
GENERAL INDEX.

A

	PAGE
ABSOLUTION and extreme unction, a serio-humourous dialogue between a priest and a soldier on a dying negro	229
Advice to a young traveller	114
——— unwelcome to an Englishman	151
Apathy (chirurgical) an anecdote	188
Architecture (Gothic) built for posterity, and as a dwelling for heavenly contemplation	26
Aristocratical (Nature not)	180
Arms (standing) are the support of Despotism	125
Atmosphere (infectious) the human constitution proof against it	249
Avalanches , account of them	435
Aversion , (reasonable) an humorous dialogue	103
Audience , (French and English theatrical) picture of	891
Aura Epileptica described	259

B.

Barracks , should be rare in Great Britain	160
Basil , description of	251
Beauty and Deformity , their effect on the female character	5
——— (female Italian) description of	4. 0
Beggars , the name of the Dutch heroes	261
Believer (the) and Atheist , a Dialogue	17
Benevolence (heroic), an anecdote	333
——— pleasures of	453
Benevolus , characteristic anecdote of	369

INDEX.

	PAGE
Parlia , description of	158
Bern , description of	263
Biscayan (the) proud of his independence, a characteristic dialogue	213
Blindness (political) exemplified in some predictions of Mirabeau	57
Blood (the circulation of) a glorious discovery due to Dr. Hervey	261
Books , utility of them	1
Boy , (the workhouse) an humorous dialogue	363
Pravo , (Captain) sketch of the life and adventures of	418
Fritcn , the North and South	38
Brunella , (Countess) sketch of her character	146
Erunswick , description of	351
Brute creation , (eulogy on the)	420
Bull , (John) is quarrelsome when angry	62
— (Golden) a bon mot	78

C.

Cakes (the land of) eulogy on	216
Card (a polite)	426
Castle , (the, and the modern cottage orné) inspire various sentiments	241
Catholics (struach Roman)	239
Catholicism , and Protestantism , a dialogue on their nature	304
Centuries , (scientific errors of the 15th and 16th)	462
Chance amateur , an anecdote	246
Characters (various European)	4
Christian , (the true) a moral dialogue	189
Chimnies , method proposed for sweeping them	16
Charity , (fashionable dialogue on)	431
Cicisbeo , character of a male and female)	327
Clement XV. (picture of)	332
Clergy (the) manifested their public spirit in building churches	27
Club (the jacobin)—its origin and effects	376
Comfort of a poor old Soldier	138
Companions or Friends	5
Cocagna , description of this Neapolitan amusement	100

INDEX.

PAGE

Commercial and non-commercial towns—while the first are the seat of religious indifference, the second are that of superstitious piety 480

Commerce flies from the grasp of despotism 161

Concluding scene of nature, (description of the) 290

Condition of a Soldier, its severity explained in a dialogue 80

Connoisseur, humourous instance of Connoisseurship in a French Officer 79

————— (the) an anecdote 311

Convulsions, (political) produce great men 318

Commoner, (the sedate) an humourous anecdote 225

Consultation, a characteristic dialogue 205

Coquetry, far from being innocent 246

Corday (Maria Charlotte) sketch of the life and death of 396

Courage and humanity, an interesting anecdote 395

Country, (nature)—a sound soothing to the heart 213

Court of Spain, (picture of the) 244

————— of Vienna 451

Courtier (the German) how affectionate 89

————— sincere 149

Coxcomb 416

Credulity, an anecdote 302

Crepidam (ne sutor ultro)—a maxim true in mechanical professions, but not in the exertions of the mind 276

Crime, (le, fait la honte & non pas l'echaffaud)—a fortunate maxim for the French 250

Cruelty and Courage meet sometimes in the same breast 151

Crusades (republican) no longer fashionable in France 199

Custom (Royal) of eating in public is not amusing 124

D.

