PREFACE

It was in 1866 that Hew Scott completed the work which resulted in the first edition of Fasti Ecclesiae Scoticanæ. The Latin means 'Register of Officials of the Church of Scotland' and Scott's purpose, in his own words, was 'to present a comprehensive account of the succession of ministers of the Church of Scotland since the period of the Reformation'. This volume, the eleventh in the series, takes the record forward from 1975 to the present. As in previous volumes the entries are arranged under presbyteries. However, it should be noted that synods were abolished in 1992.

While editorial responsibility has rested with me as Principal Clerk, the detailed work has been undertaken by Monica Stewart, Editorial Assistant. I gladly acknowledge my considerable indebtedness to her. Thanks are also due to Faith Brennan who designed the database and has provided invaluable IT support throughout the project, to Maurice Berrill who proof read the final text before publication and to T&T Clark Ltd., Publishers. The co-operation of Presbytery Clerks and ministers in supplying information, checking forms and returning them by due deadlines has been a vital aspect of the work and this also is gratefully recognised.

Finally, a particular word of thanks is due to the Very Rev Dr Andrew Herron, who, as a labour of love, maintained his own record of ministerial changes since the publication of Volume X. This meticulously detailed work, generously made available, gave a 'head start' to the publication of the current volume.

CORRECTIONS

Corrections applying to FES X can be found within the text of this present volume.

We have been advised of the following corrections to previous volumes (FES I–IX):

1. JAMES ESDAILE, educated at University of Edinburgh, not St Andrew's as in FES IV, 232;
2. DAVID INGLIS, born at Brechin, not Dairsie as in FES V, 402;
3. ARCHIBALD GIBSON (FES VIII, 13): Jean Pringle was not the mother of Archibald Gibson, but rather of Alexander Gibson (FES I, 166; II, 31; IV, 343). Archibald Gibson was not 'of the Gibsons of Drurie', rather the aforementioned Alexander Gibson was of this family.
