Oldham:
Printed and published by John Worrall,
Churchill Street.
No person should purchase a Sewing Machine without having seen the "ECLIPSE," and particularly noted its intensely practical and eminently useful improvements, which have been effected with the sole object of securing durability, nicety of adjustment of wearing parts, great ease in working, and freedom from complication, the failing point of so many machines.

Patents granted January and September, 1875, for improvements, from amongst which may be mentioned:—The Stitch regulator, securing great durability in feeder, adjustment to wear, silence when at work, length of stitch seen and regulated on the top of the machine. The Hinge joint to facilitate cleaning, &c., &c.; the adjustable shuttle driver; the adjustment of the needle to different degrees of work, from muslin to leather.

The Shuttle supplies a great want, dispensing with the complications which have hitherto been the great and only drawback to Shuttle Machines. In threading the "Eclipse" Shuttle, there is only one hole through which to pass the thread, the tension is obtained on an improved principle, and the saving of time and effort is immense.

All the usual tools & extras included in the price of "Eclipse" Machines.

AGENT WANTED.

Fitted with improvements as above to which is now added the Patented Top Winder with attachment for self winding the spools, FORMING ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENTS OF THE AGE.

JOHN WORRALL, Churchill Street, Oldham, Lancashire.
BY HER MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT.

The grand aim of the present day is to economise time and lighten labour. Many inventions have already done much to relieve the really hard work of washing; but an undoubted success has been gained by THE "MARVELLOUS" FAMILY WASHING MACHINE over all other Machines in the market. It has rapidly become a universal favourite with all classes, being unequaled for its SIMPLICITY, USEFULNESS, and EFFICIENCY.

The universal testimony is—"We would not do without them for three times their cost."

The "MARVELLOUS" WASHER has now become one of the most popular inventions of the day, the success of a small portable and efficient Machine is an established fact—the "Marvellous" Washer having a larger sale than any other Washing Machine in the market. Even those who have room for the larger Machines prefer the "Marvellous," because it does its work equal to any, and is the only one in use which does not wear the clothes. The principal on which this Machine is constructed is without doubt the most speedy and effectual method of washing. As will be seen from the accompanying sketches, the clothes, saturated with water, are passed between beaded rollers, which crimp the fabric, the plain side rollers acting in such a manner as to forcibly drive out the water with the dirt thus loosened. By this means all articles are evenly washed, as all portions of the clothes are acted upon equally by the rollers, so that seams and creases are thoroughly cleansed.

No. 1 Machine. Price, 35s.

IT WILL DO A DAY'S WASHING IN TWO HOURS, AND POSSESSES THE FOLLOWING ADVANTAGES:—

It occupies less space than any other Machine.
It is very simple, and not liable to get out of order, on account of its simplicity.
It is very easy to work—a child can manage it.
It is very durable, light, and portable.
The wear and tear of clothes is not so great as with hand labour. A piece of writing paper may be wetted and passed through the rollers without injury.
It will wash anything, from a piece of muslin to a counterpane, and does not injure buttons.
No rubbing or scrubbing is required; and after washing is done the rollers can be taken out and the tub be used as a bath for children, or other domestic purposes.

No. 2 Machine. Price, 35s.

THE LION SPRING WRINGING & MANGLING MACHINE.

This Machine possesses the following advantages:
1st.—It is always ready to wring or mangle a small or large article, and requires no adjusting of springs or levers.
2nd.—It is very simple, it cannot get out of order, and is unequaled for durability and efficiency.
3rd.—Whatever thickness of clothes are passed between the rollers the COG WHEELS ARE ALWAYS IN GEAR.

No. 1, 10-in. Rollers, 35s.
No. 2, 12-in. Rollers, 40s.
No. 3, 20-in. Rollers, 60s.
No. 4, 24-in. Rollers, 65s.
No. 5, 30-in. Rollers, 70s.

These Machines are manufactured of the finest material, and are unequalled for the lightness, durability, and excellence of finish.

The Medium Machine has an extra large shuttle, and thereby effects a great saving in winding and threading. Has a higher lift of the foot than any other Machine, which enables the operator to sew thicker material, and pass over seams with greater ease, and is therefore specially adapted for light and heavy manufacturing purposes, such as Tailors, Dress and Mantle Makers, Corsets, Stays, Skirts, Jackets, &c., &c.

All Extras with these Machines.

SPECIAL TERMS TO SHIPPERS.

Our New Patent AUTOMATIC FAST and LOOSE WHEEL for this Machine is one of the greatest improvements effected in Sewing Machines for some time past. Breaking of cog wheels is also prevented by our AUTOMATIC SHUTTLE COVER, which prevents the shuttle leaving its position whilst working. These improvements free of extra charge.

CABINET WORK SUPPLIED TO THE TRADE.

PRICE LISTS AND SPECIFICATIONS ON APPLICATION.
MERCHANTS & SHIPPERS SPECIALLY DEALT WITH.

These boilers are of the best material and workmanship, and ensure a quick and copious supply of steam, having Cross Tubes, and large heating surface. Each Boiler is supplied with a Gifford's Injector, and all requisite fittings, and tested to 120 lbs. hydraulic pressure.

The Engines are mounted complete with Boiler on a substantial metal Base Plate, which prevents any injury from strain or expansion. Each Engine is bright finished, with all mountings and turned fly-wheel complete.

HORIZONTAL STEAM ENGINES.

From 4 to 20 Horse-Power, highly finished with Pump, Governors, and Fly-wheel complete. Require little foundation, and are easily fixed.

IMPROVED BAND SAWING MACHINE.

This Machine is strong, substantial, and well fitted, and contains all recent improvements. The Pulleys are turned inside and out, and truly balanced and work in gun-metal Bearings. The top Pulley and Bearings are adjustable, and are so arranged that the tension of the Saw is uniform whilst working. The Table is arranged for Bevil cutting.
DUNDEE,
LOCHEE, LIFF AND BENVIE, MAINS AND STRATHMARTIN, BALDOVAN, BIRKHELL FEUS, BULLIONFIELD, INVERGOWRIE, MUIRHEAD OF LIFF, AND DISTRICTS.

DUNDEE is a large town, burgh, and seaport, in the county of Forfar, situated on the north side of the River Tay, about 21 miles from Perth, four from Broughty Ferry, 17 from Arbroath, 23 from Montrose (35 by rail), 14 from Forfar (21 by rail), 25 from Edinburgh, and 66 from Aberdeen. The increase in the population of Dundee burgh has been very rapid, more especially since 1821, as the following census returns will show:—Population in 1801, 2,559; 1811, 2,380; 1816, 2,559; 1821, 283,671; 1831, 321,765; 1841, 35,855; 1851, 45,355; 1861, 51,511; 1871, 61,275; and now (1876) it is calculated that it amounts to at least 127,000. The above includes Lochee, which is the third commercial seaport of Scotland. The above third of the list of Scotch towns regards population. The municipal government is vested in a provost, six bailies, dean of guild, treasurer, and nineteen councillors. In parliament Dundee is represented by two members. The present representatives are James Yeaman, Esq., Dundee, and Edward Jenkins, Esq., London. Facilities for railway travelling are afforded by the Caledonian and the North British Railway Companies. The Perth and Dundee branch of the Caledonian Company being connected with the West Coast route from London, &c., and the Northern branch of the North British Railway Company with the East Coast route (through Edinburgh and Fife-shire), while the Dundee and Arbroath line of the Caledonian Company (over which for some distance the North British have running powers), affords an outlet to Forfar, Arbroath, Montrose, Brechin, Aberdeen, and the north-east of Scotland generally. There are also two branch lines, the Forfar direct, and the Dundee and Newtyle. The stations are about half a mile apart, the one being at the east and the other at the west end of Dock street. To save going by way of Broughty Ferry and Tayport, as well as to shorten the distance to Edinburgh, the North British Company are at present constructing a bridge across the Tay. It is on the lattice girder principle, the bridge resting on brick columns, and at some points on cast-iron pillars. It is to consist of 89 spans, varying in width. Fourteen of the centre ones will be 200 feet wide and 88 feet above high water. The length is about two miles, and will consist of a single line of rails. It was estimated to cost about £217,000, but it is now thought it will greatly exceed this sum. Dundee is situated on a beautiful and commanding site, which, gradually rising from the Tay, offers a fine view from the opposite coast of Fife, more especially the eastern and western slopes, which are studded with mansions, villas, terraces, churches, public parks, &c., and when viewed from the river, which is here about two miles wide, has a very pleasing appearance. The business part of the town has within the last few years undergone a great change for the better. Many narrow streets, courtyards, &c., have been swept away, and in places they are fine wide streets, lined with magnificent offices, warehouses, shops, &c. Extensive alterations are still being carried on in the High street and Murraygate, and a fine street is being formed from Albert square to Commercial street; indeed, it would be difficult to point to any part of the town where improvements are not taking place, and building operations being vigorously carried on. The valuation of property in 1858 was £194,000; in 1875 it had risen to £572,167. A great deal might be said about the antiquity of Dundee, and the number of times it has been besieged, taken, and re-taking, and nearly destroyed by the ravages of war, and of its quick recovery, and again ranking among the principal towns of Scotland; but in a work of this description we think it of more importance to our subscribers to show how it stands at the present with regard to its trade, commerce, &c. In 1815 the management of the harbour was placed in the hands of Commissioners, appointed annually; in 1830 the management was transferred to Trustees, to be elected annually, the Provost, Bailies, and Dean of Guild to be perpetual trustees. The harbour is now (1876) capable of accommodating vessels of any size. It consists of four wet docks, covering an area of about 35 acres. There are two dry docks, one of which (500 feet in length) was recently opened, and will accommodate two of the largest sized vessels at the same time. Besides the above there are ferry and tidal harbours. The cost of the improvements effected since 1815 is over three quarters of a million sterling. From the following statement it will be seen that there has been a steady increase in the revenue for half a century.—Shore dues:—1816, £4,411; 1829, £10,134; 1855, £20,592; 1871, £32,405. 11d. In 1875 the harbour dues were over £45,000.

The number of vessels which entered the port

In 1835 was 3,981 ......... barthen 250,736 tons
1839 ......... 4,621 ......... 285,095
1855 ......... 2,339 ......... 283,671
1864 ......... 3,089 ......... 308,013
1870 ......... 2,360 ......... 337,253
1871 ......... 2,559 ......... 415,401

The tonnage of vessels entering the port in 1875 was 493,415. It will be noticed that there is a falling off in the number of vessels and an increase in the tonnage; this is explained by the great number of large vessels engaged in the direct trade with Calcutta in the jute trade. Screw steamers sail regularly from Dundee to London, Leith, Liverpool, Hull, Newcastle, Aberdeen, &c., and a fleet of fine vessels leave here to prosecute the seal and whale fishing, in the seasons. Dundee was at one time famous for the manufacture of plaiding, and other woollen goods, but this branch has long become extinct. The manufacture of linen commenced, and for at least a century Dundee has been noted for the excellent quality of its linen goods, and at the present time many large firms, with most extensive works, are engaged in this branch of manufacture. Jute was introduced into Dundee about 1825, and after a time, through improvements made in the machinery for preparing and manufacturing it, the trade increased, until it became equal to the linen trade, and now, as will be seen by the imports of jute, flax, hemp tow, codilla, &c., that there are nearly four times the weight of jute imported as of all the other articles mentioned put together. The enormous increase in the manufacture of this article is attributed to the cheapness of the goods manufactured from it, and through the stoppage in the supply of cotton during the American civil war.
The following are the returns of the quantities of flax, &c., imported in various years since 1850:—In 1850, flax, 25,526 tons; flax codilla, 9,125 hemp, 4,724; flax codilla, 2,955; hemp, 214. In 1870, flax, 23,958; flax codilla, 6,513; hemp and hemp codilla, 1,182. In 1871, flax, 33,767; flax codilla, 10,046; hemp, 1,364. In 1875 the flax, hemp, tow, and codilla imported amounted only to 30,743 tons. An idea of the progress made in the jute trade may be gathered from the following:—In 1849 the imports (exclusive of coast-ways), amounted to 8,176 tons; in 1850, to 8,127 tons. In 1855 the total receipts at the harbour reached 38,371 tons, and in 1863-70-71, as follows:—

The direct import in 1836 was only 300 tons. The horse power of mills and manufactories has increased from 63 in 1810 to about 10,000 in 1875. The value of the output of jute goods is considerably above 100 in Dundee and neighbourhood. There is also a considerable import of timber, coal, corn, oil, blubber, seal skins, &c. Wood, iron, and composite shipbuilding is most extensively carried on here by several eminent firms. There are also very large foundries, engine and boiler works, saw mills and timber yards, tanneries, breweries, boat and shipyards, and factories, and works for the manufacture of Dundee basket-work and umbrella handles, the largest of which is Messrs. Kelkar & Sons. The banking business is well represented here, there being about 20 branch banks in the burgh, besides a number of Post Office Savings' Banks. Three newspapers are published here daily, and two weekly, also a weekly periodical called The People's Friend. The gas and water supply is in the hands of the commissioners. An excellent supply of water is now maintained by the Loam Hannah, of Mr. and Mrs. Monikie, which together yield a supply of about fifteen million gallons daily. There are some fine public buildings, institutions, &c., in the town, among which may be mentioned the Royal Infirmary, Albert Institute, High School, Town House, Kinmaird Hall, Post Office, Royal Exchange Buildings, Police Buildings and Prison, Industrial Schools, Morgan Hospital, The Asylum, &c., &c. The Albert Institute, Albert square, is a large new building erected from designs by Mr. Gilbert Scott, and the eastern portions from designs by Mr. Mackenzie, a local architect. The building comprises a public hall, library, reading room, and museum. The library, reading room, and museum are free to the public, the town having adopted the Free Libraries Act. In the grounds in front of the Albert Institute is a statue of George Kinloch, the first representative of the burgh in the reformed parliament, but 1817 in date. The bust was by Mr. Steel, Edinburgh. There is also, at the north-east corner of the grounds, a bronze statue of James Carmichael, an eminent engineer and inventor, of Dundee, which was erected at a cost of £1,500, and was unveiled on the 17th of June, 1876. Mr. John Hutchinson, r.s.a., was the artist. There is also a very handsome fountain situated at the west end of the institute. The High School, erected in 1834, at a cost of £10,000, is a fine building facing Albert square. Near this is the Post Office, a good building, erected at a cost of about £5,000. The Royal Exan institution for the reformation of females, was established in 1848, under the patronage of her late Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent, and is under the management of a committee of ladies. The Dundee Industrial Schools are situated in Ward Road. At the 28th annual meeting of the subscribers to the Dundee Industrial Schools Society, held 19th January, 1876, the number of inmates of the institution of the previous year, being 150 boys and 54 girls. The departments of work carried on at this institution are paper bag making, coir mat making, sack sewing, brush making, firewood prepared, plain printing, tailoring, hand sewing, knitting, and machine sewing. Orders for any of the above are gladly received. The educational establishments of Dundee will compare favourably with those of any town in Scotland. In addition to the schools there are a number of Board Schools, and many private educational establishments and boarding and day schools. From a report of the general and executive committees of the "Mars" Training Ship Institution, submitted to the sixth annual meeting of the Governors, held 21st February, 1876, it will be seen that at the close of 1875 there were on board the "Mars" 294 boys, of whom 97 had been received in the course of the year. Of the number of boys from the county of Edinburgh, 13 from Aberdeen, 27 from Fife, 86 from Forfarshire, 15 from Perthshire, and 10 from more distant localities. From these figures it will be observed that the committees have faithfully fulfilled their original undertaking, by rendering the "Mars," though stationed in the Tay, an institution for the whole East of Scotland. They may just repeat that this will continue to be an essential feature in its management. During the year 92 boys were discharged from the ship. Of these, three entered the Royal Navy, 69 entered the merchant service, 17 went to trades on shore, and three were returned to their friends. There were also six deaths—three from scarlatina, two from consumption, and one by drowning. It should be noted here that of the boys who entered the merchant service 45 went direct from the "Mars," while 21 who at first went on shore returned, and were fitted out to sea. This has been the case more or less from the commencement; but the experience of the committees is, that if the boys were left to their own choice, three-fourths of them at least would choose a seafaring life. There are other charitable institutions, and many modifications devoted to education connected with the town. The inhabitants of Dundee have little reason to complain of their spiritual wants not being supplied. Our list of places of worship will show that they number about 80, and there is little doubt that nearly all are well attended. Although many of them will seat a large congregation, only a few can claim any great architectural beauty. The following are somewhat attractive—The Steepie Church, Nethergate, fine tower, recently restored; St. Mark's, Perth road, beautiful spire; St. Andrew's, Cowgate, fine spire; St. Enoch's, Nethergate, noble towers; St. Paul's Episcopal Church, the High Kirk, height; St. Paul's Free, Nethergate, fine spire; McChyene Memorial, Perth road, highly ornamented and beautiful spire. The Cemeteries of the town are the Eastern Necropolis, the Western Necropolis, and one the Dundee Western Cemetery (belonging to a limited company). The two first named and the burying grounds of St. Peter's, St. Andrew's, the Constitution road, Boodyards, and Logie are under the management of the trustees. In 1863 a splendid Public Park of upwards of 30 acres was presented to the town by Sir David Baxter, Bart., and endowed with funds necessary to maintain it. The park, which is at the east end of the town, was beautifully laid out by Sir Joseph Paxton; and, with the endowment, has cost Sir David not less than £50,000. In 1869 the corporation acquired Balgay hill, a wooded eminence at the west end of the town, to be used partly as a Public Park and partly as a Cemetery for the west end of the burgh. The portion retained as a Public Park is 36 acres in extent. It is finely wooded, and, from the higher parts of the ground, magnificent views are obtained. Altogether, two of the finest parks in the kingdom. In addition to these two parks, the inhabitants have the Magdalen Green, close by the river at the west end of the town, and the Barrack Park, as places of recreation. There is also a fine promenade and an esplanade, each nearly a mile in length, and in summer, pleasure trips by steamers on the Tay to Arbroath, Montrose, The Bell Rock, Broughty Ferry, Newport, Newburgh, The Forth, Perth, and other places. The addition to this at Dundee is the novel feature of the town. The market days are Tuesday and Friday; and there is a cattle and sheep market held in the Cattle Market every Tuesday. Fairs—Stobb's fair, for cattle, sheep, and horses, on the first Tuesday after the 11th of July. Dundee first fair, for cattle and horses, on the 26th August—if that day falls on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday, if not, the first Tuesday after the 26th of August. Dundee Lather Fair for cattle and horses, on the 19th September (the same rule applying as that regulating the first fair). Fencing markets for servants are held on the 26th of May and on the 22nd November, or on the first Friday thereafter.

Liff and Benvie is a parish adjoining Dundee, a portion of it and the poorhouse being situated within the burgh. The village of Liff is about six miles from Dundee. There are several other villages in this parish, including Lochee, Birkhill-Feus, Muirhead of Liff, Bullingtonfield, and part of Invergowrie. The Caledonian Railway runs through the parish.

Birkhill-Feus is a small village about two miles from Lochee, and five miles from Dundee. Bullionfield is in the parish of Liff, and contains a paper mill a short distance from the Invergowrie railway station, upon the Perth and Dundee line.

Muirhead of Liff is a small place containing a church and school, three miles from Lochee and six miles from Dundee.

Invergowrie is a village situated partly in Perthshire and partly in Forfarshire, one portion being in the parish of Longforgan, the other in that of Liff. It is four miles from Dundee, and contains a Free church and a board school.

Maings and Strathmartin is a united parish adjoining Dundee. The parish contains several bleach works, and the small villages of Baldovan, Bridgefoot, Downfield, Maings and Strathmartin, which are all within a distance of four miles from Dundee. An asylum for the treatment of imbecile and idiot children and an orphanage was founded at Baldovan by Lady Jane Ogilvy. A few particulars respecting this institution will be found in our notice to Dundee.

Lochee is a large village containing several good streets. It is on the east border of, and in the united parish of Liff and Benvie, situated about three miles from Dundee, and forms part of the burgh of Dundee. It contains several mills and factories for the spinning and manufacturing of flax, jute, &c. goods; the principal of these being those of Messrs. Cox Bros., the Camperdown Linen Works. The Dundee and Newtyle branch of the Caledonian Railway passes through the village, and communicates by between Lochee and Dundee about every hour. In the immediate neighbourhood are several excellent freestones. There are places of worship belonging to the Establishment, Free Church, Episcopalian, Baptists, Roman Catholics, and the United Presbyterians. There are branches of the Royal Bank of Scotland, City of Glasgow Bank, and North of Scotland Bank, and the Post Office Savings' Bank.

ARBOURTH, ST. VIGEANS, ARBIRLOT, MARYWELL, AUCHMITHIE, AND COLLISTON.