Debts of honour, (dialogue on) 476

Deer Hunting in Spain, the manner of described 65

Dependents very dangerous company for youth 150

Descriptions tedious when too often repeated 121

Despotism and Anarchy, the second renders the first less odious 163

Devotion and Gallantry (French) a ludicrous instance of it 145

INDEX.

PAGE

Diseases, (power of curing) must be the ultimate effect of medicine - - - - -	295
Dictionary (charms of a) described by a lady—an anecdote	8
Discipline (Military) improved in Germany, by great severity	140
Discontent singular instance of it - - - - -	77
Dresden, (description of) - - - - -	445
Drums (Military) commanding devotion—an anecdote - -	133
Dutchman, instance of his phlegmatic temper - - - -	148
Dumourier, (sketch of) - - - - -	253
Duë's, (method of preventing them) - - - - -	338

E.

Education (British) English youth more successfully educated in England than on the continent - - - - -	23
Elizabeth, (princess of France)—her conduct before her judges - - - - -	259
Eloquence (model of) ridiculous - - - - -	150
Emperor of Morocco, much beloved by his subjects—a bon mot - - - - -	111
England, praise of by Mirabeau - - - - -	52
English Beauty, more striking in the country - - - - -	153
Englishmen naturally melancholic—an anecdote - - - -	31
——— generally envied - - - - -	120
——— do not enjoy life - - - - -	173
Ennui, intoxication, a pernicious contrivance to cure it - -	177
Ennui, (recipe against) an anecdote - - - - -	330
Envy and Candour, a characteristic dialogue between two young ladies - - - - -	456
Equality - - - - -	118

F.

Fanchon, an interesting narrative - - - - -	69
Ferocity, horrid instance of it in a French youth - - - -	163
Fevers, (malignant) were formerly more frequent - - - -	247
——— divided in many kinds - - - - -	465
Fighting - - - - -	176
Firmness, a remarkable instance of it in an English sailor	59

INDEX.

	PAGE
Finances, (French) state of - - - - -	359
Florence, its description - - - - -	41
Footman, (the hysterical) an anecdote - - - - -	72
Fop, a ridiculous and unfeeling being - - - - -	151
Fortunes, (Great) prove often the misfortune of youth - -	6
Fracas, (theatrical) an anecdote - - - - -	423
Frankfort on the Main, its description - - - - -	166
Frederick the Great, sketch of his character - - - - -	22
Freedom, sometimes noxious - - - - -	299
French in 1779, and 1792, (picture of the) - - - - -	401
Frenchman a bad cicisbeo, a conversation - - - - -	125
French Nation, unfit for freedom - - - - -	119
Friendship, very rare - - - - -	112
Friendship and devotion, an anecdote - - - - -	329
Frivolity is sometimes led to crimes - - - - -	165

G.

Gallantry (Monkish) a droll instance of it - - - - -	125
Gallantry, (French) an anecdote - - - - -	373
Gamesters (fortunate) not always honest - - - - -	114
Gaming-table (fashionable) portrait of it in dialogue - -	145
Garrick and le Kain—parallel between those two actors -	178
Generosity found in the lowest ranks of life - - - - -	53
Geneva as it was, description of - - - - -	53
Genius should be applied to the good of mankind - - - -	62
Gentlemen (fine) lost without a valet - - - - -	22
Geographers (Italian) an instance of their ignorance - -	203
George the Second, (sketch of) - - - - -	303
Glauciers, (rumoured increase of) - - - - -	582
Gaitres—their cause - - - - -	375
Good Breeding misplaced - - - - -	124
Government, (republican) always gigantic in its ambition -	322
Grandees (Spanish) sketch of their manners - - - - -	13
Gravity, men and books ill-judged, when devoid of it - -	27

INDEX.

II.

