2010 CLAN LESLIE SOCIETY INTERNATIONAL GATHERING

My Dear Bothers and Sisters;

It is my pleasure to announce that the 2010 Clan Leslie Biennial Gathering will be held at the Rural Hill Festival and Loch Norman Highland Games on April 16, 17 and 18, 2010 in Huntersville (Charlotte) North Carolina. You will remember that the Clan Leslie will be the Honored Clan at the 2010 Festival.

I am happy to announce that our distinguished Clan Chief, the Honourable Alexander Leslie who represents our Scottish ancestors back to our founder will be attending the games. We should all be proud to attend this Gathering to share with our Chief the celebration of our Scottish heritage. As he has committed his time to show his support of Clan Leslie Society International by attending, we should show ours by respectfully giving him a proper welcome and a few days of our own. I am calling on all members to try their best to attend the Rural Hill Festival and Loch Norman Games in 2010.

The planning is coming along well as there will be many items on the agenda to keep us busy.

The Drury Hotel at 6920 Northlake Mall Drive, Charlotte NC 28216 has been reserved for our kinsman and leadership. You can contact them at 704-599-8882 to confirm your hotel reservations. Deluxe rooms will be $65.00 a night and the two room suites will be $104.99 a night. When you contact them please use the group code 2069424 for the group rates.

I am presently planning the reception, gate tickets, transportation, Dinner and CLSI meeting schedules. Please be patient with me as I will have the Package and membership pricing soon (negotiations ongoing).

I am also considering an early day golf package for those individuals who wish to come a day early (Thursday). The hotel we will be staying in has a beautiful shopping and dining area close by along with some of the most serene and majestic landscaping for tours and picnics. I suggest coming a day or two early just to visit our glorious communities and scenic highways.

I recommend that all those who plan to attend please make your hotel reservations as soon as possible so we can confirm and plan for the correct number of those attending.

I will have the Schedule of Events and Package pricing out to you soon. I look forward to seeing you there and lifting a toast in your honor!

Thank You and Many Blessings,

Paul Aulbach – 2010 CLSI Gathering Chairman

2009 CLAN GATHERING, EDINBURGH

We counted 28 Leslie's, Lesslies and Abernathy's in our group for the Gathering on July 25th and 26th and in the parade. In addition we had many visitors to our Clan Leslie Tent and signed up some new members. This was a tremendous experience for me and I had so many new and enjoyable experiences that I am still working on writing them down. The October Grip Fast will be dedicated solely to reporting on this Gathering with contributions from several of those who were there. Look out for it; it is sent to Clan Leslie Society International members.

Tom Leslie donated a bag full of great books for the Clan Leslie Library. Sue and I were able to carry them home in our baggage.

The two Brian Lesslies, Petra and Catherine did a great job of looking after the people who stayed in Perth, preparing the tent and providing food for all of us at the tent.

Elsie Montgomery sent this You Tube Video of the parade that shows the Leslies at about 1.30 on the video. <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Z4ERHSj6KD0>

Sue and I went north to Peterhead to see our cousins and had a good time there. Here is a picture of one of the newest Leslies, cousin Milly. Her great grandmother was my dear aunt Fanny Smith.

I have hundreds of photos and I am collecting more from all the folks who were there I will find a way to make them available.

William Leslie will be the Chief's representative for Clan Leslie members in North America. This appointment is a great honour and has been held by only two individuals in the past, Alexander Leslie Klieforth and Robert E. Leslie. Abernathy's who attended the Gathering.

2009 CONFERENCE OF CLAN CHIEFS SCOTTISH PARLIAMENT, EDINBURGH

I was honoured to be invited by our Clan Chief to attend the Conference of Clan Chiefs in the Scottish Parliament buildings on Friday July 24th. Those of you who want to see the entire proceedings can do so on Electric Scotland at: http://www.electricscotland.com/history/articles/scottish_chiefs.htm

CLAN CHIEF, THE HON.ALEXANDER LESLIE GREETED BY THE DUCHESS OF CORNWALL

I took some pictures of our Clan Chief meeting with the Duchess of Cornwall, (Camilla) and Prince Charles.

A WORD FROM THE NEW COMMISSIONER FOR NORTH AMERICA

There are two main issues facing the Clan Leslie Society International that I can see at the moment.

