Responsibilities

The Mindful Traveller Inc. (o/a Uniglobe Discover Travel) and the University of Guelph and any of its Associations act only as agents for the suppliers of travel conveyance, transport, accommodations or other services and have no responsibility for any delays, delayed departure or arrival, missed carrier connections, loss, death, damage or injury to person or property or accident, mechanical defect, failure or negligence of any nature however caused in connection with any accommodation, transportation or other services or for any substitution of hotels or of common carrier equipment, with or without notice or for any additional expenses occasioned thereby.

Dates, itinerary details and tour costs, although given in good faith and based on tariffs, exchange rates and other information current at the time of printing, are subject to change at or before the time of departure. No revisions of the printed itinerary or its included features are anticipated; however, the right is reserved to make any changes, with or without notice, that might become necessary, with the mutual understanding that any additional expenses will be paid by the individual passenger.

Baggage and personal effects are the sole responsibility of the owners at all times.

The right is retained to decline, accept or retain any person as a member of this trip at any time, when such action is determined by The Mindful Traveller to be in the best interests of the health, safety or general welfare of the tour group or of the individual, subject only to the requirement that the portion of the total amount paid which corresponds to the unused services and accommodations be refunded without interest.

Passengers requiring extraordinary assistance must be accompanied by someone who can and will be totally responsible for providing all required assistance.

If the entire program is cancelled for any reason, participants shall have no claim other than for a full refund without interest.

By forwarding the deposit, the passenger certifies that he/she has no physical, mental or other condition of disability that would create a hazard for himself/herself or other passengers and accepts the terms of this contract.

The airlines and other transportation companies concerned are not to be held responsible for any act, omission or event during the time passengers are not on board their conveyances.

The passage contract in use, when issued, shall constitute the sole contract between the company(ies) and the passenger and/or purchaser of this trip.
