'Kissin' Cousins'

If you've been following the TV series, "Who Do You Think You Are?" you may have seen the Brooke Shields' episode. She is told that her family descends from the French king, Henry IV. Henry's grandson, Louis XIV, is/was her first cousin.

Wait a minute! He lived from 1638 to 1715. How could he be a first cousin after all these years? The genealogist quickly said, "many generations removed."

Oh, and what does that mean?

Especially for those of us living in the South, the term "kissin' cousins" is a familiar phrase. So is "second cousin." Now, "kissin' cousin" has no real basis in genealogy, but "second cousin" and "first cousin once removed" do.

But what exactly do they mean, and who exactly are they, and how the heck do you figure it out?

The best explanation I've seen involves a diagram of relationships.

Start with a common grandparent.

The common grandparent = X

A grandchild = GC

A great grandchild = GGC

A great great grandchild = GGGC

A great great great grandchild=GGGGC

Now if we line these up:

X

GC

GGC

GGGGC

How many "Gs" does a GC and another GC have in common? The answer is 1, so that makes them first cousins.

How many "Gs" does a GGGC and another GGGC have in common? The answer is 3, so that makes them third cousins.

Now what if you have a GC and a GGC? They have one "G" in common, so that makes them first cousins.

But, just as in math where you cross out the common numbers and still have a remainder, you must count the extra "Gs." The number of extra "Gs" indicates how many times the cousins are removed. In this case the remainder is one, so the relationship is first cousin, once removed.

What about a GGGGC and a GGC? The number of common "Gs" is two, so second cousins. The remainder is two, so twice removed.

A GC and GGGGGC? One common "G" so first cousins, five remaining "Gs" so five times removed.

Back to Brooke Shields and King Louis XIV. Even though over 400 years separated Louis XIV from Brooke Shields, they had a common ancestor, Louis XIV's grandfather, King Henry IV.

If you count the Gs, they truly are first cousins, many times removed.

That's all there really is to cousins and being removed. Now the mystery is gone.

Back to "kissin!"

Cousin Spotlight: Children of Sarah Utley Massey

Sarah Wilma Utley was the only child born to Raleigh Hulon Utley and Emma Elizabeth McLemore. Sarah was born in Huntingdon, Carroll County, Tennessee on March 4, 1930. She married Elmer Massey on July 26, 1947 in Hernando, DeSoto County, Mississippi. Sarah and Elmer had three children: Michael Joseph Massey, Steven Henry Massey, and Elizabeth Lynn Massey.

Our "Cousin Spotlight" for this issue features these three children of Sarah and Elmer Massey.

Michael Joseph Massey

[In response to a questionnaire, Mike Massey wrote:]

"My name is Michael Joseph Massey. I am called Mike.

I was born at 10:00 a.m. on December 9, 1949 at St. Joseph's Hospital in Memphis, TN. I am told that there was heavy snow on the ground, so the family couldn't get to the hospital to visit.

First childhood memory: My mom and dad rocking me in a rocking chair.

Early memory about celebrating Christmas: My mother blew fake snow on the Christmas tree with the vacuum cleaner.

Memory of starting school: My mother peeling my hands off the steering wheel to get me out of the car to go into school.

Memorable family vacation: A trip in the family car to Chicago to see my grandmother (Sarah's mother, Elizabeth Graef). What stands out in my mind most: snow and whippings.

My first paying job: USAirways, pilot, 25 years (captain). I retired from USAirways in 2005, early retirement.

My formal education: Horn Lake School, grades 1-12; Northwest Mississippi Jr. College; Mississippi State University, Bachelor's Degree in Business.

My favorite subject in school was math; my least favorite subject was English.

I first met my spouse (Terri) at a horseback trail ride in Eminence, Missouri in the Ozark Mountains. We were married on Valentine's Day [February 14] in 1996, at the Husky Grove United Methodist Church, in Sevierville, TN, by Rev. Clyde Fisher. Terri and I re-dedicated our lives to Christ during the ceremony.

