflé tin greased and dusted with rice-flour, or lined throughout with paper. Pour the mixture into this, and steam very gently, without boiling, till firm, from one to one and a half hour. Turn out and coat with sauce.

Sauce.—Make in the usual way, and add the cheese and cream immediately before using.

N.B.—Any vegetable or mixture of vegetables may be used for this cream : artichokes, asparagus, tomatoes, green peas, celery, cauliflower, etc. Cook the vegetables in milk if possible, and use the milk in making the cream.

CELERY SALAD.

1 head celery.		French dressing.
Chopped parsley.

Wash and scrape the white parts of the celery ; cut in lengths and shred very finely. Soak in cold water about one hour till the shreds curl. Drain well ; toss in the French dressing. Pile in a salad dish, and sprinkle a little chopped parsley over.

CUCUMBER SALAD.

1 cucumber.		French dressing
		Chopped parsley.

Peel the cucumber and cut in very thin slices. Arrange these neatly in a salad dish. Pour the French dressing over, and scatter a very little finely chopped parsley over all.

FRUIT SALAD.

Fruit Mixture.

1 small bunch black grapes.		6 French plums.
1 „ „ green grapes.		1 dozen cherries.
1 tangerine orange.		3-4 pieces preserved fruit.
2 bananas.

Syrup.

$\frac{1}{4}$ lb. loaf sugar.		$\frac{1}{4}$ gill rum, brandy, or
$\frac{1}{2}$ pint water.		maraschino.
A little lemon juice.

Skin and stone the grapes; stone the cherries and French plums; remove the skin and pith from the orange, slice across and remove the seeds; slice the bananas and preserved fruit, and put all the fruit in a basin. Boil the water and sugar till thick and syrupy; add the lemon juice and liqueur, and pour over the fruit mixture. Cover over and set aside till cold. Chill on ice if desired. Pour into a glass dish and serve.

N.B.—Instead of making a syrup, the fruit may be arranged in layers in the salad bowl, and a little sugar and liqueur sprinkled over each layer. Place on ice for several hours before using.

LOBSTER SALAD.

1 small hen lobster.
1 lettuce.
1 cooked beetroot.
1 egg.
6 olives.

3-4 gherkins.
6 anchovies.
1 tablespoonful capers.
French and mayonnaise dressings.

Have the lobster boiled and cold, remove the shell, and set aside the best parts of the meat for decoration. Wash, dry, pound, and sieve the coral. Wash, drain, and shred the lettuce, cut the beetroot in neat pieces, and put them in a basin with the remainder of the lobster cut small, olives, gherkins, capers, etc. Toss in French dressing and pile in a salad dish. Mix the mayonnaise with twice its bulk of aspic jelly, and pour over the salad when it begins to thicken. Decorate with strips of gherkin, turned olives, lettuce, lobster coral, and the best parts of the lobster.

MAYONNAISE SALAD.

1 lettuce.	2 hard-boiled eggs.
1 bundle watercress.	$\frac{1}{4}$ cucumber.
1d. small cress.	1 gill thick mayonnaise
2 tomatoes.	sauce.

Wash the green salads carefully, taking care not to bruise the leaves, and drain well on a cloth. Dip the tomatoes in boiling water ; remove the skin, and cut one in sections and one in slices. Peel and chop the cucumber roughly. Cut one egg in neat pieces and chop the others. Set aside the heart of the lettuce, one or two sprigs of cress, etc., for decoration. Arrange one or two leaves of lettuce, torn small, in a salad bowl ; add the remainder of the lettuce, cress, cucumber, one egg, and one tomato to the dressing, and pile high on the dish. Decorate with the neatly cut pieces of tomato and egg, the lettuce and watercress.

N.B.—Any salad in season may be used.

TOMATO SALAD.

3 large firm tomatoes.
3 sticks celery, or
1 bunch watercress or small cress.
French dressing.

Dip the tomatoes into boiling water ; skin and cut them across into thin slices. Shred the celery and leave in cold water for half an hour ; wash the cress well. Arrange the tomatoes in a neat circle in a salad dish, pour the dressing over. Pile the celery or cress in the centre.

HOT SWEETS.

ALMOND TARTLETS.

Mixture.

2 oz. almonds.

1 oz. butter.

1 oz. sugar.

 $\frac{1}{2}$ egg. $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful lemon juice.

A little grated lemon rind.

Short Crust Pastry.—2 oz. flour, etc.

Blanch the almonds and chop them finely. Cream the butter and sugar, and beat in the egg with the almonds, lemon juice, and rind. Make the pastry and roll it very thinly; cut in rounds, turn them, and line some greased patty tins evenly. Half fill the tins with the mixture. Put the tartlets in a hot oven till the pastry is set, then reduce the heat and cook the mixture more slowly. Cook from thirty to forty minutes, till firm and a pale brown colour.

CHOCOLATE TARTLETS.

Mixture.

$\frac{1}{2}$ gill milk.	1 yolk.
$\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful cornflour.	Vanilla essence.
$\frac{1}{2}$ „ butter.	Pinch of cinnamon.

Short Crust Pastry.— $1\frac{1}{2}$ oz. flour, etc.

Meringue.—1 white. 2 oz. sugar.