ARBOURTH formerly called Aberbrothick, is a sea-port and royal burgh, 60 miles N.N.E. from Edinburgh, 164 from Dundee, 15 S.E. from Forfar, and 12 S. from Montrose by road, and about 20 by rail. It is governed by a Provost, three Bailies, and twelve Councillors, and unites with Forfar, Montrose, Brechin, and Inverurie in sending one member to Parliament. W. E. Baxter, Esq., is the present member. This is a town of early origin, owing its rise to an important monastic institution, founded here by William the Lion, about the year 1178; the remains of this edifice consists of ruinous towers, columns overthrown, Gothic windows, cloisters, &c. A part of the abbots' longings, stands a little distance from the church, still remains. It was very extensively endowed with lands and other gifts by Kings William I., Alexander II., and Robert I., and their nobility. There are several fine streets in the town, of which High street is the principal, being the widest and nearly a mile in length. The establishments of the tradesmen here will compare favourably with those of any town of its size in Scotland. The coast to the north of Arbroath is very rugged, and there are numerous caves, arches, and curious shaped rocks made by the action of the waves; a footpath runs close to the cliffs, and affords the visitor a fine view of all the objects of interest and a great expanse of ocean. There are some good buildings in the town, including the Town House, Guildhall, Market Hall, High School, Poorhouse, Infirmary, Public Hall, Trades' Hall, &c. The Public Hall, High street, erected by a Limited Company, was opened in 1867, and cost about £6,000. It contains a museum, in which may be seen very valuable specimens of shells, fossils, &c. The principal hall is about 90 by 45 feet, with built platform about 45 by 16 feet, and two retiring rooms under same. The body of the hall is seated for about 900, and the gallery 100; this is let for balls, soirees, concerts, &c. The small hall is about 45 by 23 feet, and has an orchestra. The museum room is the same size as the principal hall. There is a library, a club, and several reading rooms. There are six banking establishments, a savings' bank, and the Post Office Savings' Bank. Two newspapers are published weekly, and the Dundee Advertiser has a branch office here. Railway accommodation is afforded by the Caledonian and North British Companies. The staple trade of the town is the manufacture of sail cloth, canvas, &c.; and at the present time (1876), there are about 30 mills and factories engaged in the spinning of yarns and the manufacture of linen and other goods. There are several extensive foundries and machine shops, also tanneries, breweries, a large shipbuilding yard, asphalt works, roperies, boot and shoe factories, &c. A large trade is done in corn, potatoes, coal, lime, timber, &c. The fishing trade is of great importance, hundreds of the inhabitants being engaged in it, and the fishing as a rule is vigorously and successfully carried on. Arbroath until recently had but a tidal basin, but has now an extensive wet dock and tidal basin. Great alterations have been made within the last three years by the harbour trustees, and have been executed under the charge of the superintendent (Mr. George Ehmad). The removal of the bar and the deepening of the fairway to the harbour by dredging have been carried out successfully during the time the new wet dock has been in process of formation. Dynamite was used for blasting the rock at the entrance to the harbour. The size of the wet dock is as follows:—Length of quayage about 14,000 feet; area, three acres; top of coping to foundation, 22 ft. 6 inches. Ordinary spring tides 17 feet 6 inches of water; neap tides on the dock sill 13 feet. The works completed include the north quay wall of tidal basin; south quay wall of wet dock; east and west retaining walls of the Brothock River; and the dock entrance. These with the cost of dredger, dredging, hoppers, tug boat (Gipsy King), and other plant had, up to the end of June, 1876, cost about £239,000. The area of the town and suburban district, 262 acres, is to be added to the existing docks. The courses of the Harbour Trust are:—

- The Custom's revenue, 1873, £15,881 13s. 1d.; 1874, £16,743 5s. 4d.; 1875, £16,577 2s. 7d. The flax and hemp imported in 1874 was 11,137 tons, the declared value of which was £24,984, and in 1875 3,222 tons, declared value, £316,616, thus showing a decrease in 1875 of 2,915 tons, and on the declared value of £107,365. The declared value of other goods imported was £3,720, which in 1874 was £3,390, which shows a decrease for 1875 of £370. The total value of all goods im-
The Bell Rock is situated about 12 miles from Montrose, and, as is well known, the lighthouse on the rock ranks as one of Stephenson’s greatest achievements. The signal tower in connection with the above is situated in Ladyloam, Arbroath; it was erected in 1910, is about 80 feet in height, and is supplied with a very powerful telescope placed in the signal room at the top of the tower. In connection with this tower there are dwellings for the four lighthouse keepers and a boatman, who form the staff. Each of the keepers passes six weeks on the rock and two weeks on shore. Signals are given to the persons at the lighthouse on the rock, by the light-keeper on shore, daily, from nine to ten morning, and two to three afternoon, weather permitting. There is a boat belonging to the Northern Lights Commissioners engaged in going to and from once a fortnight, weather permitting, and at other times when signalled. A Police Court is held weekly, on Monday, a Justice of the Peace Court on the first Monday of every month, and a Sheriff Small Debt Court on the third Wednesday in January, March, May, July, September, and November. The places of worship are very numerous, and some of them very handsome and commodious. There is a High School, several public board schools, and private boarding and day schools. The market is held on Saturday, and the fairs on the last Saturday in January, for general business and hiring servants; on the first Saturday after Whitsunday for hiring; July 18th (if it fall on a Saturday, or not, on the following Saturday), for general business and hiring; and the first Saturday after Martinmas for hiring.

ST. VIGEANS is a parish, and contains the small villages and hamlets of St. Vigeans, Marywell, Auchmithie, and Colliston, also a part of the town of Arbroath. The first-named contains the Parish Church, situated about one mile from Arbroath; the others are all within a distance of four miles from Arbroath. The parish is bounded on the north and east by Inverkeilor, on the south by the German Ocean, and on the west by Arbroath, Arbirlot, and Carmyllie. The Parish Church has been recently re-built.

ARBIRLOT parish adjoins Arbroath and St. Vigeans, and is bounded on the south-east by the German Ocean. The village is about three miles west of Arbroath. It contains an Established and a Free Church, and a Board School. About a quarter of a mile south-west of the village stands Kelly Castle, belonging to the Earl of Dalhousie. Bonnington is a small place in this parish.

AUCHTERHOUSE, LONGFORD, LUNDIE, FOULIS, AND TEALING.

AUCHTERHOUSE is a parish situated in the south-west corner of the county of Forfar, and on the south of the Sidlaw hills; it is about seven miles N.W. from Dundee, and is bounded on the south by Liff, on the south-east by Mains and Strathmartin, on the east by Tealing, on the west by Lundie, and on the north by Glamis. There is a parish church and a board school. The parish contains about 4,000 acres.

LUNDIE is a parish situate at the head of the valley of Dighty, in the western part of the county, it is bounded on the east by Auchterhouse, on the south and west by Foulis, and on the north by the Sidlaw hills, which divide it from Kellins and Newtyle. Foulis Easter in Perthshire is united to this.
PARISH. It is situated at the eastern extremity of the Carse of Gowrie, of which a beautiful view is obtained from here. In point of situation, and rich and varied scenery in every direction, few places can excel it.
The church of Foulis, which was built in the year 1143, is still perfectly entire. Grey freestone abounds in the parish.

LONGFORDAN is a parish in the county of Perth, extending on the southern extremity of the Tay for more than four miles long, it forms the eastern boundary of the Carse of Gowrie, and is surrounded on three sides by Ketlins, Abernyte, Inchtuth, Lundie and Foulis, Liff and Benvie. The village is situated at an elevation of about 130 feet above the Tay, and comdoms an uninterrupted prospect of the intermediate country to the east, and to the south and south-west.
Castle Huntly, which was erected in the fifteenth century, is a noble specimen of an old baronial residence; its walls are ten feet thick, and the height of the round tower is 116 feet, from the top of which a beautiful view of the Fife coast, with the Ochills and other lofty mountains, can be obtained. The parish church is conveniently situated, and there is also a board school. Mylnefield is a small village in this parish.

TEALING is a parish about six miles long and three broad; it is bounded on the east and west by Auchterhouse and Murroes, the river Fithie separates it from Mains and Strathmartin on the south, and a line drawn nearly along the summit of the Sidlaw chain of hills would separate it from the parish of Glamis on the north. Grey slate, freestone, and moorstone are found in the parish.

BREČÍN,
WITH THE PARISH OF FARNELL.

BREČÍN is a market town and royal burgh, situated on the north bank of the South Esk, 27 miles N.N.E. from Dundee, 25 S.S.W. from Stonehaven, 70 N. from Edinburgh, 8 W. by N. from Montrose, about 12 N.E. from Forfar, and is a station on a branch line of the north-eastern section of the Caledonian Railway. The town consists of one main street, about a mile in length, with several smaller ones diverging. Some of the streets are overhung by the trees of the forest. The borough joins with Forfar, Montrose, Arbroath, and Inverurie in returning one member to parliament. The present member is W. E. Baxter, Esq., of Kincairdurn, Dundee. The town is governed by a Provost, two Bailies, a Dean of Guild, Treasurer Hospital Master, and seven Councillors, who are also police commissioners. A Sheriff Court is held on the third Tuesday of January, March, May, July, September, and November, the two last mentioned courts are for adjudicating small debt claims; a borough or bailie court is held on every alternate Wednesday, and often when necessary, the bailies are the judges. Flax spinning and the manufacture of linen is the staple trade of the district. There are two distilleries on a large scale and a paper mill, employing a large number of hands. A newspaper entitled the Brečín Advertiser was established here in 1848, and has a large circulation throughout the district; it is published on Tuesdays. The antiquity of Brechin as a royal burgh is of remote date; formerly the town was walled, but the gates have been long removed, and at the present time it bears the appearance of a well built thriving town, having been greatly improved during the last few years. Between the town and the river stands Brechin Castle, an ancient seat of the Maules of Panmure, now represented by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dalhousie; it is built on a precipitous rock, overlooking the stream for a siege of twenty years, in 1308, from the English army under Edward I., but Sir Thomas Maule, its commander, being killed, it surrendered. The south front, towards the river, consists of some remains of the original structure, with some more recent erections, including a handsome square tower; the west front is formed with regularity, in the style of the seventeenth century, with round towers at the angles. In ancient times the Abbey of Culdoes existed here; and in 1150, when Brechin was constituted an episcopal see by David I. it is supposed that the site of this establishment was that selected for the foundation of the cathedral. An interesting fragment remains of the hospital of Maison Dieu, founded by William Brechin, in 1264. The Cathedral of St. Ninian, which now forms the parish church, stands on the north verge of a high precipitous ravine, which separates the burghead lands from those of Brechin Castle; the length is one hundred and sixteen feet, and the breadth sixty-one; the steeple is seventy feet in height, surmounted by a hexagonal spire of fifty feet. Contiguous to the cathedral stands the round tower, which is supposed to have been erected about the year 1010, and built of freestone, eighty-five feet in height to the cornice, and twenty-five feet more to the pyramid and spire. It has seventeen windows, four in particular, at the top, facing the cardinal points. The entrance to the tower is by a door near the ground, on the outside, which was built up, but has lately been re-opened, and the whole edifice repaired by the Commissioners of Woods and Forests, when new wooden ladders were erected. Numerous figures in an antique style of carving, and a rude representation of the crucifixion, are attached to the south-west corner of the tower. The diameter of the tower at the bottom is sixteen feet. Formerly there were two small bells in it, which were removed to the small steeple, where they now hang. There are several handsome churches belonging to the various denominations of Presbyterians, Free Church, and Scotch Episcopalians, and numerous educational establishments. The Mechanics' Institution, in Castle street, a very elegant building, was completed at the sole cost of the Lord Panmure, who also presented to the institution numerous valuable paintings, and also granted £100 to be invested at interest, which amounts to about £40 per annum. The front of the building is in the Tudor style of architecture, with castellated parapet, ornamented with pinnacles; a fine tower rises in the centre, from the summit of which a magnificent prospect is obtained. This town has given birth to several individuals of genius and literary distinction, among whom may be enumerated—Maitland, the laborious historian of Edinburgh and London; Dr. Gillies, the historian of Greece, and his brother, Lord Adam Gillies. The market is held on Tuesday, and the fairs (held on Trinity Muir) the third Wednesday or Thursday in August, and the Tuesday before the last Wednesday in September. The great sheep, cattle, and horse fair (on Trinity Muir) is held on the second Wednesday in June, and continues for three days—this is one of the largest in Scotland. “Crichton” markets, for cattle, are held in the town, and horse markets also, towards the end of February and beginning of March.

FARNELL is a parish four miles south from Brechin, and about six south-west from Montrose. The parish, which is bounded on the south by Rosirie Muir, on the north by Brechin, on the east by Maryton, and on the west by Kinnell and Brechin, is about three miles in length and two in breadth. Kinnaird Castle, the family seat of the Earl of South Esk, is considered one of the finest in this part of the country, being situated in a deep park of about 1,000 acres in extent. The castle has an imposing and picturesque appearance. It is of square form, with towers of various dimensions, and contains a splendid collection of oil paintings.

Post Office, Church st, Brechin. Letters arrive from the South and North at 7 and 10 a.m., and 3 p.m.; from the North only at 6.20 p.m. and are despatched to the South and North at 1 and 10 p.m., to the South at 4.25 p.m., to the North at 8 a.m. Money Order and Telegraph Office, and Savings Bank.

Post Office, Railway station, Farnell, John Matthews, postmaster. Letters from all parts arrive (from Brechin) at 8 a.m, and are despatched thecoro at 10.45 a.m. Nearest Money Order Office is at Brechin.

BROUGHTY FERRY,
NEWBIGGING, MONIFIETH, MURROES, AND WELLBANK.

BROUGHTY FERRY is a very extensive modern village, on the Firth of Tay, about four miles east from Dundee, 12? from Arbroath, and 6? from Carnoustie, on the Dundee and Arbroath branch of the Caledonian Railway. It was, some few years ago, constituted a burgh and is now under the government of the Magistrates and Police Commissioners.

It takes its name from the old ruined castle of Broughty or Brough-Tay, situated on a rocky eminence jutting into the water. This castle is now restored and made a formidable defence for the mouth of the Tay.
Broughty is divided into two districts, East Ferry and West Ferry—the former is in the parish of Monifieth, the latter in that of Dundee, it is regularly built and,

BROUGHTY FERRY, NEWBIGGING, MONIFIETH, MURROES, AND WELLBANK.
has improved very considerably during the last few years, having become the place of residence of many of the principal bankers and merchants of Dundee, whose pleasant houses and cottages are thickly scattered on the hillside, and along Monifieth road.

Here are branches of the Royal Bank of Scotland, the City of Glasgow Bank, and a Savings' Bank. Post Office Monday at half-past nine a.m. The village is lighted with gas. There are some excellent Salt Water Baths, a Library, Life Boat Institution, &c. Sixty or seventy years ago East Ferry comprised only a few fishermen's huts, built along the beach; but at the present time the population is considerable. There are no public works here, the inhabitants being chiefly engaged in fishing. A new pier and harbour has been constructed at a cost of about £3,900, projecting in the river about 200 feet due south, with a width of 30 feet. The slip is of a uniform breadth of twenty feet, running from the top of the pier down to low water, partly under-neath the platform at a gentle declination—this arrangement will accommodate vessels at low water, and the landing and embarking passengers at any state of the tide. About half-a-mile to the north of East Ferry is Fort Hill. In 1530 the works on this hill being surrendered to an allied army of Scots, Germans, and French, under M. Des Thermes, were dismantled, and at the present day they present merely shattered relics. There are in the village several very handsome places of worship, three large board schools, and several private ones.

MONIFIETH is a parish extending inland about 4½ miles from south to north, it is bounded on the east by Barr, on the west by Murroes and Dundee, on the south by the Frith of Tay, and the north by Monikie. The village of Monifieth is situated about two miles east from Broughty Ferry, and a short distance from the sea; it contains some very fine villas, two machine shops, and a flour mill. It has a Parish and a Free church, and a fine board school. The village is of considerable size and is rapidly increasing.

NEWBING is a small hamlet in the parish of Monikie; it contains a united Presbyterian church, a very neat building, and also a public school.

MURROES parish is three miles in length by two in breadth, lying on the road from Brechin to Dundee, being five miles distant from the latter place. It is bounded on the west by Mains and Tealing, on the east by Monifieth, on the south by Dundee and Mains, and on the north by Inverarity. There are several quarries in the parish.

Post Office, Fort street, Broughty Ferry—Martha Barclay, postmistress. Money Order, Savings' Bank, and Telegraph Office. Arrivals:—From all parts (by Dundee) 7:30 and 11.45 a.m. and 7.15 p.m. Despatches:—To Dundee, 8.29 a.m. and 1.30 p.m.; the South, 1.30 and 5.35 p.m.; all parts, 4.30 and 8.15 p.m. Delivery to callers on Sunday, 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Sunday despatch, 9.30 a.m.

Post Office, Monifieth—David Barrie, receiver. Letters from all parts arrive (from Dundee) at 8.15 a.m. and 1.35 p.m., and are despatched thereto at 10.55 a.m. and 5.15 p.m. Nearest Money Order Office is Broughty Ferry.

Sub-Post Office, Newbigging (Monikie) & Wellbank.

CARNoustie, WITH BARRY, MONIKIE, MIURdRUM, PANBRIDE, NEWTON OF PANBRIDE, AND EAST AND WEST HAVENS.

CARNoustie is a village in the parish of Barry, situated on the coast of the German Ocean, six miles S. by W. from Arbroath, and about ten miles E. from Dundee. It is much resorted to in the summer months by visitors from all parts of Scotland, on account of its facilities for sea bathing. There are many handsome residences in and near the village, and on the links of town there is a fine Golf Course and Club-house, opposite which, promenade concerts are held on Saturday evenings in the summer season. On the Brae, to the north of Dundee-street, there is a splendid Bowling Green, one of the largest in the county. The linen trade is carried on here by several firms; there are also many good shops and hotels. The places of worship are an Established Church, a Free Church, and Presbyterian Church. There is also a chapel for the original Secessionists and a building used by the Episcopalians.

BARRY is a parish extending about three miles from east to west, and four miles from north to south. The village is situated nine miles E. from Dundee, and about eight miles S.W. from Arbroath, on the road to Broughty Ferry. The southern part of the parish is used principally for grazing sheep and cattle, the northern part contains many large farms, which are all well cultivated. At Buddonness, on the southern extremity of the parish are two lighthouses to guide vessels on their entrance into the Tay, but from recent surveys by Captain Stanley, R.N., of the mouth of the Tay, and the great changes in the sandbanks at the entrance to the river, one, or both of these are likely to be removed, and a floating light placed at the most eastern point of Aberay bank, also a bell buoy on the other side.

MONIKIE is a parish nine miles north from Dundee, six north-west from Broughty Ferry, and about five from Carnoustie (its post town). It contains the Parish Church, Free Church, and a church at the village of Newbigging for the United Presbyterians. About half a mile east of the Parish Church stands a monument of stone, on the Hill of Cambustone, which was erected during the lifetime of the late Lord Panmure, by his tenantry as a testimonial for the many favours they had received at his hands. This monument stands at an elevation of 500 feet above the sea level, and is itself 105 feet high, it is in the form of a bold rustic column, rising from a broad handsome basement in which are several apartments, the summit is reached by spiral stone stairs, and from the circular parapet magnificent views are obtained, in clear weather, extending over portions of no less than seven counties. The approach to the memorial from the top of the Marsees, on the east, leading from Carnoustie, is by a beautiful avenue of silver firs about half a mile in length, and near the top of this avenue stands an ancient stone cross, about seven feet high, known as the Cross of Cambus, and according to tradition is said to be the tombstone of Cambus, the leader who invaded the north after the battle of Barry in 1010 fled to this hill, where he was overtaken and slain; it is covered with rude carvings, and is regarded with a kind of reverent interest. On the west of the Panmure monument are the Monkie reservoirs, three in number, the largest one covers an area of over 70 acres, and will hold about 279 million gallons, the next in size will hold 175 million gallons, and the last about 42 million gallons. Besides these a dam has been constructed across a deep gorge near Crombie Mills, and the waters of Crombie Burn thus collected form part of the Dundee water supply.

PANBRIDE is a parish about 4½ miles inland from the German Ocean, containing the villages of Muirdronym and Newton of Panbride. In the northern part of the parish stands Panmure House, whose extensive enclosures and plantations cover an area of about 1,200 acres. The mansion is large, having a total frontage of 464 feet, and is at present in the occupation of O. G. Miller, Esq. The coast is flat and rocky, but has two open harbours at East and West Haven, where small vessels can discharge their cargoes in mild weather.

Post Office, Carnoustie, James Black, postmaster. Letters from all parts arrive at 7.30 a.m., 10.10 a.m., and 4 p.m.; despatches to Dundee and Arbroath at 6.40 a.m.; all letters for the South at 12.10 p.m.; Dundee and Fife at 2.40 p.m.; Arbroath and North at 3.35 p.m.; all letters South at 4.55 p.m.; all Scotch at 7.35 p.m. Money Order, Telegraph, and Savings’ Bank Office. On Sundays office open from 4.30 to 5.30 p.m.

Post Office, Muirdrum, Thomas Smith, postmaster. Letters from all parts arrive (from Carnoustie) at 8.30 a.m. and 6 p.m., and are despatched thereto at 6 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Post Office, Newbigging (Monkie), Miss J. Mathers, postmistress. Letters from all parts arrive (from Dundee) at 3 a.m. and are despatched thereto at 2 p.m.

COUPAR ANGUS,
BURRELTON, CARGILL, WOODSIDE, WOLF HILL, WASHINGTON, AND BALBROGIE.

COUPAR ANGUS is a parish and market town, pleasantly situated, and extending five miles on the east bank of the river Isla, and varying from one to two miles in breadth. It is distant 4½ miles from Blairgowrie, 12½ E. by N. from Perth, and 15 N.W. from Dundee, partly in Forfar and partly in Perthshire, the greater portion in the latter, and is a station on the Caledonian Railway. The town is clean and well built, is lighted with gas, and is governed by Commissioners of Police, a police court being held occasionally, and a sheriff's court on the third Saturday in January, April, July, and October. There are two power-loom factories for the manufacture of linen, and several saw mills and a tannery. The "Royal" is the principal hotel here. There are also three banking establishments. The old Parish Church, a modern edifice in the Gothic style of architecture, is on the Forfar side of the town. There are also places of worship for five other denominations. Balbogie and Washington are villages in the parish. There is a market for grain, cattle, &c., every Thursday. Fairs, the 3rd Monday in January and February, 3rd Thursday in March, 3rd Monday in April and May, 3rd Tuesday in July, and 3rd Monday in November and December.

BURRELTON and WOODSIDE, Perthshire, are villages in the parish of Cargill, distant two miles from Coupar Angus and 11 from Perth. There is a station on the Caledonian Railway at Woodside, a Free Church, and a Board School.

CARGILL, Perthshire, is a parish situated in the vale of Strathmore, about five miles from Coupar Angus; bounded on the North-east by Coupar Angus, on the South-east by Collace, on the West by Kattins, on the North by the Isla, and on the West and North-West by the Tay. There is an Established Church and a Board School.

