

Chapel of Garioch:

The war memorial was erected in 1919 and is sited in the grounds of the parish church. It is a tall granite Celtic cross centred with a carved wreath. The names of the dead of WWI are on the dressed front of the shaft. The base also granite is in the form of a rough dressed boulder. The dead of WWII are listed on a small block which is set into the original base. The memorial commemorates WWI and WWII, and is inscribed "To the glory of God and in memory of the men from this parish who gave their lives in the Great War 1914 - 1919".