Decoration.—Cherries. Angelica

Dissolve the chocolate in half the milk, add the cornflour mixed with the remainder of the milk, and boil till thick. Cool, and stir in the rest of the ingredients. Line some greased tartlet tins with the pastry and half fill with the mixture. Place in a hot oven till the pastry is set and the mixture risen and firm, from twelve to fifteen minutes. Pipe the meringue on the top, dust with sugar, and decorate with the cherries and angelica cut in small pieces. Dry off in a very cool oven till crisp without browning, from three-quarters to one hour.

BAKED COCOANUT PUDDING.

4 oz. cocoanut.	1 oz. butter
$\frac{1}{2}$ pint milk.	3 eggs.
2 oz. cake-crumbs.	Lemon juice.
1 oz. sugar.	3 oz. short crust pastry

Meringue.—3 whites of eggs. 6 oz. sugar.

Line and decorate a pie-dish with the pastry. Cook the cocoanut in the milk till softened, stir in the crumbs, butter and sugar, the yolks and lemon juice. Pour into the pie-dish and bake in a moderately hot oven till firm, about forty minutes. Pile the meringue, stiffly beaten, on the top, and bake in a cool oven till crisp.

BAKED LEMON PUDDING.

Trimmings of rough puff or short crust pastry.	2 lemons.
3 oz. castor sugar.	3 oz. cake-crumbs.
3 eggs.	About $\frac{1}{2}$ gill milk.

Line and decorate the edges of a pie-dish with the pastry. Mix the yolks of eggs and the sugar well, then add the sieved cake-crumbs, the grated lemon rind, the strained lemon juice, and the milk. Whip the whites of eggs very stiffly and mix lightly with the other ingredients. Pour the mixture into the prepared pie-dish and bake in a moderate oven for about forty minutes.

WEST RIDING PUDDING.

Trimnings of rough puff or short crust pastry.

2 tablespoonfuls of jam.

2 eggs and their weight in butter, sugar, and flour.

Grated rind of half lemon.

Line the sides of a pie-dish with a thin strip of pastry, then decorate the edges of the dish with fancily cut shapes of pastry. Spread the jam at the bottom of the dish. Cream the butter and sugar well; add the eggs and flour by degrees; beat all the ingredients well; add the baking powder with the last tablespoonful of flour. Pour the mixture into the pie-dish and bake in a moderate oven for about one and a quarter hour.

BANBURY PUFFS.

Mixture.

1 oz. butter.
 $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. flour.
 1 tablespoonful brandy.
 4 oz. currants.
 $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. mixed peel.

Pinches of allspice and cinnamon.
 1 yolk.
 2 oz. moist sugar.

Flaky Pastry.—6 oz. flour, etc.

Melt the butter in a pan, add the flour and brandy, and cook till thick. Cool slightly, and stir in all the other ingredients. Roll the pastry thinly and spread the mixture over half of it. Brush the rest of the pastry with white of egg and fold it over. Brush over with white of egg and dust with sugar, mark the pastry in sections, and lay on a wet tin. Bake in a hot oven for twenty to twenty-five minutes, till well risen, crisp, and brown. Cut into pieces, dust with sugar, and serve.

FRENCH PANCAKES.

1 oz. rice-flour or flour.
 1 oz. butter.
 1 oz. sugar.
 1 egg.

$\frac{1}{2}$ teacup milk or cream.
 Juice of half lemon.
 Jam.

Have one dozen flat round tins well greased. Cream the butter and sugar, beat in the yolk of the egg with a little flour, add the remainder of the flour with the milk and lemon juice. Fold in the white of the egg stiffly beaten, and pour into the tins. Bake in a hot oven till well risen, brown, and firm, about ten minutes. Turn on to a sugared paper, put a little hot jam on each, and sandwich two rounds together. Pile neatly on a hot dish, and dust with castor sugar.

APPLE CHARLOTTE.

1½ lb. of apples.
1 oz. butter.
2 yolks of eggs.
2 oz. of sugar.

Grated rind of a lemon.
Juice of half a lemon.
2 or 3 slices of bread.
Clarified butter.

Peel, core, and slice the apples ; put them in a pan with the butter, sugar, rind and juice of lemon, and stew till soft. Rub this through a hair sieve, and add the yolks. Cut the bread into rounds the size of a shilling, and cut two large rounds to fit the top and bottom of the tin to be used. Dip the bread in the clarified butter, and place a large round at the foot of the tin. Arrange the small rounds in layers round the tin, lining it to the top. Fill the centre with the apple mixture, and place the other large round of bread on the top. Twist a greased paper over, place a saucer with a weight in it on the top, and bake in a hot oven for one hour. Turn on to a hot dish. If any mixture remains after filling, heat it and dish round the charlotte.

BROWN BREAD PUDDING.

4 oz. brown bread-crumbs.

1½ oz. butter.

2 oz. castor sugar.

2 oz. glacé cherries.

2 eggs.

1 gill milk.

Rind of half lemon.

Nutmeg, cinnamon, and lemon juice.

Boil the milk and butter in a saucepan ; add the crumbs, sugar, and cherries, and cook till thick. Break the eggs and add the yolks to the mixture. Mix well, and add flavouring. Beat up the whites stiffly, and mix lightly and thoroughly with the other ingredients. Turn the mixture into a greased tin or bowl and steam gently from three-quarters to one hour. Turn the pudding out, and pour wine sauce round.

CABINET PUDDING.

2 sponge cakes.	½ pint milk.
3 ratafia biscuits.	1 oz. sugar.
2 eggs.	Vanilla essence.

Decoration.—Cherries and angelica.