Post Office, George-street, William Culross, Postmaster.—Letters from the South arrive at 12 mid-night and 10 a.m., and are despatched at 2.30 p.m. and 6.10 p.m. Letters from the North arrive at 10 a.m., 3.10 p.m., and 7 p.m. and are despatched at 9.10 a.m. and 10 p.m. Money Order, Savings’ Bank, and Telegraph Office.

EDZELL, LETHNOT & NAVAR, LOCHLEE & STRACATHRO, INCHDARE & TARSIDE.

EDZELL is a parish and village. The latter is situated on the banks of the North Esk, 6 miles N. from Brechin, 5 from Fettercairn, and 10 from Laurencekirk. The parish which is a large one is 14 miles in length, forming the north-east part of the county. The Grampian Hills, running east and west, are in the immediate neighbourhood, and the scenery around is of a very beautiful description. This part of the county being considered very healthy it is much resorted to by summer visitors. The chief object of interest are the ruins of the Castle of Edzell, which is considered one of the finest ruins in Scotland. The village consists of one main street with several smaller ones diverging therefrom, it is neat and well built, and is lighted with gas. There are two excellent hotels, and a branch of the Union Bank of Scotland. There is a Parish Church and also a Free Church in the village, and two public schools, one in Edzell, the other at Waterside. The Thursday in February, first Monday in May, fourth Friday in July, Fourth Wednesday in August, and in October, for cattle and sheep.

LETHNOT and NAVAR is a joint parish seven miles north from Brechin and four-and-a-half west from Edzell, it is 5 miles broad and 15 miles long. The stream called the West Water runs through the parish. The hills in the parish form part of the Grampian range. There is a parish church and a public school.

LOCHLEE is a parish eighteen miles in length and about eight in breadth, situated among the Grampian Hills, a mountainous and bleak district. It is 17 miles from Fettercairn, 23 from Laurencekirk, 18 from Brechin, and 12 from Edzell. The parish receives its name through the Loch which is so named, and some of the finest scenery in Scotland is to be found here. This district was once the property of the Lindsey of Glen Esk, but now Lord Dalhousie is sole heritor. There is an Established, a Free, and an Episcopal Church in the parish, also a board school.

STRACATHRO is a parish about seven miles length and two broad, is 3 miles from Brechin and 2 from Edzell, and contains the small village of Inchbare not which is Stracathro House, the seat of James A. Campbell, Esq. Here is a parish church and public school.

FORFAIR,

INVERARITY, KINNETTLES AND RESCOBIE, CLOCKSBRIGGS, KINGSTON-BY-FORFAIR, LOANHEAD, KIRKTON, DOUGLASTOWN, AND NEIGHBOURHOOD.

FORFAIR is a royal burgh and county town, 14 miles from Dundee, 13 from Brechin, 5 from Glamis, 15 from Arbroath, and 5½ from Kirriemuir on the Scottish North-Eastern and the Dundee and Forfar Direct Railways. The railway station is comparatively new, having been built to replace the old one, which was situate a little more central than the present one, but was small and inconvenient. New roads and streets have been formed in the vicinity of the new station and are being rapidly extended adds very much to the appearance of the town. The burgh is governed by a provost, three bailies, and eleven councillors. The Town House situate about the centre of Forfar is used by the Police Commissioners and for county meetings. It contains also the Subscription Reading Room, which is supplied with all leading papers, periodicals, &c., also a Public Library which contains about 5,400 volumes. Under the care of the Collector of Petty Customs. Police Courts are held in the Police Court Room, Chapel street, every Monday and at other times when necessary. Sheriff, Civil, and Criminal Courts, are held in the New Sheriff Court Buildings daily if required. A Sheriff Small Debt Court is held every Thursday during Session, as follows.—January 13th to March 15th; April 4th to July 31st, and October 1st to December 15th. Near the Town House are the New County Buildings in which are the Offices of the Town Clerk and the Town Chamberlain. The other Public Buildings comprise the New Sheriff Court House, the County Prison, the Poorhouse, the Infirmary, and the Reid Hall. The latter was erected by Mr. Peter Reid, a local tradesman of Forfar. It is a handsome stone building and very suitable for large meetings, balls, parties, concerts, theatricals &c. The burgh unites with Montrose, Brechin, Bervie, and Arbroath in sending one member to Parliament. The present member is W. E. Baxter, Esq., of Kinclaith. The chief trade of the town is the manufacture of linens, &c., there being about dozen power looms mills and factories engaged in this branch of manufacture. There are several bleach works, and tanning, brewing, and rope making is also carried on to some extent. There is a good iron foundry and several stone quarries worked in the immediate neighbourhood. The banking establishments are the Commercial Bank of Scotland, Royal Bank of Scotland, National Bank of Scotland, Union Bank of Scotland, Bank of Scotland, British Linen Co.'s Bank, National Security Savings' Bank, and the Post-office Savings' Bank. There are several good hotels and posting establishments in the town. The parish church, High street, is a very fine edifice, with handsome tower and spire. There is another church of the Establishment in St. James' road, two Free Churches, an Episcopal, a Congregational, a United Presbyterian, and a Baptist Church.

The latter, built of concrete, was opened on Sunday, the 10th of September, 1878. It will comfortably seat 400. The cost, including site, will amount to about £1,700, a great portion of which was raised before the opening of the Church. There are also some very fine board schools and several private boarding and day schools. The public cemetery occupies about nine acres on the south side of the town, and is very handsomely laid out. On a mound at the top of the cemetery is a monument, erected by public subscription to the memory of Sir Robert Peel. On the west side of the town is a fine loch, nearly a mile in length by half a mile in breadth, abounding with pike, perch, and trout, and is much frequented by wild ducks, &c. The market is held on Saturday, and cattle markets are held every Wednesday during the winter season, from November to April, on the large open space in the east of High street. A fair is held on North Moor for horses and cattle on the second Wednesday in each month from April to November. A fortnightly cattle market has been recently established and is held in the immediate vicinity of the railway station.

INVERARITY is a parish four miles from Forfar, its post town, bounded by Forfar, Monikie, Murroes, Guthrie, Dunnichen, Kinnetles, Tealing and Glamis, situated on the Forfar and Dundee turnpike road. It contains an Established Church and a board school.

KINNETTLES is a parish about two miles in length and about the same in breadth, three miles east from Forfar, its post town, and two miles from Glamis, and contains a parish church and a fine board school. Kirkton and Douglastown are small villages in the parish.

RESCOBIIE is a parish about three miles east from Forfar, its post town, situated between the hills of Turriff and Dunnichen. It contains by Forfar, Aberlemno, Guthrie, Kirkton, and Dunnichen. There are several stone quarries here. Auldbar Road Station is in this parish. There is a parish church, a board school, and an excellent library.

KINNEIL is a parish and small village on the north side of the river Lunan, about three miles west of Inverkerr. The parish is four miles in length, by three in breadth, is separated from the sea by Lunan parish, and it is bounded on the north by the parishes of Farnell and Maryton, on the east by those of Craig, Lunan and Inverkerr, on the south by the latter, and on the west by those of Kirkden, Guthrie, and Aberlemno. The parish is chiefly agricultural and is well cultivated. There is a board school in the parish.

KIRKDEN is a parish and village, the latter about five miles from Frockheim. It is bounded on the north by Rescobie and Guthrie, on the south by Carmyllie and Kinnell, by Inverkerr on the east, and by Dunning on the west. A small patch of Dunning parish lies in Kirkden. The village of Frockheim is in this parish.

CARMYLLIE is a village and parish, the former is about 6 miles from Frockheim and about the same distance from Arbroath. The parish is about six miles in length by three in breadth, and bounded by the parishes of Panbride, Monikie, Guthrie, Dunning, etc. chay, Kirkden, Inverkeilor, St. Vigeans and Arbirlot. There are two extensive quarries, from which the celebrated Carmyllie pavement stones are obtained. The small river Elliot runs through the whole length of the parish. Greystones and Redford are small villages in this parish.

GLAMIS,
WITH THE JOINT PARISH OF EASSIE AND NEVAY.

GLAMIS, a parish comprising 14,483 acres, is bounded on the south by Taling, Anchterhouse, and Newtyle, on the west by Eassie and Nevay, on the north by Airlie, and on the east by Forfar and Kinnettles. The village, a small one, is situated in the Vale of Strathmore, 5 miles west from Forfar, 5 south from Kirriemuir, 12 north-east from Coupar Angus, and 12 north from Dundee. The principal object of interest in this district is Glamis Castle, which stands in a park near the village. It was an ancient royal residence and the scene of the death of Malcolm II. in 1034, and afterwards became the property of Macbeth, after whose death it fell to the Crown. It is an edifice of princely and antique appearance consisting of irregular tall towers, some of which are of remote date than others. Near the castle stands a remarkable curiosity, namely, a great number of dials, thus disposed—on a pedestal stand the figures of four lions rampant, life-size, each holding a dial in their fore paws, facing the four cardinal points. From their heads rise a huge mass of stone, something like a pine-apple in shape, with the protuberances upon it formed into dials, making the number of these ancient timepieces eighty-four. The castle, with its historic associations, the pedestal, and Glamis’s gravestone—a huge stone of rude design, standing in the garden of the Manse—form the chief attraction to tourists. The castle is now the residence of the Right Hon. the Earl of Strathmore, and is open to visitors on Tuesdays. Charleston is a small village in the parish. Fairs are held on the first Wednesday in April, first Wednesday in May, first Wednesday after the 26th of May, first Saturday after the 29th of October, and first Wednesday after the 22nd of November.

EASSIE and NEVAY is a joint parish seven miles from Forfar, seven south-west from Kirriemuir, and about three miles west from Glamis.

INVERKEILOR, LUNAN, ETHIEHAVEN, LEYSMILL, AND CHAPELTOWN.

INVERKEILOR is a parish presenting a front of five miles to the sea at Lunan Bay. It is of an oblong form, extending west about nine miles, and four and a-half at its greatest breadth. The Keilor rivulet runs through the parish to the sea; and the small fishing village of Ethiehaven is situated at the mouth of that river. Leysmill and Chapeltown and Chance Inn are also villages in the parish. There are an...
Established church and a Free church, the latter erected in the year 1843. It likewise contains several schools. The ridge of the coast at this point is very rocky and precipitous being about 200 feet above sea level, and continues gradually rising in a southerly direction for four miles to Dickmouthlaw Hill in the adjoining parish of St. Vigeans.

LUNAN is a small parish, bounded on the south by the river Lunan, on the north by Maryton and Craig, on the east by the German Ocean, and on the west by Kinnell, and is situated about four miles from Montrose and seven from Arbroath. The bay forms a segment of about five miles at such extremity, about a mile of which are bold, rugged, and per- pendicular rocks, rising in pyramid shaped columns to 100 or 150 feet high, and is one of the finest bays in Scotland.

CONVEYANCE BY RAILWAY.

On the Scottish North-Eastern Section of the Caledonian Line.

Station, Leysmill—William Murray, station master.
KIRRIEMUIR.

AIRLIE, BRIDGEND, CORTACHY AND CLOVA, DYKEHEAD, FOLDA, GLENISLA, GLENPROSEN, KINGOLDRUM, LINTRATHEN, PADONARUM, PITMUDIE, AND WOODEND.

KIRRIEMUIR is a market town and parish, 18 miles north from Dundee, 53 from Forfar, and 5 north from Glamis, the parish is divided into two districts, separated by part of the parish of Kingoldrum, on the northern part is called Glenprosen. The parish is about 20 miles in length. The Countess of Home is superior of the burgh. Mr. Duncan Wilkie is borough bailie, and there are twelve Commissioners of Police. The town consists of several very irregular streets, but its appearance has much improved of late years. There is a branch line of railway from the Scottish North-Eastern section of the Caledonian Railway, and commodious station is conveniently situated at the west end of the town. The staple trade is the manufacture of linen goods. There has lately been erected two large power loom factories, which add greatly to the industry of the town. There are also many factories for handloom weaving. A great portion of the inhabitants are engaged in this business. There are two tanneries in the town and stone quarries in the immediate vicinity. A good trade is done in timber, slate, coal, manures, grain, &c. There is a police court held when necessary, and a sheriff’s court is held on the third Monday in May, July, September, November, and January, for the recovery of small debts. The banking establishments are the British Linen Company, the City of Glasgow Bank, the National Bank of Scotland, and the Union Bank of Scotland. There are also several respectable hotels and a temperance hotel. A local paper the Kirriemuir Observer, edited by William B. Mills, is published once a month. The places of worship are an Established, two Free, two United Presbyterian, an Original Seceders’, and an Episcopal Church. There is an academy, erected and endowed by a bequest made in 1829, by Mr. John Webster, writer and banker. There are also board schools and an Episcopal school. A little to the east of the town is the cemetery, situated on the side of an eminence on which are beautifully laid out. The market day is Friday. Hiring market, Friday, if term day, or first Friday after. Pairs are held first Monday in January, February, March, April, and May, first Wednesday after Glamis, which is first Wednesday after 20th May, July 24th if Wednesday, if not, the Wednesday after; first Wednesday after the 15th of October, and first Wednesday after Glamis which is the first Wednesday after 22nd November. Glenprosen and Padonarum are in Kirriemuir parish, the former distant about six miles and the latter about three.

AIRLIE is a parish about six miles west from Kirriemuir, its post town, bounded by the parishes of Lintrathen, Kingoldrum, Kirriemuir, Glamis, Eassie, Meigle, Alyth, and Ruthven. In this parish are the ruins of Airlie Castle.

CORTACHY and CLOVA, a joint parish about six miles from Kirriemuir, is about nineteen miles in length, but very narrow, bounded by the parishes of Lochlee, Crathie, Tannadice, Leithen, and Kirriemuir. Within the parish of Cortachy is Cortachy Castle, the seat of the Earl of Airlie. Dykehead is a small village in this parish.

GLENISLA is a parish situated about 14 miles from Kirriemuir on the borders of Perthshire, it contains an Established and a Free Church, a board school, and a general assembly school. Woodend and Filda are small villages in this parish.

KINGOLDRUM a parish and village, about four miles distance from Kirriemuir, is in length about six miles, and in breadth about three miles. It is bounded by the parishes of Kirriemuir, Cortachy, Airlie, and Lintrathen. It contains an Established Church and a board school.

LINTRATHEN is a parish about eight miles from Kirriemuir and is about twenty-two miles in length, bounded by Airlie, Glenisla, and Kingoldrum. Dundee derives a large portion of its water from Linlathen. The celebrated rock of Linlathen is near the parish church. Here is a good board school. Bridgend and Pitmuie are small villages in this parish.

Post, Money Order, and Telegraph Office, Kirriemuir, John Stiven, postmaster.—Letters from all parts arrive at 6.50 and 9.30 a.m. Letters are also despatched to Forfar, Dundee, Glasgow, and Edinburgh at 7.15 a.m. and to all parts at 12.30 noon and 3 p.m.

Letters for Airlie, Cortachy and Clowa, Kingoldrum, and Lintrathen, should be addressed near Kirriemuir.

Post Office, Woodend, Glenisla, John Jack, postmaster. Letters arrive (from Alyth) at 3 p.m and are despatched at 7 a.m.

Post Office, Filda, Glenisla, Miss Mcgregor, postmistress. Letters arrive from Alyth at 4 p.m. and are despatched at 6 a.m.

SCALE & WEIGHTING MACHINE MAKERS;

MAKERS AND PATENTEES OF THE

PATENT MOVEABLE PILLAR SCALE

(Silver Medal awarded at the Great International Exhibition, Manchester, 14th May, 1874).

For lifting, and at the same time throwing off the weight from the Centres of the Beam, whilst loading and unloading the Scale, thereby causing the knife edges of the centres to retain their sharpness without any repairing considerably longer than any ordinary Scale.

These Scales are well adapted for the use of Butter Merchants, Corn Dealers or Millers, Leather Factors, Wholesale Grocers, Warehousemen, Silk Merchants, and others, where accuracy, combined with quick despatch of business is required.

The Advantages to be derived by the use of these Machines:

1st. — The simplicity and ease in working enabling a boy to work them.

2nd. — The Prevention of Error in weighing, as is the case in many instances with the ordinary machine.

3rd. — Doing away with the lifting of the Goods on and off the Scale, as the Goods can be trucked on and off the Goods end as it rests on the floor.

4th. — The Beam being the best make, and the Centres got up very fine, enables the user to weigh with the greatest accuracy. And many other advantages over the ordinary Scale or Machine.

LETHAM,
WITH THE PARISH OF DUNNICHEN.

LETHAM is a small village in the parish of Dunnichen, five miles from Forfar, its post town, and about two miles from Auld Bar Road Station, on the Caledonian Railway. Pairs are held on the 28th May, unless that day should fall on a Saturday, when it is held on Monday, and November 23rd.

DUNNICHEN is a parish four miles in length, by about six in breadth, bounded by the parishes of Forfar, Inverarity, Rescobie, and Kirkden. The greatest elevations are the hills of Dunnichen, 500 feet, and the hill of Dumbarrow, 700 feet above the level of the sea. There are several quarries, three churches, a chapel, and three schools in the parish.

LETHAM, with the Parish of Dunnichen.
MENMUIR, CARESTON AND FEARN.

MENMUIR is a parish about five miles north-west from Brechin, and extends from north to south about six and a-half miles, and from east to west four and a-half miles. It is bounded on the north by Stricathro and Lethnot, on the south by Brechin and Careston, on the west by Fearn, and on the east by Brechin and Stricathro. The southern part is flat, and forms the vale of the Cruick water.

CARESTON is a small parish situated between Brechin and Tannadice, four miles from the latter, and the same distance from the former place. It is bounded on the east by Brechin, on the west by Tannadice, on the north by Menmuir, and on the south by Aberlemno. Careston Castle is the only object of interest in the parish, it is supposed to have been erected about the year 1400, and was formerly one of the residences of the Earls of Crawford, but is now in the possession of John Adamson, Esq.

FEARN is a parish situated at the foot of some of the Grampian hills, ten miles north-east from Forfar and seven miles west from Brechin. In form it is nearly elliptic, being bounded on the north by the parish of Tannadice, and on the east by Menmuir and Careston. The Cruick water intersects the parish, and near the Noran stand the ruins of the once celebrated Vano Castle.

Post Office, Tigerton, Menmuir, Andrew Garvie, postmaster.—Letters from all parts arrive (from Brechin) at 8.30 a.m. and are despatched thereto at 2.30 p.m.

Post Office, Careston, Peter Dow, postmaster.—Letters from all parts arrive (from Brechin), at 11.15 a.m. and are despatched thereto at 11.20 a.m.

MONTROSE,

CRAIG, DUN, FERRYDEN, HILLSIDE, LOGIE-PERT, MARYTON, AND USAN.

MONTROSE is a market town, royal burgh, and seaboard, 38 miles from Aberdeen, 30 from Dundee, 21 from Forfar, 13 from Arbroath, and 72 from Edinburgh. The burgh joins with Forfar, Brechin, Arbroath, and Inverbervie in returning one member to Parliament. The present member is W. E. Baxter, Esq., of Kincardurn, Forfar. The municipal government is vested in the magistrates and Town Council, and Police and Improvement Commissioners, which comprise the Provost, three magistrates, Dean of Guild, hospital master, treasurer, and twelve councillors. The High street of Montrose is of great width and very clean, the houses being very lofty; not only are the main streets so strikingly clean, but the smaller ones are equally so. The principal manufactures of Montrose comprise flax spinning and the manufacture of linens, sheeting, sail cloth, &c., which are carried on extensively, and among the other branches of importance carried on here we may mention rope and sail making, iron-founding, iron and wood shipbuilding, tanning, fish curing, the manufacturing of starch, brick, the making of rope, and brewing, &c. A most extensive trade is done in timber, slate, corn, coal, &c. The banking interest is represented by eight branch establishments, a Savings' Bank, and the Post Office Savings' Bank. There are several first-class hotels and many good inns, and two newspapers are published weekly—viz. The Review and The Standard. The magnificent suspension bridge which crosses the South Esk was erected at a cost of about £20,000; between the points of suspension it is 422 feet, and together with the approaches it extends 800 feet. The structure is a great ornament to the town. Two light-houses have been erected at a very great expense, and are a most valuable improvement, as they enable ships to enter the port in the darkest of nights. The quays in the harbour are very judiciously planned—built in the most substantial manner, and there is a neat dock and a patent slip. The port has a custom-house belonging to it. The number of vessels belonging to the port in 1871 was 94, with an aggregate tonnage of 16,616. The Customs' revenue for the port, for the years ending March, 1863, was £15,438; in 1864, £11,844; in 1865, £9,590; in 1868, £4,742 2s. 5d.; in 1871, £3,382 7s. 6d.; in 1876 (May) it was upwards of £5,000. The shipping trade includes flax, corn, timber, salt, and manure. The tonnage of vessels arriving between May 1875 and May 1876 was, foreign, 32,491; belonging to Montrose, 7,350; coasting belonging to Montrose, 25,775; coasting not belonging to Montrose, 20,606; total, 89,510. This place is celebrated as the birth-place of Joseph Hume, the distinguished statesman, who represented Montrose for a great number of years in the British Senate, and to whose memory a beautiful monument has been raised in High-street. About the centre of the High-street is the Town House, a neat, plain building of two storeys. The Post Office is nearly opposite. There are Assembly Rooms, Public Baths, &c. in the town. The public buildings and mortifications of Montrose are numerous; among these are the Royal Lunatic Asylum, the Infirmary and Dispensary, the Ancient Hospital Fund, under the guardianship of the town, the Rossie Reformatory, and Dorward's House of Refuge, all of which occupy capacious and ornamental structures. There are also several Mortifications, which afford assistance to the deserving and indigent poor of the town. There are a number of private boarding and day schools, Board and Free Church schools. The Montrose house, situated on the Lion, is a handsome edifice, surmounted by a neat dome; the establishment comprises a rector and five very able assistants. Mathematics, Greek, Latin, and modern languages, writing and arithmetic, English grammar, drawing, &c. are included in the course of teaching. Several libraries and reading rooms are supported, the principal being the one in a part of the Town House. An interesting museum is maintained in a very tasteful building in Penmore-place. The market is on Friday; the great hiring fairs are held on the Fridays after Whit Sunday and Martinmas (old style). The parish church is a very fine edifice occupying a central position in the town, it has two galleries, and is capable of holding 2,000 people; it has a fine tower surmounted by a spire, which can be seen at a great distance. The other places of worship include the Established, Free, Congregational, English Episcopal, Scotch Episcopal, Evangelical Union, United Presbyterian, and Wesleyan Churches.

