(3.) The duty imposed by this section shall not be payable upon the value of leaseholds passing by will or devolution by law or of property included in an Account delivered according to section thirty-eight of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1881, as amended by this Act, in respect of which value duty has been paid under the last preceding section.

therein, the value shall be the principal value of such property based upon the annual value estimated after making such allowances (if any) as ought to be made under the said Act. The duty payable in respect of such principal value shall not in any case exceed the amount which would be chargeable upon an annuity equal to such annual value according to the highest value in Table III. in the Schedule of the Succession Duty Act, 1853 :

(b.) In the case of an increase of benefit accruing to a successor, and chargeable to succession duty by reference to sections five, twenty, or twenty-five of the Succession Duty Act, 1853, where the value of the succession, apart from the increase of benefit, shall exceed ten thousand pounds, such increase of benefit shall be chargeable with duty under this section, whatever may be the value thereof; and where the value of the succession, apart from the increase of benefit, shall not exceed ten thousand pounds, the value of such increase of benefit, as well as of every preceding increase of benefit, shall be added to the value of the succession for the purpose of the said duty.

(6.) The duty imposed by this section shall in the case of real property be a first charge thereon, or on the interest of the successor therein, according as the duty is or is not chargeable on the principal value of such property, and shall be paid in like manner as if the duty were a part of the succession duty payable under section twenty-two of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1888, and together with the payments in respect of that duty.

Amendment of 44 & 45 Vict.
c. 12. s. 88.

11.—(1.) Sub-section two of section thirty-eight of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1881, is hereby amended, as follows:—

The description of property marked (a) shall be read as if the word "twelve" were substituted for the word "three" therein, and the said description of property shall include property taken under any gift, whenever made, of which property bonâ fide possession and enjoyment shall not have been assumed by the donee immediately upon the gift and thenceforward retained, to the entire exclusion of the donor, or of any benefit to him by contract or otherwise:

The description of property marked (b) shall be construed as if the expression "to be transferred to or vested in himself and "any other person" included also any purchase or investment effected by the person who was absolutely entitled to the property either by himself alone, or in concert, or by arrangement, with any other person:

The description of property marked (c) shall be construed as if the expression "voluntary settlement" included any trust whether expressed in writing or otherwise, in favour of a volunteer, and, if contained in a deed or other instrument effecting the settlement, whether such deed or other instrument was made for valuable consideration or not as between the settlor and any other person, and as if the expression "such property," wherever the same occurs, included the proceeds of sale thereof:

The charge under the said section shall extend to money received under a policy of assurance effected by any person dying on or after the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, on his life, where the policy is wholly kept up by him for the benefit of a donee, whether nominee or assignee, or a part of such money in proportion to the premiums paid by him, where the policy is partially kept up by him for such benefit.

(2.) A return of stamp duty shall not be made under sub-section three of the said section thirty-eight by reason of, or in relation to, any account delivered on or after the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

12.—(1.) Notwithstanding the forty-second section of the Succession Duty Act, 1853, or any other provision contained in that Act, real property, or any estate or interest therein, shall not, as against a purchaser for valuable consideration, or a mortgagee, remain charged with or liable to payment of any sum for succession duty or duty herein-before imposed by this part of this Act, after the expiration of six years from the date of notice to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue of the fact that the successor, or any person in his right or on his behalf, has become entitled in possession to his succession or to the receipt of the income and profits thereof, or from the date of the first payment by such successor or person of any instalment or part of the duty, in case the successor shall not have availed himself of the option given to him by section twenty-two of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1888, or after two years from the time for the payment by such successor of the last instalment or part of the duty, if he has availed himself of such option; or, in the absence of any such notice or payment, after the expiration of twelve years from the happening of the event (whether before or after the passing of this Act) which gave rise to an immediate claim to such duty, or if such period of twelve years expires within six years from the date of the passing of this Act, then after the expiration of six years from the last-mentioned date.

Purchasers and mortgagees exempted from liability to succession duty after a specified period.

(2.) The duty (if any) unpaid at the expiration of such period of six years, or of twelve years or six years as the case may be, shall be payable and paid by the successor or the persons mentioned as accountable in section forty-four of the said Act, other than the purchaser or mortgagee, and shall become charged substitutively upon any other estate or interest comprised in the succession of the successor remaining vested in him, or in any person in his right or on his behalf, other than the purchaser or mortgagee, and in case of a mortgage upon the equity of redemption.

(3.) This section is not to lessen or affect any liability of any successor or accountable person, other than the purchaser or mortgagee, to payment of duty, whether out of money received on any sale or mortgage, or otherwise; but a purchaser or mortgagee shall not, for the purpose of obtaining the exemption conferred by this section, be bound to see that the duty is discharged out of the money or other consideration paid or given as the consideration for the sale or mortgage.

Power to deposit copies of documents and liability to duty to cease after specified period.

13.—(1.) Any person may cause an attested copy (which shall be exempt from stamp duty) of any document which creates a liability for payment of any succession duty, or duty herein-before imposed by this part of this Act, other than a testamentary document admitted to probate, to be deposited with the Commissioners of Inland Revenue at their principal office in London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, as the case may require, and such copy shall be received at that office.

(2.) The officer of the Commissioners receiving the copy shall, on request of the person making the deposit, and either by indorsement on the original document or otherwise, give a receipt in writing under his hand for the copy.

(3.) After a receipt has been given by an officer for a copy of a document under this section, no person shall be liable for payment of any duty under such document after the expiration of six years from the date of notice to the Commissioners of the fact which gives rise to an immediate claim to such duty.

(4.) The costs of depositing a copy of a document and obtaining a receipt under this section shall be deemed costs duly incurred by a trustee, executor, or administrator, or any other person in the execution of his duties as trustee, executor, or administrator, or otherwise, under the document.

As to notices under this part of this Act.

15. Every notice referred to in this part of this Act shall be in writing and in such form as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall prescribe, and shall be delivered or sent in duplicate, and an acknowledgment of the receipt thereof, by or on behalf of the Commissioners, upon the duplicate shall be forthwith returned to the person by whom the notice was delivered or sent.

16. Whereas doubts have arisen as to the construction of the expression "amount of nominal capital to be raised by shares of any company to be registered with limited liability" in section eleven of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1888, be it enacted that such expression shall be construed as meaning and including the entire amount which is to form the nominal share capital of the company.

(3.) In the case of neglect to deliver such a statement as is hereby required to be delivered, the corporation or company shall be liable to pay to Her Majesty a sum equal to ten pounds per centum upon the amount of duty payable, and a like penalty for every month after the first month during which such neglect shall continue.

18.—(1.) Every instrument containing a contract, whether executed or executory, for the sale or purchase of any property, save such as passes by delivery, or must be conveyed by deed, shall, so far as relates to stamp duty thereon, be deemed to be a conveyance on sale of such property; provided that the ad valorem duty paid upon any instrument in respect of any executory contracts shall be returned by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, if, within twelve months from the date of the first execution of the instrument, the executory contract shall have been rescinded, or shall have become null and void by reason of any notice given according to the terms of the instrument, or the default of any party thereto to perform any condition precedent specified in the instrument, and declared to be essential to the completion of the contract.

An Act to make further provision for Naval Defence and defray the Expenses thereof. [31st May 1889.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, being desirous to provide forthwith for increasing Your Majesty's naval force for the protection of Your Majesty's dominions and the trade thereof, and with that object to provide for building, equipping, and completing for sea, with sufficient armament, the vessels herein-after mentioned, have cheerfully granted unto Your Majesty for those purposes the sum herein-after mentioned, and have resolved that that sum should be raised as herein-after provided :

We do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1.) The Admiralty shall forthwith cause to be built, equipped, and completed for sea with sufficient armament the number of vessels of the different classes specified in the Schedule to this Act, and each of such vessels shall approximately be of the tonnage and speed, and have as part of its armament the guns in that schedule mentioned.

Building,
arming, equipping, and completing for sea of vessels specified in Schedule, and amount of money to be spent for that purpose.

(2.) Such vessels with their armament shall, so far as is practicable, be completed for sea before the first day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

(3.) The Admiralty may expend, in pursuance of this Act for the above purposes, the sum of twenty-one million five hundred thousand pounds as follows; that is to say—

(a.) for the purpose of building and completing by contract the vessels specified in Part One of the Schedule to this Act (in this Act referred to as the contract vessels), and of the armament of those vessels, the sum of ten million pounds; and

- (b.) for the purpose of dockyard shipbuilding, that is to say, of building, equipping, and completing for sea in Her Majesty's dockyards the vessels specified in Part Two of the Schedule to this Act (in this Act referred to as the dockyard vessels), and of surveying, equipping, and completing for sea in Her Majesty's dockyards the contract vessels after their delivery by the contractors, the sum of eight million six hundred and fifty thousand pounds; and
- (c.) for the purpose of the armament of the dockyard vessels the sum of two million eight hundred and fifty thousand pounds.

Financial arrangements for contract vessels (Part I. of Schedule).

2.—(1.) For the purposes of this Act, there shall be opened an account at the Bank of England (in this Act referred to as the Naval Defence Account), and the money issued to that account in pursuance of this section shall be applied for the purpose of building and completing the contract vessels, and of the armament of those vessels in accordance with the schedule to this Act, and for no other purpose.

(2.) To provide such money there shall be issued out of the Consolidated Fund at the times in this section mentioned the sum of ten million pounds.

(3.) An amount equal to one seventh of that sum shall be charged on the Consolidated Fund and issued out of that Fund, or the growing produce thereof, to the Naval Defence Account in each of the seven financial years ending on the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, in such instalments and at such times in each year as the Treasury from time to time fix.

(4.) If at any time the money standing to the Naval Defence Account is insufficient to meet the sums for the time being applicable thereout for the purpose in this section mentioned, the Treasury may, if they think fit, advance the deficiency out of the Consolidated Fund or the growing produce thereof or borrow the same, and any such advance shall be repaid to the Consolidated Fund before the end of the seven financial years above mentioned out of the moneys standing to the Naval Defence Account.

(5.) For the purpose of such borrowing, or of raising money to repay to the Consolidated Fund any such advance, or of paying off any money borrowed or security issued under this section, the Treasury may, if they think fit, issue exchequer bonds or exchequer bills or treasury bills, or otherwise borrow on the credit of the guarantee of the Consolidated Fund created by this Act, or do all of such things, and the sum arising from such issue or borrowing shall be paid into the Exchequer.

(6.) The principal of all securities so issued or sums so borrowed shall be paid off, together with the interest thereon, before the end of the seven financial years above mentioned, and shall be so paid, if principal, out of the moneys standing to the Naval Defence Account, and if interest, out of the moneys annually provided by Parliament for navy services.

(7.) The payment of such principal and interest shall be guaranteed by the Consolidated Fund, and if the sums otherwise provided to meet the same prove insufficient, the principal and interest shall so far as the said sums are insufficient be charged upon and paid out of the Consolidated Fund or the growing produce thereof.

(8.) If at the end of the said seven financial years any surplus remains on the Naval Defence Account out of the money issued thereto in pursuance of this section, such surplus shall be paid and applied as part of the new sinking fund.

3.—(1.) To meet the expenses incurred by the Admiralty for the purpose of dockyard shipbuilding, as before defined, and of the armament of the dockyard vessels, there shall be applied out of the moneys provided by Parliament for navy services during the five financial years ending the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, sums not exceeding in the whole the amount authorised by this Act to be expended for those purposes and not exceeding in any one financial year—

Financial arrangements for dockyard work (Part II. of Schedule).

(a.) for the purpose of dockyard shipbuilding, in accordance with the Schedule to this Act, the sum of two million six hundred and fifty thousand pounds, or such less sum as may be required by the Admiralty or may remain after deducting the sum which, under the proviso herein-after mentioned, is not available for such dockyard shipbuilding in that year ; and

(b.) for the purpose of the armament of the dockyard vessels, in accordance with the Schedule to this Act, the sum of six hundred thousand pounds or such less sum as may be required by the Admiralty in that year.

Provided that such portions of the moneys provided by Parliament for navy services as is required by the Admiralty in any financial year for completing for sea the vessels not mentioned in the Schedule to this Act, which were already begun before the commencement of the above-mentioned five financial years, shall be deducted from the said two million six hundred and fifty thousand pounds, which otherwise might be issued in pursuance of this section in that year, and shall not be available for the purpose of dockyard shipbuilding in accordance with the Schedule to this Act.

(2.) If in any financial year any portion of the sum which can be applied in pursuance of this section for either of the said purposes is not expended, that portion shall be transferred to the Naval Defence Account, and may in accordance with the directions of the Treasury be applied in any other of the said five financial years for the same purpose as an addition to the said two million six hundred and fifty thousand pounds, or the said six hundred thousand pounds, as the case may be.

(3.) If in any financial year the Admiralty satisfy the Treasury that for completing for sea the dockyard vessels within the time specified by this Act it is desirable to make on account of armour plates or stores immediate payments in excess of the estimate submitted to the Admiralty as herein-after mentioned, and in excess of the said sum of two million six hundred and fifty thousand pounds and of any addition thereto from the Naval Defence Account, the Treasury may advance out of the Consolidated Fund or the growing produce thereof, to the Naval Defence Account, the sums required for those payments, and all such advances may be applied for those payments and for no other purpose, and shall be repaid to the Consolidated Fund in the next financial year out of the said two million six hundred and fifty thousand pounds.

(4.) If at the end of the said five financial years any surplus remains on the Naval Defence Account out of moneys transferred thereto in pursuance of this section, such surplus shall be paid and applied as part of the new sinking fund.

Restrictions on application of money issued.

4.—(1.) The Admiralty shall submit to the Treasury

- (a.) before any money is applied in pursuance of this Act an estimate, under the head of each vessel, of the total expenditure on the vessel and its armament; and
- (b.) before any money is so applied in any financial year, an estimate under such sub-heads (whether common to all or any of the vessels or not) as may be required by the Treasury, of the expenditure for which it is proposed to apply money during that year.

(2.) There shall be no excess of expenditure on any vessel, including its armament, or under any sub-head above the amount stated for that vessel or sub-head in the estimate, unless the Admiralty represent in writing to the Treasury, and satisfy them—

- (a.) that the excess is compensated by a saving on some other vessel or sub-head, as the case may be; and
- (b.) that the excess will not cause the total expenditure to exceed the total sum allowed by this Act; and
- (c.) that the transfer of the expenditure from one vessel or sub-head to the other will not affect the requirement of this Act, that the vessels shall be of such class and approximately be of such tonnage and speed, and have such guns as are specified in the schedule, and the Treasury when so satisfied may, if they think fit, authorise the saving to be applied towards the payment of the excess.

Preparation and audit of account of expenditure under the Act.

5.—(1.) The Admiralty shall, at the end of every financial year in which any money is expended under this Act, cause to be made up an account, in such form as may be required by the Treasury, showing both for each year and for the whole period after the passing of this Act as follows:

- (a.) the amount of money expended for the purposes of this Act, distinguishing each purpose on which such money was expended, and the expenditure on each of the vessels and its armament; and
- (b.) the amount of money provided to meet such expenditure, and the mode in which, and the amount and nature of the securities (if any) by which, it was provided; and
- (c.) the balance (if any) of the money authorised by this Act to be provided for such expenditure.

(2.) The accounts of expenditure under this Act, so far as such expenditure is not included in the appropriation accounts of money annually granted by Parliament for navy services, shall be audited by the Comptroller and Auditor General as appropriation accounts.

(3.) The account of the receipts and expenditure of the Naval Defence Account shall be audited by the Comptroller and Auditor General in accordance with such regulations as the Treasury from time to time make, and shall be annually laid before Parliament, together with his report thereon.

6.—(1.) The money authorised by this Act to be applied for any purpose shall not be applied to meet any charges which have hitherto been treated by the Admiralty as establishment or incidental charges. Supplemental provisions.

(2.) Transfers to and from and payments into and out of the Naval Defence account and all other matters relating to the account and to the moneys standing to the account, shall be made and regulated in such manner as the Treasury from time to time direct.

(3.) The Governor and Company of the Bank of England may lend any money which the Treasury are authorised by this Act to borrow.

7. A summary of the contracts entered into by virtue of this Act, for each contract vessel, her propelling machinery, and guns, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within ninety days after the same is entered into, if Parliament is then sitting, and, if not, then within thirty days after the next meeting of Parliament. No person shall sell, offer, expose, or keep for sale any horseflesh for human food, elsewhere than in a shop, stall, or place over or upon which there shall be at all times painted, posted, or placed in legible characters of not less than four inches in length, and in a conspicuous position, and so as to be visible throughout the whole time, whether by night or day, during which such horseflesh is being offered or exposed for sale, words indicating that horseflesh is sold there.

Horseflesh not to be sold as other meat.

2. No person shall supply horseflesh for human food to any purchaser who has asked to be supplied with some meat other than horseflesh, or with some compound article of food which is not ordinarily made of horseflesh.

Power of medical officer of health to inspect meat, &c.

3. Any medical officer of health or inspector of nuisances or other officer of a local authority acting on the instructions of such authority or appointed by such authority for the purposes of this Act may at all reasonable times inspect and examine any meat which he has reason to believe to be horseflesh, exposed for sale or deposited for the purpose of sale, or of preparation for sale, and intended for human food, in any place other than such shop, stall, or place as aforesaid, and if such meat appears to him to be horseflesh he may seize and carry away or cause to be seized and carried away the same, in order to have the same dealt with by a justice as hereinafter provided.