To serve.—1 gill jam sauce.

Cut the sponge cake in small dice, and crumble the ratafias small. Beat the eggs slightly with the sugar, add the milk heated and the flavouring, and strain this over the cake; soak till quite cold. Grease a plain mould, put a round of greased paper in the foot, and decorate with pieces of cherry and angelica. Pour the mixture into this, and steam very steadily till firm, from three-quarters to one hour. Turn out of the tin and pour the jam sauce round.

CARAMEL CUSTARD.

Caramel.—3 oz. loaf sugar. $\frac{3}{4}$ gill water.

Custard.

2 eggs and 2 yolks, or 3 whole eggs.	½ pint milk.
1 dessertspoonful sugar.	Vanilla essence.

Have an old plain tin dry and slightly warmed. Put the loaf sugar and water in an old pan, and let them boil without stirring till a rich brown colour. Pour the caramel into the tin and line it evenly; leave to become firm and cool. Beat the eggs slightly with the sugar, add the milk heated and the vanilla, and strain into the prepared tin. Steam steadily without boiling till firm, from three-quarters to one hour. Turn out of tin and serve.

CHOCOLATE PUDDING.

2 oz. chocolate.
 $\frac{1}{2}$ gill milk.
 $3\frac{1}{2}$ oz. cake-crumbs.
 $1\frac{1}{2}$ oz. butter.

$1\frac{1}{2}$ oz. sugar.
 2 eggs.
 Vanilla.

Dissolve the chocolate in the milk, boil well for a minute, allow to cool, and add the cream. Cream the butter and sugar, beat in the yolks and dissolved chocolate with the cake-crumbs, and allow to soak for ten minutes. Fold in the whites of the eggs beaten stiffly and the flavouring; pour into a greased basin or china mould; steam steadily till firm, one to one and a half hour. Turn on to a hot dish, and pour custard sauce round.

COCOANUT PUDDING.

1 oz. bread-crumbs.

1 oz. cake-crumbs.

2 oz. cocoanut.

1 oz. sugar.

1 oz. butter.

1½ gill milk.

2 small eggs.

Vanilla essence.

Put the cocoanut and milk into a saucepan, bring to the boil, then simmer for about ten minutes until the milk is absorbed. Cream the butter and sugar, and add the cake and bread-crumbs, the cocoanut, and the yolks of the eggs. Mix well, and flavour with vanilla essence. Beat up the whites stiffly, then mix lightly with the other ingredients. Turn the mixture into a greased bowl, cover with greased paper, and steam gently for about an hour. Turn the pudding on to a hot dish, and pour round jam sauce.

FIG PUDDING.

4 oz. bread-crumbs.	1 oz. mixed peel.
2 oz. flour.	1 oz. cherries.
3 oz. sugar.	Grated rind of one lemon.
3 oz. suet.	3 eggs.
6 oz. figs.	$\frac{1}{2}$ gill cream.
2 oz. sultanas.	Milk if necessary.
1 oz. almonds.

Chop the suet, figs, peel, cherries, and almonds, and mix all the dry ingredients together. Bind with the beaten eggs, cream, and milk, and mix to a dropping consistency. Steam in a greased mould for four hours. Turn out, and serve with custard, mousseline, or wine sauce.

N.B.—Dates or prunes may be substituted for figs.

PLUM PUDDING.

 2 oz. flour.
 $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. suet.
 $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. sultanas.
 $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. currants.
 2 oz. mixed peel.
 2 oz. citron peel.
 2 oz. almonds.

$\frac{1}{2}$ lb. Demerara sugar.
 1 good teaspoonful mixed spices.
 1 lemon.
 4 eggs.
 1 gill brandy.
 1 „ rum (optional).
 Milk if necessary.
 Good pinch salt.

Chop the suet finely with the flour, stone the Valencias, clean and pick the currants and sultanas, and chop the peel and almonds finely. Mix the bread-crumbs, suet, fruit, sugar, spices, and salt together, and add the lemon rind and juice. Beat the eggs and add to the mixture with the brandy and rum. Add milk if needed, and have the mixture of a dropping consistency. Tie in floured cloths, or greased basins, and boil steadily for eight to twelve hours.

N.B.—These puddings may be made several weeks before required, and should have two hours' boiling at least when needed. $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. stewed figs or apples may be added to the above mixture if desired.

RASPBERRY PUDDING.

4 oz. butter.

4 oz. bread-crumbs.

4 eggs.

4 dessertspoonfuls raspberry
jam.

Grease a mould and dust with brown bread-crumbs or ratafia crumbs. Melt the butter, strain it, and stir in the crumbs. Beat in the yolks and jam thoroughly. Fold in the whites beaten stiffly and turn into the mould. Steam gently for one and a half to two hours. Turn out, and serve with any good sauce.

VIENNOISE PUDDING.

5 oz. bread.

3 oz. sultanas.

2 oz. mixed peel.

3 oz. castor sugar.

A little lemon rind.

1 oz. loaf sugar.

2 eggs.

 $\frac{1}{2}$ gill cream. $\frac{1}{2}$ „ sherry.

Put the loaf sugar in an old pan, and burn it a dark brown colour ; add the milk, and let it dissolve. Cut the bread in small dice, clean the sultanas, chop the peel finely ; mix these together with the castor sugar and lemon rind. Beat the eggs ; add the caramelled milk, cream, and sherry, strain these over the bread, etc., and allow to soak at least half an hour. Turn into a greased basin, and steam till firm, from one to one and a half hour. Turn out, and serve with custard, wine, or German sauce.