CRAIG parish, immediately opposite Montrose, is about two miles broad and six long, bounded on the east and south by the German Ocean, on the north by Montrose, and occupies the peninsular corner of land between Montrose basin and the sea. The islet called Inch Bravyock, or Rossie Island, belongs to the parish, also the two small villages of Usan and Ferryden.

DUN is a parish and small village about four miles from Montrose, bounded by Stracathro, Logie Pert, Maryton, Farnell, Brechin, and Montrose, on the north bank of the South Esk. In the parish is a small lake.

MARYTON is a parish about four miles from Montrose on the west side of Montrose basin and the south side of the South Esk, bounded on the west by Farnell, on the south by the sea and Lunan, on the north by Montrose, and on the south-east by the parish of Craig. The parish derives considerable advantage from its proximity to Montrose.

LOGIE-PERT is situated about five and a half miles south-east from Montrose, bounded by the North Esk river, and the parishes of Dun, Montrose, and Stracathro. The parish church is situated on the banks of the North Esk, and there is a board school. At Dalton is the junction station for Montrose, on the Caledonian railway. Hillside, a nice little village, is partly in this parish. There is a flax spinning mill and a bleach works.

NEWTYLE, WITH THE PARISH OF KETTINS.

NEWTYLE is a parish and village—the latter situated about 11 miles from Dundee and 24 from Meigle, and is a station on the Caledonian and the Dundee and Newtyle Railways. In the summer season it has many visitors from Dundee and district, the scenery in the neighbourhood being very fine. The village is supplied with gas from works of Mr. Robert Thomas, artificial manure manufacturer. The places of worship are Established, Free, and United Presbyterian Churches, and there are Board Schools in the village.

KETTINS is a parish 1½ miles from Coupar Angus and 4 from Newtyle, situated partly in Perthshire and partly in Forfarshire. The parish church is the only place of worship, and there is a Board School. The castle of Pitcur, now in ruins, is one mile south of the church.

Sub-Post Office, Newtyle, Andrew Whitton, postmaster.—Letters from all parts arrive (from Coupar-Angus) at 7-40 a.m. and 12-0 noon, and are despatched thereon at 12-25 noon and 4-0 p.m. Money Order Office, Telegraph Office, and Savings' Bank. Letters for Newtyle and Kettins should be addressed near Coupar-Angus.

PLACES OF WORSHIP AND THEIR MINISTERS.

TANNADICE,

ABERLEMNO AND OATHLAW.

TANNADICE is a parish 8 miles from Brechin and 5½ from Forfar, and is situated almost in the centre of the county. The South Esk river passes along the western border, and the river Noran along the eastern border. It contains an Established and a Free Church, and a Board School.

ABERLEMNO is a parish situated about 12 miles from the sea coast, is 7 miles W. from Brechin and 6 E. from Forfar. Excellent stone is obtained from the quarries worked in Aberlemno and vicinity. In the parish are an Established and a Free Church, and a Board School.

OATHLAW, or FINHAVEN, is a parish situated on the south bank of the South Esk, bounded by Kirriemuir, Rescobie, Aberlemno, and Tannadice, and is 4 miles north from Forfar. About 1½ miles from the church are the ruins of the castle of Finhaven. There is a Board School at Oathlaw. There are also stone quarries in the parish.

Post Office, Tannadice, Margaret Gray, postmistress.

Letters from all parts arrive (from Forfar) at 9-30 a.m., and are despatched thereto at 11-30 a.m.

Post Office, Aberlemno, Andrew Davidson, postmaster. Letters from all parts arrive (from Forfar) at 9-55 a.m., and are despatched thereto at 11-30 a.m.

The nearest Money Order Office is at Forfar. Letters for the above places should be addressed near Forfar.

ERROL (Perthshire),

ABERNYTE, INCHTURRE, KILSPINDIE, KINNAIRD, AND SAINT MADOES.

ERROL, Perthshire, is a parish and village, situated in the caise of Gowrie, about 10 miles from Dundee and 13 from Perth, and is a station on the Perth and Dundee line of the Caledonian Railway. The village is situated on a hill, and the parish church, with its fine tower, can be seen from many parts of Perthshire and Fife-shire at a great distance. There is also a Free church and one for United Presbyterians. There is a fine Board School. The village is small, consisting of one street. The inhabitants are chiefly employed in agriculture; there are brick, chemical, and implement works, and a branch of the Union Bank of Scotland.

Abernute, Inchture, Kilspindie, Kinnaird, and St. Madoes are agricultural parishes in Perthshire, averaging about 4 miles from Errol.

Post Office, Railway Station, Errol, Elizabeth Adam, postmistress.—Letters from all parts arrive at 12-00 midnight and 9-00 a.m., and are despatched at 9-20 and 9-40 a.m. Letters from Dundee, Inchture, Carnoustie, Newport, &c., arrive at 9-25 and 9-40 p.m., and are despatched at 9-40 a.m. and 12-40 p.m. Letters from Kilspindie, Pitroddie, and Roadside arrive at 7-00 a.m. and 5-2 p.m., and are despatched at the same periods. Money Order Office and Savings' Bank.

Post Office, Inchture, Charles Peebles, postmaster.—Letters arrive from all parts at 2-00 and 10-30 a.m., and from Dundee, &c., at 3-50 and 7-20 p.m., and are despatched to all parts at 2-42 and 6-10 p.m., to Dundee, &c., at 5-10 a.m. and 12-00 midnight. Deliveries commence at 7-30 and 10-30 a.m. and 7-30 p.m. Money Order Office and Savings' Bank.

[WRORALL'S] ABERDOUR.

ABERDOUR is a parish nearly square in form, being about 3½ miles each way, and is pleasantly situated on the north bank of the Firth of Forth, in the county of Fife, 8 miles from Kirkcaldy, 10 N.W. from Edinburgh (across the Firth), and 3 from Burntisland, which is the nearest railway station. It is an excellent bathing place, and is much resorted to in the summer months by the citizens of Edinburgh on account of the ready access obtained by steam vessels and other means from the opposite shore. The small island of Inchcolm belongs to the parish of Aberdour. In the village are an Established Church, a Free Church, and one for Episcopalians. There are schools attached to the two former.

Post Office, Aberdour, John Goodair, postmaster.—Letters arrive from all parts (from Edinburgh) at 10-0 a.m. and 7-0 p.m., and are despatched thereto at 5-30 a.m. and 1-0 p.m. Money Order and Telegraph Office and Savings Bank.

ANSTRUTHER (East & West), CELLARDYKE, AND THE PARISH OF KILBENNY

ANSTRUTHER EASTER is a royal burgh, bounded on the east by Cellardyke, on the west by Anstruther Wester, on the north by Kilconquhar, and on the south by the Firth of Forth, and is situated about ten miles south from St. Andrews, and 22 east from Kirkcaldy. The town is governed by a provost and two bailies, a treasurer, and five councillors, elected under the Scottish Borough Reform Acts. This burgh is united with St. Andrews, Cupar, Crail, Kilconquhar, Anstruther Wester, and Pittenweem in returning one member to parliament. A sheriff's small debt court is held here quarterly for the parishes of Anstruther Easter and Wester, Crail, Pittenweem, Kilconquhar, Elie, Kilrenny, Newark, and St. Monance; and a weekly corn market is held every Friday. The principal trade of the town is fish curing which is carried on extensively; and a considerable business is done in the export of grain, potatoes, &c. The Anstruther and Leith Steam Packet Company, run a steamer every alternate day between here and Leith, calling at Crail, Pittenweem, Elie, Largo, and Kirkcaldy; and a number of coasters belong to the port. The East of Fife line of railway has its terminus here. Anstruther is one of the principal fishing stations in Scotland; in 1826 there were only 58 boats, from 18 to 20 feet long, the number now is 212, of which 172 are from 30 to 45 feet long over all, and from 11 to 15 tons register, 40 are from 15 to 24 feet, and from 2 to 8 tons register. The harbour being found too small for the increasing trade of the district, the three burghs of East and West Anstruther and Cellardyke united their efforts, and obtained government assistance for an union harbour, which, with the former harbour, gives a space of 141 acres and accommodation for 500 fishing boats, and will admit vessels from 300 to 500 tons burden at low water. There are three banking establishments here. Dr. Chalmers, the celebrated educator and divine, and Professor Tennant, author of "Astrouter Fair," and also Professor Goodsin, of the Edinburgh University, were natives of this town.

ANSTRUTHER WESTER, which adjoins Anstruther Easter, is also a parish and royal burgh, and holds its charter of incorporation from James VI.; a bridge connects the two burghs. It is bounded on the east by Anstruther Easter, on the west by Pittenweem, on the north by Carnbee, and on the south by the Firth of Forth. It is governed by a chief magistrate, one bailie, a treasurer, and six councillors. The inhabitants are principally employed in agricultural pursuits. Great improvements have been effected in this town within the last half century; the main street having been widened from 13 to 30 feet, and the formation of a neat footway or pavement, at an expense of £450, contributed equally by the burgh and the county; the streets are well lighted, common sewers and other conveniences constructed, whereby the thoroughfares are kept in a clean and orderly state.

KILBENNY is a parish and royal burgh, the former is situated one mile from Anstruther and three from Crail. The coast here is one continued range of rocks, with two small creeks, which form the harbour of Anstruther and the port of Cellardyke, or Nether Kilrenny. Here is an Established church and a public school. The burgh is governed by a provost, two lairds, a treasurer, and five councillors, and, in conjunction with the Anstruther and other places before named, returns one member to parliament.

CELLARDYKE, or NETHER KILBENNY, is an extensive fishing village in the above parish, and forms part of the burgh of Kilrenny. It takes its name from the circumstance of containing cellars or store houses for fish. The greater number of the inhabitants are fishermen, and about 170 boats belong to the place. Fish curing, cod liver oil, and waterproof oil clothing, and fishing material manufacturing are extensively carried on here.

Post Office, Anstruther, David M. Dickson, postmaster.—Letters from all parts arrive at 9-30 a.m. and 1-0 and 7-30 p.m., and are despatched to Crail and St. Andrews at 9-0 a.m., and to all parts at 12-4 noon, 3-0 and 10-0 p.m. Money Order Office, Telegraph, and Savings' Bank.

Post Office, 66, James-street, Cellardyke, Thomas Brown, postmaster.—Letters from all parts arrive at 10-30 a.m., and are despatched thereto at 3-10 and 9-45 a.m. Money Order Office, Telegraph, and Savings' Bank.

Post Office (sub), Kilrenny, James Baldie, postmaster.—Letters by Anstruther. The nearest Money Order and Telegraph Office is at Cellardyke.

bank, where it joins the main line for Edinburgh, Dundee, Perth, &c. The burgh is governed by a provost, three bailies, and nine councillors. A sheriff’s small debt court is held about every three months. There are several good streets lighted with gas, by a gas company, whose works are in the town. The Town Hall and the Victoria Hall comprise the public buildings. The banking interest is represented by the Bank of Scotland, Union Bank of Scotland, a Savings’ Bank, and the Post Office Savings’ Bank. The Commercial and the Royal are the principal hotels. The manufacture of linen is the staple trade, four firms being engaged in it to a considerable extent. Melting is extensively carried on. The scale beam works of John White and Son employ a number of hands. Distilling and brewing is carried on to some extent. There are also three saw mills. The town is nearly equally divided by a stream called the Burn or Loverspool, over which there are a number of small bridges. The places of worship comprise the Parish Church, situated near the centre of the town, a Free Church, two United Presbyterian Churches, and one for Baptists. There are two fine board schools, a school conducted on the Madras principle, and an establishment for the education of young ladies. Pairs are held on the first Monday in February, last Monday in April, July 2nd, first Monday in October and December.

DUNSHALT is a small village in the parish of Auchtermuchty, one mile therefrom, and two from Falkland. Here are gas works. Linen and farina manufacturing and brick making is carried on here. There is an Evangelical Union Church and a Hall belonging to the Dunshalt Mutual Improvement Society.

Post Office, Auchtermuchty, Mrs. Agnes Dickson, postmistress. — Arrivals from all parts at 8.40 a.m. and 6.45 p.m., and from Edinburgh and the South at 12-14 noon; dispatches to all parts at 6-45 a.m. and 4-15 p.m. Sunday despatch 6-0 a.m., and the arrival 10-20 a.m., and are delivered to callers from 10-0 to 11-0 a.m., Money Order Office, Savings’ Bank, and Telegraph Office.

Post Office, Dunshalt, James Austin, postmaster. — Letters arrive from Auchtermuchty at 9-30 a.m., and leave at 3-5 p.m. Nearest Money Order and Telegraph Office is at Auchtermuchty.

[Addenda for other sections]
Is a parish and a royal burgh, situated on the shore of the Firth of Forth, 21 miles W. of King's horn, 3 E. from Aberdeen, and 8 from Edinburgh, and is the terminus of the Edinburgh, Forth, and Dundee Section of the North British Railway. The burgh is managed by twelve councillors, including a provost, two bailies, a dean of guild, and a treasurer; and in connection with Dysart, Kirkcaldy, and Kinghorn, returns one member to parliament. The town consists of one long main street, from which several smaller ones diverge, being all well paved and gas lighted. The shipping of coal and iron, herring curing, and coopering are the principal branches of trade. The parish of Burntisland was anciently called Kinghorn Wester, and was originally a burgh of regality under the Abbots of Dunfermline; it was purchased from him by James V. in 1541, and erected into a royal burgh, was confirmed by James VI. in 1587, and renewed by Charles I. in 1632. Rosendall Castle, which is the only building of antiquity worthy of notice in the burgh, was often the meeting place of Queen Mary on her journeys to Falkland. From the excellent position of Burn-island as a seaport town, being secure from almost every wind that blows, its excellent bathing ground, and its proximity to Edinburgh, it has now become a fashionable summer residence. The links at the east end of the town are much resorted to for goling and promenading. The harbour, which is allowed to be the best in the Firth, is very capacious, the water being of great depth; it has an excellent dry dock, and a lighthouse stands on the entrance to the haven. The basin is said to have been formed by Crowwell, whose dyke or wall, from the foot of Rosendall Castle to the island, is still extant. The pier, with the right of ferry, is the property of the railway company, who have a number of steamers stationed here. A substantial middle pier runs out into the harbour, by which vessels of large tonnage are accommodated. The breakwater, extending seaward over 500 feet, and the quay wall on the east side, extending about 350 feet, and running parallel with the breakwater, forms loading berths for large vessels, there being 24 feet of water at high spring tides, and 9 feet at the lowest ebb, spring tides. The town possesses a large and elegant hall, which was built at the expense of the late Lord Young, Esq., of Duncan, for concerts, lectures, and other public meetings, and was presented by his executors as a free gift to the town. The places of worship are the parish church, which was built about the end of the sixteenth century, but was not established the parish church till 1632; it is a commodious and venerable edifice, overlooking the sea; an United Presbyterian church, and a Free church, and one for the Episcopulians. There is a Board School and an Episcopal school.

CERES & KEMBACK.

CERES is a parish eight miles in length and from one to four in breadth, it is situated on an arable, about three miles S.E. from Cupar-Fife, and is bounded on the east by Cameron, on the west by Culfa, on the north by Cuper parish, and on the south by Largo. Flax spinning and weaving employ some of the inhabitants, but the chief portion are engaged in agriculture. The house of Scotsatarv, once the family residence of the Scots, occupies a conspicuous position on the top of the high grounds, and contains a museum of antiquities and curiosities. The parish church stands in an elevated position, and can be seen at a considerable distance.

Kemback parish is one of the richest agricultural districts in the country. It contains 2,602 acres, of which more than 1,500 are fine arable land, in form it is nearly triangular, measuring about 34 miles in breadth and length. Besides the Eden, it is watered by the Ceres stream. The church is about 14 miles from the village of Ceres and 3 from Cupar.

Post Office, Ceres, William G. Smith, postmaster.—Letters from all parts arrive (from Cupar-Fife) at 10-15 a.m. and 8-10 p.m., and are despatched thereto at 5-40 a.m. and 2-50 p.m. Money Order and Telegraph Office and Savings' Bank.

CRAIL & KINGSBARNS.

CRAIL is a parish and seaport, 4 miles from Anstruther, 10 S.E. from St. Andrews, and 26 E. from Kirkcaldy. It is situated on the extreme coast of the county, being bounded on the east by the sea, on the north by the sea and Kingsbarns, on the west by Kingsbarns and Denino, and on the south by Carnbee, Kilrenny, and the sea. Crail received a charter from Robert Bruce in 1306, which was confirmed by five sovereigns. The town chiefly consists of two streets, the ends of which were in days of yore closed with strong gates. Vestiges of a chapel, which was dedicated to St. Rufus, remain. On the top of a cliff are traces of a castle, where David I. at times resided. Ada, mother of Malcolm IV., gave certain houses in Crail to the monks of Dryburgh. An ancient church in the town is a good specimen of pointed architecture. In the neighbourhood are a few mansions and a castle worth visiting. A cave is shown as the place where Constantine II. was beheaded by the Danes in 872; and not far from the town are the scenes of fierce fights between the Scots and Danes. Two miles east of Crail is Fifeness, the most eastern point of land in Fifeshire. The Carr Rocks, a dangerous ridge, extends into the sea, and beyond there is St. Andrews Bay. The places of worship are an Established, Free, and United Presbyterian Churches. There are also two public schools.

KINGSBARNS is a parish about 3 miles from Crail and 7 from St. Andrews, about 3½ miles in length and 2½ in breadth, and situated at the extreme east of the county. It is bounded on the south by the parish of Crail, on the west by Crail, St. Leonards, and St. Andrews, and on the north and east by the German Ocean. There is no trade of any importance carried on here. There is an Established Church and a public school.

Post Office, Crail, Miss A. Gosman, postmistress.—Letters from all parts arrive at 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. and are despatched at 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. Money Order Office, Telegraph, and Savings Bank.

Post Office, Kingsbarns, James Mackintosh, postmaster.—Letters from all parts arrive (from St. Andrews) at 2 p.m., and are despatched thence at 11 a.m. Letters from all parts arrive (from Crail) at 11 a.m., and are despatched thereto at 2 p.m. Crail is the nearest Money Order Office.

CUPAR-FIFE, CREICH, DAIRSTE, KILMANY, LOGIE, MONIMAIL, AND MOONZIE.

CUPAR-FIFE is a royal burgh, and the capital of the county of Fife, pleasantly situated on the left bank of the river Eden, is a station on the line of the Edinburgh, Perth and Dundee branch of the North British Railway, 9 miles north-east from Falkland, 32 miles north from Edinburgh, and 121 miles south from Dundee. Being the county town and head of the shire, the public business relating to both is transacted here. The ordinary sheriff court, and the commission courts on Tuesday during the session, and the sheriff small debts court on the first and third Thursday of each month during the same period. The principal trade of Cuper is the manufacture of linen, and there are many other branches, all of which are in a flourishing condition. The Duncan Institute, situated in Crossgate is a very fine building, it consists of library, museum, reading-room, and lecture hall, and was founded by the late Miss Duncan for the benefit of the working classes. The Baxter Institute for the education of young ladies, is situated in Westport. The old prison, which stands on the north side of the river is used as stores and depot for the Fife Militia Artillery. The present gaol stands on rising ground north of Dundee road. The county buildings, newsroom and library, and two first-class hotels, are situated in St. Catherine's street. There are six branch banks—one of the British Linen Company, the Commercial Bank of Scotland, the Clydebank Banking Company, the Royal Bank of Scotland, the City of Glasgow Bank, and the National Bank, together with a Bank for Savings. Five newspapers are published in Cupar weekly, namely—the Fife Herald, Thursday; the Fife News, Saturday; the Fife Journal, Thursday; the People's Journal, Saturday; and the St. Andrews' Courier, Tuesday. The houses of worship are, the parish church and a chapel in connection therewith, and others for the Free Church, United Presbyterians, Episcopalians, Baptists, and Roman Catholics. On Wednesday, July 19th, 1876, the foundation stone of a new Free Church (to take the place of the one above) was laid by Lady Baxter of Kilmaron, it is situated on an elevated site north-east of the Bonniegate. The weekly market for corn is held on Tuesday, and a cattle market on the first Tuesday in every month.

CREICH is a parish about three miles long and two broad, bounded on the north by Balmerino and Kilmarnock, on the west by Abdie and Dunboy, on the south by Moonzie and Monimail, and on the north by Flisk, and situated about five miles west of Cupar. There is a handsome parish church, and a board school.
DAIRSIE is a parish and village, situated three miles from Cupar and eight miles from Dundee. The parish is nearly three miles in extent each way, containing 2,500 acres. It is bounded on the west by Cupar, on the east by Leuchars, on the south by Kemback, and on the north by Logie and Kilmany, and is intersected by the river Eden, which is here crossed by a bridge of three arches. The church, which is in the Saxon style of architecture, was erected in the seventeenth century. There is a Roman Catholic chapel in the parish.

KILMANY is a very irregular parish, being about six miles in length and varying from one mile to three in breadth. It is situated five miles from Cupar, and is bounded on the east by Forgan, on the west by Cults and Creich, on the south by Logie and Cupar, and on the north by Balmerino. The parish is in a high state of cultivation, and is well drained and watered. There is a parish church and school, also a United Presbyterian Church at Rathillet.

LOGIE is a small parish, four miles in length, and about a mile and a-half in breadth, bounded on the east by Leuchars, on the west by Kilmarnock, on the north by Palace and Creich, and on the south by Logie and Cupar, and is situated six miles north from Cupar. There is a parish church and school.