Memories of Utley grandparents: Unfortunately, due to divorce, I didn't get to know my Utley grand parents; I met my grandfather [Raleigh Utley] one time.

My children are: Elizabeth Massey Parker born August 19, 1979; Michael Joseph Massey, Jr. born December 30, 1982; Madeline Leigh Massey, born October 10, 1991; and John Gaines Massey, born August 25, 2000. All were born in Memphis, TN.

My grandchild is: Elizabeth's son, John Thomas Parker, born July 28, 2007 in Kerrville, Texas. She is expecting a baby girl, due this summer.

Military service: 1 year aircraft maintenance school—TN Air National Guard [US Air Force]; 3 years as aircraft mechanic with the Guard; 1 year Air Force pilot training; 4 years piloting for TN

National Guard including 9 months' service in Southeast Asia and Viet Nam. All service was 1968-1976.

Honors and activities: Fund-raising for St. Jude Children's Hospital; active member of First Presbyterian Church; retired from USAirways with 30,000 hours of flying time with no incidents; and recipient of several agricultural and business awards including those for soil and water conservation, and Agribusiness of the Year.

If my home caught on fire and I could go back to retrieve an item [assuming all people and pets were safely out], I would choose a set of four framed pictures of my children because they are the best things that have happened in my life.

If I could give advice on how to live a happy life, I would say: Thank God for how you've been blessed in your life, every day.

I truly enjoyed my childhood and enjoyed my whole life. Losing my brother and my father are the exceptions; those are the biggest voids in my life."

—Mike Massey, March 2010

Steven Henry Massey 1954-2001

Steve was born March the 5th in 1954 and died December 7th 2001.

Steve graduated from Horn Lake High School. He was a great football player and I think he must have had a great time in school, He may have even been the class clown.

He attended Northwest Jr. College and graduated from there and then started farming with his dad.

Steve and Brandi Massey

He married Debbie Hayes and they had one great daughter Brandi. Brandi now lives in Memphis TN and is Assistant manager of Ann Taylor Loft.

I know that if Steve's house caught on fire he would go back for his guns if family was safe as he was a great hunter and loved to hunt and fish.

Wish he were still with us.

—Sarah Massey, March 2010

Elizabeth Lynn Massey

[In response to a questionnaire, Lynn Massey wrote:]

My full name is: Elizabeth Lynn Massey Grenfell. I'm called: Lynn. I was born on Monday, August 19, 1957 at the Methodist Hospital in Memphis, TN. I am told that my father was so happy to announce to my grandmother that he finally had a beautiful brown eyed daughter with dark hair after having two handsome young sons!

Early childhood memory: Riding ponies and playing on the farm with my two older brothers.

Early memory about celebrating Christmas: My dad and I always had the honor of finding that special Christmas tree and every year it was too big to fit in the door of our house. We were never able to find the right size tree.

Memory of starting school: I was so excited to finally ride the school bus with my big brothers.

Family vacation memory: On our summer trip to my grandmother's home in Chicago, I had an emergency appendectomy and I stayed with her for one month to recover!

My first paying job was Secretary at Deposit Guaranty National Bank, Jackson, MS. My longest employment was Secretary to the Senate Finance Committee for the Mississippi State Senate. I retired from the Senate Finance secretarial position in August, 1983, prior to the birth of our first child Sarah.

My formal education: The University of Mississippi, 1975-1979, BS in Business. My favorite subject was English, and my least favorite was History.

I met Jim [Grenfell] in Jackson, MS at Deposit Guaranty Bank while I was working as a summer intern between my junior and senior year at Ole Miss. We were married May, 9, 1981 at the Senatobia United Methodist Church by Rev. Bowen Burt. My parents honored us with a beautiful wedding surrounded by many friends. It rained and rained all night, but my father was thrilled because it was just what the crops needed, therefore, he could pay for our wedding!

Special memories of my Utle grandparents: My grandmother, Emma Elizabeth McLemore Utle Graef, lived in Chicago when I was a child and we loved the trips to the big city. We visited the Sears Tower where she worked along with all of the other fun things that Chicago had to offer. She always spoiled us with her famous Christmas cookies.

