As a member of Clan Hall Society, you have the opportunity:

- To join others in celebrating your Scottish heritage, customs, and culture and to learn more about our forebears together.
- To be part of an organization dedicated to promoting the history of the Anglo-Saxon border region between Scotland and England.
- To be a part of an organization where the members share a common ancestry.
- As a member, you will receive the Clan's newsletter, "The Border Reiver", published quarterly, full of educational and entertaining articles to keep you informed of Clan activities. Members are encouraged to contribute articles and comments.

The system of commissioners across the country will keep you up-to-date on local and national activities.

The Clan Hall Society was established in 1993. It is a nonprofit organization, tax-exempt under IRS section 501(c)(3). Contributions are tax deductible to the full extent of the law.

For over 350 years, up to the end of the 16th Century, in the area along the Scottish and English border, there reigned the "Steel Bonnets" to the clash of steel and thundering hooves. The great border Clans feuded continuously among themselves. Robbery and blackmail were everyday professions - raiding, arson, kidnapping, murder and extortion were an acceptable part of the social system. The Scottish light cavalry, riding "Hobby" horses, were riding raiders known as the "Border Reivers".