MONIMAIL is a parish containing the villages of Bow of Fife, Easter Feneic, and Letham, it is six miles in length and four in breadth, bounded on the south by Cults and Colleslie, on the north by Dunlop, Creich and Moonzie, on the west by Abdie, and on the east by Cupar, from which place it is situated about two miles on the summit of Mount Hill, in the northern part of the parish, there is a monumental pillar to the late Earl of Hopetoun, 92 feet in height and surmounted by a square capitol of 15 feet, it is hollow and has a spiral staircase to ascend to the top, from whence a fine view can be obtained of the Firths of Forth and Tay. The parish church is at Monimail, it is a handsome building and contains near 600 sittings. There is also a Free Church at Bow of Fife, and a board school in the parish.

MOONZIE is the smallest parish in the county, being only two miles long by one and a-half broad. It is situated about three miles west from Cupar and is bounded on the south by Monimail, on the north by Kilmarnock, on the west by Creich, and on the east by Cupar. There is a parish church and school.

DUNFERMLINE.

CROSSFORD, HALBEATH, TOWNHILL, WELLWOOD, SPITTL, AND MILES MARK.

DUNFERMLINE is a city, a royal burgh, and parish, containing a population, according to the census of 1871, of 23,123. It is the chief town in the western part of the county of Fife, 16 miles N.W. from Edinburgh, 31 S.S.W. from Cupar, 21 from Stirling, and 47 N.E. from Glasgow, situate 3 miles north from the Forth, or 300 feet above the level at Limekilns, which is the nearest part of the coast. Thus elevated, it commands a prospect remarkably various and beautiful, extending over fourteen different counties, and its salubrious situation renders it one of the healthiest cities in Scotland. The government of the burgh is vested in a provost, four bailies, a dean of guild, treasurer, chamberlain, and town clerk, and joined with the Lowthers and the prominent citizens of the town.

The parish church, dedicated to St. Andrew, is about 140 feet long and 35 wide. It contains a fine tower and transept, and is noted for its portraits and monuments. The most striking monument is the sepulchre of Miss Grant, who died in 1715, and whose will directed that the monument should be such as to give every and positive indication of Miss Grant's high powers as a sculptor. The cenotaph—which is executed in very fine relievo style, and measures 3 feet in breadth, and stands fully 6 feet high—is entered into the upper portion. It is intended to be a striking likeness of the deceased, beneath which are six angels. Again, underneath, is the following inscription, composed by the Dean himself:

To the Memory of

Anna Elizabeth Fredericke Bruce,
Fifth Daughter of Thomas, Seventh Earl of Elgin and Kincardine. The beloved wife of Arthur Purchas Stanley, Dean of Westminster,
Born at Broomhall, April 3, 1822.
Died March 1st, 1879.
Buried in Westminster Abbey, the scene of her latest and dearest affections.

She retained through all changes her deep attachment
To the home of her childhood and the resting-place of her race.
The above words are inscribed on the left side of a crest of the Stanley and Bruce arms. Towards the right are the words:

"I love Dunfermline; I love my own, my own Broomhall.
Let the people of Limekilns and Charleston never forget me,
for she stretched forth her hands to the needy,
And in her tongue is the law of kindness.
The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her,
for she works works purely.

"We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren.

The parish church has been collegiate and under the care of two monastic orders since 1145. There are also places of worship for the various other denominations.
The educational establishments comprise the Dunfermline Grammar School, the Dunfermline Commercial Academy, and several private academies.

There are two Public Libraries, a Subscription News Room, Mechanics and Scientific Institution, and various other associations, a list of which will be found in the Directory. The market is held on Tuesday for grain, and the cattle market every third Tuesday in the month. The North British Railway has a station here.

Crossford, Halbeath, Townhill, Wellwood, Spittal, and Miles Mark are small villages in the parish from one to three miles distant from Dunfermline.

MITRE CUTTER.

FRONT VIEW.

The Improvement in this Mitre Cutter consists in having a second pair of irons to take one or more finishing cuts after the first pair. Both pair of irons work on the same principle as the old wood Mitre Block and Plane.

Moulds for Cornice Work, &c., can be cut with this Machine, which it is impossible to cut by the old Mitre Block and Hand Plane.

All Gilt and other Moulds that can be Mitred by the old Mitre and Hand Plane can be done on this Machine much more rapidly and correctly.

No. 1 Mitre Cutter, 4in. wide by 2in. deep, with one set of irons...Price £4 0 0 " 2 " 7in. " 4in. " ...........................................

N.B.—Parties wishing to be supplied with back irons for second cutters, may have them for an extra charge of—No. 1, 6s.; No. 2, 12s.
DYSART

Is a parliamentary and burghal burgh in the county of Fife, situated two miles from Kirkcaldy, on a gentle declivity towards the Frith of Forth. It is a station on the Edinburgh, Perth, and Dundee section of the North British Railway, and is bounded on the east by Wemyss, on the west by Kirkcaldy, Abbotshall, Auchterderran, and Kinglassie, on the north by Markinch, and on the south by the Frith of Forth. The town consists of four streets, running nearly east and west, and intersected by three running south-east. Loughborough road, situate between Sinclair-town and Dysart, adds much to the improvement of the town, being studded with numerous villa residences. The castle of Ravenscraig, which stands in a steep crag fronting the sea, is the most remarkable object of antiquity in the town, being spoken of by Sir Walter Scott in his "Lay of the Last Minstrel." The principal trade of the town is the weaving of tweeds, checks, and other linen fabrics, also tweeds, druggets, and winceys, there being several power-loom factories for the manufacture of these; there are also two flax spinning mills, the colliery of Lord Rosslyn, and a steam forge. Coal is the principal export. The number of vessels inwards from foreign ports for the year ending March 1876 was 389, outwards, foreign parts, 619; coasting trade, same period, inwards 440, and outwards 211. Dysart is governed by a provost, two bailies, and six councillors, and joins with Kirkcaldy, Kinghorn, and Burntisland in returning one member to parliament. The present member is Sir George Campbell, Bart. There are three places of worship, the Established, Free, and United Presbyterian Churches; also two board schools. At present there is no market in the township. The Earl of Rosslyn has a seat in the neighbourhood.

Post Office, High-street, Dysart, William Buist, postmaster.—Letters arrive at 8.5 a.m., 11.15 a.m., and 7.30 p.m. and are despatched at 7.30 a.m. and 1.30 p.m. Money Order Office, Postal Telegraph, and Savings' Bank.

FALKLAND & FREUCHIE.

FALKLAND is a parish and ancient royal burgh in the county of Fife, bounded by the parishes of Auchtermuchty, Leslie, Kettle and Stratmalligoo, it is distant 23 miles from Dundee, 15 from Perth, the same distance from Kinghorn, and 25 from Edinburgh. The town consists of one main street, with a number of smaller ones diverging therefrom. The nearest railway station is at Falkland road, three miles distant. The manufacture of linen is carried on to a considerable extent by both hand and power looms. Winçey and drooggetting is also manufactured here. There is a branch of the City of Glasgow Bank, two hotels, and a town hall. The municipal officials consist of a provost, two bailies, a town clerk, nine councillors and a treasurer. The places of worship are a church of the Establishment and a Free Church. The parish church, which was erected by the munificence of the late O. T. Bruce, Esq., is a very handsome building, surmounted by a spire, and situated in the centre of the town. There is also a board school here. Fairs are held in the parish on the second Tuesday in January, third Thursday in March, second Monday in May, third Friday in June, first Thursday in August, last Tuesday in September, and Friday before Edinburgh Hallow fair in November.

FREUCHIE is a village, in the parish of, and about two miles east from Falkland. The manufacture of linen is largely carried on here by two firms, having steam loom factories, and affording employment to a large number of the inhabitants. The places of worship are a Quoad Sacra Church of the Establishment and a United Presbyterian Church. There is also a board school in the village and a hotel.

Post Office, Falkland, Mrs. Robina Reddie, postmistress.—Letters from all parts arrive (from Ladybank) at 9.20 a.m. and 7.20 p.m.; from Edinburgh, 1 p.m., and are despatched to Ladybank at 5.50 a.m. and 3.20 p.m. Money Order and Telegraph Office, and Savings' Bank.

Post Office, Freuchie, David Webster, postmaster.—Letters from all parts arrive (from Ladybank) at 9.10 a.m. and 7.5 p.m., and are despatched thereto at 6.5 a.m. and 3.40 p.m. The nearest Money Order Office is at Kettle.

INVERKEITHING

DALGETY, NORTH QUEENSFERRY, ST. DAVID'S, FORDELL, HILLEND, JAMESTOWN, ROSYTH, AND CROSSGATES.

INVERKEITHING is a royal burgh, a sea-port, and the capital of its parish; most agreeably situated on an acclivity springing from the margin of the bay of the Firth of Forth, in the county of Fife, and about 2 miles from North Queensferry, 14 N.W. from Edinburgh, 13 S.W. from Kirkcaldy, 4 from Dunfermline, and 51 S. from Perth. There is now in course of construction a line of railway, which it is expected will add greatly to the prosperity of the town. The burgh, in conjunction with Dunfermline, Stirling, Callow, and South Queensferry sends one member to parliament. The town consists chiefly of two streets, well paved and gas lighted, and containing some excellent and well furnished shops; there are also in the neighbourhood a large ironfoundry, fire brick and tile works, and rope making and ship building are carried on extensively. There are many remains of antiquity, among which may be mentioned Rosyth Castle, which bears date 1561. This castle is alluded to in Sir Walter Scott's novel of the "Abbot" as being the birthplace of Oliver Cromwell's wife. The harbour is capacious, and the bay is noted as a place of security in all winds. The places of worship are a church of the Establishment, and one for United Presbyterians. There is also a board school, and societies for the Propagation of Christianity. A fair is held on the first Friday in August. Hillend, James Town, and Rosyth are hamlets in the parish of Inverkeithing.

NORTH QUEENSFERRY is a parish annexed to Dunfermline. The port and point of land opposite to Queensferry (or South Queensferry), in Linlithgowshire, is well known to travellers, as a steamer passes to and from several times daily. There are large whinstone quarries, employing a number of men.

DALGETTY is a parish bounded on the east by Aberlour, on the west by Inverkeithing, on the south by the river Forth, and on the north by Dunfermline; in length it is 5 miles, and in breadth 3½ miles. St. Davids is a small port in this parish, about 1½ miles east from Inverkeithing. The advantage that this place affords for the shipment of coal, which is brought from the colliery at Fordell by a railway line five miles in length, is very great. Upwards of 560 tons of coal can be shipped daily. The pier, which is capable of receiving vessels of 500 tons to receive their cargoes, is the property of G. W. M. Henderson, Esq.

CROSSEGATES is a village partly in the parish of Dunfermline and partly in that of Dalgetty, about a quarter of a mile from the station on the North British Railway. The manufacturing of fire clay and terra cotta goods is extensively carried on here by Ord Adams, Esq., and affords employment to a number of the inhabitants of this district. The places of worship are an Established Church and one for Presbyterians. There is also a board school.

FORDELL is a village in Dalgetty parish, and about a mile S.E. of Crossgates. It is chiefly inhabited by miners, who are employed on the estate of G. W. M. Henderson, Esq.

Post Office, Town Hall-street, Inverkeithing, William Pringle, postmaster.—Letters from all parts arrive (from Edinburgh) at 9.45 a.m. 1.45 p.m. and 6.20 p.m., and are despatched thereto at 8 a.m. 12 noon, and 4 p.m.; and arrive from Dunfermline at 8.15 a.m. and 4.15 p.m., despatched thereto at 7.30 a.m. and 6 p.m.; also despatches to Aberdeen, Dundee, Glasgow, and the West at 6 p.m., and to St. David's, by foot messenger, at 10 a.m. Money Order Office, Savings' Bank, and Telegraph Office.

Post Office, North Queensferry, Elizabeth Ross, postmistress.—Letters from all parts arrive (from Edinburgh) at 9 a.m., and are despatched thereto at 4.15 p.m. Letters arrive from Dunfermline at 4.15 p.m., and are despatched thereto at 9.15 a.m. Money Order, Savings' Bank, and Telegraph Office.

Post Office, Crossgates, Archibald McNell, postmaster.—Letters from all parts arrive (from Edinburgh) at 9 a.m., and from Dunfermline at 9 a.m. and 4.50 p.m., and are despatched to Edinburgh at 4.15 p.m., and to Dunfermline at 8.10 a.m. and 6.10 p.m. Money Order Office, Savings' Bank, and Telegraph Office.

Post Office, Hillend, Ann Mackenzie, postmistress.—Letters from all parts arrive (from Inverkeithing) at 10.40 a.m., and are despatched thereto at 2.5 p.m.

The nearest Money Order Office is at Inverkeithing. Letters for the above places (Hillend excepted) should be addressed near Dunfermline, Fifeshire, and for Hillend, near Inverkeithing.

KETTLE,

LADYBANK, CULTS, COLLESSIE, BALMALCOLM, AND PITLESSIE.

KETTLE is a parish and village in the county of Fifeshire, seven miles from Cupar, five from Archtermuchty, one mile from Ladybank, its post town, and is a station on the North British Railway. The village is well supplied with gas, the works of the company being half-a-mile distant, which also supplies Ladybank. The principal branches of trade carried on here are the manufacture of linen and reed and cabb making. The parish church, which was erected in 1832, is a handsome building with a square tower; there is also a United Presbyterian church. The hamlet of Balmalcolm is about half-a-mile from the village.

CULTS is a parish situated about three miles from Ladybank, and two from Kettle, being one mile and a half broad, and two and half a long. Coal and lime freestone abound in the parish, which is well cultivated. Crawford Priory, the seat of Lord Glasgow, is in this district.

PITLESSIE is a small village in the parish of Cults, situated on the road between Cupar and Kirkcaldy, two miles from Kettle, three from Ladybank, and five from Cupar. Weaving is the principal occupation of the inhabitants. There is an established Church, also a board school.

COLLESSIE is a parish eight miles in length and five in breadth; it is three miles from Ladybank, and six from Cupar, lying to the north of the parish of Kettle. The North British Railway has a station here. The parish church is a neat building; there is also a board school.

LADYBANK is a village in the parish of Collessie, and is the post town for this part of the county, being a junction on the North British Railway. The principal trade of the town is the manufacture of linen and making. The Free Church, which was opened in April, 1876, is a handsome building, and will seat 500 people; there is also a board school. The hamlet of Giffordtown is about a mile from the village.

Post Office, Ladybank, James Crombie, postmaster.

KILCONQUAR,
BARNYARDS, EARLSFERRY, COLINSBURGH, AND ELIE.

KILCONQUAR is a parish situated on the shore of the Firth of Forth, in the county of Fife, and is a station on the Leven and East of Fife Railway. It is bounded on the West by Newburn and Largo, on the north by Ceres and Cameron, on the east by Carnbee and on the south by Elie and the Firth of Forth. Balcarres, the residence of Sir Colin and Lady Balfour, is a beautiful mansion, the gardens of which are said to be the finest in Fifeshire. There are other elegant seats in the district. Kilmelon lock, near the village, is worthy of notice, it is nearly one mile in length and in the same breadth. The Established Church is a substantial building situated in the centre of the village. There is also a good board school. Pairs are held here on the 14th of May and the 5th of November. This parish contains four villages, namely, Kilmelon, Barnyards, Colinsburgh, and Earlsferry.

EARLSFERRY is a royal burgh about five miles from Largo, three from Colinsburgh, and two from Kilmelon, and is governed by a chief magistrate, one bailie, a treasurer, and seven councillors. In 1872 a handsome town hall was erected in the burgh. The village is much resorted to in the summer months on account of its excellent sea bathing. The principal business carried on here is handloom weaving.

COLINSBURGH is a village one mile and a quarter from Kilmelon, and two and a-half from Elie. There is a branch of the Commercial Bank of Scotland, a good hotel, and several well-stocked shops. The places of worship are the Parish Church and one for United Presbyterians at Kilmelon.

ELIE is a small parish, containing the village of its own name. Its length is about two miles, and breadth one mile. It is 5 miles from Largo, 4 from Pittenweem, 2½ from Colinsburgh, and 1½ from Kilmelon. A little to the north of the village is Elie House, the residence of William Baird, Esq. The Leven and East of Fife line of railway have a station here. The General Police Act for Scotland is adopted here, to which is annexed Liberty and Williamsburgh. It is governed by a chief magistrate, two bailies, and three commissioners. The harbour is good, having a good depth of water. The beach is sandy and well suited for bathers. There are a good many substantial residences fronting the sea. At the west of the village is newly erected a Golf Club House, one of the best of its kind in the county. The places of worship are the Parish Church, a Free Church, and an Independent Chapel. A handsome public school and teachers house attached, also an infants school. The subscription library in the village contains upwards of 3,000 volumes and is open daily. The trade of the place is principally confined to the export of grain and potatoes as also fishing. There is a branch of the National Bank of Scotland here, and also a Savings' Bank.

Post Office, Kilconquhar, Alexander Wilkie, postmaster.—Letters from all parts arrive (from Colinsburgh) at 9 a.m., and from Leven and Largo at 6.15 p.m., and are despatched thereto at 6.25 a.m. and 4 p.m., Nearest Money Order Office is Colinsburgh. IN THE PARISH OF ELIE.

KINGHORN

Is a town and parish situated in the county of Fife, on the side of a hill sloping to the Frith of Forth, and on the Edinburgh, Perth, and Dundee branch of the north British Railway, 21 miles from Edinburgh and 3 from Kirkcaldy. The only trade of any importance carried on here are flax spinning, glue manufacturing, and iron ship building. The town consists of one main street, from which several smaller ones diverge. It is governed by a provost, two bailies, a dean of guild, a treasurer, and six councilors. An elegant edifice answers the purpose of town house and gaol. The courts formerly held here are now transferred to Kirkcaldy. The town, in conjunction with those of Dysart, Kirkcaldy, and Burntisland, returns one member to parliament. The harbour has fallen to decay, and the nearest now is about half a mile distant, at Petty-Cur, which for many years was the ferry-place for Edinburgh, now transferred to Burntisland. The island of Inchkeith, distant about three miles from Petty-Cur, has the appearance of a barren rock; on visiting it, however, both arable and pasture land are discovered. It also contains a small harbour and light-house, for the security of vessels sailing up the Frith. The places of worship are a church of the Establishment, a Free Church, and an United Presbyterian Chapel; and there is also a public school.

Post Office, High-street, Thomas Henderson, postmaster. Letters from all parts arrive (from Edinburgh) at 8 a.m., 11 a.m., and 5.30 p.m., and are despatched thereto at 8 a.m. and 5.30 p.m. Letters from Kirkcaldy arrive at 8.30 a.m. and 6 p.m., and are despatched thereto at 7.20 a.m. and 5 p.m. Money Order Office, Telegraph, and Savings' Bank.

KIRKCALDY,

AUCHTERTOOL, PATH-HEAD, SINCLAIRTOWN, AND GALLATOWN.