4. On complaint made on oath by a medical officer of health or inspector of nuisances, or other officer of a local authority, any justice may grant a warrant to any such officer to enter any building, or part of a building other than such shop, stall, or place as aforesaid, in which such officer has reason for believing that there is kept or concealed any horseflesh which is intended for sale, or for preparation for sale for human food, contrary to the provisions of this Act; and to search for, seize, and carry away or cause to be seized and carried away any meat that appears to such officer to be such horseflesh, in order to have the same dealt with by a justice as hereinafter provided.

Power of justice with reference to disposal of horseflesh.

5. If it appears to any justice that any meat seized under the foregoing provisions of this Act is such horseflesh as aforesaid, he may make such order with regard to the disposal thereof as he may think desirable; and the person in whose possession or on whose premises the meat was found shall be deemed to have committed an offence under this Act, unless he proves that such meat was not intended for human food contrary to the provisions of this Act.

CHAPTER 17.

An Act to abolish any Duties on Coals leviable by the Corporation of London. [9th July 1889.]

Charter,
3rd James 1.

WHEREAS by a charter of His Majesty King James the First, dated the twentieth day of August, in the third year of his reign, after reciting that the mayor and commonalty and citizens of the City of London (herein-after referred to as the Corporation) from time immemorial had had and exercised the office of bailiff and the conservancy of the River Thames, and had received all the profits belonging to the office of bailiff, and also reciting that the Corporation had from time immemorial exercised the office of measurer of, amongst other things, all coals brought into the Port of London by the River Thames in any ship or vessel, or on every shore or wharf of the Thames, by deputies for the time being, and that the Corporation had received to their own use all profits belonging to the office of measurer, and reciting that the Corporation had for a short time previously been disturbed in their measurings and the office of measurer; His Majesty, in order to put an end to all controversy, by the now reciting charter confirmed all the fees and measurings aforesaid, and the profits belonging to them, and the uses and customs aforesaid, to the Corporation and their successors; and by the same charter His said Majesty granted to the Corporation the office of bailiff and the conservancy of the Thames; and further granted to the Corporation and their successors the office of measurer of, amongst other things, all coals which might be brought into the Port of London on the Thames in any ship or vessel, or which might be brought into any shore or wharf of the Thames from Staines Bridge to a place called Yentleete, otherwise Yantleet, near the sea, together with the right to receive all profits belonging to the said office of measurer:

Charter,

And whereas by another charter of His said Majesty King James the First, dated the twelfth day of December, in the twelfth year of his reign, after reciting that it was manifest to His Majesty that the Corporation from time immemorial had had and exercised the office of measurer of all coals which were landed, conveyed, or brought into the port of the City of London upon the River Thames in any ship or vessel, and upon every shore or wharf of the Thames, yet nevertheless that a question had then very lately arisen whether the weighing of all coals brought into the port, together with the measuring of coals pertained to the said Corporation, His Majesty, to put an end to all controversy, and to the intent that the Corporation might have as well the weighing as the measuring, and all profit usual for the same, granted to the Corporation and their successors the weighing of all coals called stone coals, pit coals, earth coals, and all other coals of what kind, nature, and species whatsoever they were, landed, conveyed, or brought to the port of the City of London upon the Thames, and also all profits and advantages belonging to them; and by the same charter His said Majesty granted to the Corporation the office of weigher of all coals, and appointed the Corporation to be the weighers of all coals, and to execute the weighing of the same; and by the same charter, after reciting that a question had arisen respecting the amount of the fee demanded by the Corporation and by their officers for the weighing of every ton weight of coals, His said Majesty, to put an end to all questions of the kind, granted to the Corporation and their successors that they might demand the fee of eightpence for the weighing of every ton of coals in respect of the charges of the Corporation and their successors for scales, and for their attendance, labour, and other necessary costs and expenses expended for the purpose:

And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the fifth and sixth year of the reign of King William and Queen Mary, chapter ten, intituled "An Act for the relief of Orphans and other Creditors of the City of London," after reciting that the Corporation were answerable for all moneys of the orphans of the city paid into the chamber of the city, but by reason of sundry accidents and public calamities had then become indebted to the orphans and other creditors in a much greater sum than they were able to pay unless assistance was given; it was enacted that the properties and revenues of the Corporation should be charged with the sum of money mentioned in the said Act as a perpetual fund for the payment of the amounts due to the orphans and creditors; and by the said Act it was provided that for a further increase of the said fund, for all coals or culm which should be imported into the port of the City of London or the River Thames within the liberty of the said city to be sold by the chaldron or ton there should be paid by way of imposition thereupon the sum of fourpence per chaldron metage for ever over and above what was then lawfully paid for the metage thereof, to be paid in like manner as the then present duty for metage was or had been accustomed to be paid, and that over and above all other impositions and duties, and the said last-mentioned sum of fourpence for all coals or culm so imported the further sum of sixpence for every chaldron, and for such coals as were sold by the ton the sum of sixpence per ton,

which said imposition of sixpence should continue for a term of fifty years :

And whereas the said imposition of sixpence was continued from time to time by several Acts of Parliament :

10 Geo. 4.
c. 136.

And whereas by an Act passed in the tenth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter one hundred and thirty-six, after reciting that the capital debt due to the orphans of the City of London had been annihilated, and that the capital debt due to the other creditors and charged upon the fund created by the said Act of King William and Queen Mary was reduced to the sum therein mentioned, and that it was probable that if no further charge was made in the said fund the whole of the debt would be paid off by the fifth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, it was enacted that the Corporation might improve the approaches to London Bridge ; and that for the purpose of providing a fund for the purposes of the now reciting Act, the duty of sixpence a chaldron or ton imposed by the said Act of King William and Queen Mary should be continued until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight ; and that as soon as the said debt due on the said orphan fund had been paid off, the duty of fourpence metage imposed by the said last-mentioned Act should be appropriated to the fund created by the Act now in recital :

1 & 2 Will. 4
c. 76.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the first and second years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-six, intituled " An Act for regulating the vend and " delivery of coals in the cities of London and Westminster, and in " certain parts of the counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Kent, Sussex, " Hertford, Bucks, and Berks," (herein-after referred to as the Coal Duties Act, 1831,) after reciting (section sixty) the charters of third James the First and twelfth James the First and the Act of Parliament fifth and sixth William and Mary herein-before recited, and reciting that the duty of sixpence had been continued from time to time and would expire on the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and that the duty of fourpence and the duty of sixpence were both charged with money raised for defraying the expenses of public works, and reciting that it was expedient for the purposes of the now reciting Act that the Corporation should not at the then present time exercise any right or privilege of weighing or measuring coals, culm, or cinders, to which under or by virtue of any Acts of Parliament or charter, or by prescription or otherwise, they might be entitled during the term therein-after mentioned, and that one rate or duty should be paid to the Corporation in lieu of all rates and duties payable to them with respect to all coals, culm, and cinders ; it was enacted that, during the term of seven years from the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, the Lord Mayor of the said City of London, and the said mayor, commonalty, and citizens should not exercise any right of measuring or weighing coals, or any other rights with respect to coals to which he or they was, were, or might be entitled by prescription, or by the said charters and Act of Parliament, or otherwise, and that the rate or duty of twelve penance for every ton of coals, culm, and cinders imported or brought into the Port of London should be collected; and it was provided that fourpence per ton, part thereof, should be applied in the same manner as the sum in the charters mentioned to be payable for metage would be applicable, and that the sum of eightpence for every ton residue thereof should be applied in the same manner as the duties of fourpence per chaldron and sixpence per chaldron or ton, made payable by the said Act of Parliament of King William and Queen Mary, would be applicable :

And whereas by the said Coal Duties Act, 1831 (section sixty-one), it was provided that at the end of the term of seven years the Lord Mayor of the said City of London, and the said mayor, commonalty, and citizens should be entitled to resume all rights of weighing and measuring coals, and all other rights and privileges in respect thereof to which he or they was, were, or might be entitled, and to demand and take the metage, impositions, duties, rates, or sums, and all other privileges and advantages to which he or they was, were, or might be entitled at the time of the passing of the said Act as fully as if the said Act had not been passed, and that the interruption in the exercise of any right or in the receipt of any fees or duties to which he or they might be entitled by prescription or otherwise during such time as the payments directed by the said Act to be made in lieu thereof should be received should not be deemed in law a waiver or discontinuance of any such right, fees, or duties, but that the same should be in full force and might be enforced and recovered and might be claimed in the same manner as if they had been exercised and received during the time in which the exercise and receipt thereof respectively should have been suspended, interrupted, or varied by virtue of the said Act, and that the said Lord Mayor and the said mayor, commonalty, and citizens might continue to prescribe for any such rights, fees, and duties as if he or they had continued in the exercise of such right, and in receipt of such fees and duties, notwithstanding the non-user thereof, in pursuance of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament for the weighing of coals and payment of the sums provided for the same in lieu of the said metage fees and duties :

And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and one, intituled "An Act to extend for seven years an Act for regulating the vend and delivery of coals in London and Westminster, and in certain parts of the adjacent counties," after reciting that the term of seven years provided by the Coal Duties Act, 1831, would expire on the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, it was provided that the Coal Duties Act, 1831, should be continued for the further term of seven years from the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight; and that all the provisions, regulations, clauses, matters, and things in the said Act contained to take effect at the end of the term of seven years therein mentioned, or at any other time, should take effect in the same manner as if the term of fourteen years had been inserted in the Coal Duties Act, 1831, instead of the term of seven years :

8 & 9 Vict.
c. 101.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and one, intituled "An Act to continue until fifth day " of July one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two the Acts for " regulating the vend and delivery of coals in London and " Westminster, and in certain parts of the adjacent counties, and to " alter and amend the said Acts," after reciting the Coal Duties Act, 1831, and the Coal Duties Act, 1838, and reciting that the extended term of seven years would expire on the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, it was enacted that the Coal Duties Act, 1831, and the Coal Duties Act, 1838, should be continued until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and that all the provisions, regulations, clauses, matters, and things in the Coal Duties Act, 1831, contained to take effect at the end of the term of seven years therein mentioned, or at any other time, should take effect in the same manner as if the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two had been inserted in the Coal Duties Act, 1831, instead of the term of seven years :

24 & 25 Vict.
c. 42.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter forty-two, intituled "An Act to continue the duties levied " on coal and wine by the Corporation of London," after reciting that by the Acts of Parliament herein-before recited, and which are therein collectively referred to as the "Coal Duties Acts," the two several duties of one penny and twelve pence were authorised to be levied, and reciting that it was apprehended that the duty of eightpence, part of the duty of twelve pence, would expire in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and that the duty of one penny would expire in July one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two unless continued by Parliament, and that it was expedient that the duties of twelve pence and one penny should continue for ten years ; it was provided that all duties authorised by the "Coal Duties Acts" should be levied in the same manner as they were then leviable until fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two ; and it was also provided that the Coal Duties Acts should be continued until fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and that all the provisions contained in the Coal Duties Act, 1831, to take effect at the end of seven years mentioned in that Act should take effect as if the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two had been inserted in the Act instead of the term of seven years :

26 & 27 Vict.
c. 46.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter forty-six, intituled "An Act for further continuing and " appropriating the London Coal and Wine Duties," after reciting various intended metropolitan improvements, and reciting that it was apprehended that the proceeds of the coal and wine duties, as continued by the herein-before recited Act of 1861 would be insufficient for all the proposed purposes, and that it was therefore expedient to continue them until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, it was enacted that all duties by the said Act of 1861 continued until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and all Acts relating thereto, should be continued until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and that the said Act of 1861 should be read as if the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two had been substituted throughout the said Act for the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two :

And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the thirty-first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter seventeen, intitled "An Act to further continue and appropriate the London "Coal and Wine Duties," it is enacted that all duties by the said Act of 1861 continued until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and by the herein-before recited Act of 1863, continued until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, should be further continued until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and that all Acts relating thereto should be continued until that date, and that the said Act of 1861 should be read as if the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine had been substituted throughout for the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two :

31 Vict. c. 17.

And whereas it is expedient that, subject to the provisions of this Act, all duties at any time heretofore levied by the Corporation on coals, culm, or cinders shall cease :

And whereas by an Act entitled the Kew and other Bridges Act, 1869, and an Act entitled the Kew and other Bridges Act, 1869, (Amendment) Act, 1874, provision was made for the freeing of certain bridges therein named, and for raising certain funds in that behalf on the security of the coal duties as therein mentioned :

And whereas after discharging the pecuniary obligation imposed by the said Acts a certain surplus will remain :

And whereas Parliament has reserved to itself by the thirty-first Victoria, chapter seventeen, section five, the right of dealing with such surplus as it shall direct :

And whereas by an Act passed in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-six, entitled the Coal Duties (London and Westminster and adjacent Counties) Act, 1851, the Corporation were to retain one penny per ton out of the drawback allowance for the purposes in the said Act expressed :

And whereas there now remains in the hands of the Chamberlain of London a surplus of fifty-nine thousand and ninety-seven pounds or thereabouts out of such drawback allowance :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. From and after the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, the Lord Mayor of the City of London, Repeal of power of Lord Mayor's.

Provided always, that the duty of fourpence per ton on coals, culm, and cinders continued to the said Corporation, under the style of the Mayor, aldermen, and commons of the city of London, by section two of the before-recited Act of 1868 shall continue until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety, but shall be applied by the said Corporation towards discharging the moneys borrowed and now remaining unpaid in respect of the completion of the Holborn Valley improvements, particularly referred to in the said section. Provided also that the statutory provisions with respect to collection, returns, certificates, accounts, and drawback contained in or continued by the said Act in regard to the duties therein mentioned shall apply to the duty hereby continued, except that the allowance of drawback shall be limited to the sum of fourpence per ton. And provided also that an account of the receipt and application of the said duty shall be kept separate and distinct from the accounts of the said Corporation, and that an abstract of the said account be yearly laid by the Chamberlain of the City of London before both Houses of Parliament.

Application of (3.) Such scheme, if the Commissioners (after such examination or inquiry as mentioned in section thirty-two of the Endowed Schools Act, 1869) approve it, either without modification, or with such modifications as may be assented to by the joint education committee, shall be adopted and proceeded on by the Commissioners in the same manner as if it were a draft scheme originally prepared by themselves.

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Short title, commencement, and extent.

1.—(1.) This Act may be cited as the Lunacy Acts Amendment Act, 1889, and shall come into operation, save as in this Act otherwise expressly provided, on the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety, herein-after referred to as the commencement of this Act.

(2.) Save as in this Act otherwise expressly provided, this Act shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland.

Private patients to be received only under order of county court judge, magistrate, or justice.

2.—(1.) Subject to the exceptions in this Act mentioned, no person, not being a pauper or a criminal lunatic and not being a lunatic so found by inquisition, shall be received and detained as a lunatic in any asylum, hospital, or licensed house, or as a single patient, unless under a reception order made by a judge of county courts or magistrate, or by a justice of the peace, specially appointed as herein-after provided, having respectively jurisdiction in the place where the lunatic is. No relative of the person applying for an order under this section or of the lunatic, or of the husband or wife of the lunatic, shall be capable of making such order.

Forms 1, 2, 8.

(2.) The order shall be obtained upon a private application by petition accompanied by a statement of particulars and by two medical certificates on separate sheets of paper under the hands of two medical practitioners.

3.—(1.) The petition shall be presented, if possible, by the husband or wife or by a relative of the alleged lunatic. If not so presented it shall contain a statement of the reasons why the petition is not so presented and of the connexion of the petitioner with the alleged lunatic, and the circumstances under which he presents the petition.

Petition for order for reception.
Form 1.

(2.) No person shall present a petition unless he is at least twenty-one years of age and has within fourteen days before the presentation of the petition personally seen the alleged lunatic.

(3.) The petitioner shall in the petition undertake that he will personally, or by some one specially appointed by him, visit the patient once at least in every six months; and the undertaking shall be recited in the order.

(4.) The petition shall be signed by the petitioner and the statement of particulars by the person making the statement.

Form 2.

(5.) One of the medical certificates accompanying the petition shall, whenever practicable, be under the hand of the usual medical attendant if any (being a medical practitioner) of the alleged lunatic. If for any reason it is not practicable to obtain a certificate from such usual medical attendant, the reason shall be stated in writing by the petitioner to the judge, magistrate, or justice to whom the petition is presented, and such statement shall be deemed to be part of the petition.

(6.) No order shall be made upon a petition under this section, unless each of the persons who sign the medical certificates accompanying the petition shall, separately from the other, have personally examined the person to whom the petition relates not more than seven clear days previously to the date of the presentation of the petition.

4.—(1.) Upon the presentation of the petition the judge, magistrate, or justice shall consider the allegations in the petition and statement of particulars and the evidence of lunacy appearing by the medical certificates, and whether it is necessary for him personally to see and examine the alleged lunatic; and, if he is satisfied that an order may properly be made forthwith, he may make the same accordingly; or, if not so satisfied, he shall appoint as early a time as practicable, not being more than seven days after the presentation of the petition, for the consideration thereof; and he may make such further or other inquiries of or concerning the alleged lunatic as he may think fit; notice of the time and place appointed for the consideration of the petition (unless personally given to the petitioner) shall be sent to the petitioner by post in a registered letter addressed to him at his address as given in the petition.