VANILLA SOUFFLÉ.

Panada.	{ 1 oz. butter.
	{ 1 gill milk.
	1 oz. sugar.
	Vanilla essence.
	3 yolks.
	4 whites.

Tie a double band of paper round the outside of a soufflé tin and place a round of greased paper in the bottom. Grease all thoroughly.

Panada.—Melt butter in a saucepan, stir in the flour, add all the milk, and boil till the mixture is thick and leaves the sides of the pan clean. Cool slightly; add the sugar and beat in the yolks one by one; stir in the flavouring and a little of the beaten whites, then fold in the remainder as lightly as possible. Steam very gently till the soufflé is well risen and firm to the touch, from three-quarters to one hour. Turn out, and serve with jam or custard sauce.

N.B.—The foundation of most soufflés is a thick binding sauce called a panada; if a liquid such as milk or coffee is used in making it, use 1 gill to each ounce of flour; if a thicker liquid than milk is used, as dissolved chocolate, apricot pulp, etc., use $1\frac{1}{2}$ gill to each ounce of flour.

APRICOT SOUFFLÉ.

Panada.	{	1 oz. butter.
	{	1 oz. flour.
	{	$\frac{1}{2}$ gill apricot pulp.
	{	1 „ „ juice.
	{	1 oz. sugar.
		3 yolks.
		4 whites.
Sauce.	{	1 gill apricot liquor.
	{	$\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful arrowroot.
	{	Sugar and colouring.

Panada.—Melt the butter, add the flour and apricot juice and pulp, and cook till thick. Cool; add sugar and yolks separately, and fold in whites beaten stiffly. Turn into a papered soufflé tin and steam till firm, about one to one and a quarter hour. Turn out, and pour the thickened apricot liquor round.

N.B.—Custard or apricot jam sauce may be used instead.

CHESTNUT SOUFFLÉ.

4 oz. chestnut flour.
1 oz. butter.
1 gill milk.
3 yolks of eggs.

4 whites of eggs.
Sugar to sweeten.
Vanilla essence.

Melt the butter, add the chestnut flour and milk, and cook until thick. Add the sugar, vanilla, and yolks of eggs; beat thoroughly. Fold in the whites stiffly beaten, and turn into a greased china soufflé dish. Bake in a moderate oven till risen and firm, about forty to fifty minutes.

Chestnut Flour.—Cut a small piece off the end of the chestnuts and boil them for ten minutes. Remove the husk and brown skin, and cook in milk till tender. Drain the chestnuts and rub through a wire sieve.

CHOCOLATE SOUFFLÉ.

		1 oz. flour.
		1½ gill milk.
		1 oz. chocolate.
		1 oz. sugar.
		Vanilla essence.
		3 yolks.
		4 whites.

Dissolve the chocolate in a little of the milk, boil well, and add the rest of the milk. Melt the butter, add the flour and the dissolved chocolate, and boil till thick. 1 dessertspoonful sugar.

Whisk all together over a gentle heat till cooked and frothy throughout, but do not let it boil. Serve immediately.

BRANDY BUTTER.

3 oz. butter.		4½ oz. sugar.
Brandy to taste.

Beat the butter and sugar together till creamy, and add the brandy. Pipe or pile on a fancy dish. Serve with plum pudding or any rich steamed pudding.

WHITE CHAUD-FROID SAUCE.

½ pint Béchamel sauce.		1 tablespoonful cream.
1 gill stiff aspic jelly.		Seasoning.

Have the sauce and the aspic jelly liquid and cool, and mix them together. Season the mixture, wring through a tammy cloth, and add the cream. Use when just beginning to thicken.

N.B.—Brown or tomato sauce may be used instead of Béchamel sauce to vary the colour and flavour.

MAYONNAISE SAUCE.

2 yolks of eggs.

Pepper, salt.

A little mustard.

1 gill salad oil.

Vinegar.

Put the yolks and seasonings into a basin, and stir in the salad oil drop by drop. When thick and smooth stir in the vinegar.

COLD TARTARE SAUCE.

1 gill mayonnaise sauce.

1 teaspoonful chopped gherkins.

1 " " capers.

1 " " parsley.

$\frac{1}{2}$ " " chervil.

$\frac{1}{2}$ " " tarragon.

Mix all the ingredients together.

JELLIES.

ASPIC JELLY.

6 gills water.	1 stick of celery.
1 gill sherry.	8 white peppercorns.
1 „ mixed vinegars (malt, tarragon, and chilli).	$\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful salt.
Rind and juice of 1 lemon.	The whites and shells of 2 eggs.
1 carrot.	2 $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. French leaf gelatine.
1 onion.

Put all these ingredients into a large rinsed pan. Stir over a clear fire till the gelatine is dissolved. Whisk briskly till a good froth is formed. Remove the whisk, and allow the jelly to boil up with force ; then draw it to the side of the fire and allow it to settle. Strain through a jelly-cloth till clear.

CALF'S-FOOT JELLY.

Stock.

1 ox foot or 2 calf's feet.		5 pints cold water.
-----------------------------	--	---------------------

Cut the foot into four to six pieces, and remove all marrow and fat. Wash and scrape it well in warm water ; put it in a deep pan and cover it with cold water. Bring it to the boil and rinse well, then return it to the pan with the five pints of water. Simmer slowly from six to seven hours, then strain it through a hair sieve into a basin, and allow it to become cold.