KIRKCALDY is a royal burgh, seaport, and market town, situated on the south coast of Fife and on the north shore of the Firth of Forth, 33 miles S.W. from Dundee and 14 N. from Edinburgh, and is a station on the North British Railway. The civic government of the town is confined to a provost, two bailies, a dean of guild, and a treasurers; the council consists of twenty-one members, but, owing to the passing of a Bill introduced this session for the purpose of extending the boundaries so as to include the Burgh of Abbotshall and the districts of Pathhead, Sinclairstown, and Gallatown, the future council will consist of twenty-seven members—one from each of these wards—and the number of magistrates will be increased to one provost, four bailies, one treasurer, and one dean of guild. The population of the extended burgh will be about 25,000. The burgh is connected with Kinghorn, Dysart, and Burntisland by sending one member to parliament; the present member is Sir George Campbell. The chief magistrate is provost and admiral of the port, and is assisted by assessors of admiralty. There is also a board of harbour commissioners, of which the provost is chairman. The paving, cleaning, and lighting is under the management of the town council. The town comprises numerous well-built streets and detached dwellings, and when viewed from the heights presents a very picturesque appearance, embracing the town and landscape beneath and around. When viewed from the sea it bears an equally picturesque appearance, being surrounded by finely enclosed fields and the beautiful grounds and conspicuous tower of Raith, and the grounds surrounding the elegant mansion of Dunnikier. The principal trade of the town and neighbourhood consists of flax spinning and the manufacture of ticks, checks, sail cloth, &c., which is extensively carried on by both power and hand looms. The other principal branches of industry comprise bleaching and dye works, the manufacture of earthenware, floor cloths, machine making, iron founding, rope and twine manufacture, &c. There are numerous well-stocked shops, which will compare favourably with those of much greater magnitude, and there are four good hotels. The streets are well paved and lighted with gas. The Bank of Scotland, the British Linen Company, the City of Glasgow, the Commercial Bank of Scotland, the National Bank of Scotland, and the Union Bank of Scotland have each branches here. The town is well supplied with water. The gathering ground of the water works is situated on the south slope of the Lomond Hills, about 2,000 acres in extent, principally of hill pasture, and at an average elevation of 1,000 feet above the level of the sea. The water is stored in two large reservoirs, covering an area of 140 acres, and varying in depth from one to 26 feet. The quantity of water stored in these reservoirs when full is 220 millions gallons. Ballo reservoir—the largest of the two—is capable of holding 911 millions cubic feet. As the water in the Galloway reservoir is of a peaty nature the water is mostly used for compensation purposes, the maximum quantity of which must be 750 gallons per minute. Where the stream (from which most of the water is taken) begins to enter into the mossy bed, the clean water is separated from the dirty by means of a selfacting apparatus, and carried for about 13 miles in a pipe into the other reservoir—Drumain. From this the water is led into the filter-beds, and after passing through these, carried by means of cast iron pipes to the distributing reservoir, which is about four miles from the extreme end of the water district. This reservoir holds 11 millions of gallons, or 2 days supply with the present consumption, but only 1½ days supply should the town increase so much as to require the maximum quantity. The present population supplied with water within the limits of compulsory supply is 23,000, but in addition to this Wemyss Castle and village of Wemyss are supplied, at a fixed rate per thousand gallons consumed. The total length of the distributing pipes is about 15 miles, and these are large enough to supply double the quantity of water required, thus allowing for any sudden emergency, as in case of fire. Private houses are supplied with water without any additional charge over and above the domestic rate, which of course varies according to the circumstances. Mills and other public works are supplied (by meter) at a fixed rate per thousand gallons. The outlay for building, land and other necessary purposes has been about £55,000, the interest of which is raised by means of an assessment on the annual value of all property within the limits of compulsory supply. The works were authorised to be made by an Act passed in July 1867, begun in 1868, and finished in about 15 months after they were commenced, Provost Swan being chairman and John Sang, Kirkcaldy, engineer. The number of vessels belonging to the port is 26, with an aggregate tonnage of 3,110. A branch from the main line of railway traverses the entire length of the harbour—a great convenience to operations of loading and unloading vessels. The harbour is almost dry at low water, but at full tide is capable of admitting vessels of large burden. This port is the seat of a custom house having control over about 60 miles, extending from Donny Point to Fife Ness. The number of vessels inward from foreign parts for the year ending March 1876 was 918; outward foreign parts, 1,534; coasting trade, same period, inward, 2,602; and outward, 1,476. The revenue of the port for the year ending March 1883 was £291,082, for the year ending March 1876 £234,290. The sheriff holds a circuit court on the first Tuesday in each month, under the Small Debts Act. The justices of the peace sit when necessary for adjudicating claims under other pecuniary acts. The union poor-house, which is the joint property of the parishes of Kirkcaldy, Abbotshall, Burntisland, and Kinghorn, was erected in 1845, and opened for the reception of inmates in May 1850. The cost of the building was upwards of £5,000. It is beautifully situated on the lands of Abden, in the parish of Kinghorn, commanding an extensive view of the Firth of Forth, and is capable of accommodating about 150 paupers. The Corn Exchange is situated in Cowan-street. The first stone of this building was laid with masonic honours in May 1856. The parish church, which is a structure of considerable size, stands on an eminence above the town; the other places of worship are a Free church, two United Presbyterian churches, and Episcopal Church, Baptist, Independent, and a Roman Catholic chapel. The principal educational establishments besides the parochial or burgh school is Philip's Institution for instructing children of both sexes, selected from among those of the poorest inhabitants; in connection with this charity there are schools at Pathhead, Abbotshall, and Kinghorn.
The property bequeathed by Mr. Philip for erecting and sustaining schools in these places is estimated at nearly £70,000. The pupils are admitted between the ages of six and fifteen, and are taught only the plainest elementary branches; thirty shillings per annum is allowed for clothing each pupil. The Institution was erected in 1841. The East Kirkcaldy Public School, which is now (1876) near completion, will accommodate 500 pupils. It is situated on the high ground at the top of Maryhall-street and Glebe Park-street, and contains two principal rooms, five class rooms, a board room, master’s or master’s room, and mistresses’ room; large shelter sheds and enclosed play grounds, with parapet and railings. The architecture is in the English style, with mullioned windows, having a circular entrance at girls’ and a square belfry at boys’, with slated pointed roof and east terminal gilded. The teachers and junior’s residences occupy the south side of the ground, surrounded with gardens and enclosed with parapet and railing to match the school, with which they form a picturesque group, at a total cost of about £13,000 sterling. The architect is Mr. John Milne, of St. Andrews, the patentee of the pyro-pneumatic room grate, with which these buildings are being fitted for warming and ventilation. These Schools are finished and opened. There are also board schools in course of erection in Milton-road, which will give accommodation to about 500 children on the same standard. It is a rather plainer building than the one in Glebe Park-street, and is estimated to cost £5,000, including houses and offices. There is also a charitable trust by John Thomson, for educating poor children and for annuities for the support of poor inhabitants. There are also several private seminaries for the education of the wealthier classes. There is a working men’s club and reading room, and a subscription library, and three advertising newspapers are published every Saturday. The market, which is a stock market for the sale of grain, and is the most important in the county, is held on Saturday. The only place for outdoor recreation and amusement is the Dunnikier Athletic Grounds, situated about 200 yards east from the Railway Station, covering an area of four acres, and contains hot and cold baths, full-sized bowling alleys, long shooting range, pedestrian and tennis grounds, quoiting links, skittle, cricket, bowling, and croquet grounds, skating and curling ponds, and all kinds of gymnastic apparatus.

ABOTSHALL is a parish and almost an integral part of Kirkcaldy, the principal street, called the Links, running in a direct line with the high street of Kirkcaldy. The trade and manufacture are of the same character as those of Kirkcaldy. The places of worship are Established and Free churches.

AUCHTERTOOL is a parish and village, situated in the midst of a beautiful landscape. It is 7 miles long and 1/2 broad. With the exception of a distillery and a coal and iron works, agriculture is the chief pursuit of the inhabitants. There is an Established church and a board and endowed school in the parish.

PATHHEAD is a village in the parish of Dysart, situated on the face of a hill, looking towards the Firth of Forth, and extending near to the town of Kirkcaldy. Gallatown and Sinclairburn are also in the same parish. The trade of these places is similar to that of Kirkcaldy, viz., the manufacture of linen goods, doilies, ticks, sheetings, flax spinning, &c. The places of worship are an Established and Free churches and a meeting house for Baptists. There is a commodious school, erected some years ago by the trustees of the late Robert Philp, Esq., and a public school.

LARGO

(UPPER AND NETHER), AND LUNDIN MILL, WITH THE PARISH OF NEWBURN.

LARGO is a parish nearly four miles and a-half in length and three in breadth. It is situated on the shore of the Firth of Forth in the county of Fife, and is distant 11 miles from St. Andrews, 9 from Cupar, 5 from Elie, and 3 from Leven. The parish contains the villages of Upper and Nether Largo and Lundin Mill. The most striking feature in this district is Largo Law, a conical hill which is upwards of 900 feet above the level of the sea, from the top of which a splendid view can be obtained of the Firth of Forth, the Lothians and the surrounding country. In the small village of Upper Largo stands the parish church an ancient edifice with a spire. The Leven and East of Fife Railway passes at a distance of one mile from the village of Upper Largo, and through the village of Nether Largo, where there is a station. There is a hospital here, founded in 1659, the present building being in the Gothic style, which is very handsome and was erected in 1832. There is large garden ground attached, it is supported by means of an endowment by a Mr. John Wood, a native of the place, and is solely for the benefit and support of 13 poor persons and 6 scholars to be maintained and educated at the school at Newburn. Any man of the name of Wood may get admission here, to whatever part of Scotland he may belong. The National Bank of Scotland and a Savings' Bank are established here. Both Upper and Nether Largo attract a great number of visitors in the bathing season. There is a market held here every Thursday.

NETHER LARGO is a fishing village, one mile from Upper Largo and has a good and safe bay where vessels may take shelter in stormy weather. There is an extensive herring net factory here which employs a considerable number of women. The proprietors residence, a very handsome villa, adjoins the works.
LUNDBEN MILL is a village one mile west of Nether Largo. The weaving of linen is the principal employment for its inhabitants. There is a considerable number of handsome villas at Lundin Links which are let out to families in the bathing season. It has a good temperance hotel where horses and carriages can be got on hire.

NEWBURN is a parish two miles east of Largo. Its length is about three miles and its breadth about a mile and a half. This is quite a rural parish and its inhabitants are wholly engaged in agricultural employment.

Post Office, Upper Largo, John Marr, postmaster. Letters from all parts arrive at 9 a.m. and 7 p.m., and are despatched at 4 and 10 p.m. Money Order Office, Post Office Savings’ Bank and Telegraph Office.

Letters for Newburn and Lundin Mill should be addressed near Largo, Fife-shire, and for Largo should be addressed Fife-shire.

LESLEI, WITH THE PARISH OF KINGLASSIE.

LESLEY is a parish in the county of Fife, upwards of four miles in length and three in breadth, situated on the public road, up the vale of Leven, leading into Kinross-shire. It is distant nine miles N.W. from Kirkcaldy, three from Markinch, twelve miles S.W. from Cupar, and the same distance east from Kinross, and is a station on the Edinburgh, Perth, and Dundee branch of the North British Railway. The town consists principally of one street, running from east to west, and several smaller ones, which are very irregular, the houses being of very ancient date. Many improvements have been made in the burgh within the last thirty years, and during that period its size has been nearly doubled. This increase is attributable to the prosperity of its manufactures, consisting of linens, flax spinning, floor cloths, paper making, and bleaching; the works of Messrs. John Fergus & Co. finding employment for a large number of hands. There are also several very good drapery and grocery establishments, and two hotels. There is also a library established under the title of the “Lesley Institute Library.” A branch of the Union Bank of Scotland was opened here in 1850, and there is a National Security Savings’ Bank. Leslie is governed by the police commissioners, consisting of chairman, clerk, and two bailies. The places of worship are the Parish church, a Free church, and two Presbyterian churches; there are also two public schools in the parish. Fairs are held on the first Tuesday after the 11th of April, and on the first Friday in October. The April fair is considered to be one of the largest in the county of Fife. Prinlows is in this parish.

KINGLASSIE is a parish four miles long and two broad, is bounded on the east by Markinch, on the west by Portmout, on the south by Auchterderran, and on the north by Leslie. The village is 2 miles from Leslie and 34 N.E. from Lochgelly. The inhabitants are chiefly employed in agriculture and the linen and coal trades. The places of worship are an Established and a Free church. A fair is entitled to be held on the third Wednesday in May, and on the Thursday before Michaelmas (old style).

LEVEN,
IN THE PARISH OF SOONIE, WITH INNERLEVEN.

LEVEN is a town in the parish of Soone, 9 miles from Kirkcaldy, 4 from Wemyss, and 3 from Largo. It is situated on the east coast of the Firth of Forth, at the mouth of the river Leven, from which it derives its name. The town consists of several good streets, which are thoroughly drained, well lighted with gas, and supplied with very good water. It is a burgh and barony, and has one senior and two junior magistrates. The purposes of lighting, cleansing, and water are carried out by commissioners under the General Police Act for Scotland, and the sheriff holds a small debt circuit court here quarterly. A branch railway from Thornton Station, on the Edinburgh, Perth, and Dundee section of the North British Railway, gives the town the benefit and facility for that mode of transit; this branch railway extends to Anstruther. The town has also the benefit of a harbour, for which an act of parliament was obtained on the 24th of July, 1876, for the improvement of the same and to authorise the construction of a wet dock and other works; the probable cost of the alterations is estimated at £33,000, and is expected to be finished in three years. The principal imports are flax, tow, grain, and timber. The town is greatly improved and its trade augmented, so that it may now be called one of the most thriving of the small towns in the county. The staple trade is the preparation and spinning of flax, the weaving of linen, and seed crushing; the mills of the former employing a large number of hands. The Dour Ironfoundry, a concern long established, is very extensive, and produces specimens of work that may compete with any of a similar kind in Scotland. Messrs. Henry Balfour & Co., the proprietors, manufacture both for the home trade and exportation. Close to the town are the Haskelow works of Messrs. Small & Boase, hemp spinners, employing about 400 hands. A bone dust mill, corn mills, bleach fields, the manufacture of bricks, tiles, ochre, and salt, and rope making are the other branches of work carried on in the vicinity. The West of Fife Coal Co., of Kelty and Blairadam, have leased the eastern portion of the coal seam in the Wemyss estate in this neighbourhood, and boring operations are shortly to be commenced; this, with the harbour improvements, will greatly increase the trade of Leven. There are three branch banking houses and several fire and life agency offices. The Caledonian Hotel, to which a large posting establishment is added, affords superior accommodation to families, tourists, or commercial travellers. A number of elegant villas are situated a little to the east of the town, and several handsome mansions are in the neighbourhood. There are also a number of handsome houses and cottages on the Links, at the south of the town, where there are some fine open downs, on which several golfing societies exercise in that healthy amusement, and annually play for gold and silver medals. In the summer time many of the inhabitants let their houses for the season, Leven being the resort of a number of respectable families from Edinburgh and the interior for the benefit of sea bathing. A handsome stone bridge crosses the Leven, connecting the town with the village of Innerleven.

SCONIE.—The parish of Sconie is bounded by the Firth of Forth on the south, by Wemyys, Markinch, Kenmoway, and Kettle on the west, by Ceres on the north, and by Largo on the east. Its length from north to south is 5 miles, and its greatest breadth 24 miles; the surface rises inland from the shore to an elevation of about 600 feet, and there are several heights which command an extensive view of the Firth and the Lothians. The land generally is in a high state of cultivation. The minerals are ochre, coal, and ironstone. It contains the town of Leven, which is a burgh and barony. The parish church stands close to the town; a Free church, an United Presbyterian and Episcopal chapels are also the places of worship. There are two public schools and an infant school. Fairs are held on the second Wednesday in April, the Thursday (market) after first Wednesday in July, and the third Wednesday in October.

Post Office, Bank-street, Stephen Youden, postmaster.—Letters from Edinburgh, and the South, Northern, East, and Buckhaven arrive at 8.30 a.m., 12 noon, and 6.30 p.m., and are despatched to Edinburgh, the South, and North at 7 a.m., 1.30 p.m., and 4.15 p.m.; to the East of Fife at 8 a.m., 11.30 a.m., and 5.30 p.m. Money Order Office, Telegraph, and Savings’ Bank.

LIMEKILNS, BRUCEHAVEN, AND CHARLESTOWN.

LIMEKILNS with Brucehaven, in the parish of Dunfermline, is a small seaport in the county of Fife, situated on the north bank of the Firth of Forth. At one period it was a place of considerable trade, but the harbour is now used only for the mooring of vessels. Shipbuilding is carried on at Brucehaven shipyard, and several owners of vessels employed in the coasting trade are resident here. There is a congregation of United Presbyterians.

CHARLESTOWN is a village a short distance from Limekilns, and also in the parish of Dunfermline. It is the property of the Earl of Elgin, who formed a commodious harbour and extensive line works in the vicinity, enormous quantities of which are exported annually; it is likewise the shipping port for several of the adjacent colliers. The accommodation found at the harbour here, for loading and unloading vessels, is most excellent. An iron foundry, a steam saw mill and timber yard, are among the other businesses of this flourishing little place.

LOCHGELLY,
WITH AUCHTERDERRAN, BEATH, BALLINGRY, CARDENDEN, COWDENBEATH, KELLY, AND LASSODIE.

LOCHGELLY is an important village in the parish of Auchterderran, eight miles distant from Kinross, Kirkcaldy, and Dunfermline. The Stirling and Dunfermline branch of the North British Railway have a station three quarters of a mile from the village. There is a branch of the Union Bank of Scotland and an hotel. The inhabitants are chiefly employed in the neighbouring collieries; and the place is well lighted with gas. The places of worship are a \textit{Quoad Sacra} and a Free Church, an United Presbyterian Chapel, and one for Roman Catholics in course of erection. There are also two board schools.

\textbf{AUCHTERDERRAN} is a parish in the western part of the county, bounded by Bath, Ballingry, Abbotshall, Auchtertool, and Kinglassie. There is a church of the Establishment and a board school at the hamlet of Auchterderran.

\textbf{CARDENDEN} is a small village in the parish of Auchterderran, and about two miles from Lochgelly. It is a station on the Stirling and Dunfermline branch of the North British Railway.

\textbf{BEATH} is a parish containing the villages of Cowdenbeath, Kelly, and Lassodie, and is bounded by Dunfermline, Ballingry, Auchterderran, Cleish, Aberdour, and Dalgetty. Several collieries are in active operation, and give employment to most of the inhabitants.

\textbf{COWDENBEATH} is a large village in the above parish, consisting chiefly of one long street, and is lighted with gas. There is a station here, on the Stirling and Dunfermline branch of the North British Railway. There is a Free church and a board school in the village. The Fife Coal Co.'s works are situated here, and afford employment to a large portion of the inhabitants.

\textbf{LASSODIE} is also a small village in Beath parish. There is a Free church and board school here. There are several collieries in the district.

\textbf{BALLINGRY} is a parish and small village, the latter situated about three miles from Lochgelly, its post town. There is a church of the Establishment and a board school here; and several large collieries in the neighbourhood. Lumphinians is a small mining village in the same parish.

Post Office, Lochgelly, James Bethune, postmaster.

- Letters arrive from Edinburgh, and the South, and Perth, Dundee, and the North at 8.45 a.m. and 6.30 p.m., and are despatched to these places at 6.45 a.m. and 4.29 p.m. Letters from Dunfermline arrive at 7.25 a.m. and 5.10 p.m., and are despatched thereto at 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Money Order and Postal Telegraph Office and Savings' Bank.

- Post Office, Cowdenbeath, James Melkile, postmaster. Letters arrive from all parts (from Lochgelly), at 8.30 a.m. and 7.40 p.m., and are despatched thereto at 3.20 p.m. and 8 p.m. Nearest Money Order Offices at Lochgelly and Crossgates.

MARKINCH.
KENNOWAY, BAINTEOWN, BONNYBANK, COALTOWN (OR COALTOWN OF BALGONIE), MILTON (OR MILTON OF BALGONIE), STAR, THORNTON, AND WINDYGATES.

MARKINCH is a parish 5½ miles in length and 2 miles in breadth, and is bounded by the parishes of Kennoway, Soonomie, and Wemyss on the east, Dysart on the south, Kinglassie, Leslie, and Falkland on the west, and Kennoway on the north. A small section containing the village of Innerleven (or Dubbieside), at the mouth of the Leven, is cut off from the rest of the parish by that of Wemyss. The Edinburgh, Perth, and Dundee Railway have a station in the parish, and there is also a branch line which connects this place with Leslie. Flax spinning and the manufactures of linen and woollen are carried on extensively. There are also corn and paper mills, and in the village is a branch of the Commercial Bank of Scotland. There is a church of the Establishment here, also a Free church, and one for United Presbyterians. A new public school is now (1876) in course of erection. Thornton, Windygates, Coal-town of Balgonie, and Milton of Balgonie are village in this parish. Close to Windygates is Cameron Bridge, a station on the Leven and East of Fife Railway.

KENNOWAY parish, which contains the villages of Kennoway, Baintown, Bonnybank, and Star, is situated on an Escarpment which rises from south to north, and commands a beautiful prospect of the Firth of Forth and the Lothians on the south side, the view extending on the north side over the greater part of the counties of Fife, Angus, and Perth; and also the Grampian hills. The chief occupation of the inhabitants is agriculture. There is a church of the Establishment, a Free church, and a chapel for United Presbyterians in the parish; also two public schools.

THORNTON is a village situated at the south-east extremity of the parish of Markinch, and is a station on the Edinburgh, Perth, and Dundee section of the North British and the Leven and East of Fife Railway. The Dysart Combination Poor House is situated here; it is a handsome stone building, and will accommodate 130 of the poor of the surrounding parishes. There is an Established church and a board school.

NEWBURGH,

ABDIE, DUNBOG, FLISK, GLENBURNIE, GRANGE, AND LINDORES.

NEWBURGH is a parish, burgh, and seaport, situated on the south bank of the River Tay, and in the County of Fife, six miles from Auchterarder, 11 from Perth, 15 from Dundee, 10 from Cupar, and is a station on the Edinburgh, Perth, and Dundee Lines of the North British Railway. It consists of one long street, parallel with the River Tay, and a few lanes leading to the shore and the railway station. The government of the town is vested in a provost, bailies, and councillors. The manufacture of linen goods was at one time carried on very extensively. At present there are five firms engaged in this branch (all hand loom), but not to any great extent, as at present the demand for the kind of goods manufactured here is very limited. Considerable quantities of timber, slate, grain, potatoes, coal, salt, artificial manures, pavement, &c., are imported and exported. At the harbour there are four quays, all belonging to different proprietors. The dues are the same, viz., one penny per register ton on all vessels discharging, loading, or ballasting. The receiver also pays one penny per ton. Passenger steamers ply between Dundee and Perth, calling at Newburgh, about three times daily, from May to October. Newburgh is celebrated for its fruit, especially pears and plums. It is said the sale of fruit in a good season realises several thousand pounds. The Town Hall stands near the centre of the town, and has a tower containing a clock. There are two banking establishments, the Bank of Scotland and the Commercial Bank of Scotland, also a Savings' Bank in connection with the latter, and the Post Office Savings' Bank. There is a Public Library containing about 2,000 volumes, and a Church Library. The places of worship comprise a Church of the Establishment, a Free Church, a United Presbyterian, The Evangelical Union, and a Baptist Church. There is an excellent Board School at the east end of the town. Fairs are held on the third Friday in June, and on the first Tuesday in December for hiring servants.

ABDIE parish adjoins Newburgh, commencing about half a mile from the town, and extends several miles, and contains the small villages of Glenburnie, Grange, and Lindores; here is the Loch of Lindores.

DUNBOG is a parish situated four miles from Newburgh, and six miles from Cupar, bounded by the Tay, Monimail, and the parishes of Fisk and Abdie. It contains a Parish Church and a Board School.

FLISK is a parish six miles east from Newburgh, and eight miles from Cupar. It is bounded by the Tay, and the parishes of Crief, Abdie, Balmerino, and Dunbog. The parish is very small, consisting chiefly of farms. There is a church and a Board School.

NEWPORT, BALMERINO, FORGAN, AND WOODHAVEN.

NEWPORT is a large village in the parish of Forgan, on the south bank of the Tay, and immediately opposite Dundee, in the county of Fife. It consists of several good streets and many beautiful terraces, places, and villas. This place has greatly increased of late years, owing to so many of the Dundee merchants, tradesmen, clerks, &c., making their place of abode. Situated as it is on rising ground it affords delightful views of the Tay, Dundee, Broughty Ferry, and the parks, mansions, &c., on the opposite shore. It is lighted with gas. Contains a church of the Establishment, a Free, and an Independent church. There is also an excellent board school and several private schools. Steamers ply between Newport and Dundee about every hour from early morning until late at night. There is an hotel here.