Procedure upon petition for an order for reception.
Form 3.

(2.) The judge, magistrate, or justice, if not satisfied with the evidence of lunacy appearing by the medical certificates, may, if he shall think it necessary so to do, visit the alleged lunatic at the place where he may happen to be.

(3.) The judge, magistrate, or justice shall have the same jurisdiction and powers as regards the summoning and examination of witnesses, the administration of oaths, and otherwise, as if he were acting in exercise of his ordinary jurisdiction, and shall be assisted, if he so requires, by the same officers, as if he were so acting, and their assistance under this Act shall be considered in fixing their remuneration.

(4.) The petition shall be considered in private, and no one except the petitioner, the alleged lunatic (unless the judge, magistrate, or justice in his discretion otherwise order), any one person appointed by the alleged lunatic for that purpose, and the persons signing the medical certificates accompanying the petition, shall, without the leave of the judge, magistrate, or justice, be present at the consideration thereof.

(5.) At the time appointed for consideration of the petition the judge, magistrate, or justice may make an order thereon or dismiss the same, or, if he shall think fit, may adjourn the same for any period not exceeding fourteen days for further evidence or information, and he may give notice to such persons as he may think fit of the adjourned consideration, and summon any persons to attend before him.

(6.) Every judge, magistrate, and justice, and all persons admitted to be present at the consideration of any petition for a reception order, or otherwise having official cognizance of the fact that a petition has been presented, except the alleged lunatic and the person appointed by the alleged lunatic as aforesaid, shall be bound to keep secret all matters and documents which may come to his or their knowledge by reason thereof, except when required to divulge the same by lawful authority.

Dismissal of

5.—(1.) If the petition is dismissed, the judge, magistrate, or justice shall deliver to the petitioner a statement in writing under his hand of his reasons for dismissing the same, and shall send a copy of such statement to the Commissioners, and shall also, where the alleged lunatic is detained under an urgency order, send notice by post or otherwise to the person in whose charge the alleged lunatic is, that the petition has been dismissed.

(2.) Any judge, magistrate, or justice making or refusing a reception order, shall, if so required by the Commissioners, give to them all such information as they may require as to the circumstances under which the order was made or refused.

(3.) The Commissioners may communicate such information as they think proper, on the dismissal of the petition or the release of the alleged lunatic, to him or to any person who may satisfy them that he is a proper person to receive the information.

(4.) If after a petition has been dismissed another petition is presented as to the same alleged lunatic, the person presenting such other petition, so far as he has any knowledge or information with regard to the previous petition and its dismissal, shall state the facts relating thereto in his petition, and shall obtain from the Commissioners at his own expense, and present with his petition, a copy of the statement sent to them of the reasons for dismissing the previous petition, and, if he wilfully omits to comply with this sub-section, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Orders for reception.
Form 3.

6.—(1.) A reception order, if the same appears to be in conformity with this Act, shall be sufficient authority for the petitioner or any person authorised by him to take the lunatic and convey him to the place mentioned in such order and for his reception and detention therein, and the order may be acted on without further evidence of the signature or of the jurisdiction of the person making the order.

(2.) The order, together with the petition, statement of particulars, and medical certificates upon which the order was made, shall be delivered or sent by post to the person on whose petition the order was made, and shall by him or his agent be delivered to the superintendent or proprietor of the asylum, hospital, or licensed house in which, or to the person by whom, the lunatic is to be received.

(3.) A reception order shall not continue in force unless the lunatic has been taken or received thereunder before the expiration of seven clear days from its date.

7.—(1.) The person upon whose petition a reception order has been made shall, with reference to the lunatic to whom the order relates, have and be subject to all such authorities, powers, obligations, and liabilities as are by the Lunacy Acts conferred or imposed upon the person signing an order for the reception of a lunatic not being a pauper.

Certain provisions of Lunacy Acts applied and excepted.

The provisions of sections four and eight of the Lunacy Act, 1853, and section seventy-four of the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, prohibiting the reception of a private patient unless the medical practitioners who sign the certificates accompanying the order for his reception have personally examined him not more than seven clear days previously to his reception, shall not apply to an order made upon a petition under this Act.

16 & 17 Vict. c. 96. ss. 4, 8. 16 & 17 Vict. c. 97. s. 74.

(3.) The provisions of this Act as to reception orders shall not affect the provisions of section sixty-eight of the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, as to lunatics or alleged lunatics, not paupers, who are wandering at large.

16 & 17 Vict. c. 97. s. 68.

8.—(1.) In cases of urgency where it is expedient, either for the welfare of a person (not a pauper) alleged to be a lunatic or for the public safety, that the alleged lunatic should be forthwith placed under care and treatment, he may be received and detained in an asylum, hospital, or licensed house, or as a single patient upon an urgency order, made (if possible) by the husband or wife or by a relative of the alleged lunatic, accompanied by one medical certificate under the hand of a medical practitioner.

Form 4.

(2.) No person shall be received under an urgency order under this section unless the medical practitioner who signs the certificate accompanying the order has personally examined the person to whom the certificate relates not more than two clear days previously to the reception of such person, and states the date of such examination in the certificate.

(3.) An urgency order may be signed before or after the medical certificate.

(4.) If an urgency order is not signed by the husband or wife or by a relative of the alleged lunatic, the order shall contain a statement of the reasons why the same is not so signed and of the connexion with the alleged lunatic of the person signing the order, and the circumstances under which he signs the same.

(5.) No person shall sign an urgency order unless he is at least twenty-one years of age and has within two days before the date of the order personally seen the alleged lunatic.

(6.) An urgency order may be made as well after as before a petition for a reception order has been presented or an application made to the Judge in Lunacy, in cases where the reception order is to be made by the Judge in Lunacy under this Act. An urgency order, if made before a petition has been presented, shall be referred to in the petition, and if made after the petition has been presented, a copy thereof shall forthwith be sent by the petitioner to the judge, magistrate, or justice to whom the petition has been presented.

(7.) An urgency order shall remain in force for seven days from its date; or if a petition for a reception order or application to the Judge in Lunacy is pending, then until the petition or application is finally disposed of.

(8.) An urgency order accompanied by such medical certificate as aforesaid, if the same respectively appear to be in conformity with this Act, shall be sufficient authority for taking the lunatic and conveying him to the place mentioned in the order, and for his reception and detention therein.

Form 2.

(9.) An urgency order shall have subjoined or annexed thereto a statement of particulars.

Right of lunatic to be examined by judge, magistrate, or justice.

9.—(1.) When a lunatic has been received as a private patient under an order of a judge of county courts, magistrate, or justice, without a statement in the order that the patient has been personally seen by such judge, magistrate, or justice, the patient shall have the right to be taken before or visited by a judge, magistrate, or justice, other than the judge, magistrate, or justice who made the order, unless the medical superintendent of the asylum or hospital, or the medical proprietor or attendant of the house, or, in the case of a single patient, his medical attendant, within twenty-four hours after reception, in a certificate signed and sent to the Commissioners, shall state that the exercise of such right would be prejudicial to the patient.

Form 5.

(2.) Where no such certificate has been signed and sent, the superintendent or proprietor of the asylum, hospital, or house in which the patient is, or the person having charge of him as a single patient, shall, within twenty-four hours after reception, give to the patient a notice in writing of his right under this section, and shall ascertain whether he desires to exercise the right; and if he, within seven days after his reception, expresses his desire to exercise the right, such superintendent, proprietor, or person shall procure him to sign a notice of such desire, and shall forthwith transmit it by post in a registered letter to the judge, magistrate, or justice, who is to exercise the jurisdiction under this section, or to the justices clerk of the petty sessional division or borough, where the lunatic is, to be by him transmitted to such judge, magistrate, or justice, and the judge, magistrate, or justice shall thereupon arrange, as soon as conveniently may be, either to visit the patient or to have him brought before him by the superintendent, proprietor, or person as the judge, magistrate, or justice may think fit.

Form 6.

Form 7.

(3.) The judge, magistrate, or justice shall be entitled, if he desires so to do, to see the medical certificates and any other documents, upon the consideration of which the reception order was made, and shall after personally seeing the patient send to the Commissioners a report, and the Commissioners shall take such steps as may be necessary to give effect to the report.

(4.) For the purposes of this section the jurisdiction shall be exercised by any judge, magistrate, or justice having authority to act in the place where the person received is, and not being the judge, magistrate, or justice who made the reception order; and arrangements shall for that purpose from time to time be made amongst themselves by the persons having such authority as aforesaid.

(5.) If any superintendent of an asylum or hospital, or any superintendent or proprietor of a licensed house, or any person having charge of a single patient, omits to perform any duty imposed upon him by this section, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

10.—(1.) The justices of every county and quarter sessions borough, at their Michaelmas quarter and special sessions respectively, to be held in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine and in every succeeding year, shall appoint out of their own body as many fit and proper persons as they may deem necessary to exercise during the ensuing year within the county and borough respectively, the powers conferred by this Act upon justices of the peace in relation to orders for the reception of lunatics not being paupers. In making such appointments the justices of every county shall have regard to the convenience of the inhabitants of each petty sessional division thereof.

Appointment of justices to make orders for reception of lunatics.

(2.) If in any year such appointments are not made, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, by writing under his hand, to make the same; and if, on any representation made to him that the number of justices so appointed for any county or borough is at any time insufficient, the Lord Chancellor shall be satisfied that such representation is well founded, he shall have power to appoint, by writing under his hand, any other justices of such county or borough to act, until the next Michaelmas quarter or special sessions, with the justices so appointed.

(3.) If in the case of a borough, not having a separate quarter sessions, representation is made to the Lord Chancellor that public inconvenience is likely to result, unless power is given to the justices of such borough to exercise within the same the powers conferred by this Act upon justices of the peace in relation to orders for the reception of lunatics not being paupers, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor from time to time, with or without a fresh representation, to nominate and appoint, by writing under his hand, one or more of the justices of such borough to exercise within the same during such time as the Lord Chancellor shall think fit the powers aforesaid, together with any other specially appointed justices acting therein.

(4.) In the case of the death, absence, inability or refusal to act of any justice appointed under this section, the justices of the county or borough, or the Lord Chancellor, as the case may be, may appoint a justice to act in his place.

(7.) A constable, relieving officer, or overseer whose duty it is to lay an information under this section may exercise the powers conferred by section two of the Lunacy Act, 1885, as if it were his duty to lay such information under the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, and the powers conferred by section three of the Lunacy Act, 1885, may be exercised by any justice in any case where an order might be made by him under this section.

(2.) A certificate under this section shall be sufficient authority for detaining the lunatic therein named against his will in the workhouse for fourteen days from its date.

(3.) No lunatic shall be detained against his will or allowed to remain in a workhouse for more than fourteen days from the date of a certificate under this section without an order under the hand of a justice of the peace having jurisdiction in the place where the workhouse is situate.

22. Where a pauper lunatic is discharged from an asylum, hospital, or licensed house, and the medical officer of the asylum or the medical attendant of the hospital or house is of opinion that the lunatic has not recovered and is a proper person to be kept in a workhouse as a lunatic, the medical officer or medical attendant shall certify such opinion, and his certificate shall accompany the notice of discharge, and the lunatic may thereupon be received and detained against his will in a workhouse without further order if the medical officer of the workhouse certifies in writing that the accommodation in the workhouse is sufficient for the lunatic's proper care and treatment, separate from the inmates of the workhouse not lunatics, or that the lunatic's condition is such that it is not necessary for the convenience of the lunatic, or of the other inmates, that he should be kept separate.

(2.) If the Commissioners deem any such certificate to be incorrect or defective, they may, by a direction in writing, addressed to the superintendent or proprietor of the asylum, hospital, or licensed house, or to the person having the charge of a single patient, require the same to be amended by the person who signed the same, and, if the same be not duly amended to their satisfaction within fourteen days next after the reception of the patient, the Commissioners, or any two of them, may, if they think fit, make an order for the patient's discharge.

(4.) The visitors, after receiving the report, shall, in every case of a private patient in a licensed house in the county or borough for which the visitors are appointed, make arrangements for a visit being paid by the medical visitor (either alone or with one or more of the other visitors) to the patient therein named for such purpose as aforesaid, as soon as conveniently may be; and if on such visit there shall appear to be any doubt as to the propriety of the detention of the patient, such visitor or visitors shall forthwith report the same in writing to the Commissioners, who shall thereupon make all such further inquiries as may be necessary to satisfy themselves whether the patient is properly detained as a lunatic, or whether he ought to be discharged, or whether the case ought to be reported to the Lord Chancellor with a view to an inquisition.

(5.) In the case of a single patient the Commissioners, after receiving the report, shall either make arrangements for a visit being paid as soon as conveniently may be to the patient therein named by one or more of the Commissioners, or, if no Commissioner is available, shall cause a copy of the report to be sent to a medical visitor for the county or borough in which the single patient resides, or to some other competent person, and shall direct him to visit the patient therein named as soon as conveniently may be. The Commissioner or Commissioners, or other person visiting the patient, shall report to the Commissioners whether his detention is or is not proper.

(6.) The person directed to visit a single patient under the last preceding sub-section shall for that purpose have all the powers of a Commissioner, and the Commissioners may, with the consent of the Treasury, pay to him such reasonable remuneration for his services as they think fit out of any funds which may be provided by Parliament to defray the general expenses of the Commissioners.

(7.) In the case of a private patient in an asylum or hospital the Commissioners, after receiving the report, shall either make arrangements for a visit being paid, as soon as conveniently may be, to the patient therein named by one or more of the Commissioners, who shall report to the Commissioners whether the detention of the patient is or is not proper; or the Commissioners shall send a copy of the report to the clerk to the committee of visitors of the asylum or to the managing committee of the hospital, and

(8.) If within a month after the reception of any private patient, the asylum, hospital, licensed or other house into which he was received is visited by one or more Commissioners or by any visitors, and such patient is there seen and examined by him or them, and the propriety of his detention reported on in like manner as by this section provided, no special visit shall necessarily be paid to such patient after receipt of any such report.

(9.) If the Commissioners in any case under this section determine that a patient ought to be discharged they may make an order for his discharge.

(10.) The reports to be furnished under this section shall be in addition to the reports or statements which by the Lunacy Acts are required to be furnished.

(2.) In the case of any asylum, hospital, or licensed house the Commissioners may by order under their seal from time to time direct that the reception orders of patients detained therein shall, unless continued as herein-after provided, expire on any quarterly day next after the days on which the orders would expire under the last preceding subsection.

(3.) An order for the removal of a patient from one custody to another shall not be deemed to be a reception order within this section, but the patient who is removed shall after removal be deemed to be detained under the original reception order as a lunatic, and such order shall expire in accordance with the provisions of this section unless continued as herein-after provided.

(4.) An order for the reception of a patient, whether a pauper or not, into an asylum, hospital, or licensed house, or as a single patient, shall remain in force for a year after the date by this Act or by an order of the Commissioners appointed for it to expire, and thereafter for two years and thereafter for three years, and after the end of such periods of one, two, and three years for successive periods of five years, if at the end of each period of one, two, three, and five years respectively a special report of the medical superintendent of the asylum or hospital or the medical proprietor or attendant of the licensed house or of the medical attendant of the single patient as to the mental and bodily condition of the patient with a certificate under his hand certifying that the patient is still of unsound mind and a proper person to be detained under care and treatment is sent to the Commissioners in manner herein-after directed. Such report shall be sent to the Commissioners not more than one month and not less than seven days before the end of each period.

(5.) The person sending the special report shall give to the Commissioners such further information concerning the patient to whom the special report relates as they may require.

(5.) Within fourteen days after receipt of the notice the person to whom the notice is given may lay before the Commissioners a statement in writing of his reasons why an order under this section should not be made, or he may appear in person before the Commissioners at such time and place and subject to such restrictions as the Commissioners may appoint for the purpose of stating such reasons. The medical officer shall for every such report in addition to the remuneration paid under the above-mentioned section of the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, be paid the sum of two shillings and sixpence, which sum shall be paid by the same persons and be charged to the same account as the relief of such pauper.

48. If in any case of an inquisition it shall appear that the alleged lunatic is of unsound mind so as to be incapable of managing his affairs, but that he is capable of managing himself, and is not dangerous to himself or to others, it may be specially so found and certified; and every such special finding and certificate shall be brought before the Judge in Lunacy, who shall thereupon make all such orders, and direct all such acts to be done, as may be necessary or proper relative to the commitment, management, and application of the estate and effects of the person so found to be of unsound mind (including all proper provisions for his maintenance), but it shall not be necessary, unless in the discretion of the Judge it shall appear proper so to do, to make any order as to the custody or commitment of the person.

- (2.) Where the purchaser has paid the said ad valorem duty, and before having obtained a conveyance or transfer of the property, enters into a contract or agreement for the sale of the same, the contract or agreement shall be charged, if the consideration for such sale is in excess of the consideration for the original sale, with the ad valorem duty payable in respect of such excess consideration, and in any other case with the fixed duty of ten shillings or of sixpence, as the case may require, according to the law in force prior to the passing of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1889.

Nothing in this proviso shall alter or affect the provisions of the said law as to the stamping of a conveyance or transfer after the execution thereof.

