

FAC SIMILE
OF AN ANCIENT
HERALDIC MANUSCRIPT
EMBLAZONED
BY
SIR DAVID LYNDSEY
OF
THE MOUNT.
LYON
KING OF ARMES
1542

EDITED BY DAVID LAING, LL.D.

EDINBURGH, PUBLISHED BY WILLIAM PATTERSON.

MDCCCLXXVIII.

1/2 5/8 - 1/2 1/2

IN issuing the present edition of Sir David Lyndsay's Heraldic Manuscript, the Publisher has to lament that his revered friend, the Editor of it, has not been spared to witness its publication. In the preparation of the plates, Mr Laing took a lively interest, and frequently expressed his gratification at the manner in which they were executed. With regard to the prefatory matter, it was Mr Laing's intention to have amplified it, but his failing health for some time past prevented him from doing this, and accordingly it was thought best simply to reprint, with such minute alterations and corrections as might be necessary, the letterpress which he had prefaced to the original issue of the work in 1822.

As the Arms and Quarterings of many old Scottish families, omitted by Sir David Lyndsay, occur in manuscripts immediately subsequent to his time, the Publisher has been induced to undertake to issue a companion volume, which will be carefully prepared under the supervision of Robert Riddle Stodart, Esq., Lyon Clerk Depute.

In conclusion, the Publisher cannot refrain from expressing his hearty appreciation of the skill and intelligence of Messrs Scott & Ferguson of this city, to whom was committed the preparation of the plates in the present volume.

THE ORIGINAL ADVERTISEMENT PREFIXED TO THE FIRST EDITION ISSUED IN 1822.

THE Original Manuscript, of which the present Volume exhibits a Fac-simile, is of unquestioned authenticity, and considerable importance. It is one of the earliest Heraldic collections extant, and the blazonry presents no unfavourable specimen of the state of the Arts in Scotland at the period of its execution.

The Work is ascertained, from internal evidence, to have been emblazoned by SIR DAVID LYNDSEY of the Mount, Lyon King of Arms in the reign of James the Fifth. The following autograph of the Author is attached to the blazon of his own arms :

“The Armes of Sir David Lyndesay of the Mount, Ryncht, alias Lion King of Armes, Autor of this present Booke, Anno Domini, 1542.”

It belonged at one time to SIR JAMES BALFOUR of Denmiln, Lyon King of Arms in the reign of Charles the First, and bears the following attestation in his hand-writing, of having been authenticated by the Privy Council of Scotland in the year 1630.

“This Booke and Register of Armes, done by Sir David Lyndesay of the Mount, Lyon King of Armes, Regn. Ja. V. contienes cvi. leaves; which register wes approbened be the Lordis of his Majesties most honorable Privie Counsaile at Halierude hous, ix. Decem. 1630, (signed) Sir James Balfour Lyon; Thomas Dryisdal Elay Herald, Register.

SIR DAVID LYNDSEY'S “Booke and Register of Armes” came into the possession of the Faculty of Advocates, along with the other Manuscript Collections of Sir James Balfour, in the year 1698. Although the Work has undergone no recent alterations, it certainly does not remain in the state in which it was originally completed by its author, whose first intention obviously was, that each page of the latter portion of the Volume should contain the armorial bearings of four families. There is, however, every reason to believe that the smaller shields, in the centre of the pages, were introduced at no distant period after the completion of the Work, and it is probable that they were emblazoned by Sir David Lyndsay. It may be noticed as a proof of this, that on the seventy-seventh leaf, the autograph "Lyndesay of the Mount, the Auctor of this present Buke," has been partially erased to make room for the Arms of Lyndesay of Dunroddis.

As the leaves of the Manuscript were neither numbered, nor any index of the armorial bearings framed, prior to the approval of the Register by the Privy Council, it is impossible now to ascertain either the precise extent of the interpolations, or the period at which they were inserted. They cannot, however, be numerous, and have been retained in the present Fac-simile, as they do not detract from the value or authority of Sir David Lyndsay's original Work. It will be found to contain, in addition to the Armorial Bearings of many Foreign Princes, and of various members of the Royal Family of Scotland, a Scottish Peerage, and Baronage. The former includes the Arms of one hundred and fourteen of the Ancient Nobles of Scotland, and the latter exhibits the Shields and Quarterings of one hundred and ninety-four of the Principal Families in the Country. Some of the blazons are accompanied by notes and explanations in the handwriting of the Author, all of which have been engraved in Fac-simile.

According to the attestation by Sir James Balfour, the original manuscript consists of one hundred and six leaves. In this number, either some of the leaves containing inscriptions were not reckoned, or a mistake in counting them was made, as the actual number is one hundred and eleven; several of which have inscriptions and arms (as are mentioned in the foregoing Register) drawn on the reverse side of the leaf. Most of these having been printed off separately, the number of engraved leaves contained in the present volume, is therefore enlarged to one hundred and thirty-three.

Along with the original manuscript are thirteen additional leaves of armorial bearings, executed at a subsequent period.* These as forming no part of Lyndsay's authenticated work, have not been engraved: but the following list will show what they contain; and it adds to the value and interest of the original work, to find that it had passed through the hands of the successors of Lyndsay, as Lyon King of Scotland.

1. 'Theas are the armes of the right worschipfull Sir Robert Foirman, Lyon King at Armes, who was creat at the . . day of—Motto, 'Sola Spes.'

* The thirteen leaves here referred to, the Publisher intends to include in a companion volume to the present work, to be issued in 1879.

2. The Royal Arms of Scotland ; much inferior in point of execution to those at the beginning of the original manuscript.
3. 'Steward Duk of Lewenox.'—Motto, 'Avand Darle.'
4. 'Stewart Erle Arrane.'—Motto, 'Dat incrementum Deus.'
5. 'Stewart Erle Orknay.'—Motto, 'Sum fuit est et erit.'
6. 'Ruthwene Erle Gowrie.'—Motto, 'Dead Senan.'—On the left hand side is the figure of an armed knight with a scroll, 'Tibi soli,' looking up to a crown.
7. 'Maxwell Erle Mortoun.'—Motto, 'I byde ye fair.'
8. 'Keith Lord Dignavell.'—Motto, 'Sis Deo gratus.'
9. 'Lord Claud Hamiltoun of Paislay.'
10. 'Theas are the armes of the right worschipfull Sir William Stewart, Lyon King at armes, who was creat be Queen Marie the 20 of Februlare, 1567.'