FORGAN is a parish and village. The latter (very small), containing the parish church and board school, is about a mile from Newport. The parish is entirely agricultural, and is about four miles in length and two in breadth. Newport is in this parish. Woodhaven is a small hamlet in Forgan parish, one mile from Newport.

BALMERINO is an agricultural parish, about four miles from Newport, on the south bank of the Tay. It contains the small villages of Balmerino and Gauldy, Established and Free churches, and a board school.

PITFENWEEM, ABERCROMBIE, ARNCROACH, CARNBEE, OVENSTONE, AND ST. MONANCE.

PITFENWEEM is a royal burgh, seaport, and parish, 24 miles N.N.E. from Edinburgh, 21 from Kirkcaldy, 25 S.S.W. from Crail, 11 S. from St. Andrews, 29 from Kilconquhar, one from Anstruther, 5 from Edinburgh, and 27 from Burtisland. It is bounded by Wester Balmerino, the Firth of Forth, Kilconquhar and St. Monance, and is on the East of Fife Railway, which line joins the North British main line at Thornton Junction. The town consists of about half a dozen streets, the appearance of which has of late years been much improved, owing to new encroachments and improvements. The burgh is governed by a provost, two bailies, eight councillors and a treasurer, who hold courts in the Town Hall when necessary. Pittenweem with Capar, St. Andrews, the Anstruthers, Crail, and Kilrenny send one member to parliament. The Town Hall is a good building, the large room of which is well adapted for meetings, balls, theatrical performances, &c., for which purposes it is let as required. The Freemasons also hold their meetings in it. The harbour is spacious and well protected, and the fishing is vigorously prosecuted by a large fleet of full sized fishing boats, which are as a rule manned by seven men, including the captain. The owner or owners of each boat contribute a certain sum towards the expense of the harbour. Fish curing is extensively carried on, and large quantities of wet fish are despatched to all the principal markets in Scotland and England. Brick making and boat building is carried on to some extent. There are two branch banks, a Savings' Bank, and a Post Office Savings' Bank in the town. Besides the Church of the Establishment (or Parish Church), there is one each for Presbyterians and Episcopalians. There are also two Board Schools.

ST. MONANCE (or St. Monans) is a parish about two miles from Pittenweem, on the coast. It is bounded by Carnbee, the Frith of Forth, Pittenweem, and Elie and Kilconquhar. The village is large, and has a good harbour, and fishing is extensively carried on. There are 95 fishing boats, mostly of large size; each boat is manned with six hands and a skipper (or captain), the latter owning the boat as a rule. The owner or owners pay a pound for each boat in the herring fishing season, and sixpence weekly for each man (or 3s. per boat) during the rest of the year, and this goes towards the harbour expenses. St. Monance is a burgh of barony, governed by a chief magistrate, two bailies, twelve councillors, and a treasurer, who change every year if not re-elected. Fish curing and boat building is rather extensively carried on. There is a Parish Church and a Free Church and two Board Schools in the village. Abercrombie is a hamlet in this parish.

CARNBEE is a parish and village three miles from Pittenweem. The parish also contains the village of Arncroach and the hamlet of Ovenstone. At the former there are a few retail shops, and at the latter a millwrights and a smiths shop. Kellie and Balcomrie Colleries are also in this parish; likewise a Church of the Establishment, and two Board Schools. A ridge of hills run through the parish, the highest of which is Kellie Law, having an altitude of 800 feet above the level of the sea.

Post Office, High-street, Pittenweem, Jas. Christie, postmaster—Letters arrive from all parts at 3.15 a.m. and 7.5 p.m.; from Edinburgh, &c., at 12.50 p.m., and are despatched to all parts at 6.10 a.m. and 3.50 p.m., and to the South at 12.5 p.m. Money Order and Telegraph Office and Savings' Bank. Local Posts to Carnbee, Arncroach, Anstruther, Crail, &c., at 8.58 a.m. and to Anstruther, Crail, &c., at 6.38 p.m.

Post Office, St. Monance, John Ferguson, postmaster—Letters from all parts arrive at 9 a.m., 12.30 p.m., and 7 p.m., and are despatched at 6.15 a.m., 12 noon, and 4 p.m. Money Order Office, Savings' Bank, and Telegraph Office.

Post Office, Carnbee, William Grubb, postmaster—Letters from all parts arrive at 1 p.m., and are despatched at 1.30 p.m. Nearest Money Order Office is at Pittenweem, three miles distant.

ST. ANDREWS,

BALMULLO, BOARHILLS, CAMERON, DENHEAD, DENINO, GUARD BRIDGE, KINCAPLE, LATHONES, LEUCHARS, PEAT INN, RADERNIE, ST. LEONARDS, AND STRATHKINNESS.

ST. ANDREWS is a city, royal burgh, and seaport, situated on a rocky ridge, overlooking a spacious bay, 39 miles N.N.E. of Edinburgh, 10 miles from Anstruther and Cupar, and about six from Leuchars and Crail; it is bounded by the Eden and Bay of St. Andrews on the north, by Kincardines and the St. Leonards on the east, by Denino, Cameron, and Ceres on the south, and by Kombake and Leuchars on the west, and is a station on the Edinburgh, Perth, and Dundee Section of the North British Railway. The city is governed by a provost, dean of guild, four bailies, twenty-nine councillors and a treasurer. The burgh unites with Cupar, Anstruther, Kirkcarny, Crail, and Pittenweem in returning one member to parliament. It was constituted a royal burgh by David I., in 1140, and was probably the most populous city in Scotland before the Reformation, but has greatly declined in size since that era. The charter which was conferred by David I. was confirmed by Malcolm II., the unfortunate monarch who was slain in Glanis Castle in 1094. The charter, silver keys of the city, and the axe which was used for the decapitation of Sir Robert Spottiswoode and some other royalists are still to be seen in the town house. In 1559 the Cathedral, a splendid Gothic structure, was destroyed by a mob excited by the impassioned eloquence of the great reformer, John Knox. Near its ruins is a lofty square erection called the Tower of St. Regulus, from the top of which may be obtained magnificent views of the surrounding country, the city, the bay, and the Bell Rock. The tower is supposed to be upwards of 1,000 years old. On the shore is a small eminence called the Witch Hill, where those convicted of witchcraft suffered, near to which is a monument erected to the memory of the martyrs, Patrick Hamilton, George Wishart, and Walter Mill. This obelisk, erected in 1842, is forty-five feet in height. St. Andrews has ever been regarded as a place of importance in the history of Scotland, and at one time was the ecclesiastical capital of the kingdom. It will always possess great attraction to the antiquary, the historian, and the tourist abounding as it does with objects of interest on every hand. Its sacred edifices, scholastic institutions, and numerous ancient relics give St. Andrews a name and a fame which few places can boast. One of the most interesting relics of this city is the ancient wall, which runs along the south side of the town, near to the old Cathedral and tower of St. Regulus. It has fourteen round and square towers, each having a niche on the outside for a saint, and was erected by Prior John Hepburn, in the year 1516. The University of St. Andrews was founded by Bishop Wardlaw, in 1411, and is the oldest in Scotland. In the 16th century it included three distinct colleges, St. Salvator's, St. Leonard's, and the College of St. Salvator was erected by Bishop Kennedy, in 1456, St. Leonard's in 1512, and St. Mary's in 1447. The two first named were united in 1747. The University library contains about 100,000 printed volumes, and a great number MSS. The museum contains an interesting collection of objects of antiquity, and specimens illustrating the natural history of the district. The Madras College is a modern institution; the foundation stone was laid on the 9th April, 1832. This noble institution was founded and endowed by Dr. Andrew Bell, who was also the founder of several similar establishments in other towns in Scotland. The Parish Church was erected in the twelfth century, but is still in good preservation and repair. Within the door on the right side is a splendid monument of Archbishop Sharpe; it is composed of white marble. The statue of the prelate is represented in the attitude of kneeling. It was erected by his son in 1769, and was thoroughly restored at a cost of upwards of £100, in 1850. The College Church is a fine specimen of Gothic architecture, and there are places of worship for other denominations. The trade is principally of a local character. There are four banking establishments in the town, and several good hotels. The market is held on Monday, and the fairs on the second Monday in April, the second Tuesday in August (old style), and the first Monday in November (new style.)

CAMERON is a parish situated about three miles south from St. Andrews; it is about five miles in length and four in breadth. Coal, lime, and iron are abundant in this parish. The greater portion of the land is under cultivation. It is bounded on the east by Denino, on the west by Ceres, on the north by St. Andrews, and on the south by Carnbee and Kilconquhar. Lathones, Kardinie, and Peat Inn are villages, and a portion of the village of Denhead is in this parish, the other portion being in the parish of St. Andrews.

Boarhills, Kincaple, and Strathkinnos are small villages in the parish of St. Andrews.

DENINO is a parish four miles south of St. Andrews, bounded on the east by St. Leonards and Crail, on the west by Cameron, on the north by St. Andrews, and on the south by Crail and Carnbee. The parish is about three miles in length and about the same in breadth. Sand and ironstone abound in the parish.

LEUCHARS is a parish and village pleasantly situated on the road from St. Andrews to Dundee, about six miles from the former town and one mile from the coast. There is a brewery and several brick works in the place, and paper making is carried on in the neighborhood. The Edinburgh, Perth, and Dundee branch of the North British Railway passes through the parish, and there is a station in the village. The church is very ancient, it is supposed to have been erected in the twelfth century, and is considered one of the most perfect specimens of Saxon architecture in Scotland. There is also a Free Church in the parish. Guard Bridge is partly in this parish and partly in that of St. Andrews.

ST. LEONARDS is a small parish consisting of detached portions in and around St. Andrews, and is identical with it in most of its interests.

STRAWTHMIGLO,
BURNSIDE, AND GATESIDE.

STRAWTHMIGLO is a parish situated on the north bank of the River Miglo, on the road from Auchtermuchty to Kinross, two miles S.W. from the former place, eight from the latter, and is a station on the Fifes and Kinross Branch of the North British Railway. The old town consists chiefly of one long street. The village is situated on the opposite side of the Miglo, and is called the Feus of Westercarr. The inhabitants are chiefly employed in weaving and bleaching. Corn mills, malt houses, breweries, and freestone quarries are in the vicinity. There is a branch of the Bank of Scotland, and a Post Office Savings' Bank; also two hotels. The town is lighted with gas. There is a Church of the Establishment, two Free Churches, an Evangelical Union, and United Presbyterian Churches, and three Board Schools in the parish, two of which are situated in the town of Strathmiglo, and one at Burnside. A fair is held at Strathmiglo on the last Friday in June.

BURNSIDE and GATESIDE are villages in the parish of Strathmiglo, and about two miles distant therefrom.

Post Office, Strathmiglo, James Summers, postmaster—Letters arrive from all parts (from Ladybank) at 8.36 a.m. and 6.40 p.m., and from Edinburgh and the South, 12.15 p.m.; and are despatched to all parts at 6.40 a.m., and 4.15 p.m. Money Order Office and Savings' Bank. Nearest Telegraph Office is at Auchtermuchty.

Post Office, Gateside, Elizabeth Cook, postmistress.—Letters from all parts arrive (from Strathmiglo) at 10.15 a.m. and 8 p.m., and are despatched thereto at 2.30 p.m. and 8 p.m. Nearest Money Order Office, Strathmiglo.

TAYPORT, WITH THE PARISH OF FERRY-PORT-ON-CRAIG.

TAYPORT is an extensive village in the parish of Ferry-Port-on-Craig, at the mouth of the Tay, five miles from Dundee, opposite to Broughty Ferry, and about three miles from Newport. The Edinburgh, Perth, and Dundee section of the North British Railway terminates here, and passengers and goods are forwarded by steamer to Broughty Ferry, thence by rail to Dundee. The railway company have a dock and a pier; the latter can be approached at any state of the tide. Tayport contains three mills and factories for the spinning of yarns and the manufacture of linen goods. There is also a bobbin factory.
for manufacturing patent bobbins, an engine works, a foundry, and very extensive saw mills and timber yards, the latter belonging to Mr. James Donaldson; there is also a shipbuilding yard. Many handsome villas have of late years been erected here, and are chiefly occupied by Dundee merchants. The City of Glasgow Banking Company have a branch here. The places of worship are the Parish Church, a Free Church, an United Presbyterian Church, and a Baptist Church. There are also excellent board schools.

Post Office, Castle-street, Miss Catherine Christie, postmistress.—Letters from Dundee, the North, and all parts arrive at 6.45 a.m. and 4 p.m., and are despatched at 8.45 a.m., 3.30 p.m., and 6.40 p.m. Letters from Edinburgh, the South, and all parts arrive at 9 a.m. and 7 p.m., and are despatched at 6.5 a.m. and 3.30 p.m. Letters from Ladybank and Cupar-Fife at 7.10 p.m., and leave at 6.30 a.m. and 3.30 p.m.

CARNOCK, CAIRNEYHILL, OAKLEY, SALINE AND TORY.

Torryburn is a parish and village, the latter is pleasant and salubrious, and the former is beautifully diversified, and the high grounds command fine views of the Firth of Forth and the Lothians. It is 44 miles from Dunfermline, 2 E. from Culross, and 6 E. from Kincardine. It lies in the south-west corner of the county, being from four to five miles in length by about two in breadth. The parish, which is formed by the baronies of Torry and Crombie, derives its name from the Gaelic word Torry, signifying the "King's Height," and Bown, the Scottish name for rivulet. It is impossible to form a harbour here on account of the rocky state of the shore, but there is a pier at Crombie Point for landing goods and passengers. Oakley Station, on the North British Railway, is two miles from the village. The village of Lower Torry is within the parish, and adjacent to the village of Torryburn. The places of worship are the Established and Free Churches. There is also a board school. A fair is held at Torryburn on the second Wednesday in July.

Carnock is a parish and village, the latter being four miles from Dunfermline. No business of any importance is carried on here. The ground is very fertile and in a high state of cultivation.

Oakley and Cairneyhill are villages in the parish of Carnock, the first named being about a mile from the village of Carnock. The iron foundry of Mr. David White, who employs a number of hands, is situate here. The village of Cairneyhill is about three miles from Dunfermline. The places of worship are a Church of the Establishment and a Free Church at Carnock, and one for Presbyterians at Cairneyhill.

Saline is a parish about five miles in length and four in breadth, and extends to the borders of Perth and Clackmannanshire. The village is two miles from Oakley Station, and six from Dunfermline. The inhabitants are principally engaged in agriculture. There is an Established Church and a Free Church in the village, also a board school.

WEMYSS,
(EAST AND WEST),
BUCKHAVEN AND METHIL.

EAST WEMYSS is a village in the parish of Wemyss, situated on the Firth of Forth, and consisting of one long street; it is four miles from Dysart and five from Kirkcaldy. The manufacture of linen is the chief trade of the village; there is also a brewery and a malting house. There is an Established and a Free Church in the village; also a public and a Free Church school.

The village of WEST WEMYSS is about a mile west of East Wemyss, and is governed by two bailies, thirteen councillors, and a treasurer. Coal is wrought close to the harbour. The only objects of interest in the village are Wemyss Castle, the seat of Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss, Esq., situated on the brink of an eminence and surrounded on the land side by beautiful pleasure grounds and plantations; and the ancient castle of Macduff, now a ruin. This massive structure crowns the height above the shore, and commands a most extensive view seaward. A chapel of Ease is the only place of worship. The parish, which is on the south coast of the county, contains the villages of East and West Wemyss, Coaltown of Wemyss, Buckhaven, Methil, Kirkland, and Methilhill. It is bounded on the south by the Firth of Forth, on the west by Dysart, on the north by Markinch, and by Socone on the east. It is 6 miles in length from east to west, and ½ miles broad.

BUCKHAVEN is a village in the parish of Wemyss, and distant one mile east therefrom. Flax, flax hemp, rope and twine manufacturing are extensively carried on here, and find employment for a number of the inhabitants. The village is noted for its brisk pursuit of the fishing trade, and possesses a good harbour for the accommodation of boats engaged therein. There is a Free Church and two public schools.

The village of Methil, with the neighbouring villages of Methil-hill, Kirkland, Inverleven, and Buckhaven, were formed into a parish in March 1875. The principal trade of the village consists of fishing, coal mining, rope spinning, and salt manufacturing. There is a Church of the Establishment in the village.

Post Office, East Wemyss, Margaret Southar, postmistress.—Letters from all parts arrive (from Dysart) at 9.40 a.m. and 7.10 p.m., and are despatched thereto at 6.10 a.m. and 3.50 p.m. Nearest Money Order Office is at Wemyss.

Post Office, West Wemyss, Alison Millie, postmistress.—Letters from all parts arrive at 9.30 a.m. and 7.5 p.m., and are despatched thereto at 6.20 a.m. and 3.50 p.m. Money Order Office, Savings' Bank, and Postal Telegraph Station.

WEMYSS.

The islands of Ness, Fernie, Burns and others are noted for their mining. The Wemyss family was prominent in the area, with figures like Wemyss West and Wemyss Leitch. Wemyss KineoSS is mentioned, which may be a reference to a place or family. Cassells and Eckford Cannells are also noted.

The text mentions drainage and settlement, with references to Churchs, Satui-day, and necessary appointments. Hunter, Henry, manager, and Wemyss West are also mentioned.

Lawson Thomas, police constable, and Wemyss Wemyss are noted. Leitch A. painter, Buckhaven, and Ness George, harbour master, are also mentioned.

Wesleyan A. M. famer, and Buckhaven's quality, including a miller, are noted. Tulliebole, Buckhaven, and Kinross are also mentioned.

Webster Wm. plasterer & slater, Buckhaven, is mentioned in the context of farmers and settlements.

FARMERS.

In the parish of Wemyss, Auchmunchy John, Bowhouse, and Wemyss John (reps. of), Earlistown Farm, West Wemyss, are noted.

Craigiv David, Buckhaven, Haig John, Methil hill, by Windy gates, Ireland John, Percival, by Leven, and Laurie John, Kirkland hill, by Leven are also mentioned.

Scott A. & D. Nowton of Wemyss, Thoms Mrs. Esther, Wells green, by East Wemyss, and Thomson Joseph (trustees of), Muiredge, by Leven, are noted.

Willie A. Cowdlenbys by Dyart.

KINROSS.

FOSSOWAY, TULLIEBOLE, CROOK OF DEVON, BLAIRGONE, CARNBO, POWMILL, RUMBLING BRIDGE, BALGEDIE, KINNESSWOOD, AND SCOTLANDWELL.

KINROSS is a parish and town, and the capital of the county of its name, situated about 19 miles from Cupar-Fife, 14 from Dunfermline, 9 from Auchtermuchty, 17 from Perth, 23 from Stirling, 14 from Kirkcaldy, 16 from Queensferry, 12 from Dollar, and 27 from Edinburgh. It is governed by commissioners appointed under the Police and General Improvement Act. Sheriff and Small Debt Courts are held in the County Hall, Kinross, weekly, on Tuesday during the session, and once a fortnight (and oftener if necessary) during vacation. The County Buildings contain the court rooms, the police station, the county prison, the Sheriff’s clerk’s office, and a residence for the Chief Constable. The Town Hall, situated about the centre of the High Street, has a square tower, which contains a bell. The large hall is used for meetings, balls, concerts, and once a week the Corn Exchange is held in it. The town consists chiefly of one main street, with a few small ones branching off. It is lighted with gas. There are some good shops, three hotels, three banking establishments, and a Savings Bank. A newspaper, The Kinross Advertiser, is published every Saturday. The woollen mills comprise two for wool spinning, and one for wool spinning and woollen manufacturing. There is also a linen factory worked by a limited company. The other important places of business include a dye works, foundry, tannery, corn mill, saw mill, &c. The Gas Works are situated about half way between Kinross and Mirthath, and supplies both towns. The places of worship are an Established, a Free, and two United Presbyterian Churches, and one for Episcopalians. There are two schools under the School Board. Lochleven, with its ruined castle (in which Queen Mary was imprisoned, and from which she escaped), and its numerous islands are a great source of attraction during the summer months. At the time of the survey the Loch contained four islands, The Eich, or Serfs Island, containing 535 acres, Castle Island, 2 acres, Red Bower about the fifth of an acre, and the Paddock Bower, or Roy’s Polly, about half an acre, and its superficial area, including the islands, was 4,350 imperial acres. In 1830 the Loch was reduced to 3,543 acres by the completion of an extensive drainage scheme, which reduced it nine feet below its original level, and disclosed three other small islands, so that there are now seven islands in the Loch. The height of Lochleven above the sea level is 360 feet, and its mean-flow amounts to 4,000 cubic feet per minute. The Castle Island is a favourite resort of pleasure seekers, and in summer many picnic parties assemble under the wide-spread trees on the island, or in the rooms of the castle tower, which are fitted up with tables and seats for their special accommodation. There is a fine fleet of first-class boats, and a staff of careful boatmen are kept constantly in attendance at the pier. Lochleven trout, common trout, char, perch, pike, eel, &c., are very abundant. The angler may judge by the following report as to the sport to be had here:—

"Lochleven Angling Association Limited, 1876. During the past season there have been killed in all 5,903 trout, weighing 5,068 lbs., being an average weight of 1.113 lbs. for each trout. There have been netted during the past season 1,484 pike, and it is estimated that about other 200 were killed with the rod. The number netted during the past season is about equal to the number that were killed during the three years preceding. Through the kindness of Mr. Gibson Maitland, one of their number, the directors were able in June last to put about 6,000 young fry into the best feeders of the Loch. The various streams running into the lake afford extensive and excellent spawning ground, and to keep up an ample stock of trout. There have been captured in one season 3,500 pike, and an average of nearly 400 stones, or 5,000 lbs. of eels have been captured yearly." A market, principally for corn, is held in Kinross on Monday. Fairs are also held in Kinross on the fourth Monday of March, second Monday of June, fourth Monday of July, and fourth Monday of October. Hiring fairs, 4th Monday in July, and Thursday after 2nd Tuesday in October. Live stock sale on Monday, once a fortnight.