- (6.) Provided also, that the ad valorem duty paid upon any such contract or agreement for sale as aforesaid shall be returned by the said Commissioners in case the contract or agreement be afterwards rescinded or annulled, or for any other reason be not substantially performed or carried into effect, so as to operate as or be followed by a conveyance or transfer.
- (7.) Words and expressions in this section shall have the like meaning and interpretation as in the Stamp Act, 1870.

19. The proviso to section eleven of the Revenue Act, 1884, is hereby repealed, and that section shall be read as if the following proviso were therein inserted in lieu of the repealed proviso :

Provided that where a policy of life assurance has been effected with any insurance company by a person who shall die domiciled elsewhere than in the United Kingdom, the production of a grant of representation from a court in the United Kingdom shall not be necessary to establish the right to receive the money payable in respect of such policy.

Policies of insurance against

20. Whereas a practice has arisen of inserting in newspapers and other publications notices or advertisements which purport to insure the payment of money upon the death of the holder or bearer of the newspaper or publication containing the notice or advertisement only from accident or violence or otherwise than from a natural cause, and doubts have arisen as to the liability of such notices or advertisements to the stamp duty of one penny imposed by the Stamp Act, 1870, upon a policy of insurance for any payment agreed to be made upon the death of any person only from accident or violence or otherwise than from a natural cause, and it is expedient to remove such doubts and to make such provisions in relation to composition for the stamp duty as are in this section contained: Be it therefore enacted as follows:—

composition by agreement for stamp duty thereon.

33 & 34 Vict.
c. 97.

- (a.) The expression "policy of insurance against accident" as used in this section means a policy of insurance for any payment agreed to be made upon the death of any person only from accident or violence or otherwise than from a natural cause, or as compensation for personal injury, and the term "policy" as defined in section one hundred and seventeen of the Stamp Act, 1870, shall be construed, in relation to a policy of insurance against accident, as including any notice or advertisement in a newspaper or other publication which purports to insure the payment of money upon the death of or injury to the holder or bearer of the newspaper or publication containing the notice only from accident or violence or otherwise than from a natural cause:
- (b.) Where any person or body, corporate or unincorporate, issuing policies of insurance against accident, shall, in the opinion of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, so carry on the business of such insurance as to render it impracticable or inexpedient to require that the stamp duty of one penny as imposed by the Stamp Act, 1870, be charged and paid upon the policies, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to enter into an agreement with that person or body for the delivery to them of quarterly accounts of all sums received in respect of premiums on policies of insurance against accident, and the agreement shall be in such form and contain such terms and conditions as the said Commissioners may think proper:
- (c.) After an agreement has been entered into between the said Commissioners and any person or body under the foregoing provision and during the period for which the agreement is in force, no policy of insurance against accident issued by that person or body shall be chargeable with any stamp duty, but in lieu of and by way of composition for such stamp duty there shall be charged on the aggregate amount of all sums received in respect of premiums on policies of insurance against accident a duty at the rate of five pounds per centum, which duty shall be a stamp duty and shall be under the care and management of the said Commissioners, who by themselves and their officers shall have the same powers and authorities for the collection, recovery, and management thereof as are now vested in them for the collection, recovery, and management of any stamp duties, and shall have all other powers and authorities requisite for such purposes:

- (d.) The quarterly accounts to be delivered by or on behalf of any person or body to the said Commissioners shall be delivered within twenty days after the fifth day of April, the fifth day of July, the tenth day of October, and the fifth day of January in every year, and every account shall be a full and true account of all unstamped policies of insurance against accident issued by that person or body during the quarter of a year ending on any of the said days next preceding the delivery thereof, and of all sums of money received for or in respect of such policies so issued during that quarter, and of all sums of money received and not already accounted for in respect of any other unstamped policies of insurance against accident issued at any time before the commencement of that quarter :
- (e.) The duty imposed by this section shall be paid on the delivery of the account, and unless then paid shall be a debt due to Her Majesty from the person or body by or on whose behalf the account is delivered :
- (f.) In the case of wilful neglect to deliver such an account as is hereby required or to pay the duty in conformity with this section, the person or body shall be liable to pay to Her Majesty a sum equal to ten pounds per centum upon the amount of duty payable, and a like penalty for every month after the first month during which the neglect continues.

CHAPTER 43.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Measurement of the Tonnage of Merchant Ships. [26th August 1889.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Amendment of rules for measurement of tonnage.

17 & 18 Vict.
c. 104.

1.—(1.) In the measurement of a ship for the purpose of ascertaining her register tonnage, no deduction shall be allowed in respect of any space which has not been first included in the measurement of her tonnage.

(2.) In section twenty-one, paragraph (4), of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, the words "First, that nothing shall be added for a closed-in space solely appropriated to the berthing of the crew, unless such space exceeds one twentieth of the remaining tonnage of the ship, and in case of such excess the excess only shall be added; and secondly"; and in section twenty-two, paragraph (2), of the same Act the words "subject to the deduction for a closed-in space appropriated to the crew, as mentioned in "Rule I." shall be repealed.

Provided that this section shall not apply until after the expiration of five years from the date of the passing of this Act to any ship in the measurement or re-measurement of which the deductions prohibited by this section have been made before the tenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, or to any ship the building of which was commenced before the tenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and which is registered for the first time between that date and the last day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, unless in either case the ship is, before the expiration of the said five years, measured or re-measured in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and any such ship may be measured or re-measured at the request of the owner.

But this exemption shall not extend to any ship in the case of which the allowance for propelling-power space exceeds fifty per cent. of the gross tonnage of the ship.

Subject as aforesaid, the tonnage of every ship shall be estimated for all purposes as if any deduction prohibited by this section had not been made, and the particulars relating to the ship's tonnage in the register book, and in her certificate of registry, shall be corrected accordingly.

Rule as to allowance for
in steamers.

2. In the case of any ship built or measured after the passing of this Act, such portion of the space or spaces above the crown of the engine room and above the upper deck as is framed in for the machinery or for the admission of light and air, shall not be included in the measurement of the space occupied by the propelling power, except in pursuance of a request in writing to the Board of Trade by the owner of the ship, and shall not be included in pursuance of such request unless:—

(a.) that portion is first included in the measurement of the gross tonnage; and

(b.) a surveyor appointed under the Fourth Part of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, certifies that the portion so framed in is reasonable in extent and is so constructed as to be safe and seaworthy, and that it cannot be used for any purpose other than the machinery or for the admission of light and air to the machinery or boilers of the ship.

3.—(1.) In measuring or re-measuring a ship for the purpose of ascertaining her register tonnage, the following deductions shall be made from the space included in the measurement of the tonnage :—

Deductions for navigation spaces, &c.

(a.) In the case of a ship wholly propelled by sails, any space set apart and used exclusively for the storage of sails :

(b.) In the case of any ship—

(i.) Any space used exclusively for the accommodation of the master ;

(ii.) Any space used exclusively for the working of the helm, the capstan, and the anchor gear, or for keeping the charts, signals, and other instruments of navigation, and boatswain's stores ; and (iii.) The space occupied by the donkey engine and boiler, if connected with the main pumps of the ship.

(2.) The deductions allowed under this section shall be subject to the following provisions, namely :—

(a.) The space deducted must be certified by a surveyor appointed by the Board of Trade as reasonable in extent and properly and efficiently constructed for the purpose for which it is intended ;

(b.) There must be permanently marked in or over every such space a notice stating the purpose to which it is to be applied and that whilst so applied it is to be deducted from the tonnage of the ship ;

(c.) The deduction on account of space for storage of sails must not exceed two and a half per cent. of the tonnage of the ship.

4. In the case of a screw steamship which, at the passing of this Act, has an engine-room allowance of thirty-two per cent. of the gross tonnage of the ship, and in which any crew space on deck has not been included in the gross tonnage, whether its contents have been deducted therefrom or not, the crew space shall be, on the application of the owner of the ship, or by direction of the Board of Trade, measured and its contents ascertained and added to the register tonnage of the ship ; and if it appears that with such addition to the tonnage the engine room does not occupy more than thirteen per cent. of the tonnage of the ship, the existing allowance for engine room of thirty-two per cent. of the tonnage shall be continued, notwithstanding anything in this Act.

Provisions as to deductions in case of certain steamships.

5. In the case of a ship constructed with a double bottom for water ballast, if the space between the inner and outer plating thereof is certified by a surveyor appointed by the Board of Trade to be not available for the carriage of cargo, stores, or fuel, then the depth required by section twenty-one, paragraph (2), of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, shall be taken to be the upper side of the inner plating of the double bottom, and that upper side shall, for the purposes of measurement, be deemed to represent the floor timber referred to in that section.

Re-measurement of foreign ships.

17 & 18 Vict.
c. 104.

6. If and whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the tonnage of any foreign ship, as measured by the rules of the country to which she belongs, materially differs from that which would be her tonnage if measured under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and the Acts amending the same, Her Majesty may from time to time, by Order in Council, direct that, notwithstanding any Order in Council for the time being in force under those Acts, any of the ships of that country may, for all or any of the purposes of those Acts, be re-measured in accordance with the provisions of those Acts, and Her Majesty may revoke any Order so made.

Short title and construction.

7. This Act may be cited as the Merchant Shipping (Tonnage) Act, 1889, and shall be construed as one with the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and the Acts amending the same.

CHAPTER 44.

An Act for the Prevention of Cruelty to, and better Protection of, Children. [26th August 1889.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Punishment for ill-treatment and neglect of children.

1. Any person over sixteen years of age who, having the custody, control, or charge of a child, being a boy under the age of fourteen years, or being a girl under the age of sixteen years, wilfully ill-treats, neglects, abandons, or exposes such child, or causes or procures such child to be ill-treated, neglected, abandoned, or exposed, in a manner likely to cause such child unnecessary suffering, or injury to its health, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof on indictment, shall be liable, at the discretion of the court, to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds, or alternatively, or in default of payment of such fine, or in addition to payment thereof, to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding two years, and on conviction thereof by a court of summary jurisdiction, in manner provided by the Summary Jurisdiction Acts, shall be liable, at the discretion of the court, to a fine not exceeding twenty-five pounds, or alternatively, or in default of payment of such fine, or in addition thereto, to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three months.

increase fine
where offender interested in death of child.

2. If it be proved that a person convicted on indictment as aforesaid was interested in any sum of money accruable or payable in the event of the death of the child, and had knowledge that such sum of money was accruing or becoming payable, the court may, in its discretion, increase the amount of the said fine so that the fine shall not exceed two hundred pounds. Such interest as aforesaid in any sum of money accruable or payable in the event of the death of the child shall be charged in the indictment and put to the jury in the same way, as far as may be, as a previous conviction is now charged and put.

3. Any person who—

- (a) causes or procures any child, being a boy under the age of fourteen years, or being a girl under the age of sixteen years, to be in any street for the purpose of begging or receiving alms, or of inducing the giving of alms, whether under the pretence of singing, playing, performing, offering anything for sale, or otherwise ; or
- (b) causes or procures any child, being a boy under the age of fourteen years, or being a girl under the age of sixteen years, to be in any street, or in any premises licensed for the sale of any intoxicating liquor, other than premises licensed according to law for public entertainments, for the purpose of singing, playing, or performing for profit, or offering anything for sale, between ten p.m. and five a.m. ; or
- (c) causes or procures any child under the age of ten years to be at any time in any street, or in any premises licensed for the sale of any intoxicating liquor, or in premises licensed according to law for public entertainments, or in any circus or other place of public amusement to which the public are admitted by payment for the purpose of singing, playing, or performing for profit, or offering anything for sale,

Restrictions on employment of

shall, on conviction thereof by a court of summary jurisdiction in manner provided by the Summary Jurisdiction Acts, be liable, at the discretion of the court, to a fine not exceeding twenty-five pounds or alternatively, or in default of payment of the said fine, or in addition thereto, to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three months.

Provided that any local authority may, if they think it necessary or desirable so to do, from time to time by byelaw extend or restrict the hours mentioned in sub-section (b) of this section, either on every day or on any specified day or days of the week, and either as to the whole of their district or as to any specified area therein.

Provided also, that in the case of any entertainment or series of entertainments to take place in premises licensed according to law for public entertainments, or in any circus or other place of public amusement as aforesaid, where it is shown to the satisfaction of a petty sessional court, or in Scotland the school board, that proper provision has been made to secure the health and kind treatment of any children proposed to be employed thereat, it shall be lawful for the said court or school board, anything in this Act notwithstanding, to grant a licence for such time and during such hours of the day, and subject to such restrictions and conditions as it may think fit for any child exceeding seven years of age, of whose fitness to take part in such entertainment or series of entertainments without injury the said court or school board is satisfied, to take part in such entertainment or series of entertainments, and such licence may at any time be varied, added to, or rescinded by the said court or school board upon sufficient cause being shown ; and such licence shall be sufficient protection to all persons acting under or in accordance with the same.

A Secretary of State may assign to any inspector appointed, or to be appointed under section sixty-seven of the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878, specially and in addition to any other usual duties, the duty of seeing whether the restrictions and conditions of any licence under this section are duly complied with, and any such inspector shall have the same power to enter, inspect, and examine any place of public entertainment at which the employment of a child is for the time being licensed under this section as an inspector has to enter, inspect, and examine a factory or workshop under section sixty-eight of the same Act.

Nothing in this section shall affect the provisions of the Elementary Education Act, 1876, or the Education (Scotland) Act, 1878.

So much of sub-section (c) of this section as makes it an offence to cause or procure a child to be in premises licensed according to law for public entertainment, or in any circus or other place of public amusement, for the purpose of singing, playing, or performing for profit, shall not come into operation until the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

39 & 40 Vict.
c. 79.
41 & 42 Vict.
c. 78.

Taking of offender into custody, and protection of child.

4.—(1.) Any constable may take into custody without warrant any person who within view of such constable commits an offence under this Act, where the name and residence of such person are unknown to such constable and cannot be ascertained by such constable ; and any constable may take to a place of safety any child in respect of whom an offence under section one or sub-section (a) of section three of this Act has been committed, and the child may there be detained until it can be brought before a court of summary jurisdiction, and such court may cause the child to be dealt with as circumstances may admit and require until the charge made against any person in respect of the said offence has been determined by the committal for trial, or conviction, or discharge of such person.

(2.) Where a constable arrests any person without warrant in pursuance of this section the inspector or constable in charge of the station to which such person is conveyed shall, unless in his belief the release of such person on bail would tend to defeat the ends of justice, or to cause injury or danger to the child against whom the offence is alleged to have been committed, release the person arrested on his entering into such a recognisance, with or without sureties, as may in his judgment be required to secure the attendance of such person upon the hearing of the charge.

Disposal of child by order of court.

5.—(1.) Where a person having the custody or control of a child, being a boy under the age of fourteen or a girl under the age of sixteen years, has been

(a) convicted of committing in respect of such child an offence under section one of this Act, or any offence involving bodily injury to the child and punishable with penal servitude ; or

(b) committed for trial for any such offence ; or

(c) bound over to keep the peace towards such child, any person may bring such child before a petty sessional court and the court, if satisfied on inquiry that it is expedient so to deal with the child, may order that the child be taken out of the custody of such person and committed to the charge of a relation of the child, or some other fit person named by the court, such relation or other person being willing to undertake such charge until it attains the age of fourteen years, or in the case of a girl sixteen years, or in either case for any shorter period, and may of his own motion or on the application of any person from time to time renew, vary, and revoke any such order : Provided that no order shall be made under this section unless a parent of the child is under committal for trial for having been, or has been proved to have been, party or privy to the offence, or has been bound over to keep the peace towards such child.

(2.) Any person to whom a child is so committed shall, whilst the order is in force, have the like control over the child as if he were its parent, and shall be responsible for its maintenance, and the child shall continue under the control of such person, notwithstanding that it is claimed by its parent ; and any court having power so to commit a child shall have power to make the like orders on the parent of the child to contribute to its maintenance during such period as aforesaid as if the child were detained under the Industrial Schools Acts, and such orders may be made on the complaint or application of the person to whom the child is for the time being committed, and the sums contributed by the parent shall be paid to such person as the court may name, and be applied for the maintenance of the child. In determining on the person to whom the child shall be so committed, the court shall endeavour to ascertain the religious persuasion to which the child belongs, and shall, if possible, select a person of the same religious persuasion, and such religious persuasion shall be specified in the order ; and in any case where the child has been placed pursuant to any such order with a person not of the same religious persuasion as that to which the child belongs, the court shall, on the application of any person in that behalf, and on its appearing that a fit person of the same religious persuasion is willing to undertake the charge, make an order to secure his being placed with a person of the same religious persuasion.

Provided that if the order to commit the child to the charge of some relation or other person be made in respect of any person having been committed for trial for an offence, as specified in subsection (1) (b) of this section, the court shall not be empowered to order the parent of the child to contribute to its maintenance prior to the trial of such person ; and if he be acquitted of such charge, or if such charge be dismissed for want of prosecution, then any order that may have been made under this section shall forthwith be void, except with regard to anything which may have been lawfully done under it.

(3.) One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State in England, and in Scotland the Secretary for Scotland, and in Ireland the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland may at any time in his discretion discharge a child from the custody of any person to whom it is committed, in pursuance of this section, either absolutely or on such conditions as such Secretary of State, Secretary, or Lord Lieutenant approves, and may, if he shall think fit, from time to time make, alter, or revoke rules in relation to children so committed to any person, and to the duties of such persons with respect to such children.