To clear the Jelly.—To every pint of stock allow—

$\frac{1}{2}$ gill lemon juice.

1 „ sherry.

3 oz. loaf sugar.

2 cloves.

1 inch cinnamon stick.

Rind of 1 lemon.

1 shell and white of egg.

2 or 3 sheets of gelatine if stock is not very firm.

Carefully remove every particle of grease from the stock with a spoon dipped in hot water, then wipe the surface with a cloth wrung out of hot water. Rinse a well-lined deep pan, and into it put the stock, gelatine (if required), sherry, cloves, and cinnamon. Wash, dry, and peel the lemon thinly, and add peel and lemon juice to the other ingredients. Then add the white of egg and shell washed and crushed. Place this over the fire and whisk it briskly till a good froth rises and it is just beginning to boil; then remove the whisk, and allow the contents of the pan to boil well up to the top of the pan. Draw the pan to the side of the fire, cover it with a plate, and allow it to settle for ten minutes. Tie a linen cloth to the four legs of a kitchen chair turned upside down. Pour some boiling water through the cloth, then pour the jelly carefully through into a scalded bowl, and add the brandy. Strain the jelly three or four times till it is perfectly clear; then cover it with a blanket and allow it to drip through. Rinse a mould or basin with cold water, and when the jelly is cold, but not set, remove the froth from it and pour it gently into the mould. When set, dip the mould in warm water and turn out the jelly.

N.B.—If the sherry is wanted as a stimulant, add it to the jelly with the brandy, as the alcohol evaporates by boiling.

CLARET JELLY.

$\frac{1}{2}$ „ water.

Rind of 1 lemon.

1 inch cinnamon stick

1 bay leaf.

3 oz. loaf sugar.

1 tablespoonful red currant jelly.

1 white and shell of egg.

$1\frac{1}{4}$ oz. French leaf gelatine.

Carmine.

Put all these ingredients into a large rinsed pan; stir over a clear fire till the gelatine is dissolved, and whisk briskly until a good froth is formed. Remove the whisk, and allow the jelly to boil up with force; then draw it to the side of the fire and allow it to settle. Strain through a jelly-cloth till clear; add a few drops of carmine to improve the colour.

LEMON JELLY.

1½ pint cold water.
½ pint lemon juice.
Rind of 2 lemons.
6 oz. loaf sugar.

1 inch cinnamon stick.
2 cloves.
2½ oz. French leaf gelatine.
2 whites and shells of eggs.

Put all these ingredients into a large rinsed pan, and stir over a clear fire till the gelatine is dissolved. Whisk briskly until a good froth is formed. Remove the whisk, and allow the jelly to boil up with force; then draw it to the side of the fire and allow it to settle. Strain through a jelly-cloth till clear.

ORANGE JELLY.

 $\frac{1}{2}$ pint orange juice. $\frac{1}{2}$ „ water.

Juice of 1 lemon.

Rind of 3 oranges.

3 oz. loaf sugar.

 $1\frac{1}{4}$ oz. French leaf gelatine.

Put the water, sugar, orange rind, and gelatine into a stew-pan. When dissolved, infuse for ten minutes; then strain through muslin into a basin. Add the orange and lemon juice, and mould. When set, turn out and serve.

WINE JELLY.

5 gills water.

2 „ sherry.

1 gill lemon juice.

Rind of 2 lemons.

6 oz. loaf sugar.

1 inch cinnamon stick.

3 cloves.

Whites and shells of 2 eggs.

 $2\frac{1}{2}$ oz. French leaf gelatine.

Put all these ingredients into a large rinsed pan. Stir over a clear fire till the gelatine is dissolved. Whisk briskly till a good froth is formed. Remove the whisk, and allow the jelly to boil up with force; then draw it to the side of the fire and allow it to settle. Strain through a jelly-cloth till clear.

PASTRIES.

SHORT CRUST.

$\frac{1}{2}$ lb. flour.	1 teaspoonful sugar.
5 oz. butter.	1 yolk.
$\frac{1}{2}$ „ salt.

Sieve the flour, salt, and baking powder into a basin, and rub in the butter till very fine. Add the sugar. Beat the yolk with a little water, and mix the pastry to a firm consistency with it. Knead lightly till smooth, and roll out to the thickness required.

N.B.—For a plainer pastry, the yolk may be omitted, and only 4 oz. shortening used. If for a savoury dish omit the sugar.

ROUGH PUFF.

 5-6 oz. butter.
 Salt.

Lemon juice.
 Cold water.

Sieve the flour and salt into a bowl; add the butter broken into pieces the size of a walnut. Add the lemon juice and sufficient cold water to make the mixture adhere. Turn on to a floured board, and roll the pastry into a long strip. Fold in three and press the edges together. Half turn the pastry, and again roll it into a strip. Fold in three, and repeat this until the pastry has had four rolls, folds, and half-turns. It is then ready for use. Rough puff pastry is suitable for meat pies, patties, sausage rolls, etc.

FLAKY PASTRY.

 6 oz. butter.
 Salt.

Lemon juice.
 Cold water.

Sieve the flour and salt into a basin, and mix to a firm paste with the lemon juice and cold water. Knead very thoroughly till smooth, and roll out thinly. Spread on one-third of the butter in small pats, sprinkle with a little flour, and fold the pastry in three. Turn the pastry half round, roll out, and repeat twice till the butter is all in. Roll and fold once more. Set aside if possible for half an hour before using it.