My children are:

Sarah Elizabeth Grenfell, August 22, 1983, Jackson, MS

Catherine Byrnes Grenfell, March 31, 1986, Jackson, MS

No grandchildren.

Awards and activities: Northminster Baptist Church committee chair; Our Fondren Neighborhood Association Board of Directors; Delta Delta Delta Sorority Chi Chapter House Corporation Board of Directors; The Gallery Guild of the Mississippi Museum of Art; Sustaining Member of the Jackson Junior League; The Debutante Club of Mississippi Mother's Club; and Mississippi Children's Museum Partners.

If my home caught on fire and I could go back in to retrieve only one thing (assuming all people and pets were safely out), I would choose: Photographs of my family.

If I could give advice on how to live a happy life, I would say: Be yourself and always treat others as you would want them to treat you.

March 9th he will go to assisted living. just briefly...the cancer is bad and getting worse!...If you would like to send him a note or card, I will get it to him personally. Sue Bates, wife of Bobby Bates, emailed on February 27, 2010, "I had received a message that a distant cousin on my hubby's Bates side wanted to speak with me so I placed the call half anticipating that I was to be chewed out for some error within his family group. I'd never spoken with him previously and had only communicated sparingly via email. As it turned out, he was a very pleasant fellow to converse with!

As the conversation unrolled, it developed that he wants Bobby and I to have the ancient and treasured Bible of Stephen Bates (1764-1849), son of Revolutionary War veteran Francis Bates. The book has been in his possession for some decades now and he wanted it to go to someone in the line who is carrying the Bates surname, unlike himself who is descended from one of the daughters or granddaughters of Stephen.

The publication date in the "Bates Bible" is 1832 and predates the family arriving in mid-MI by about 4 years. I'm still in shock. We are truly honored! Best, SueB"

On March 6, 2010, Geraldine Rainey emailed, "We are spending our time trying to keep warm and going to doctors. We have had more snow this winter than all the time we have been in NC put together. We are both doing amazingly well considering our age and all that is wrong with Glenn. The heart seems to be fine but they are just fighting the prostate cancer now. So far so good. Love to you, Geraldine and Glenn"

~Raleigh~

From Sarah Utley Massey, "I have just celebrate my 80th birthday and the children Mike, Terri, Lynn and Jim gave me a beautiful party at Mike and Terri's with over 100 guests. It was from 4 o'clock until 6 o'clock with family dinner afterwards. Most of the grand children were unable to attend. Catherine Grenfell in New York, Elizabeth and family in Texas, Sarah in Nashville and Michael Jr. had just had surgery on a broken ankle. The ones that were there were Brandi, Gaines and Maddie.

We will have a busy Spring and Summer. Maddie graduates in May and will be going to college in the fall. She is looking at Alabama and LSU. She hopes to get a dance scholarship in Dance. She now belongs to the Memphis Dance Elite.

Sarah Grenfell will be getting married in Nashville to Durham Pettigrew on the 14th of August and they will live there as both have jobs in Nashville and have made many friends there. The wedding parties have already started.

2010 Utley Family Reunion

The 2010 Utley Family Reunion will be held on Sunday, July 24, at 11:30 a.m. This year's reunion will be held at Brooksie's Barn in Jackson, TN.

Brooksie's Barn, located at 561 Oil Well Road, has a salad bar and a lunch buffet with pork barbeque, chicken strips, catfish, barbequed ribs, Southern fried chicken, and all the usual side dishes. Their pineapple fritters and cobblers are fabulous.

We will not have a reserved room, but will all sit together in the large dining room.

Our generous anonymous relative will again pay for the meal.

This will be a more casual reunion than in years past, with no family reports, programs, displays of family photos, memorial service, etc. However, we would like to have a headcount for the restaurant.

If you plan to attend, please contact Jackie Utley at the email address, phone number and/or address on the front page of this newsletter before July 19.