Power of search.

6.—(1.) If it appears to any stipendiary magistrate or to any two justices of the peace, on information made before him or them on oath by any person who, in the opinion of the magistrate or justices, is bonâ fide acting in the interest of any child, that there is reasonable cause to suspect that such child, being a boy under the age of fourteen years, or a girl under the age of sixteen years, has been or is being ill-treated or neglected in any place within the jurisdiction of such magistrate or justices in a manner likely to cause the child unnecessary suffering or to be injurious to its health, such magistrate or justices may issue a warrant authorising any person named therein to search for such child, and if it is found to have been or to be ill-treated or neglected in manner aforesaid, to take it to and detain it in a place of safety until it can be brought before a court of summary jurisdiction; and the court before whom the child is brought may cause it to be dealt with in the manner provided by section four.

Provided always, that the powers herein-before conferred on any two justices may be exercised by any one justice, if upon the information it appears to him to be a case of urgency: Provided also, that in the case of Scotland the jurisdiction hereby conferred on a magistrate or two justices shall be exercised only by a sheriff or sheriff substitute.

(2.) The magistrate or justices or justice, or in Scotland the sheriff or sheriff substitute, issuing such warrant may by the same warrant cause any person accused of any offence in respect of the child to be apprehended and brought before a justice, and proceedings to be taken for punishing such person according to law.

(3.) Any person authorised by warrant under this section to search for any child, and to take it to and detain it in a place of safety, may enter (if need be by force) any house, building, or other place specified in the warrant, and may remove the child therefrom.

(4.) Provided always, that every warrant issued under this section shall be addressed to and executed by some superintendent, inspector, or other superior officer of police, who shall be accompanied by the person making the information, if such person so desire, unless the magistrate, justices, or justice otherwise direct, and may also, if the magistrate, justices, or justice so direct, be accompanied by a registered medical practitioner.

Evidence of
person.

7. In any proceeding against any person for an offence under this Act, such person shall be competent but not compellable, and the wife or husband of such person may be required to attend to give evidence as an ordinary witness in the case and shall be competent but not compellable to give evidence.

8. Where, in any proceeding against any person for an offence under this Act, the child in respect of whom the offence is charged to have been committed, or any other child of tender years who is tendered as a witness, does not in the opinion of the court understand the nature of an oath, the evidence of such child may be received, though not given upon oath, if, in the opinion of the court, such child is possessed of sufficient intelligence to justify the reception of the evidence, and understands the duty of speaking the truth. And the evidence of such child, though not given on oath or affirmation, but otherwise taken and reduced into writing, in accordance with the provisions of section seventeen of the Indictable Offences Act, 1848, or of section fourteen of the Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851, shall be deemed to be a deposition within the meaning of those sections:

14 & 15 Vict. c. 93.

Provided that—

(a.) A person shall not be liable to be convicted of the offence unless the testimony admitted by virtue of this section and given on behalf of the prosecution, is corroborated by some other material evidence in support thereof implicating the accused; and

(b.) Any child whose evidence is received as aforesaid, and who shall wilfully give false evidence, shall be liable to be indicted and tried for such offence, and on conviction thereof may be adjudged such punishment as is provided for by section eleven of the Summary Jurisdiction Act, 1879, in the case of juvenile offenders.

41 & 42 Vict. c. 49.

Presumption of age of child.

9. Where a person is charged with an offence under this Act in respect of a child who is alleged in the charge or indictment to be under any specified age, and the child appears to the court to be under that age, such child shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be under that age, unless the contrary is proved.

10. When, in pursuance of this Act, any person is convicted by a court of summary jurisdiction of an offence, and such person did not plead guilty or admit the truth of the information, or when in the case of any application to the court under section five of this Act, any party thereto thinks himself aggrieved by any order or decision of the court, he may appeal against such conviction, or order, or decision, in England and Ireland to a court of general or quarter sessions, and in Scotland to the High Court of Justiciary in the manner provided by the Summary Prosecutions Appeals (Scotland) Act, 1875, or any Act amending the same.

Appeal from summary conviction to general or quarter sessions.

38 & 39 Vict. c. 62.

11. Where a misdemeanor under this Act is tried on indictment, the expenses of the prosecution shall be defrayed in like manner as in the case of a felony.

12. The guardians of any union or parish, or in Scotland the parochial board of any parish or combination, may, out of the funds under their control, pay the reasonable costs and expenses of any proceedings which they have directed to be taken under this Act in regard to the ill-treatment, neglect, abandonment, or exposure of any child, and, in the case of a union, shall charge such costs and expenses to the common fund.

An Act to amend the Practice and Proceedings of the Court of Chancery of the county palatine of Durham.

[26th August 1889.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery of the county palatine of Durham and Sadberge should be exercised, as far as conveniently may be, in a manner similar to that of the High Court of Justice in like cases :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and

Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Practice and Procedure. Power to chancellor to adopt and modify any rules and orders made or to be made for regulating the proceedings of the High Court of Justice.

1. It shall be lawful for the chancellor of the county palatine of Durham and Sadberge (in this Act called the chancellor of Durham), with the concurrence of the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, by rules or orders of the Court of Chancery of the said county palatine (in this Act called the Palatine Court) to be from time to time made in that behalf, to adopt all or any of such rules, orders, or regulations, as already have been or hereafter shall be made under the authority of the Supreme Court of Judicature Acts for Her Majesty's High Court of Justice, with such variations therein or additions thereto as may be necessary or proper for adapting the same to the business of the Palatine Court ; and the power of making rules and orders hereby conferred shall be deemed to extend to all matters of procedure or practice, or relating to or concerning the effect or operation in law of any procedure or practice in any cases within the cognizance of the Palatine Court, as to which rules of court and orders as to fees have been or might lawfully be made under the provisions of the Supreme Court of Judicature Acts for cases within the cognizance of the said High Court, and the chancellor of Durham shall have jurisdiction and authority to deal with all matters within the jurisdiction of the Palatine Court, as prescribed by the rules, orders, and regulations so to be made as aforesaid. Provided always that, subject to any such rules, orders, and regulations, the power heretofore possessed by the chancellor of Durham, of settling, altering, and amending the procedure and practice in the said Palatine Court, and of regulating the fees to be paid by suitors in the said Palatine Court, or to be allowed to the officers thereof, or to the solicitors practising therein, shall notwithstanding anything herein contained continue, save and except so far as the exercise of such power may in any respect be repugnant to, or inconsistent with, the provisions herein contained.

Service of process upon persons out of the jurisdiction.

2. Where any person who shall have commenced any action or other proceeding, or entered an appearance in any action or proceeding, in the Palatine Court, or shall have come in as a creditor, claimant, or purchaser, or otherwise submitted to the jurisdiction of the court, cannot, by reason of either his person or goods being out of the jurisdiction, be made amenable to the process of the court, and also where any such person as aforesaid shall have died, or become bankrupt, or insolvent, and his real or personal representatives, or the trustee of his estate and effects (as the case may be), or any of them who may be necessary parties to the continuance of the action or proceeding shall be out of the jurisdiction, it shall be lawful for the chancellor of Durham, upon special application being made to him, whether within or without the county palatine, by any party to or person interested in the action or proceeding, founded upon an affidavit verifying the facts of the case, to order that service of any summons, order, notice, subpoena, or other process shall be made and be deemed good service upon any such person, real or personal representative, or trustee as aforesaid, at any place within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or the Isle of Man, upon such terms and in such manner as to the chancellor of Durham shall seem reasonable and proper; and afterwards, if it shall be necessary, upon an affidavit that service has been made, to order an appearance to be entered for the person so served: and thereupon it shall be lawful for the chancellor of Durham to make such order, consequent upon the service so made as aforesaid, as before the passing of this Act, or under the provisions of this Act, might have been made if service had been duly made within the jurisdiction of the court.

3. Whenever a party to any action or proceeding in which a judgment or order shall have been made by the Palatine Court shall reside or withdraw his person or goods out of the jurisdiction of the court, and also whenever any judgment or order of the court cannot be fully enforced by reason of the non-residence of any party to be bound thereby within the jurisdiction of the court, then it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's High Court of Justice, or any judge thereof, upon the application of any person entitled to the benefit of the judgment or order, and upon the production of a transcript of the judgment or order, or such part thereof respectively as cannot be enforced for the reasons aforesaid, under the signature of the registrar of the Palatine Court, and an affidavit that by reason of such non-residence or withdrawal as aforesaid the judgment or order, or such part thereof as aforesaid, cannot be enforced, to make the judgment or order, or so much thereof respectively as cannot be enforced for any of the reasons aforesaid, a judgment or order of the said High Court of Justice; and thereupon the judgment or order, or such part thereof respectively as aforesaid, may be enforced against such of the parties bound by the same as shall be within the jurisdiction of the said High Court, and all proceedings shall and may be had thereupon as if such judgment or order had been originally made by the said High Court, and all the reasonable costs and charges of and consequent upon the application may be recovered in like manner as if the same were part of the judgment or order.

Where order may be enforced by making it an order of the High Court of Justice.

The provisions of this section shall extend and apply to judgments and orders made by Her Majesty's Court of Appeal in appeals from the judgments and orders made by the Palatine Court.

4. In all matters over which the Palatine Court may have jurisdiction, and which may require to be immediately or promptly heard, it shall be lawful for the chancellor of Durham, when out of the limits of the jurisdiction of the said court, to hear and determine all applications for injunctions both upon notice and ex parte, for dissolving injunctions, for the appointment of receivers, for the payment of money into and out of court, or for confirming certificates or reports, and all motions, petitions, and other matters for facilitating the progress of any action or business pending in the said court which he might lawfully hear and determine within the limits of the jurisdiction thereof; and all orders made by him upon the hearing of any applications, motions, petitions, and other matters as aforesaid shall be as valid and binding upon the parties

5. The service of every writ of subpœna to attend and give evidence, or subpœna duces tecum hereafter to be issued out of the Palatine Court and served upon any person out of the jurisdiction thereof, shall be as valid and effectual for compelling the attendance of such person at any time and place to be named in such writ of subpœna to be there examined either before the registrar of the said court as well in his capacity of examiner as in that of master of the said court, or before commissioners under any commission to be issued by the said court for the examination of witnesses, or to be examined vivâ voce at the hearing of any matter or action before the said court or before the registrar, or for compelling the attendance of such person by virtue of any writ of subpœna duces tecum, and shall entitle the party suing out the same to all the like remedies, by action or otherwise, as if the same had been served within the jurisdiction of the said court; and in case the person so served shall not attend according to the exigency of such writ, it shall be lawful for the Palatine Court, upon affidavit of the personal service of such writ, to transmit a certificate of such default, under the hand of the registrar of the said court, to the Queen's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice in England, to the Court of Justiciary in Scotland, or to the Queen's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice in Ireland; and the said last-mentioned courts respectively shall and may thereupon proceed against and punish, by attachment or otherwise, according to the course and practice of the said respective courts, the person so having made default in such and the like manner as they might have done if such person had refused or neglected to appear in obedience to a writ of subpœna or other process issued to compel the attendance of witnesses out of such last-mentioned courts respectively.

Provided always, the said last-mentioned courts respectively shall not in any case proceed against or punish any person, nor shall any such person be liable to any action, for having made default by not appearing in obedience to any writ of subpœna, or writ of subpœna duces tecum, or other process for that purpose issued under the authority of this Act, unless it be made to appear to such courts respectively that a reasonable and sufficient sum of money to defray the expenses of coming and attending to give evidence, and of returning from giving such evidence, had been tendered to such person at the time when such writ of subpœna, or writ of subpœna duces tecum, or other process was served upon him.

6. Where, under any Act of Parliament already or hereafter made, jurisdiction is vested in Her Majesty's High Court of Justice to deal with the property of infants or other persons under disability, or to deal with property in the administration of assets, then (unless in any such Act the contrary be expressly enacted) it shall be lawful for the Palatine Court, so far only as regards all persons and property within the jurisdiction of the court, to exercise the like power and jurisdiction in the same manner and subject to the same restrictions in all respects as the said High Court might exercise in the like matters.

7. Where, under any Act of Parliament already or hereafter made, or by orders or regulations made in pursuance thereof, application may be made by petition or motion, or otherwise, to Her Majesty's High Court of Justice or any judge thereof, and summary jurisdiction may be exercised thereon (unless in any such Act of Parliament the contrary be expressly enacted), it shall be lawful for the Palatine Court, so far only as regards all persons and property within the jurisdiction of the court, to exercise the like summary jurisdiction in the same manner and subject to the same restrictions in all respects as the said High Court or any judge thereof might exercise in the like matters.

Any person bringing an appeal under the provisions of this section shall, on instituting such appeal, be deemed to have abandoned any other right to appeal or to have a case stated, which he may have in respect of the same matter.

4. All jurisdiction, powers, and authorities conferred upon any civil bill court by the County Officers and Courts (Ireland) Act, 1877, and the County Court Amendment (Ireland) Act, 1882, are hereby conferred upon and may be exercised by any judge of assize engaged in hearing any appeal under this Act from any civil bill court.

PART III.

FINANCE.

Property, Funds, and Expenses of County Council.

Transfer of county property and liabilities.

25.—(1.) On and after the appointed day all such property as belongs or would, but for the passing of this Act, belong to or be vested in or held in trust for any authority whose powers and duties are by or in pursuance of this Act transferred to the county council of a county, shall pass to and vest in and be held in trust for such council, subject to all debts and liabilities affecting the same, and shall be held by the county council for the purposes for which such property is or would have been held, so far as such purposes are not modified by this Act; and if any question shall arise as to the heritable or moveable property of any parochial board as the local authority under the Public Health Acts, transferred by this Act, the same, failing agreement, may be determined by the Secretary for Scotland, but such determination shall have effect only until an adjustment by the Boundary Commission under or in pursuance of this Act.

(2.) The county council shall have full power to manage, alter, and enlarge, and, with the consent of the Secretary for Scotland, to alienate the lands and heritages transferred by this section, but shall from time to time provide such accommodation and rooms, and such furniture, books, and other things, for the transaction of the business of the county council, and of the quarter sessions, justices of the peace, and commissioners of supply, as they respectively may from time to time reasonably require.

Provided that—

(a.) The existing records of or in the custody of the court of quarter sessions shall, subject to any order of that court, remain in the same custody in which they would have been if this Act had not passed; and

(b.) The justices of any county may retain pictures or other property on the ground that the same have been presented to them or otherwise belong to them, and are not held for public purposes of the county, and any difference arising between the county council and the justices with respect to any such retention shall be referred to and determined by the Boundary Commissioners.

Property, funds, and expenses of county council.

26.—(1.) On and after the appointed day all debts and liabilities of any authority whose powers and duties are transferred by or in pursuance of this Act to the county council of a county shall become debts and liabilities of such council, and shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be defrayed by them out of the like funds out of which they would have been defrayed if this Act had not passed.

(2.) All receipts of the county council from whatever source shall be carried to the county fund, and all payments shall be made in the first instance out of that fund. Such receipts shall be paid into an incorporated or joint stock bank (including any branch thereof) for that purpose appointed by the county council, and such payments shall be made by cheques drawn, as in this Act provided, upon such bank.

(3.) In this Act "general county purposes" means all purposes for which the county council are for the time being authorised by law to incur any expenditure, with the exception of (1) the management and maintenance of highways, (2) the administration of the laws relating to public health, and (3) any special purpose in respect of which the county has been or may be divided into divisions or districts under the provisions of any general or local Act of Parliament or of this Act.

(4.) If the county fund is insufficient to meet the expenditure, rates (in this Act referred to as the owners consolidated rate and the occupiers consolidated rate, and together as the consolidated rates) may be levied to meet such deficiency for general county purposes upon all rateable property in the county, or, in the case of expenditure for the management and maintenance of highways, the administration of the laws relating to public health, or other special purpose as herein-before mentioned, upon all rateable property within the several districts or parishes of the county, as the case may be, in the manner and subject to the conditions in this Act provided.

(5.) The county council shall keep such accounts of the county fund, and of the sums raised by rates, as will prevent a rate being applied to any purpose to which it is not properly applicable.

(6.) The finance committee of the county council appointed under this Act shall prepare annually estimates of the receipts and expenses of the county fund and of the sums required to be raised to meet the deficiency of such fund for the expenditure chargeable thereon.

Rating.—Consolidation of Rates.

27.—(1.) The county council shall annually fix the rate in the pound of the rateable property which will be necessary to meet the deficiency in the county fund in respect of each branch of expenditure subject to its control, or for which it is responsible in whole or in part, and such rate shall be imposed upon all lands and heritages within the county, except that the rate for the management and maintenance of highways, the administration of the laws relating to public health, and any other special purpose as herein-before mentioned, shall be imposed upon all lands and heritages within each division or district or parish, as the case may be. The rate in respect of each branch of expenditure for which provision is made under an Act of Parliament in force at the passing of this Act shall be deemed to be imposed under the powers and subject to the provisions of that Act, except in so far as these are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. The rate necessary in respect of any branch or branches of expenditure for which no provision is made as last mentioned shall be imposed as a general purposes rate under this Act.

(2.) Subject to the provisions herein-after contained the rates shall be equally divided between owners and occupiers, and the sum of all the rates so fixed and divided shall, as affecting owners and occupiers respectively, constitute the owners consolidated rate and the occupiers consolidated rate, as the case may be, in respect of the lands and heritages situated therein.