N.B.—If the butter is very soft, the pastry may be set aside between the additions of butter.

PUFF PASTRY.

$\frac{1}{2}$ lb. butter.

Cold water.

Have the butter firm, and dry in a floured cloth. Sieve the flour, and mix to a firm dough with the lemon juice and water, and knead very thoroughly. Roll out thinly, lay the butter in the centre and fold the pastry over it, roll and fold in three, and set aside for fifteen minutes in a cold place. Roll and fold it twice, and set aside again. Repeat this twice until the pastry has had seven rolls and seven folds. It is then ready to be rolled out for vol-au-vents, patties, etc.

N.B.—After each roll the pastry must be turned half round before being rolled again.

GENOESE PASTRY.

4 eggs.		3 oz. flour.
4 oz. castor sugar.		3 oz. butter.

Whisk the eggs and sugar over hot water till light and thick, then whisk till slightly cooled. Have the butter melted and the flour heated and sieved, and add them lightly to the mixture. Turn quickly into a greased and papered baking-sheet, and bake in a very steady oven till firm and brown, about thirty minutes. Turn out to cool.

N.B.—This mixture forms the foundation of many small cakes, and can be iced with butter or glacé icing and decorated to taste.

HOT WATER PASTRY.

$\frac{1}{2}$ lb. flour.		$\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful salt.
2 oz. lard or butter.		About $\frac{1}{2}$ gill hot water.

Sieve the flour and salt into a basin. Put the water and lard or butter into a pan, and when boiling pour into the dry ingredients. Mix with a spoon, and when cool enough turn on to a floured board and knead till smooth. Form quickly into the shape required.

CHOUX PASTRY.

2 oz. flour.
1 oz. butter.
1 gill water.
Pinch salt.

Vanilla essence.
1 egg and $\frac{1}{2}$ yolk.
1 gill cream.
Glacé icing.

Dry and sieve the flour. Melt the butter, add the salt and water, and bring to the boil. Beat in the flour; cool, and add the eggs and vanilla essence. Place the mixture in small rolls on a greased tin; bake in a steady oven till brown and firm, about thirty minutes. When baked, scoop out the centre, and fill when cold with whipped and sweetened cream. Coat with glacé icing.

If to be used with a savoury filling, omit the vanilla essence.

CAKES.

CHOCOLATE CAKE.

4 oz. flour.	1 teaspoonful baking powder.
3 oz. chocolate.	3 small eggs.
3 oz. sugar.	Vanilla essence.
3 oz. butter.

Dissolve chocolate in two tablespoonfuls of milk. Cream butter and sugar; add eggs with a little flour. Stir in dissolved chocolate with remainder of flour and baking powder; add a few drops of vanilla essence. Pour mixture into a greased and prepared tin; bake in a moderate oven for about one hour. Ice when cold with chocolate icing.

COCOANUT CAKE.

6 oz. flour.	2 small eggs.
3 oz. butter.	1 small teaspoonful baking
4 oz. castor sugar.	powder.
3 oz. cocoanut.	A little milk.

Sieve the flour, cream the butter and sugar, and add the grated lemon rind. Add the flour, cocoanut, and eggs by degrees, and beat well. Add the baking powder with the last spoonful of flour. Turn into a greased and papered tin. Place in a moderate oven and bake steadily for one and a half hour.

COFFEE CAKES.

2 oz. cornflour.	$\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful baking powder.
3 oz. flour.	1 tablespoonful coffee essence.
3 oz. butter.	2 eggs.

Cream butter and sugar, beat in the eggs with a little flour, then add the coffee essence with the rest of the flour and baking powder. Pour into greased tins, and bake for fifteen to twenty minutes in a moderately hot oven. Ice when cold with coffee glacé icing, and decorate with chopped pistachios.

ÉCLAIRS.

2 oz. flour.	Vanilla essence
1 oz. butter.	1 egg and $\frac{1}{2}$ yolk.
1 gill water.	1 gill cream.
Pinch salt.	Glacé icing.

Dry and sieve the flour. Melt the butter, add the salt and water, and bring to the boil.

Beat in the flour; cool, and add the eggs and vanilla essence. Place the mixture in small rolls on a greased tin; bake in a steady oven till brown and firm, about thirty minutes. When baked, scoop out the centre, and fill when cold with whipped and sweetened cream. Coat with glacé icing.

PETITS CHOUX.

Make as above, and form into small balls. When cooked, fill the centre with whipped cream and dust over with icing sugar.

GENOESE CAKE.

4 eggs.

4 oz. castor sugar.

3 oz. flour

3 oz. butter

Whisk the eggs and sugar over hot water till light and thick, then whisk till slightly cooled. Have the butter melted and the flour heated and sieved, and add them lightly to the mixture. Turn quickly into a greased and papered baking-sheet, and bake in a very steady oven till firm and brown, about thirty minutes. Turn out to cool.

N.B.—This mixture forms the foundation of many small cakes, and can be iced with butter or glacé icing and decorated to taste.

GERMAN BISCUITS.

2 oz. butter.	$\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful ground cinnamon.
2 oz. sugar.	Milk if necessary.
$3\frac{1}{2}$ oz. flour.	Glacé icing.
$\frac{1}{2}$ egg.	Jam.
$\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoonful baking powder.	Cherries.