	PAGE
Hair-dresser conversation of a French one - - - - -	95
Happiness , a witty repartee - - - - -	302
Hater (sincere) a nonsensical expression - - - - -	129
Hatred soon betrays itself - - - - -	158
Health , (solicitude about) renders people tiresome - - - - -	270
Heidelberg , (description of) - - - - -	260
Heraldry (rage for) an anecdote of a taylor - - - - -	319
Hercules , (the Farnese) criticism on the - - - - -	571
Hidalgo , sketch of his life - - - - -	223
Highwayman and pistols , a shrewd observation - - - - -	423
High-treason too easily suspected—an anecdote - - - - -	211
Holy orders sometimes entered into from the most improper motives - - - - -	203
House of Commons , (an observation on the) - - - - -	437
Humanity , a characteristic dialogue - - - - -	334
Hypochondriasis , (description of) - - - - -	293

I.

Ideas not innate , an anecdote - - - - -	221
Idiots , revered in Savoy - - - - -	367
Jealousy , is rarely cured - - - - -	159
Ignorance , when felt may be dissipated - - - - -	6
———— not to be praised, because philosophy has lately disturbed empires - - - - -	52
Impressions (First) never altered - - - - -	118
Improvisatori , in general mean poets - - - - -	93
Incredulity , (unreasonable) an anecdote - - - - -	574
Influenza , (various remedies for an) a characteristic dialogue - - - - -	390
Inhumanity , found in too many beings - - - - -	157
Ian , (an) a characteristic scene in - - - - -	439
Inquisition , an account of it - - - - -	182
Insensibility , astonishing in capitals - - - - -	7
Insolence , when mean and when ridiculous - - - - -	143
———— irritates more than injustice - - - - -	251
Integrity (reputation of) - - - - -	287
Intoxication is pernicious to the constitution - - - - -	231
Invalid (the contented young) an interesting narrative - - - - -	174
———— (the conversation of an) - - - - -	324
Joseph (Emperor) picture of - - - - -	378

INDEX.

	PAGE
Josephina , a few remarkable sayings of the empress - - - - -	141
Joseph - - - - -	141
Italians , picture of the - - - - -	447
Italy (picture of) and of the Italians, in a Scotch noble's letter to one of his friends - - - - -	153
Jubilee , its nature, origin, and effects - - - - -	19

K.

Karlscruch , (description of) - - - - -	349
--	-----

L.

Landscape painting —Italy is its best school - - - - -	32
Laocoon , an anecdote - - - - -	88
—— (criticism on the) - - - - -	528
Lark , (the) a sentimental fragment - - - - -	386
Lausanne , (description of) - - - - -	281
Lazzaroni , a characteristic sketch of them - - - - -	101
Legacy , an affecting anecdote - - - - -	159
Letter (modest) from a member of the national convention to Louis XV. - - - - -	64
—— of a travelling groom giving an account of Paris - - - - -	191
—— of Advice to a young lady - - - - -	207
—— of a faithful servant - - - - -	283
Libels encouraged by being so much sought after - - - - -	102
Liberality (Royal) more pernicious than useful - - - - -	84
Lisbon , (description of) - - - - -	451
Liveries , and armorial bearings, allowed to every subject of Great Britain - - - - -	241
Louis the well-beloved , an anecdote - - - - -	66
—— XVI. - - - - -	69
—— XV. (sketch of) - - - - -	255
—— XIV. (picture of) - - - - -	284
—— (St.) du Louvre—description of - - - - -	381
Lombard-street praised - - - - -	202
Loyalty (French and English)—a short sketch of both - - - - -	273
Lyons , (description of) - - - - -	293

M.

Majesty of the people , an observation of Mirabeau, and a bon mot of an Englishman - - - - -	123
Melice , when tolerated - - - - -	113

INDEX.