30 & 31 Vict.
c. 101.

(3.) The consolidated rate shall be imposed upon lands and heritages according to the annual value thereof as appearing on the valuation roll, but subject always to the provisions of the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867, in regard to all assessments leviable under that Act.

(4.) Where at the passing of this Act any rate leviable by the commissioners of supply in respect of any such branch of expenditure is payable by owners only, without relief to the extent of one half against the occupiers, the following provisions shall have effect; that is to say,

- (i.) As soon as may be after the passing of this Act the sheriff shall ascertain and determine what has been during the ten years previous to the term of Whitsunday immediately preceding the passing of this Act the average amount in the pound of each such rate (in this Act referred to as the average rate), and shall cause his determination (which shall be final) to be recorded in the sheriff court books of the county.
- (ii.) When ascertaining and determining the average rate in respect of any such branch of expenditure, the sheriff shall exclude any portion of a rate applicable to the payment of interest and repayment of principal of money borrowed in respect thereof: Provided that, until any money so borrowed shall be wholly repaid, a rate sufficient to provide for the payment of interest and repayment of principal thereof shall be payable by owners only, and shall be included in the owners consolidated rate.
- (iii.) Where the rate fixed as herein-before provided by the county council as necessary to meet the deficiency in the county fund in respect of any branch of expenditure does not exceed the average rate determined as aforesaid, such rate shall, as heretofore, be payable by owners only, and shall be included in the owners consolidated rate. But where the rate so fixed by the county council exceeds such average rate, the portion of the rate beyond the average rate shall be payable by owners and occupiers equally. In the demand note the average rate and any increment thereof shall be separately set forth and demanded.

(5.) An outgoing occupier removing from any lands or heritages during the currency of a year for which a rate has been imposed shall have a right of relief against the incoming occupier for the proportion of the rate applicable to the period of the year remaining unexpired at his removal.

PART IV.

county electors.

(1.) Every person registered as a parliamentary elector for a county or division of a county shall be deemed to be registered as a county elector for that county, subject to the provisions following:—

(b.) For the purpose of the registration of county electors the provisions of the Registration Acts in regard to the demanding payment of poor rate, the intimation of the names of persons exempted from or who have failed to make payment of poor rate, and the relief against erroneous or improper exemption from payment of poor rate, shall be read and construed as if they applied to the consolidated rates as well as to the poor rate, and as if the collector of the consolidated rates were therein named as well as and along with the collector of poor rate:

(c.) The assessor shall prefix a distinctive mark to the number or name of any parliamentary elector as appearing in the parliamentary register or lists, if such parliamentary elector shall seem to him to be disqualified in respect of exemption from or failure to make payment of any consolidated rates, or because the qualifying premises are situated within the boundaries of a burgh within the meaning of this Act:

(d.) The forms of registers and lists and of notices of claim and objection and the provisions in regard to numbering on the register under the Registration Acts shall be varied so as to make them applicable to the registration of county electors as well as to the registration of parliamentary electors: Provided that the same forms may be made to apply both to parliamentary and county electors:

The assessor shall give notice on the lists published by him of the provisions of sub-section (g) herein-after contained and also of the distinctive mark used and to be used in pursuance of sub-section (c) of this section:

- (e.) It shall be lawful to object to the insertion or omission of the distinctive mark in this section mentioned as nearly as may be in the same manner and subject to the same provisions as to appeal and otherwise as in the case of any other entry in or omission from such register and lists :
- (f.) The provisions contained in sub-sections (a) and (b) of this section shall not take effect during the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine :
- (g.) A parliamentary elector to whose number or name as appearing in the parliamentary register the distinctive mark as in this section mentioned is prefixed shall not be deemed to be registered as a county elector, and shall not be entitled to vote at an election of county councillors for the county.
- (2.) In the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and in every third year thereafter, simultaneously with the preparation of the parliamentary register for a county or division of a county, there shall be prepared by the assessor charged with the preparation thereof a supplementary register (in this Act referred to as the supplementary register) of persons other than parliamentary electors in the county or division entitled to vote in the county at an election of county councillors ; and the whole enactments of the Registration Acts which relate to the registration of parliamentary electors for a county including the provisions relating to officers and dates, and to numbering on the register shall, with the necessary alterations of notices and other forms, and other necessary variations extend and apply to the registration of county electors in the supplementary register, subject to the provisions following :—
- (h.) Every peer otherwise possessing the qualification for being registered as a parliamentary elector, but who is disqualified for being so registered by reason of being a peer, shall nevertheless, subject to the provisions contained in sub-section (k) of this section, be entitled to be registered in the supplementary register as a county elector :
- (i.) Every woman, who is not married, or who being married is not living in family with her husband, otherwise possessing the qualification for being registered as a parliamentary elector, but who is disqualified for being so registered by reason of being a woman, shall, nevertheless, subject to the provisions contained in sub-section (k) of this section, be entitled to be registered in the supplementary register as a county elector :
- (j.) Where the parliamentary boundaries of a burgh do not coincide with the boundaries thereof within the meaning of this Act, every parliamentary elector for a burgh whose qualifying premises are situated beyond the boundaries of the burgh, but within the boundaries of a county, within the meaning of this Act, and every peer and every woman as aforesaid otherwise possessing the qualification for being registered as a parliamentary elector for a county, but who is disqualified for being so registered by reason of being a peer or a woman as aforesaid, whose qualifying premises are situated beyond the boundaries of the burgh, but within the boundaries of a county as aforesaid, shall, subject to the provisions contained in sub-section (k) of this section, be entitled to be registered in the supplementary register as a county elector for that county: Provided that, for the purpose of this sub-section, the assessor for the county shall have reasonable access to the schedules and lists of the assessor for the burgh:

- (k.) As affecting the right to be so registered, exemption from or failure to make payment of any consolidated rates shall disqualify for registration in the same manner as and in addition to exemption from or failure to make payment of poor rate:
  - (l.) The provisions of the Registration Acts in regard to the demanding payment of poor rate, the intimation of the names of persons exempted from or who have failed to make payment of poor rate, and the relief against erroneous or improper exemption from payment of poor rate, shall be read and construed as if they applied to the consolidated rates as well as to the poor rate, and as if the collector of the consolidated rate were therein named as well as and along with the collector of poor rate:
  - (m.) The provisions contained in sub-sections (k) and (l) of this section shall not take effect during the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.
- (3.) The parliamentary and supplementary registers and lists shall be framed and printed in such parts as that they may be arranged in electoral divisions as fixed under this Act, as well as in parishes and polling districts.
- (4.) Where the area (in this section referred to as the parliamentary area) of any county for the purposes of a parliamentary election differs from the area (in this section referred to as the county council area) of the county within the meaning of this Act, the proceedings for the registration of county electors shall be conducted as if the area of the county were for all purposes the parliamentary area: Provided that as soon as the said proceedings are completed the county clerk of the registering county shall transmit to the county clerk of any other county within the meaning of this Act, such copies as he may require of those parts of the county council register which relate to lands and heritages within the parliamentary area of the registering county, but within the county council area of such other county, upon payment of such sum as, failing agreement, shall be determined by the sheriff of either county: Provided also, that such parts of the county council register shall not form part of the county council register of the registering county, but shall form part of the county council register of such other county.

- (5.) The parliamentary and supplementary registers shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, together constitute the county council register for the county, and the expense of making up the same shall be added to the expense of making up the parliamentary register, and shall be defrayed and provided for as if they were part thereof: Provided that no part of such additional expense shall be levied on any lands and heritages within a burgh.
- (6.) Where a county is divided for the purposes of parliamentary representation, the provisions herein-before contained shall apply, subject to the necessary variations; and the parliamentary and supplementary registers prepared in pursuance thereof for the several parliamentary divisions of the county shall together constitute the county council register for the county.

No person shall be liable to be rated in respect of such entry, but the person rated in respect of the occupancy of the lands and heritages which include such dwelling-house shall be entitled to relief against the person (in this Act referred to as a service franchise occupier) occupying the same under him by virtue of any office, service, or employment, in respect of so much of the occupiers consolidated rate paid by him as is applicable to the amount entered in the valuation roll under the provisions of this Act as the annual value of such dwelling-house:

Provided that where an arrangement has been made under which a deduction is expressly made in name of rates from the wages or emoluments of any service franchise occupier, this section shall not confer any right of relief as herein-before provided.

Double returns.

34. If any person is returned to the county council of any county as representative of more than one electoral division, he shall, at or before the first meeting of the county council after such election, signify in writing to the council his decision as to the division which he desires to represent; and if he fails so to do the county council shall decide as to the division which he shall represent, and upon any such decision being made the office of councillor for the division or divisions which he does not thereafter represent shall be deemed vacant, and a fresh election shall be held.

Election not to be vitiated by technical defect.

For making advances (which they are hereby authorised to make) to any persons or bodies of persons, corporate or unincorporate, in aid of the emigration or colonization of inhabitants of the county, with a guarantee for repayment of such advances from any authority in the county or the government of any colony;

but neither the transfer of powers by this Act nor anything else in this Act, shall, save as herein-after provided, confer on the county council any power to borrow without the consent above mentioned, and that consent shall dispense with the necessity of obtaining any other consent which may be required by any Acts relating to such borrowing, and the said standing joint committee, before giving their consent, shall take into consideration any representation made by any ratepayer.

(4.) If the county council shall find it necessary in any year to make payments, in connexion with the current annual expenditure, for the purposes of the various Acts of Parliament administered by them in anticipation of the rates under the said Acts applicable to the expenditure of such year, they may, without any consent, borrow from any incorporated or joint stock bank, or other company or person, on such terms and conditions and in such form as may be agreed on between the parties, money on the security of such part of the rates as is still due and unreceived, but not to an amount greater than one-half of such part of such rates, and when any money has been so borrowed on the security of the rates of any local financial year, it shall not be competent to borrow on the security of the rates of any other year until the money borrowed as aforesaid shall have been paid off.

(5.) Where a loan is raised for any purpose upon the security of any rate leviable by the county council under or in pursuance of this Act, or of any other Act, the council shall take care that the sums payable in respect of the loan are charged to the special account to which the expenditure for that purpose is chargeable.

(6.) Where money has been borrowed by a county council or by any authority whose powers and duties are by or in pursuance of this Act transferred to the council until the loan has been discharged, the county council shall, within twenty-one days after the expiration of each local financial year, transmit to the Secretary for Scotland a return in such form and verified in such manner as may from time to time be prescribed, showing the amount of the loan still outstanding, and the steps which have been taken to comply with the provisions of this or any other Act in regard to its payment and discharge.

The county council shall pay to a county auditor such salary and allowances as shall from time to time be fixed by the county council subject to the approval of the Secretary for Scotland.

Subject to the regulations herein-after contained, the Secretary for Scotland may make, and when made may revoke and vary, rules for the guidance of county auditors in the discharge of their duties: Provided that no such rules when made or varied shall be in force until they have lain for not less than one month on the table of both Houses of Parliament.

70. The following regulations with respect to audit shall be observed; (that is to say,) Provisions for audit.

- (1.) Before each audit the county clerk shall, after receiving from the county auditor the requisite appointment, give at least fourteen days notice, in such manner as shall be prescribed from time to time, of the time and place at which the audit will be made, and of the deposit of accounts required by this section, and of the name and address of the county auditor.
- (2.) An abstract in duplicate of the accounts duly made up, balanced and signed as aforesaid, shall, together with all assessment books, account books, deeds, contracts, accounts, vouchers, and receipts mentioned or referred to in such accounts, be deposited in the offices of the county council and be open between the hours of eleven forenoon and three afternoon to the inspection of all ratepayers within the county or within any burgh liable to contribute to the county fund, as herein-before provided, for seven clear days before the audit, and all such persons shall be at liberty to take copies of or extracts from the same, without any fee; and any officer of the county council duly appointed in that behalf refusing to allow inspection thereof shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.
- (3.) For the purpose of any audit under this Act, every county auditor may, by a demand in writing, require the production before him of all books, deeds, contracts, accounts, vouchers, receipts, and other documents and papers which he may deem necessary, and may require any person holding the same or accountable therefor to appear before him at any such audit, or any adjournment thereof, and to make and sign a declaration as to the correctness of the same; and if such person neglects or refuses so to appear, or to produce any such books, deeds, contracts, accounts, vouchers, receipts, documents, or papers, or to make or sign such declaration, he shall incur for every neglect or refusal a penalty not exceeding forty shillings; and if he falsely or corruptly makes or signs any such declaration knowing the same to be untrue in any material particular, he shall be liable to the penalties inflicted on persons guilty of perjury.
- (4.) Any ratepayer may make any objection to such accounts or any part thereof, and shall transmit the same and the grounds thereof in writing to the county auditor, and a copy thereof to the officer concerned, two clear days before the time fixed for the audit, and any ratepayer may be present at the audit and may support any objection made as herein-before provided either by himself or by any other ratepayer.
- (5.) If it shall appear to any county auditor acting in pursuance of this section that any payment is in his opinion contrary to law and should be disallowed or that any sum, which in his opinion ought to have been, is not brought into account by any person,

- (6.) If the Secretary for Scotland shall be of opinion that, although a disallowance or surcharge might be lawfully made, the subject-matter thereof was incurred under such circumstances as to make it fair and equitable that the disallowance or surcharge should not be made, he may abstain from making the same.
- (7.) Every sum determined by the Secretary for Scotland under this Act to be due from any person shall be paid by such person to the county council within fourteen days after such determination has been intimated to him, and if such sum is not so paid it shall be the duty of the county auditor to recover the same, and the county council shall reimburse him for his expenses, including a reasonable allowance for his time in so far as not recovered from the person surcharged.
- (8.) Within fourteen days after the completion of the audit, or, as the case may be, after the Secretary for Scotland has determined any questions raised under an interim report by the county auditor, the county auditor shall report on the accounts audited, and shall certify on each duplicate abstract thereof the amount in words at length of the expenditure so audited and allowed, and further that the regulations with respect to the accounts have been complied with, and that he has ascertained by the audit the correctness of the accounts. He shall forthwith send one duplicate abstract of the accounts herein-before mentioned to the county council, who shall cause the same to be deposited in their office, and shall publish such abstract in the form prescribed in some one or more of the newspapers circulating in the county. The county auditor shall also forthwith send the other duplicate abstract of the accounts so certified by him to the Secretary for Scotland; provided that if the Secretary for Scotland shall so determine, such abstract may come in place of and render unnecessary a return of the receipts and expenditure of the county council in pursuance of the Local Taxation Returns (Scotland) Act, 1881.
- (9.) Where any surcharge has been made as herein-before provided, or the county auditor has made any interim report or report respecting the accounts or the receipts and expenses of the county council, the council shall cause the surcharge and interim report or report to be printed and published, together with the abstract of their accounts herein-before mentioned, and to be delivered to any ratepayer as in this section mentioned who asks for the same, and in case of default in such publication the Secretary for Scotland may cause the same to be published, and the cost of such publication, to the amount certified by the Secretary for Scotland, shall be a debt due from the county council to Her Majesty, and the county clerk shall be liable in case of default in such publication to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

An Act to regulate the Number and Duties of the Clerks of the Court of Session and Bill Chamber in Scotland, and for other purposes. [30th August 1889.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the number of clerks of the Court of Session should be reduced, and that provision should be made for the supervision and better distribution of the duties performed by the clerks and certain other officers of the Court of Session and of the Bill Chamber :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. The vacancies presently existing in the offices of principal clerk of Session shall not be filled up, and the office of interim principal clerk of Session shall cease and determine, and there shall be only two principal clerks of the Court of Session, who shall, in addition to the duties which they at present discharge, be vested, subject to the orders of the Lord President of the Court, with a general supervision over the whole staff of clerks in the Inner and Outer House and Bill Chamber, and shall have power, with his approval,— number of principal clerks, and duty of supervision.

(1.) To make arrangements, as often as it shall to them seem necessary, to provide temporary assistance in the performance of clerks duties in the court of one Lord Ordinary from that of another, subject to the approval of the Lords Ordinary whose courts are affected thereby; and, if it shall become necessary under the provisions of section two of this Act, to transfer an assistant clerk from one division to the other division of the Court :

(2.) To make such arrangements for carrying on the work during vacation as shall secure a reasonable holiday leave of absence in each year to each of the before-mentioned staff of clerks :

(3.) To make such alterations as may be necessary in the distribution and allocation of the duties performed by the before-mentioned staff of clerks : Provided always, that in adjusting such alterations the principal clerks shall have regard to the existing practice under which the primary duty of the depute clerks is to attend the sittings of the respective courts to which they may be attached as chief clerks therein, and the primary duty of the assistant clerks is to give attendance at the Register House:

- (4.) To suspend, for a period not exceeding six months, any of the before-mentioned staff of clerks, in event of wilful neglect of official duty; and to direct, when it seems to them necessary, that any clerk thus suspended shall provide at his own expense and to the satisfaction of the said principal clerks a temporary assistant to discharge the duties of his office, or, in the event of his failing or delaying to provide such assistant, to appoint a competent person to perform the said duties, whose remuneration shall be deducted from the salary payable to the said clerk:
- (5.) To make such arrangements as may be necessary for the preparation of returns ordered by Parliament, and from time to time to select one or more of the before-mentioned staff of clerks, or such other qualified person or persons as the said principal clerks may think proper, to prepare any such return.

