Mary of Argyle.

I HAVE heard the mavis singing
His love-song to the morn ;
I have seen the dew-drop clinging
To the rose just newly born ;
But a sweeter voice has cheered me
At the evening's gentle close,
And I've seen an eye still brighter
Than the dewdrop on the rose,
'Twas thy voice, my gentle Mary,
And thine artless, winning smile,
That has made this world an Eden,
Bonnie Mary of Argyle.

Tho' thy face may lose its sweetness,
And thine eye its brightness, too,
Tho' thy feet may lack their fleetness,
And thine hair its sunny hue ;
Still to me wilt thou be dearer
Than all the world can own ;
I have loved thee for thy beauty,
But not for that alone,
'Twas thy heart, my gentle Mary,
And its goodness was the wile,
That has made me thine for ever,
Bonnie Mary of Argyle.