Mix the dry ingredients together, rub in the butter, and mix to a firm paste with the egg. Roll out thinly, cut into rounds, and bake till firm, about fifteen minutes. When cool, sandwich two together with jam, put a little icing on the top, and place a cherry in the centre.

GERMAN POUND CAKE.

10 oz. flour.	1 lemon.
8 oz. butter.	8 oz. sultanas.
8 oz. castor sugar.	5 eggs.
4 oz. peel.

Cream butter and sugar; add eggs with a little flour, then sultanas, peel (chopped up), and grated rind, with remainder of flour. Turn into a prepared tin, and bake in a steady oven for two hours.

MACAROONS.

2 oz. almonds.	1 teaspoonful rice-flour.
1 tablespoonful ground almonds.	1-1½ white of eggs.
4 oz. castor sugar.	Almonds for top.

Chop the almonds very finely, and pound well in a mortar. Add the sugar, ground almonds, and rice-flour, and pound again. Beat the egg slightly, and mix almonds to a firm consistency with it. Roll into small balls, place them on rice paper, and put a split almond on the top of each. Brush over with white of egg, and bake in a moderate oven till crisp and slightly brown.

MADEIRA CAKE.

8 oz. flour.
 5 oz. butter.
 5 oz. castor sugar.
 Grated lemon rind

4 eggs.
 1 teaspoonful baking powder.
 Citron peel.

Sieve the flour, cream the butter and sugar, add the grated rind. Add the flour and eggs by degrees, and beat well. Add the baking powder with the last spoonful of flour. Turn into a greased tin; place the citron on the top. Place in a moderate oven, and bake steadily for one and a half hour.

MOCHA CAKE.

4 eggs.
 4 oz. castor sugar.
 2 oz. flour.

2 oz. cornflour or potato-flour.
 $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful baking powder.

Whisk yolks and sugar, then add the whites stiffly beaten, and whisk this mixture over hot water till thick. Whisk till cool, and fold in the flours dried and sieved and the baking powder. Place in a greased and papered tin in a moderately hot oven about one hour. When cold, decorate it with mocha icing.

PLUM CAKE.

1½ lb. flour.	4 oz. cherries.
1 lb. butter.	2 oz. walnuts.
1 lb. sugar.	2 oz. preserved ginger.
½ lb. sultanas.	2 oz. almonds.
½ lb. currants.	8 eggs.
2 oz. peel.	Milk if necessary.

Cream butter and sugar, and beat in eggs one by one with a little flour. Add the cleaned fruit and the rest of the flour. Have the mixture of a firm consistency. Bake in a steady oven for four or five hours.

RICE CAKE.

6 oz. rice-flour.	1 teaspoonful baking powder.
3 oz. flour.	2 eggs.
4 oz. butter.	Lemon essence.
4 oz. sugar.

Prepare and bake as for Madeira Cake.

SCOTCH SEED CAKE.

14 oz. flour.	4 oz. almonds.
8 oz. sugar.	1 dessertspoonful baking
8 oz. mixed peel.	powder.
8 oz. butter.	6 eggs.

Prepare and bake as for Plum Cake.

SEED CAKE.

$\frac{1}{2}$ lb. flour.	1 dessertspoonful caraway seeds.
$\frac{1}{4}$ lb. butter.	1 teaspoonful baking powder.
$\frac{1}{4}$ lb. sugar.	A little milk.
2 eggs.

Prepare and bake as for Madeira Cake.

SIMNEL CAKE.

3 oz. flour.	4 oz. currants.
3 oz. butter.	4 oz. Valencia raisins.
3 oz. sugar.	2 oz. peel.
4 oz. sultanas.	$\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoonful nutmeg.
1 teaspoonful baking powder.	Pinch salt.
$\frac{1}{2}$ „ ground ginger.	2 eggs.

Almond Paste.

$\frac{1}{2}$ lb. ground almonds	Vanilla, ratafia.
$\frac{1}{2}$ lb. icing sugar.	Orange-flower water.
1-2 eggs.	Lemon juice.

Prepare the almond paste first. Clean the fruit; cream butter and sugar, and beat in the eggs singly with a little flour; stir in the fruit and the remainder of the flour with the spices, baking powder, and salt. Have it of a stiff consistency. Put half the mixture into a papered tin ; place a layer of almond paste on this, and remainder of mixture on top. Bake in a very steady, moderately hot oven two and a half to three hours. When cold, place the rest of almond paste on top, and decorate with balls of icing if desired. Dust with icing sugar.

Almond Paste.—Pound almonds well ; add sugar and flavourings and enough slightly beaten egg, and mix to a firm consistency.

SPONGE CAKE.

4 eggs.		4 oz. castor sugar.
3½ oz. flour (dried and sieved).

Grease a cake tin, and dust it with a teaspoonful of castor sugar mixed with one teaspoonful of rice-flour. Beat eggs and sugar over hot water till creamy, then quickly mix in the flour. Half fill the prepared tin, and bake the cake in a moderate oven for about one hour.

SULTANA CAKE.

8 oz. flour	2 oz. candied peel.
5 oz. butter.	1 teaspoonful baking powder.
5 oz. castor sugar	2 eggs.
4 oz. sultanas.	A little milk.
Grated rind of half a lemon.

Prepare and bake as for Plum Cake.

SHORTBREAD.