Reduction in number of assistant clerks in Inner House, and permanent appointment of sub-assistants.

2. No vacancy in the office of assistant clerk in the Inner House shall be filled up until the number shall have fallen to one, and thereafter there shall be two assistant clerks, one for each division of the Court, who shall be termed Inner House depute clerks, and who shall, when desired by the principal clerk, and under his supervision when present, and otherwise under the supervision of the Court, take part in writing interlocutors and afford such other assistance as may be required, and for that purpose attend in Court during its sittings from day to day. The present interim principal and assistant clerk in the First Division (who shall during his tenure of office retain the status and emoluments which he at present holds) and the present senior assistant clerk in the Second Division shall respectively, from and after the passing of this Act, be designed as Inner House depute clerks, and shall continue to discharge the duties which they at present respectively perform. The Inner House depute clerks and the ordinary clerks shall be paid out of moneys to be provided by Parliament such salaries as the Treasury shall from time to time determine, having due regard to the conditions and circumstances under which the present officers were appointed.

Transfer of petitions to Bill Chamber.

3. And whereas it is desirable that a portion of the work at present falling upon the clerks of the Court of the Junior Lord

Ordinary should be performed by the clerks of the Bill Chamber, be it enacted as follows :

Provided that nothing herein contained shall affect the form of such applications and petitions, or of the interlocutors to be pronounced therein, or the preparation of extracts of Decrees pronounced therein, or shall increase or alter the powers presently possessed during vacation by the Lord Ordinary on the Bills, who shall have the same powers, including that of reporting to the Inner House, as are at present exercised by the Junior Lord Ordinary.

CHAPTER 56.

An Act to amend the Law respecting Children in Workhouses, and respecting the borrowing of Money by Guardians and Managers of District Schools, and respecting the Managers of the Metropolitan Asylum District.
[30th August 1889.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1.—(1.) Where a child is maintained by the guardians of any union and was deserted by its parent, the guardians may at any time resolve that such child shall be under the control of the guardians until it reaches the age, if a boy, of sixteen, and if a girl of eighteen years, and thereupon until the child reaches that age all the powers and rights of such parent in respect of that child shall, subject as in this Act mentioned, vest in the guardians;

Control of guardians over child deserted by parent.

Provided that the guardians may rescind such resolution, if they think that it will be for the benefit of the child that it should be rescinded, or may permit such child to be either permanently or temporarily under the control of such parent, or of any other relative, or of any friend.

(2.) A court of summary jurisdiction, if satisfied on complaint made by a parent of the child, that the child has not been maintained by the guardians, or was not deserted by such parent, or that it is for the benefit of the child that it should be either permanently or temporarily under the control of such parent, or that the resolution of the guardians should be determined, may make an order accordingly, and any such order shall be complied with by the guardians, and if the order determines the resolution, the resolution shall be thereby determined as from the date of the order, and the guardians shall cease to have the rights and powers of the parent as respects such child.

(3.) For the purposes of this Act a child shall be deemed to be maintained by the guardians if it is wholly or partly maintained by them in a workhouse or in any district school, separate school, separate infirmary, sick asylum, hospital for infectious diseases, institution for the deaf, dumb, blind, or idiots, or any certified school under the Act of the session of the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter forty-three, or is boarded out by the guardians, whether within or without the limits of the union.

(4.) Where a parent is imprisoned under a sentence of penal servitude or imprisonment in respect of an offence committed against a child, this section shall apply as if such child had been deserted by that parent.

(5.) Nothing in this section shall relieve any person from any liability to contribute to the maintenance of a child, but the fact of such contribution being made shall not deprive the guardians of any of the powers and rights conferred on them by this section.

(6.) Nothing in this section shall authorise the guardians to cause a child to be educated in any religious creed other than that in which the child would have been educated but for any resolution of the guardians under this section, nor affect the enactments respecting the religious education of a child maintained by the guardians, or respecting the right of any minister of the same religious persuasion as the child to visit and instruct the child, nor affect any of the enactments specified in the Schedule to this Act, which enactments relate to the religious education of children maintained by guardians.

- (6.) All enactments in the Acts relating to the relief of the poor touching the purposes for which and the amount to which guardians of unions and managers of any school or asylum district to whom this section applies may borrow, shall be repealed without prejudice to anything done thereunder, but every loan under this section shall be made on the like security and be paid off in the like time and manner, and be borrowed and re-borrowed in the like manner as is provided by the enactments in force at the passing of this Act with respect to loans of such guardians and managers.

CHAPTER 62.

An Act to make further provision for the regulation of Cotton Cloth Factories. [30th August 1889.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the Cotton Cloth Factories Act, Short title. 1889.

2. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of March Commence- one thousand eight hundred and ninety, which day is in this Act ment. referred to as the commencement of this Act.

3. This Act shall be construed as one with the Factory and Construction. Workshop Act, 1878. 41 & 42 Vict. c. 16.

4. In this Act—

The expression "cotton cloth factory" shall mean any room, shed, or workshop, or any part thereof, in which the weaving of cotton cloth is carried on.

Expressions referring to the artificial raising of temperature or production of humidity shall include the raising of temperature or production of humidity by any artificial means whatsoever except by gas when used for lighting purposes only.

5.—(1.) The amount of moisture in the atmosphere of a cotton cloth factory shall not at any time be in excess of such amount as is represented by the number of grains of moisture per cubic foot of air shown in column I. of the table in Schedule A. to this Act opposite to such figure in column II. as represents the temperature existing in such cotton cloth factory at such time. Temperature and humidity of the atmosphere.

Provided that in a cotton cloth factory the temperature shall not at any time be artificially raised above seventy degrees, except in so far as may be necessary in the process of giving humidity to the atmosphere and according to the table in Schedule A. of this Act.

(2.) The fact that one of the wet bulb thermometers in such factory gives a higher reading than the figure shown in column III. of Schedule A. to this Act opposite to such figure in column II. as represents the temperature existing in such factory, shall be evidence that the amount of moisture in the atmosphere exceeds the limit in the last preceding sub-section prescribed.

6. One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may from time to time by order repeal or vary the table in Schedule A. of this Act, and substitute any new or amended table therefor: Provided always, that such varied or substituted table shall be laid in a complete form before both Houses of Parliament if Parliament be sitting, or if not, then within three weeks after the beginning of the next ensuing session of Parliament; and if such table shall be Power to alter table of humidity.

disapproved by either House of Parliament within forty days after the same shall have been so laid before Parliament, such table shall be void and of no effect: Provided also, that no such table shall come into force or operation until the same shall have been laid before Parliament for forty days; but after the expiration of such forty days, if the table has not been disapproved of as aforesaid, the Secretary of State shall cause a copy thereof to be published in the "London Gazette," and to be given to every occupier of a cotton cloth factory who, in pursuance of this Act, has given notice of humidity of the atmosphere being artificially produced in such factory, and after the expiration of fourteen days from the first publication thereof in the "London Gazette," the varied or substituted table shall be deemed to be the table in Schedule A. of this Act.

Thermometers
to be employed.

7. For the purpose of recording the humidity of the atmosphere and the temperature in a cotton cloth factory, there shall be provided, maintained, and kept in correct working order in every such factory two sets of standardised wet and dry bulb thermometers.

The following regulations shall be observed with reference to the employment of such thermometers in each cotton cloth factory:

- (i.) One set of thermometers is to be fixed in the centre and one at the side of the factory, or in such other position as may be directed or sanctioned by an inspector of factories, so as to be plainly visible to the operatives.
- (ii.) The occupier or manager or person for the time being in charge of each factory shall read the thermometers twice in the day, viz., between ten o'clock and eleven o'clock in the forenoon and between three o'clock and four o'clock in the afternoon, on every day that any operatives are employed in the factory, and shall record the readings of each thermometer at each of such times on a form provided for the purpose for each set of thermometers in the form and in accordance with the regulations contained in Schedule B. of this Act.
- (iii.) The form in which the readings of each thermometer provided for in sub-section (ii.) of this section are to be recorded shall be kept hung up near the thermometers, and after being duly filled up, shall be forwarded at the end of each month to the inspector of the district, and a copy shall be kept at the factory for reference.
- (iv.) There shall be kept hanging up in a frame, and properly glazed, in a conspicuous position and near to each set of thermometers a copy of the table set out in Schedule A. of this Act.
- (v.) Each form shall be prima facie evidence of the humidity of the atmosphere and temperature in the factory in which such form was hung up.

Notice of artificial production of humidity to be given.

8. The occupier of any cotton cloth factory in which humidity of the atmosphere is artificially produced shall give notice thereof in writing to the chief inspector of factories.

The notice shall be given in the case of a factory in which humidity is so produced at the commencement of this Act within one week after the commencement of this Act, and in the case of any other factory at or before the time at which the artificial production of humidity is commenced in the factory.

9. In every factory in respect of which such notice has been given, arrangements shall be made and maintained to the satisfaction of the inspector of factories for admitting in every hour during which work is carried on not less than six hundred cubic feet of fresh air for each person employed therein; and the arrangements for such ventilation shall be kept in operation subject, as far as possible, to the control of the persons employed therein.

Admission of fresh air.

10. Every factory in respect of which such notice has been given shall be visited by an inspector of factories once at least in every three months. The inspector shall examine into the temperature, humidity of the atmosphere, ventilation, and quantity of fresh air in the factory, and shall report to the chief inspector of factories in accordance with the form printed in Schedule C. of this Act.

Inspectors to visit the factories.

11. If at any time the occupier of any factory in respect of which notice has been given in conformity with the eighth section of this Act shall cease to produce humidity by artificial means, he may give notice in writing of such cessation, and from the date of such notice, and so long as humidity is not artificially produced in the factory, the provisions of this Act with respect to factories in which humidity of the atmosphere is artificially produced shall not apply to such factory.

Notice of cessation of artificial production of humidity.

12. Where an inspector considers that dust is generated, and such dust is inhaled by the workers to an injurious extent, and it appears to such inspector that such inhalation could be prevented by the use of mechanical or other means, the following provisions shall apply:—

Provisions for preventing inhalation of dust.

(1.) The inspector shall serve on the occupier of the factory a notice requiring him to adopt such mechanical or other means as the said inspector requires to prevent the inhalation of such dust:

(2.) The occupier, within seven days after the receipt of the notice, may serve on the inspector a requisition to refer the matter to arbitration; and thereupon the matter shall be referred to arbitration, and two skilled arbitrators shall be appointed, the one by the inspector and the other by the occupier; and the provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to the settlement of disputes by arbitration shall, subject to the express provisions of this section, apply to the said arbitration, and the arbitrators or their umpire shall give the decision within twenty-one days after the last of the arbitrators, or, in the case of the umpire, after the umpire is appointed, or within such further time as the occupier and inspector, by writing, allow; and if the decision is not so given, the matter shall be referred to the arbitration of an umpire to be appointed by the judge of the county court within the jurisdiction of which the factory is situate :

- (3.) If the arbitrators or their umpire decide that it is unnecessary or impossible to prevent the inhalation of such dust, or that the means required to be adopted by the inspector are not reasonable, the notice shall be cancelled, and the occupier shall not be required to carry out the notice of the said inspector, and the expenses of the arbitration shall be paid as the expenses of the inspectors under this Act :
- (4.) If the occupier does not within the said seven days serve on the inspector a requisition to refer the matter to arbitration, or does not appoint an arbitrator within seven days after he served that requisition, or if neither the arbitrators nor the umpire decide that it is unnecessary or impossible to prevent the inhalation of such dust, or that the means required to be adopted by the inspector are not reasonable, the occupier shall prevent the inhalation of dust in accordance with the notice or with the award of the arbitrators or umpire if it modifies the notice, and the expenses of the arbitration shall be paid by the occupier, and shall be recoverable from him by the inspector in the county court :
- (5.) Where the occupier of a factory fails to comply within a reasonable time with the requirements of this section as to the inhalation of dust in accordance with the notice or award, or fails to keep and to maintain such factory in accordance therewith, he shall be deemed to contravene this Act.

Penalties for offences.

13. 1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Light Railways Short title. (Ireland) Act, 1889.

2.—(1.) This Act shall not extend to England or Scotland.

Extent of Act.

(2.) The Lord Lieutenant by Order in Council may from time to time declare that it is desirable that a light railway should be constructed between certain places for the development of fisheries or other industries, but that owing to the circumstances of the district special assistance from the State is required for its construction, and declare that the provisions herein-after enacted shall be applicable to such light railway, and thereupon the provisions of this Act shall be applicable to a light railway between the said places; but the provisions of this Act shall not apply except to a light railway specified in such an Order in Council as aforesaid, and shall cease to apply to such railway unless the same be constructed within a period to be mentioned in the said order or such extended period as shall be named in any subsequent order.

3. This Act shall apply only (a) where the promoters of the light railway are an Irish railway company having a railway open for traffic; or (b) where the promoters have made an agreement approved of by the Treasury for the maintenance, management, and working of the light railway by such a railway company; or (c) where the promoters in making application to the grand jury of any county under the Tramways (Ireland) Acts propose that a barony or baronies in the county shall guarantee the payment of dividends upon a portion of the paid-up capital of the light railway, pursuant to the provisions of the Tramways and Public Companies (Ireland) Act, 1883, which promoters are hereby authorised to do.

Who may be promoters.

promoters, being a public company, for the construction, maintenance, and working of the light railway, or any or either of the said matters, upon such terms and conditions in all respects as to the execution of the undertaking and any contracts to be made therefor, or as to any other matter relating to the undertaking as the Treasury shall think fit.

(2.) The Treasury may, subject to the limitations as to amount in this Act contained, agree that the undertaking may be aided out of public money either by a capital sum or by an annual payment, or partly in one way and partly in another.

(3.) The capital sum may be a free grant or a loan, or partly one and partly the other, but no loan shall be made to any company which owes arrears of principal or interest to the Treasury, or to any promoters whose agreement for construction, maintenance, or working is made with such a company.

(4.) A free grant or an annual payment shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament.

Such Order in Council shall not take effect unless confirmed by Parliament if a petition against it is presented to the Lord Lieutenant in Council and the petitioner appears and proceeds therewith.

6.—(1.) The Treasury shall not undertake, in pursuance of this Act, to pay in the aggregate a sum exceeding twenty thousand pounds a year in addition to the residue, if any, for the time being remaining unappropriated of the sum of forty thousand pounds a year mentioned in the ninth section of the Tramways and Public Companies (Ireland) Act, 1883.

(4.) If the Treasury undertake to pay any annual sum or sums under the Tramways and Public Companies (Ireland) Act, 1883, and this Act in excess of forty-two thousand pounds a year, the amount of the aid which may be given under this Act by a capital sum shall be diminished by such sum as with interest at the rate of three per cent. per annum would produce the amount of such excess.

7. In the case of any light railway to which the provisions of this Act shall be applicable, the following modifications of the provisions of the Tramways and Public Companies (Ireland) Act, 1860, shall be made—

tions of 23 & 24 Vict.
c. 152.

(a.) The first regulation contained in Schedule (A) to the said Act, Part V., shall be read and construed as if after the words "neighbourhood of the proposed tramway" there were added the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"(6.) The propriety of the amount fixed as the nominal capital for the construction of the light railway, and the amount of paid-up capital which will be necessary for the purposes of the undertaking, and also the amount of capital which will be necessary as a provision for working capital.

"(7.) The merits of the proposed light railway in all points of view as compared with any other light railway which might be constructed opening up communication through the same district as the proposed line."

(b.) The inquiry directed by the ninth section of the Tramways (Ireland) Act, 1860, as altered by this Act, shall take place before any such application is made to the Treasury as herein-before is mentioned, and for the purpose of such inquiry and of enabling them to make their report thereon the Board of Works may obtain and use the assistance of such persons, with the consent of the Treasury as to number, skilled in the subjects of the inquiry, as the Board of Works may consider necessary.

Preparation and audit of accounts of expenditure under the Act. 46 & 47 Vict. c. 48.

8. The Board of Works shall, at the end of each financial year in which any part of any sum issued under the Tramways and Public Companies (Ireland) Act, 1883, or under this Act (in this section referred to as the said Acts) out of the Exchequer, or out of money applicable for local loans is expended, make up such accounts as may be required by the Treasury of the money issued from the Exchequer, or out of money applicable for local loans, which has been expended in pursuance of the said Acts and the purposes for which it was expended, and the mode in which the money was provided.

Application of Railway and Canal Traffic Acts.

9. The Regulation of Railways Act, 1873, and the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888, shall, so far as circumstances may admit, and so far as those enactments are not inconsistent with the Tramways (Ireland) Act, or this Act, apply to light railways constructed under this Act; and for the purposes of this section a light railway shall be deemed to be a railway within the meaning of the Regulation of Railways Act, 1873, and the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888.

Application of Act to previous presentments.

10. Where application for a presentment or approval for the purpose of a light railway has been made at the summer assizes, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, this Act shall, so far as applicable, extend to such railway: Provided always, that this section shall not apply where an application for a guarantee has been made before the passing of this Act.

Interpretation.

11. In this Act, unless there is something inconsistent in the context—

The expression "the Tramways (Ireland) Acts" has the same meaning as in the Tramways and Public Companies (Ireland) Act, 1883, and also includes the said Act.

The expression "light railway" includes tramway as that word is used in the Tramways (Ireland) Acts.