1. We need to strengthen our membership. The members of the CLSI are the people who keep the Clan Leslie alive. These are the people who are working to help preserve the history of the Clan, to preserve its documents, promote education in Scottish culture and history and protect the treasures of the Clan. We would be very much able to do more of these things if every member was to recruit at least one new member. How about giving CLSI memberships as Christmas presents to sons and daughters and cousins.
2. From the fine members we have, we need more people to volunteer to do the work of the CLSI. There are people doing more than one job and there are jobs that are vacant. Important jobs like the Convenor for Canada have been vacant for too long. I challenge you to count how many on the List of Council and Appointed Officers on the last page have more than one job. I would love to be the Convenor for Canada but I cannot take on another job, however, I would be very willing to work with anyone who wanted to try that job. Hello, Nova Scotia, any Leslies there?

STORM OVER CORONADO, A MYSTERY NOVEL, by PEGGY LESLIE & DONNA JEREMIAH

Firstly, thanks for all you do in putting together Grip Fast. It's a LOT of work!

Secondly, I have co-authored Storm over Coronado, a mystery novel, along with Donna Jeremiah (wife of Dr. David Jeremiah, our pastor and founder of Turning Point Radio and TV Ministries).

The book has been published by Xulon Press and should be showing up in bookstores soon. Meanwhile, the best way to order it is through amazon.com, barnesandnoble.com, or booksamillion.com. The price is $14.99--but it can be purchased for as low as $11.88 on amazon.com. All us Scots like a good bargain, don't we?

This was a really fun project that Donna and I are glad we undertook even if the book were not already selling well (which it is). We've had quite a number of calls, emails, notes, and personal contacts saying things like, "It kept me up all night" or "I couldn't put it down," or "I didn't figure out 'who dunnit' until the very end." We are very thankful to the Lord for helping us write this book and for the many people who are enjoying and being blessed by it. For anyone who really loves having "signed" copies, Donna and I are making up some stick-on labels with both our signatures.

Oh yes, a brother and sister in the novel plan to attend Edinburgh University for a semester. Thanks and God bless!

AVAILABLE ONLINE: THE FAMILY OF LESLIE FROM 1067 TO 1868-9 BY COL. C. LESLIE.

From: Pat Trachier

Hello William; Some time ago, I was sent an e-mail which took me to Google Book Search, specifically to the historical records of "The Family of Leslie from 1067 to 1868-9" by Charles Leslie.

Google explains that this is a copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves, its copyright expired and is now in public domain. It was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable and accessible online.

I had nearly forgotten about this site, although I did download it to my computer, and I came across it recently and thought that it might possibly be of some use.

You may already be aware of this site, but I thought that I would pass it along to you just in case and if you so wished, you could evaluate it for somehow including it into the Clan Leslie Library, that is if the Library can accept this type of media. Of course, it can be printed (about 650 pages).

Anyway, take it for what it is. I just thought that maybe it could be of some use, at least until an actual copy of the book is discovered and donated (if it has not already been done).

<http://books.google.com/books?id=lyENAAAAYAAJ&pg=PA1&dq=Family+of+Leslie>

Regards, Pat

Hello Pat thank you for this information. This set of books seems to be very much in demand. Besides this Google site, several universities have electronic copies available from their libraries. I remember finding it at Oxford, the University of Toronto and others. I did talk to the Head Archivist at Guelph about making it available through their library. I cautioned them that this could be simply a link, since so many libraries had scanned digital copies. They probably will do this somehow. David Leslie White in Texas donated an original set of the three volumes to the Clan Leslie Collection and I have a set in nearly new condition which will end up there someday. In addition to all this, someone has been selling bound photocopies for several years. The cost of these photocopies is high enough to make you think of downloading your own copy from Google. You are right; I think many members would be interested in this web site. Thanks again.

BOOK REVIEW: THE GILT AND THE GINGERBREAD BY ANITA LESLIE

If you have been so fortunate as to stay overnight at Castle Leslie in County Monaghan, Ireland, have slept in the bedroom as we did where the ghost of her soldier uncle Norman Leslie might appear, or even have had dinner in the glorious dining room, you will be interested in reading this autobiography written by Anita Leslie; this was her childhood home after the First World War. She describes with great witticism and affection her memories of family, including her cousin, Sir Winston Churchill, and many famous friends. Anita grew up with her brother Jack (now called Sir John, in his nineties, and a current resident of the castle), her Irish father, Sir Shane Leslie, who seldom spoke to her, and her American-born mother, a woman who loved travelling, parties and the social life of these Edwardian times. Although precocious, Anita did not learn to read until age nine due to being shunted from one strange school and convent to another in England, Ireland and Europe.

Few young women of the upper classes held careers, being quite obsessed with cocktail parties and fashions, so it was highly unusual that, besides writing many other books, Anita distinguished herself during the Second World War as an ambulance driver for the Free French forces, serving in Italy and France. For her bravery, she was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the Government of France. She died at the age of 71 and is buried on the grounds of her beloved Castle Leslie.