	PAGE
Man , (good enough sort of) a description of him - - - -	146
— of Wit , has many enemies - - - - -	225
Manheim , (description of) - - - - -	355
Manners (Prussian) imitative of those of the French - -	152
Marat , a sketch of his character - - - - -	67
Marie Antoinette , Queen of France , picture of her character and misfortunes - - - - -	29
Mary Queen of Scots —her defence - - - - -	196
Marriage , strong reason against it - - - - -	207
— (for God's sake) - - - - -	290
Masquerades , why pleasing to to the Germans - - - -	124
Massacres , (eloquent speech of Verginaud on the) - - -	443
Memorable places excite curiosity - - - - -	124
Men of letters , their influence and Manners in France - -	11
— (parallel between and animals) - - - - -	271
Mentz , (description of) - - - - -	283
Merchant , (the generous) in England - - - - -	384
Milan , (description of) - - - - -	453
Milanese (the) and Swiss Peasants —a parallel - - - -	347
Ministers of State are in want of philosophy in their retreat	127
Mirabeau , characteristic portrait of that celebrated speaker	225
Misfortune , braces the soul - - - - -	179
— (a philosopher under) - - - - -	243
Modesty (artist's) an instance of it - - - - -	62
Monarchy (hereditary) insures the peace of a kingdom - -	127
Monologue , (a judicious) - - - - -	378
Mont Blanc , (poetical description of the) - - - - -	363
Mountaineers are generally generous and kind-hearted - -	195
Mountebank , (the Neapolitan) humorous speech of one of them - - - - -	89
Murano , (the island of) description of - - - - -	306
Murderer , (ill-fated) anecdote of a native of Berlin - - -	59
Museums common in Germany, and tiresome to travellers -	11

N

Naples , its description	96
Nature , concluding scene of	290
Necessities —a Priest is a necessary evil	78
Necker , sketch of his character	122
Negroes (an inferior race) an anecdote	14

INDEX.

	PAGE
Nobles (French) their degeneracy the cause of their fall	165
Nonchalans, (les) picture of	137
Nun, (the) an anecdote	293

O

Officer exhorted to kindness towards the soldier	19
Opinions no crimes, nor ought they to be punished, when they do not disturb the peace of society	257
Orleans (Duke of) sketch of his character	215

P

Painting (a plea for) an humorous anecdote	222
Paris, (a picture of) under the tyranny of Robespierre	353
Paris, picture of that town in 1779 and 1792	153
Parliament, (member of) his qualifications and duty, a sar- castic dialogue	2
Parliamentary debates, a bon mot	88
Pasquinade on the statue of Louis XV.	361
Passion (ruling) humorous anecdote of a Frenchman	172
Passions, (natural expressions of)	164
Peasantry, (Italian) less wretched than formerly	400
Peerage, (French and English)—parallel	518
Perfection not to be found among men	149
Persecution makes men obstinate martyrs to their opinions	203
Petrarch and Laura, (an anecdotic dialogue on)	114
Peuple, (le) Souverain de France , tyranny of	175
Peuple (le)	177
Philosophy, (true) its nature described	141
Physic (the profession of) ill judged by the vulgar of men	102
Physicians, (ignorance of) not to be too much wondered at	51
Physiognomy, often deceitful	16
————— its science erroneous	117
Piety is nursed by adversity	164
————— (filial) an instance of it	125
Pius the 6th, (picture of)	468
Platonic, sketch of his character	171
Pleasure, (parties of) their description	51
————— better tasted after business	113
Politeness, its utility and charm	132

INDEX.

	PAGE.
Politeness, (French) not natural	291
Populace is soon excited to excesses	313
Popularity, more important, and sought after in England, than in any other country	263
Port-wine, (eulogy on) in a dialogue	365
Possesso, (the) description of	478
Postillions, picture of them in various countries	142
Post-master, speech of a formal one	129
Power (and Liberty) are seldom on good terms	220
Press (freedom of the) is the bulwark of Liberty	134
Presbyterian, (the Scotch, and Clement XIV.) an anecdotic fragment	91
Pride and madness, an anecdote	240
Pride (and vanity) definition of both	171
— (national) an anecdote	12
Prince of Peace, a portrait	210
Princes (the German) picture of	356
Prophecy (fulfilled) in the effects of the French anarchy	291
Protestant, (a sensible French) dialogue of—on religion	426
Prudent (and Compassionate) two different characters deli- neated	74