All other words and expressions in this Act which are not thereby defined or explained, and are defined or explained in any of the Tramways (Ireland) Acts, have, unless there is something inconsistent in the context, the same meaning as in the last-mentioned Acts, and the said Acts as varied by this Act and this Act shall, so far as is consistent with the tenor thereof, be read together and construed as one Act.

CHAPTER 68.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Pilotage.

[30th August 1889.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Removal of doubts as to application of pilotage provisions of 17 & 18 Vict. c. 104. to foreign ships. Provisional orders as to pilotage authorities and districts.

1. Whereas doubts have arisen as to the extent of the application of certain provisions of Part Five of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and it is expedient to remove those doubts; be it therefore enacted and declared that in the construction of Part Five of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and of the enactments amending the same, the expression "ship" includes a foreign ship.

2.—(1.) The Board of Trade may from time to time, by provisional order—

(a) make provision or further provision for the direct representation of pilots and, if it seems expedient, also of shipowners, on the pilotage authority of any district, or if there is a pilotage committee of that authority, or any body of commissioners or sub-commissioners appointed by that authority, then on that committee or body; and

(b) extend the limits of any pilotage district by including therein any area in the United Kingdom in which there is no pilotage authority, so, however, that in the area so included there shall be no compulsory pilotage and no restriction on the power of duly qualified persons to obtain licences as pilots.

25 & 26 Vict. c. 63.

(2.) The provisions of section forty of the Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862, shall apply in the case of any provisional order made in pursuance of this section.

Disciplinary powers of committee, commissioners, sub-commissioners, &c.

3. Where in pursuance of this Act provision has been made for the representation of pilots on the pilotage committee or commissioners or sub-commissioners for any pilotage district, the committee, commissioners, or sub-commissioners shall have power to suspend or dismiss, or to suspend or revoke the certificate of, any pilot licensed for that district who is guilty of any offence under section three hundred and sixty-five, or section three hundred and sixty-six, or section three hundred and sixty-seven of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854.

17 & 18 Vict. c. 104.

Appeals from pilotage authorities.

4.—(1.) If a pilot is aggrieved by the decision of a pilotage authority or a pilotage committee, or of any commissioners or sub-commissioners for a pilotage district, with respect to his suspension or dismissal, or the suspension or revocation of his licence, or the imposition of a fine exceeding two pounds, or the application of any pilotage fund to which he has contributed prejudicing his rights in respect of the fund, he may appeal therefrom either to a judge of county courts having jurisdiction within the port for which the pilot is licensed, or to a metropolitan police or stipendiary magistrate having jurisdiction within that port.

(2.) For the purpose of hearing the appeal, the judge or magistrate shall sit with an assessor of nautical and pilotage experience.

(3.) The assessor shall be selected and summoned by the judge or magistrate, but where any person is proposed to be summoned as an assessor, objection to him, either personally or in respect of his qualification, may be taken by either party to the appeal: Provided that in the case of a pilot licensed by the Trinity House for any district on the coast of England or Wales, the assessor shall be selected from the Brethren of the Trinity House.

(4.) The judge or magistrate may either confirm or reverse the decision of the pilotage authority, or modify the same by increasing or decreasing any penalty or otherwise, as may seem just, and his decision shall be final.

(5.) The costs incurred by a pilotage authority under this section shall be payable out of any fund applicable to the general expenses of the pilotage authority.

(6.) Rules with respect to the procedure under this section (including costs and the remuneration of assessors) may from time to time be made, as respects judges of county courts, by the authority having power to make rules of practice under the County Courts Act, 1888, and as respects metropolitan police and stipendiary magistrates by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, but in either case with the concurrence of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury as to fees. 51 & 52 Vict. c. 43.

5. If any master of a ship navigating outside a district in which pilotage is compulsory knowingly employs or continues to employ an unqualified pilot after a qualified pilot has offered to take charge of the ship, or has made a signal for that purpose, he shall in every case incur a penalty of double the amount of pilotage demandable for the conduct of the ship. Employment of unqualified pilots.

6. The returns required by section three hundred and thirty-seven of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, to be made by a pilotage authority to the Board of Trade shall include separate accounts of the receipts and expenditure in respect of any pension or superannuation funds administered by or under the control of the pilotage authority. Returns as to pension fund.

7. The powers of making byelaws conferred on a pilotage authority by section three hundred and thirty-three of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, shall extend to making byelaws requiring masters or mates who hold pilotage certificates granted in pursuance of section three hundred and forty or section three hundred and forty-two of that Act to contribute towards the pilotage fund of the district, and requiring that a periodical return of the pilotage services rendered by such masters or mates be made by them to the pilotage authority. Provided that the contribution of a master or mate under this section shall not exceed such proportion of the pilotage dues which would have been payable in respect of his ship if he had not held a pilotage certificate, as may be from time to time fixed by the Board of Trade. Byelaws as to contributions to pilotage funds.

8. The fees mentioned in section three hundred and forty-three of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, shall, in the case of pilotage certificates granted or renewed by a pilotage authority, be applicable to the expenses of and incidental to the examinations referred to in that section, and to the payment of such charges in connexion with the preparation and renewal of pilotage certificates as may from time to time be approved by the Board of Trade, and the surplus (if any) shall be applied for the benefit of the pilots' superannuation fund of the port or district (if any), or otherwise for the benefit of the qualified pilots of the port or district to which the certificates apply in such manner as the pilotage authority may think fit. Application of fees in respect of pilotage certificates.

9.—(1.) Where the master or mate of a ship holds a pilotage certificate granted under section three hundred and forty or three hundred and forty-two of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, the Flag to be displayed where master or mate has

ship shall, so long as he is on board, and as the ship is within a district in which pilotage is compulsory, display a flag of the description mentioned in section three hundred and forty-six of the same Act, and, if default is made in complying with this section, the master of the ship shall incur a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

(2.) The holder of such a pilotage certificate shall be deemed to be a licensed pilot within the meaning of section three hundred and forty-eight of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854.

Penalty on ordinary boat displaying colourable imitation of pilot flag.

10. Whereas by section three hundred and forty-eight of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, a penalty is imposed for unlawfully displaying a pilot flag, and it is expedient to extend the provisions of that section to the display of a colourable imitation of a pilot flag; be it therefore enacted that if any boat or ship, not having on board a licensed pilot or a master or mate holding a pilotage certificate granted in pursuance of section three hundred and forty or section three hundred and forty-two of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, displays a flag so nearly resembling a flag of the description mentioned in section three hundred and forty-six of that Act, as to be likely to deceive, there shall be incurred for every such offence a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds, to be recovered from the owner or from the master of the boat or ship, unless he proves that he had no intention to deceive.

Recovery of pilotage dues.

11. So much of section three hundred and sixty-three of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, as enacts that pilotage dues shall not be recovered until the dues so demanded have remained unpaid for seven days after the time of such demand being made, is hereby repealed.

Application to Scotland.

12. In the application of this Act to Scotland the following modification shall be made:—

(a.) An appeal under this Act from the decision of the pilotage authority shall be to the sheriff having jurisdiction at the port where the decision is given, and may be heard by the sheriff or sheriff substitute sitting with an assessor as provided in this Act;

CHAPTER 70.

An Act to apply a sum out of the Consolidated Fund to the service of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety, and to appropriate the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament. [30th August 1889.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards making good the supply which we have cheerfully granted to Your Majesty in this session of Parliament, have resolved to grant unto Your Majesty the sum herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Grant out of Consolidated Fund.

Issue of £18,438,592 out of the Consolidated Fund.

1. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the time being may issue out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and apply towards making good the supply granted to Her Majesty for the service of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety, the sum of Eighteen million four hundred and thirty-eight thousand five hundred and ninety-two pounds.

Power for the Treasury to borrow.

2. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may borrow from time to time, on the credit of the said sum of Eighteen million four hundred and thirty-eight thousand five hundred and ninety-two pounds, any sum or sums of equal or less amount in the whole, and shall repay the moneys so borrowed, with interest not exceeding five pounds per centum per annum, out of the growing produce of the Consolidated Fund at any period not later than the next succeeding quarter to that in which the said moneys were borrowed.

Any moneys so borrowed shall be placed to the credit of the account of Her Majesty's Exchequer, and shall form part of the said Consolidated Fund, and be available in any manner in which such fund is available.

3. All sums granted by this Act and the other Acts mentioned in Schedule (A.) annexed to this Act out of the said Consolidated Fund towards making good the supply granted to Her Majesty amounting, as appears by the said schedule, in the aggregate, to the sum of Fifty-eight million one hundred and thirty thousand one hundred and eighty-nine pounds fourteen shillings and twopence are appropriated and shall be deemed to have been appropriated as from the date of the passing of the first of the Acts mentioned in the said Schedule (A.) for the purposes and services expressed in Schedule (B.) annexed hereto.

Appropriation of sums voted for supply services.

The abstract of schedules and schedules annexed hereto, with the notes (if any) to such schedules, shall be deemed to be part of this Act in the same manner as if they had been contained in the body thereof.

4. If a necessity arise for incurring expenditure not provided for in the sums appropriated to naval and military services by this Act, and which it may be detrimental to the public service to postpone until provision can be made for it by Parliament in the usual course, each of the departments entrusted with the control over the said services shall forthwith make application in writing to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for their authority to defray temporarily such expenditure out of any surpluses which may have been or which may be effected by the saving of expenditure upon votes within the same department, and in such application the department shall represent to the Commissioners of the Treasury the circumstances which may render such additional expenditure necessary, and thereupon the said Commissioners may authorise the expenditure unprovided for as aforesaid to be temporarily defrayed out of any surpluses which may have been or which may be effected as aforesaid upon votes within the same department; and a statement showing all cases in which the naval and military departments have obtained the sanction of the said Commissioners to any expenditure not provided for in the respective votes aforesaid, accompanied by copies of the representations made to them by the said departments, shall be laid before the House of Commons with the appropriation accounts of navy and army services for the year, in order that such proceedings may be submitted for the sanction of Parliament, and that provision may be made for the deficiencies upon the several votes for the said services in such manner as Parliament may determine.

Treasury may in certain cases of exigency, authorise expenditure unprovided for; provided that the aggregate grants for the navy services and for the army services respectively be not exceeded.

The Commissioners of the Treasury shall not authorise any expenditure which may cause an excess upon the aggregate sums appropriated by this Act for naval services and for army services respectively.

Sanction for navy and army expenditure for 1887-88 unprovided for.

5. Whereas the Commissioners of the Treasury, under the powers vested in them by the Appropriation Act, 1887, have authorised expenditure not provided for in the sums appropriated by the said Act to certain votes for naval and military services for the year ended on the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight to be temporarily defrayed out of surpluses, effected by the saving of expenditure, on other votes for naval and military services for the said year; viz,

1st. A sum of Two hundred and thirty-two thousand three hundred and eighty-five pounds one shilling and ninepence for navy services out of the unexpended balances of certain votes, aided by sums realised in excess of the estimated appropriations in aid:

2nd. A sum of Sixty-four thousand eight hundred and twenty pounds thirteen shillings and sevenpence for army services out of the unexpended balances of certain votes, aided by sums realised in excess of the estimated appropriations in aid:

It is enacted that the application of the said sums is hereby sanctioned.

Declaration required in certain cases before receipt of sums appropriated.

6. A person shall not receive any part of a grant which may be made in pursuance of this Act for half-pay or army, navy, or civil non-effective services until he has subscribed such declaration as may from time to time be prescribed by a warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury before one of the persons prescribed by such warrant.

Provided that, whenever any such payment is made at more frequent intervals than once in a quarter, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may dispense with the production of more than one declaration in respect of each quarter.

Any person who makes a declaration for the purpose of this section, knowing the same to be untrue in any material particular, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Short title of Act.

7. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Appropriation Act, 1889.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1.) For the purpose of local loans there may be issued by the National Debt Commissioners the following sums; namely,

(a.) For the purpose of loans by the Public Works Loan Commissioners, any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole the sum of two million pounds;

(b.) For the purpose of loans by the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole one million pounds;

(c.) For the purpose of loans by the Fishery Board for Scotland, any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole twenty-five thousand pounds.

Grants for public works and Scotch Fishery Board.

(2.) The sums so issued shall be issued during a period ending on the day on which a further Act granting money for the purposes of those loans comes into operation, and in accordance with the provisions of the National Debt and Local Loans Act, 1887.

50 & 51 Vict. c. 16.

2. Whereas it is expedient that the principal of the several local loans specified in the First Schedule hereto should, to the extent of the amount specified in the last column of that schedule, not be reckoned as assets of the local loans fund established under the National Debt and Local Loans Act, 1887: Be it therefore enacted that the principal of the said local loans shall, to that extent, be written off from the account of assets of the local loans fund, and the provisions of section fifteen of the said Act shall, so far as applicable, apply thereto.

Certain debts not to be reckoned as assets of the local loans fund.

3. Whereas under the Landed Property Improvement (Ireland) Act, 1847, and the Drainage and Improvement of Lands (Ireland) Act, 1863, and the Acts amending and extending the same respectively, the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland have granted loans for the purposes of drainage and land improvement, and such loans are to be repaid by terminable rentcharges;

Reduction of rate of interest on drainage and land improvement charges. 10 & 11 Vict. c. 42. 26 & 27 Vict. c. 88.

And whereas in calculating such rentcharges, interest was reckoned at the rate of three and a half per centum per annum, and it is expedient to reduce the annual amount of the said rentcharges by reducing the rate of interest on which they were calculated, and extending the term during which they are payable: Be it therefore enacted as follows:—

Where under the recited Acts, or any of them, except the Acts mentioned in the Second Schedule to this Act, any drainage loan or land improvement loan has been sanctioned by the Treasury on or before the last day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, any rentcharge created either before or after the passing of this Act for repayment to the said Commissioners of the loan or of any loan granted as an addition thereto shall, as to any instalment to become due on or after the first gale day next after the passing of this Act, be reduced in the case of any rentcharge created for a term of twenty-two years, to five per cent., and in the case of any other rentcharge to four per cent. on the amount of the loan, and shall be payable for such term as the said Commissioners may by order declare to be necessary for the repayment with interest at three and one eighth per cent. per annum of so much of the loan as has not accrued due for payment on the said day, and the order shall as soon as may be after the passing of this Act be made and notified by post or otherwise in manner directed by the said Commissioners to the person by or through whom the rentcharge should be paid.

Provided that where on the said day there are unpaid arrears of instalments of the rentcharge in excess of the instalment due on that day, this section shall not apply to that rentcharge, except on such terms with respect to repayment of arrears as the Treasury may require.

An order of the said Commissioners under this section shall be deemed, according as the case requires, to form part of the original order or award charging the land with repayment of the amount advanced.

Repeal of s. 8 of 46 & 47 Vict.
c. 26.

4. Section eight of the Sea Fisheries (Ireland) Act, 1883, is hereby repealed.

Effect of rentcharges created under 10 & 11 Vict.
c. 32. &c.

5. Where under the Landed Property Improvement (Ireland) Act, 1847, and the Acts amending and extending the same, money has been or is hereafter advanced to the owner of any particular estate in land and a rentcharge has been or is created for the repayment of the money so advanced, then on the cesser or determination of that particular estate the rentcharge so created shall, notwithstanding anything in the said Acts, be a charge on the fee simple and inheritance of the land in priority to all charges except quit-rents, rentcharges in lieu of tithes, and any charges prior in date and created under any Act for the improvement or drainage of lands.

Rentcharge
under preceding section not to exceed improved
value of land.

6. The rentcharge charged under the next preceding section of this Act on the fee simple shall not exceed the improved value of the land at the time of the cesser or determination of the particular estate, resulting from the outlay of the money advanced on loan, such improved value in the case of dispute to be ascertained by the Commissioner of Valuation in Ireland in accordance with rules to be made by him.

certificate by Irish Land Commission.

7. A certificate purporting to be under the common seal of the Irish Land Commission shall be evidence that any sum stated therein to be due to that Commission in respect of any property vested in the Commission from any person named in the certificate is so due, and that any sum stated therein to be due to that Commission and to be charged on any property named therein is so charged.

Provision for redemption of annuities payable in respect of branch railways to dockyards.

8. Whereas under the agreements mentioned in the Third Schedule to this Act the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland (herein-after referred to as the Admiralty) are bound to pay annuities to certain railway companies in respect of the construction of certain branch railways to dockyards, but are entitled to redeem those annuities on the terms mentioned in those agreements, and it is expedient to make provision for such redemption; be it therefore enacted as follows:—

(1.) The Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt may, out of any funds for the time being in their hands on account of savings banks, lend to the Admiralty, and the Admiralty may borrow from those Commissioners such money as may be required for redemption of the said annuities or any of them, on such terms as to interest, sinking fund, and period of repayment as may be agreed on between those Commissioners and the Admiralty with the approval of the Treasury.

(2.) The sums so advanced by those Commissioners shall be repaid out of the moneys provided by Parliament for naval services, and if and so far as those moneys are insufficient, shall be charged on and payable out of the Consolidated Fund or the growing produce thereof.

9.—(1.) The Act of the session held in the tenth and eleventh Short titles. years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter thirty-two, intituled "An Act to facilitate the improvement of landed property in Ireland," is in this Act referred to and may be cited as the Landed Property Improvement (Ireland) Act, 1847.