4 oz. flour.	4 oz. butter.
2 oz. rice-flour.	2 oz. castor sugar

Sieve the flour, rice-flour, and sugar into a basin, add the butter, and work all together with the hand till of the consistency of short crust. Form into a round cake either with the hand on the pastry-board, or in a short-bread mould. Place the cake on a greased and papered tin; prick it well, bake it in a good steady oven till beginning to colour, and allow it to crisp off slowly for about one hour.

WALNUT CAKE.

10 oz. flour.
8 oz. sugar.
4 oz. butter.
2 oz. walnuts.
Pinch of salt.

$\frac{1}{2}$ oz. baking powder.
Milk if necessary.
Vanilla essence.
3 eggs.

Cream the butter and sugar, and beat in the eggs with a little flour; stir in the walnuts broken in small pieces and the remainder of the flour, baking powder, and salt. Bake for one and a half hour. When cold, decorate with glacé icing, and with walnuts, butter icing, etc.

N.B.—This mixture may be cooked in two sandwich-tins, and the two halves fixed together with a little walnut-butter icing before being iced. Almonds, hazel-nuts, pine kernels, etc., may be substituted for the walnuts.

WINE FINGERS.

3 oz. flour.		$\frac{1}{2}$ yolk of egg.
2 oz. butter.		$\frac{1}{2}$ tablespoonful sherry.
$1\frac{1}{2}$ oz. sugar.

Decorate.—Chopped almonds.

Rub the butter into the flour, add sugar, and mix to a firm paste with the yolk of egg and sherry. Roll out thinly and cut into fingers. Brush with white of egg, and sprinkle with chopped almonds; bake in a fairly hot oven till brown and firm, twelve to fifteen minutes.

N.B.—These biscuits may be decorated with small pieces of cherry, angelica, etc., or they may be decorated with royal icing before being put into the oven.

MISCELLANEOUS.

ANCHOVY BUTTER.

1 oz. butter.
1 dessertspoonful
anchovy paste.

Colouring.
Cayenne.

Pound all together and pass through a hair sieve.

LOBSTER BUTTER.

1 oz. butter. | 1 oz. live lobster spawn.

Pound and pass through a hair sieve. This is used to thicken and colour sauces and soups.

N.B.—If the butter is to be piped for decoration, substitute cooked spawn.

MAÎTRE D'HÔTEL BUTTER.

1 oz. butter.

1 tablespoonful chopped parsley.

1 teaspoonful lemon juice.

Cayenne and salt.

Work the butter till soft, and add all the other ingredients. If for a grill, set aside till firm. If to be piped, rub the butter through a hair sieve.

MUSTARD BUTTER.

1½ oz. butter.

½ teaspoonful French mustard.

1 „ „ chutney.

1 teaspoonful English mustard.

A few drops of vinegar.

Chop the chutney finely; pound all the ingredients together and rub through a hair sieve.

CHOCOLATE ICING.

2 oz. chocolate.

1 teaspoonful butter.

8 oz. icing sugar.

Vanilla.

Water.

Dissolve the chocolate in a very little water, add the butter, and boil well to give the icing a gloss. Leave till cool. Beat in the icing sugar with enough tepid water to make a coating consistency, and add the vanilla.

GLACÉ ICING.

$\frac{1}{2}$ lb. icing sugar.		Tepid water.
		Flavouring.

Sift the icing sugar, place it in a basin with the flavouring and enough water to make a coating consistency. Beat well, and use at once.

N.B.—Any flavouring may be used, the icing being named accordingly. The water used for glacé icings must not be hot, or the icing will lose its gloss.

BUTTER OR VIENNA ICING.

3 oz. fresh butter.		4 $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. icing sugar.
		Flavouring and colouring.

Work the butter till soft, then gradually beat in the sieved icing sugar. Beat till white and soft, then flavour and colour as desired.

MOCHA ICING.

Butter icing as above, using enough coffee essence to give the colour and flavour desired.

ALMOND ICING.

 $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. ground almonds. $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. icing sugar.

Vanilla.

Orange-flower water.

A few drops of rum.

1-2 eggs.

Pound the almonds well, add the sugar, flavourings, and enough slightly beaten white of egg to mix to a firm consistency.

N.B.—Yolks or whole eggs may be used instead of whites for mixing the icing. They should first be cooked slightly by being stirred over hot water till thickened.

PANARD.

2 oz. flour.

 $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. butter.

1 gill water.

A pinch of salt.

Put the flour in a warm place till thoroughly dry, then rub it through a hair sieve. Melt the butter in a pan, add the water and salt, and bring to the boil. Shake in all the flour, and beat over the fire till the mixture becomes very thick and smooth. Weigh the quantity required.

N.B.—Panard is a thick binding mixture used for quenelles, meat and fish creams, etc., generally in the proportion of half panard to meat or fish.

BRAISING POT.

1 oz. butter.	$\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful peppercorns.
$\frac{1}{2}$ oz. bacon.	A blade of mace.
1 carrot.	A bunch of herbs.
1 small turnip.	Salt.
1 onion.	Stock.
1 stick celery.

Fry the bacon lightly in the butter, add the vegetables sliced thickly ; cover, and allow to fry gently for ten minutes. Pour in enough stock to almost cover the vegetables, and add the peppercorns, etc.

N.B.—Food cooked in this way should be covered over with a greased paper, and basted over with the liquid from time to time. The liquid from the braising pot may be strained into a pan, reduced well by boiling, and served as the sauce for the food braised.
