WALLACE AND DICK.

A SMALL TRIBUTE TO THE WORK OF EACH.

Blessings be on them, and eternal praise, — Wardlaworth.

Eternal praise to Wallace Wight,
Who sent, by dint o' sturdy fight,
Right o'er the border in a fright,
Lang Noddy's Southern sogers.

Praise, loud and long, to auld John Dick,
Who did by law, as with a stick,
Right out o' Stirling parish lick,
The schemo-begetting Rogers!