R

Reasoner (sensible)	298
Religion does not consist in vain ceremonies	250
Restlessness, exemplified in the life of a gentleman	136
Revolution (French) reflections upon it	218
Revolution (French) an awful and instructive event	290
Riches and enjoyment do not always meet	287
Robespierre, a portrait of him	151
Roche, (St.) humourous anecdote and verses on	372
Rocheffoucault, (M. de la)—his character and fate	296
Roi, (le) the import of that word for the various nations of Europe :	178
Roman ladies, (sketch of the)	301
Rome, (description of)	458

INDEX.

S.

	PAGE
Sailor, (the) an anecdotic dialogue - - - - -	357
Sangrado (Dr.) - - - - -	365
Salt-herring , judicious memorandum of a student in medicine - - - - -	144
Sarcasm, (happy) because useful, an anecdote - - - - -	7
Schools (public) give to youth manliness and sociability of character - - - - -	9
Scoundrel , a witty observation - - - - -	337
Sculpture (ancient and modern) merit of the - - - - -	466
Selfishness , an instance of - - - - -	428
Seminaries of learning have sometimes an usurped reputation - - - - -	457
Sensibility , the true is very rare - - - - -	113
Sensibility and ferocity , an anecdote - - - - -	127
Sentinel (the) an anecdote - - - - -	357
Slavery (Military) should fall to the lot of other men than the happy peasant - - - - -	161
Slaves (necessity of laws for protecting) - - - - -	292
— (Negro) a dialogue on their character between a West-India planter and a humane physician - - - - -	308
Soldier , his pay is very small, a dialogue - - - - -	85
Son, (the natural) a repartee - - - - -	33
Spaniards , picture of the - - - - -	315
Spies are a set of despicable wretches - - - - -	298
Squander , picture of a man of that character - - - - -	186
St. Peter's at Rome, and St. Paul's at London - - - - -	259
Statua Statuæ - - - - -	362
Statues , the view of, very interesting - - - - -	31
— very numerous at Rome - - - - -	36
Strasbourg , picture of it - - - - -	169
Street Orators , their merit in various towns of Italy - - - - -	33
Suicide prevented only by the thought of immortality - - - - -	117
Swindler (the basest) picture of - - - - -	432
Swiss peasants —sketch of them as well as of their dress - - - - -	255
Switzerland , picture of - - - - -	256
System, (nervous) very little known to us - - - - -	299

INDEX.

T.

	PAGE
Talent , bon mot of a Frenchman on English taciturnity	148
Taste , (natural) an anecdote	36
—— (for letters) useful to a young man of high rank and fortune	83
Tiara , its fatigues and dullness	106
Titles and Ribbons , abused by the people who cannot obtain them	286
Torpid (Lord) a sketch of his character	145
Traineau Parties	254
Transubstantiation , explained	15
Travellers , some are very fastidious	194
Travels (utility of) for young men of rank and fortune	44

V.

Valetudinarian (the and his physician) a characteristic dialogue	179
Vanity , (mistaken) in servants	63
Vanity never dies	333
Venetians , picture of the	313
Venice , description of	360
Versinary (the) of General Quebec , an humorous narrative	388
Vevay , description of	360
Vexation , whence it proceeds	112
Vienna , description of	428
—— (the court of) sketch of under the reign of the Emperor Joseph	451
Vintage , a gay season of the year on the continent	120
Vis Medicatrix Natura , nature of the	463
Unhappy Union , an historical fragment	108
Voltaire , some bon mots of that celebrated author	75
—— picture of	264
Upstarts , more common in England, than in any other country	181

W.

Women , description of the French, German, and English	143
Workhouse Boy	363

Y.

Youth (the intemperate) picture of	416
--	-----