SPANISH STUDENTS

From 1784, Spanish boys were admitted to the college for board and tuition, even although they had no wish to become priests. The following list is probably fairly complete for the period it covers.

	Date of admission
1.	6.10.1784	Joaquín de Nava y Campomanes (born c. 1775-76, the grandson of Count Campomanes)
2.	28. 2.1787(?)	Eladio Fernández de Ravago (?) y Montes
3.	"	Francisco Fernández de Ravago (?) y Montes (nephews of Montes, Treasurer General of Spain)
4.	c. 1789	Miguel Angel de Sobrevilla e Iruegas (son of college administrator; left the college c. October 1797; wounded in battle, retired with rank of lieutenant-colonel; married, 1813; became college administrator; died, 28th January 1832)
5.	20.10.1791	Pedro de Nava y Campomanes (brother of no. 1; left the college, 1798)
6.	8. 5.1793	Agustín de Tricio y Naxera (born 1785/86; related to college administrator; from Santander (?))
7.	20. 2.1794	Gaspar de Sobrevilla e Iruegas (brother of no. 4; "followed commerce"; died, 24th November 1803)
8.	5. 5.1797	Josef Arangoiti (expelled because a bad influence on others; joined army, was in Godoy's guard, 1802, and killed in battle, c. 1812)

10.	"	Josef de Linares
11.	28. 7.1798	Romualdo Mon y Velarde
12.	c. 1798	Juan Fernando de Aguirre (probably a pupil; made Alcalde de la Quadra, Seville, 1802)
13.	13.10.1800	Josef Aspiroz (left the college, 27th August 1804)
14.	25. 5.1801	Ruperto Bringas
15.	"	Antonio Bringas
16.	23. 9.1801	Manuel Sorzano
17.	9.10.1802	Manuel Ruiz (from Madrid)
18.	10. 4.1803	Josef Altuna
19.	22. 8.1803	Francisco de Horcasitas y Serma (?)
20.	29.10.1803	Martín Sorzano
21.	2.11.1803	Agustín Tavira (relative of Bishop Cameron's consecrator?)
22.	28. 1.1804	Angel Peña

In 1804, there were fourteen Spanish pupils in the college at the one time. Two years later there were twelve and, in 1822 or just earlier, there were seven. However, the names of those admitted from 1804 onwards are not available. The custom probably ceased soon after 1822.