FOSSOWAY and TULLIEBOLE is a united parish situated partly in Kinross and partly in Perthshire, but mostly in the latter. The villages of Crook of Devon and Blairgome, and the hamlets of Powmill and Carabo are in the parish. In addition to the Parish Church at Crook of Devon, there is a Quad Sacram Church at Blairgome, and there are Board Schools at Carnbo, Blairgome, and Crook of Devon. There is one hotel at Rumbling Bridge, and railway stations on the Devon Valley Line, at Crook of Devon and Rumbling Bridge. The scenery in this district is very beautiful, and is much resorted to by tourists.

PORTMOAK is a parish bounded by Lochleven, Orwell, Strathmiglo, Leslie, Kinglassie, Ballingry, and Cleish. The inhabitants are chiefly employed in agriculture. Scotlandwell is a village in the parish, situated 3½ miles from Kinross, and four miles from Leslie. The places of worship are a Free Church and a Church of the Establishment; there is also a Board School here. Kinnesswood is a thriving village in the same parish, 4½ miles from Kinross, two from Scotlandwell, and six from Leslie. Easter and Wester Balgeddie are also hamlets in the parish. There is a United Presbyterian Church in the former.

CLEISH is a parish and village three miles from Kinross, three from Blairadam, four from Kelt, two from Cleish-road, and is a station on the Devon Valley Line of the North British Railway. It is bounded on the west by Dunfermline and Fossway, on the south by Beath, and on the east by Ballingry. The parish contains the villages of Cleish, Maryburgh, and Kelt proper. The Parish Church is at Cleish, also a board school.

FORGANDENNY, which is partly in the counties of Fife and Kinrosshire, is about eight miles from Kinross.

MILNATHORT,

ARNGASK, ORWELL, DAMHEAD, DUNCRIEVIE, DRUNZIE, AND NEWTON OF BALCANQUHAL.

MILNATHORT is a large village in Orwell parish, situated two miles north from Kinross, and consists of two good streets and half a dozen smaller ones, which are lighted with gas, the expense being paid by voluntary subscription. The affairs of the village are managed by a committee composed of inhabitants of the village and parish. At the junction of the principal streets is the town hall (erected by subscription), a fine building, with square tower, spire, clock, and one bell; the latter rings daily at 5.30 a.m., 8 p.m., and 10 p.m. The interior of the hall consists chiefly of one large and lofty room, lighted with six fine windows. This room is let for concerts, meetings, &c. The corn exchange is also held in it weekly, on Wednesday. The police office, which has two cells for prisoners and a house for the officer, occupies the rear of the building. The principal business carried on in Milnathort is the spinning of woollen yarns and the manufacturing of woollen goods. There are also a linen factory, a brewery, a large corn mill, and a branch of the City of Glasgow Bank. The churches comprise an Established, a Free, and an United Presbyterian. There is a fine board school; also a very handsome school, with residence for the master adjoining, which was erected by James Brand, Esq., in memory of his father, who was a native of the village. There is also a boarding and day school for young ladies. A weekly stock sale is held on Wednesday, Fairs, first Monday in May and July, second and last Monday in August, first Monday in November, and the Monday before Christmas.

ORWELL is an extensive parish, situated north of Kinross, and contains the village of Milnathort, the railway stations of Milnathort and Mawerce, and the ruins of Burleigh Castle.

ARNGASK is a parish and small village, distant about 7 miles from Kinross, 5 from Milnathort, 5 from Strathmiglo, and 6½ from the Bridge of Earn. The parish is partly in the three counties of Fife, Perth, and Kinross. The burn or river Farg separates the Perth portion from Fife and Kinross, and the Eden is the boundary between the two latter. The Parish Church is in Fifeshire, the Free Church in Kinross, and the board school in Perthshire. The parish, for registration purposes and under the Poor Law and Education Act is considered as belonging to Fifeshire.

DAMHEAD is the principal village in Arngask, and Duncrievie and Newton of Balcanquhal are small hamlets in the parish.

Post Office, New-road, Milnathort. Andrew Thomson, postmaster.—Arrival of letters from Edinburgh, the South, and Ladybank at 9 a.m.; from all parts, Edinburgh, and the South at 12.50 p.m.; from all parts, Edinburgh, South, and Ladybank at 7.25 p.m. Despatches to all parts at 6.25 a.m.; to Kinross at 8.25 a.m. and 6.40 p.m.; to Kinross and the West at 12.15 noon; to Edinburgh, South, and Ladybank at 3.30 p.m. Damhead, Arngask, and Duncrievie villages are served (by messenger) from Milnathort.

ABERDEEN,

OLD ABERDEEN, OLD MACHAR, OULTS, WOODSIDE, AND

NIGG (KINCARDINESHIRE).

The ancient and flourishing city and seaport of Aberdeen, the metropolis of the North of Scotland is situated at the mouth of the Dee, 117 miles (by rail) north from Edinburgh, 152 from Glasgow, 74 from Dundee, 152 S.E. by E. from Inverness (103 by road), 50 from Banff, 44 from Peterhead, 47 from Fraserburgh, 17 from Banchory Ternan, 32 from Aboyne, and 43 from Ballater. Aberdeen is the northern terminus of the Caledonian Railway at its junction with the Great North of Scotland railway system, including the Deeside railway. The city is of great antiquity, and for ages has been celebrated as a seat of learning, and since the introduction of railways and steamboats as a means of locomotion it has steadily increased in commercial importance and population. At the commencement of the seventeenth century a large number of small ships belonged to the port, and a considerable export and import trade for that period was carried on with the northern ports of the continent as well as with the English and Scotch coast. During the progress of the Civil War and the dreadful visitation of the plague this trade almost died out, again reviving in course of time, and in 1818 we find the number of vessels registered was 237, of the aggregate tonnage of 36,471. In later years, owing to the fact of vessels being constructed of larger size than formerly, the number of vessels belonging to the port had not so much increased as the tonnage, the shipping belonging to the port on the 31st of December in each of the following years being:—1866, 270 vessels, 91,830 tonnage; 1867, 273 vessels, 96,742 tonnage; 1868, 271 vessels, 98,059 tonnage; 1869, 270 vessels, 103,455 tonnage; 1870, 252 vessels, 101,944 tonnage; 1871, 244 vessels, 100,765 tonnage; 1872, 286 vessels, 101,188 tonnage; 1873, 235 vessels, 103,149 tonnage; 1874, 228 vessels, 107,411 tonnage; 1875, 215 vessels, 102,682 tonnage. The statistics of the trade of the port during the past five years show, from steady progressive increase, the exports in 1871 being 1,215,580 tons; 1872, 1,229,972 tons; 1873, 1,184,497 tons; 1874, 1,266,147 tons; 1875, 1,355,000 tons, consisting of cotton, flax, and woollen manufactured goods; paper, hides, soap, preserved provisions, beef and pork, oatmeal, corn, spirits, granite for paving purposes, wood for colliery purposes, and other miscellaneous goods.

The imports during the same years in 1871 were 382,320 tons; 1872, 395,011 tons; 1873, 378,250 tons; 1874, 392,451 tons; 1875, 413,382 tons. The imports in 1875 of coals amounted to 203,512 tons; wood for shipbuilding purposes, 20,436 tons; iron, 8,889 tons; Esparto grass and rags, 3,903 tons (for paper making); chemicals, 4,421 tons; salt (principally for curing purposes), 7,463 tons; agricultural manures (lime, bone, guano, and manufactured manures), 42,399 tons; corn, 22,547 tons; oil cake, lime, and rape seed (cattle food), 5,673 tons; sugar, 4,831 tons; slate, 5,532 tons; cement, 5,956. The number of animals exported and imported in 1874 were 31,064, and in 1875 39,927.

The valuation of lands and heritages in the city of Aberdeen in 1865-6 was £233,674; 1875-6, £233,194. The valuation of the railways, waterworks, and tramways within the burgh in 1875-6 was £13,848.
and is not included in the amount given above. The number of municipal voters on the register 1875-6 was 12,149. The city parliamentary register 1875-6 contains 18,856 voters. The preceding figures though not including the enormous traffic by the two lines of railway give some idea of the present commercial prosperity of the port. Aberdeen is extensively used for making the roads of the city, the whole of the city streets and the houses of the city. A special grant for the building of the city streets and the houses of the city was made to the city council in 1873, 19, 7,582 tonnage; 1874, 11, 8,800 tonnage; 1875, 9, 6,405. Several large roperies are in full operation here, also sail makers, ship riggers, boat builders, wrights and shipsmen, and other trades connected with shipping. There are several large iron foundries, iron works, boiler makers, engineers, millwrights and machinists, and agricultural implement works, and also several corn yards, three distilleries, chemical works, colour, paint and varnish works, and corn mills. Aberdeen is one of the principal fishing stations on the coast, the herring fishery is prosecuted here with much success by several hundred boats during the season. The fish are cured and shipped to the continental and other markets. Haddock, codfish, and other descriptions are caught off the coast and are supplied to the markets by rail. Large supplies of game, poultry, &c. are also despatched from Aberdeen and adjacent district to the same destination. The salmon fisheries of the Dee and Don rivers, and the adjacent coast are important, though of late years there has been a marked decline in this branch of the fishery. Large supplies of meat of prime quality in carcass form are forwarded from Aberdeen to the London markets by rail and steamers weekly. The first shipping company formed in the city commenced operations in 1752 and not answering the expectations of its founders had a short existence. The Aberdeen Banking Company, formed in 1766 was, however, thoroughly successful, and for a lengthened period was the principal bank in the North of Scotland. In the year 1840 it was incorporated with the Union Bank of Scotland, and its present name. The Great North of Scotland Bank occupies handsome premises in Castle-street with branches in Union-street (west), and George-street, Aberdeen, also in the principal towns in Scotland. The Aberdeen Town and County Bank, established upwards of half a century, has branches in every town and village of importance in the county, also in the counties of Banff, Kincardine, Inverness, &c. The head office of the bank in Aberdeen, in Union-street at the corner of St. Nicholas street, is a fine building, occupying a central position in the business portion of the town, with branches on the Quay, at the west end of Union-street, in George-street, and at the village of Woodside. The North of Scotland Banking Co., Aberdeen, was established in 1836, the head office of the Bank, situated at the corner of King-street, in Castle-street, is a building displaying the most elaborate taste in the cost of the interior. The bank has established a market branch in Exchange-street, a branch in Union-street (west), and in George-street, as well as in every town and village in the counties of Aberdeen, Banff, Kincardine, &c. In addition to the above there are branches of the mentioned banks in the city, viz., the Royal Bank of Scotland, the National Bank of Scotland, the City of Glasgow Bank, the British Linen Company’s Bank, and the Commercial Bank of Scotland. The National Security Savings’ Bank of Aberdeen, in Exchange-street, is a flourishing institution, designed for the special benefit of the working classes and small depositors generally. The Lord Provost of the city and members of Parliament for the city and county, and other influential gentlemen are trustees and managers of the Linen Company’s Bank. Fire and life assurance companies have their head offices in Aberdeen, the Northern, established in 1836, and the Scottish Provincial, established in 1825, also two marine assurance companies. Visitors to Aberdeen will find ample first-class hotel accommodation at the “Douglas” in Market-street, the “Imperial” in Stirling-street, and the “Palace” in Union-street. There are also the higher class bestinos and hotel assurance hotels, as mentioned in the classified directory. The city returns one member to the imperial parliament; the present member is John Fairley Leith, Esq. Two newspapers are published daily in Aberdeen, in addition to several weeklies. The names of the papers and publishers, with the days of issue, will be found under the head Newspapers in the classified list of the Directory. The newspapers generally are ably edited and largely circulated amongst all classes of the community in the city and the north of Scotland and other parts of the Kingdom. The number of newspapers circulated amongst the working classes is very great, owing to the creditable fact that however humble the Aberdeen labourer may be he is able to read and write. Aberdeen is largely resorted to for sea bathing purposes in the summer season. The beach, extending several miles, being composed of fine hard sand, is especially adapted for the purpose. Bathing carriages and hot sea water baths have been established on the beach by the Messrs. Duncan, who during the past season have received well-merited encomiums from their numerous visitors. In several quarters of the city are numerous interesting specimens of old street architecture. The streets that have been laid out and the buildings erected, however, during the past half century are in striking contrast to the older portions of the town. The principal street, Union-street, is one of which the Aberdonians are justly proud, being of great length and width, the buildings being erected with due regard to uniformity in style of architecture, the material (grey granite) employed in their construction presenting a light and cleanly appearance. Various improvements are projected in different parts of the city, and will probably ere long be carried out. The construction of a bridge across the new channel of the Dee is now likely to be proceeded with; the site selected will probably be in a line with Market-street. The fearful catastrophe by which 32 lives were lost on the sacramental fast day in the spring of 1875, caused by upsetting of the ferry boat to the Torry side of the river, has demonstrated the necessity of the erection of the bridges without further delay. The various institutions of a charitable, social, educational, and humane character are numerous, and will not allow description in this portion of the work, but can be found under the head Public Buildings, &c., in the Directory.

CHURCHES AND CHAPELS.

The East and West Churches are one building in the Gothic style of architecture, erected on the site of the ancient parish church of St. Nicholas. St. Clement’s or Foot Dee Church has a tower 45 feet high, with a clock presented by the magistrates. Greyfriars or College Chapel stands on the east of Broad-street, near Marischal College. St. Andrews or Scotch Episcopal Chapel, in King-street, is an elegant edifice built in 1813. The South Church, in Belmont-street, is in the Gothic style. The North Church, in King-street, is a handsome building in the Grecian style. Old Machar Church is situated at the north extremity of Old Aberdeen in the parish of Old Machar. In addition to these places of worship, there are others for various denominations, the names of which, with their officiating ministers will be found on a subsequent page.

The two colleges which form the University of Aberdeen are very ancient seminaries of learning. King’s College in Old Aberdeen, and Marischal College, near Mars Castle, the former was instituted in 1594, and the latter building was finished in 1841 at a cost of £38,000. The Grammar School is at the west end of the town, and is a handsome building in the Scotch baronial style. The Asylum for the Blind is in Huntly-street. The inmates are taught various trades, and manufacture ropes, twines, nets, baskets, matting, &c. The Institution for the Education of the Deaf and Dumb in Belmont-street is well worthy of mention. The Old Mill Reformatory School is conducted on principles that have elicited the approbation of numerous visitors from all parts of the Kingdom, the same remarks applies to the Industrial School, Skene-square, where, under the management of Mr. Sharrer and assistants the boys and girls are taught various trades to enable them on leaving the school to earn a respectable livelihood. C. F. Bumey, Esq., advocate, Aberdeen, is the secretary of both these institutions. There are various other educational institutions a list of which will be found in the directory.

The accommodation in the Old Post Office not being sufficiently ample to meet the rapidly increasing business of the department particularly since the purchase of the telegraphs by Government a handsome new building has been erected at the foot of Market-street, which affords ample room for the present and immediate future requirements of the city. The following figures will give some idea of the increase of post office business since the year 1866. Letters, &c., delivered at Aberdeen in 1866 was 72,583 per week, 3,771,976 in the year; in 1870, 80,556 per week; £1,188,912 in the year; in 1875, 90,126 per week; &c. The money orders issued and paid during the year 1875 were:—Head office—issued, 29,684; value, £55,836 10s. 7d. Branch office—issued, 8,732; value, 13,576 17s. 1d. Totals—issued, 38,416; value, £69,413 7s. 8d. Head office—paid, 51,563; amount, £28,764 10s. 6d. Branch office—paid, 620; amount, £280 17s. Totals—paid, 52,183; amount, £29,045 13s. 6d.

The market for cattle is held weekly on Wednesday. Friday is the general weekly market day for corn, agricultural produce of all kinds, merchandise, &c., the markets are largely attended. The wool fairs in Aberdeen are held on the last Thursday and Friday in June and the Thursday and Friday of the first and second weeks in July. Hiring or feencing markets for farm, &c., servants are held on the Fridays before and after the 26th of May and on the Fridays before and after the 22nd November.

OLD ABERDEEN is about a mile to the north of the city, in the parish of Old Machar. The principal curiosity in the neighbourhood is the old bridge, which crosses the river Don by one Gothic pointed arch, the only structure of the kind in Scotland, said to have been erected by Robert Bruce. The parish of Old Machar lies in the peninsula between the Dee and the Don, where they join the ocean, being from seven to eight miles in length and four in breadth.

NIGG is a parish in Kincardineshire, bounded on the north by the Dee, and on the south and west by Banchory-Davenick. It is four miles in length and two in breadth. The coast is bold and rocky, the north-east point, called Guardness, is a remarkable promontory, and forms the south side of the estuary of the Dee. The villages of Torry and Cove are in this parish.

ALFORD,

GLENBUCKET, STRATHDON, KEIG, KILDRUMMY, MIDMARR, TOUGH, TOWIE, AND TULLYNESSLE WITH FORBES.

ALFORD is an agricultural parish, about seven miles in length and three in breadth. The village of Alford, very pleasantly situated, presents a particularly clean and respectable appearance. It is the terminus of the Alford Valley branch of the Great North of Scotland Railway, 29 miles (by rail) from Aberdeen and 16 from Kintore junction. There are three branch banks, a first-class hotel, several large general merchants and dealers establishments in the village, a considerable business being transacted with a wide and important agricultural district. Markets are held for Scotch cattle and other live stock (English, Irish, and foreign beasts being prohibited) every third Tuesday. The half-yearly feasting markets being held on the Mondays before the 26th May, and the 22nd November.

KEIG is a parish between three and four miles in diameter, nearly circular in form, is intersected by the river Don, and is distant about 25 miles from Aberdeen. There is a railway station at Whitehouse, on the Alford Valley line.

GLENBUCKET is a small parish in the district of Marr, four miles in length and one in breadth, situated on both sides of the Bucket, a tributary stream to the Don, and 29 miles from Huntly. The ruins of Badenyon House, alluded to in the popular Scotch song of John of Badenyon, are in this parish.

STRATHDON is a parish situated between Glenbucket and Kildrummy. This, as well as the parishes in the district, is well stocked with game, and is largely resorted to during the shooting season. A conveyance carrying the mails and passengers runs daily from Strathdon and Lunedden village to the Gartly railway station, on the Great North of Scotland Railway.

KILDRUMMY is a parish about 16 miles from Huntly and 35 from Aberdeen, and is situated in a valley. The castle of Kildrummy is a ruin of great antiquity, covering an acre of ground, and was distinguished by its seven towers, one of which, from the whiteness of its stones, was called the Snow Tower. Markets are held on the third Thursday in each month, except August, September, and October.

MIDMARR is a parish about 4½ miles in length and 4 in breadth, situated about 15 miles from Aberdeen. The Hill of Fare, which is the principal eminence in this part, is about 1,800 feet above the sea level. Near the southern boundary is the Vale of Alford.

TOUGH is 22 miles from Aberdeen. Several droidal temples may be seen in this district, one of which, on the hill about two miles from the church, still retains the name of the Old Kirk of Tough. The Alford Valley Railway passes through the parish; the station is at Tillyfourie.

TOWIE is a parish 23 miles from Huntly, and is watered by the Don, which flows through it from east to west. The general appearance of the country is hilly, and the eminences are mostly covered with heath.

TULLYNESSLE and FORBES are united parishes, situated on the North bank of the river Don, 18 miles from Huntly and 27 from Aberdeen. The appearance of the country is hilly, or rather mountainous; some of the hills are of considerable altitude, and game is abundant.

AUCHTERLESS, FORGE, MONQUHITTER, CUMINESTOWN, AND GARMOND.

AUCHTERLESS is an agricultural parish, intersected by the river Ythan and by the Great North of Scotland Railway from Aberdeen to Banff. The Auchterless station is 34½ miles from Aberdeen, 16½ from Inverurie, 13 from Banff Bridge, and 4 from Turriff. In the parish (which is seven miles long and three in breadth) are the remains of an extensive fortified camp.

FORGE is an extensive parish adjoining Auchterless. The well-known Glendronach distillery in this parish is situated about nine miles from Huntly; Mr. Scott, the principal partner, is a successful breeder of superior short-horned cattle. The parish lies between the two sections of the Great North of Scotland Railway to Keith and Banff respectively; the Huntly station on the former route and Turriff or Rothie Norman stations on the latter are generally selected by persons visiting the parish. MONQUHITTER is a parish bounded on the east by New Deer, on the west by Turriff, on the north by King Edward, and on the south by Fyvie. The parish extends about six miles from east to west, and nine from north to south, and is watered by two small rivers abounding with excellent trout. The surface of the parish is uneven and arable in the lower parts. Cuminestown and Garmond are villages in this parish. In the former is a branch bank and several good shops.

BALLATER,

GLENMUICK, GLENGAIRN, TULLOCH, AND PANNANICH WELLS.

GLENMUICK in the district of Mar and presbytery of Kincardine-O'Neil is a parish 18 miles long and 15 broad, bounded on the north by Strathdon and Leochel Cshnie, contains the village of Ballater, the terminus of the Dee line of railway, situated in the midst of scenery the most interesting and beautiful in the country. The village and district since the opening of the railway has been largely visited by tourists, for whose accommodation there is a first-class hotel and a number of private residences and respectable lodgings. Balmoral Castle being within a few miles, the village is occasionally honoured by visits from Her Majesty. During the residence of Her Majesty at Balmoral a military guard of honour is stationed at Ballater, a very neat and comfortable small barracks having been erected for their accommodation. The Union Bank and the North of Scotland Banking Co. have agents in the village, and the Aberdeenshire and County Bank have an agent at the Bridge of Gairn, in the parish. A list of the merchants and traders will be found in the Directory. Within a short distance of Ballater is the picturesque Loch Canon, in which is an island with the ruins of an ancient castle or hunting seat, supposed to have been built by the noted Malcolm Canmore. The ruins of Knock Castle and Birk Hall, one of the Prince of Wales' shooting boxes, are in this parish, also several seats of gentry and landed proprietors. Two miles from Ballater are the mineral wells, baths, and hotel of Pannanich, on the banks of the Dee. The mineral waters are found very efficacious in cases of dyspepsia, scrofula, and other complaints. The hotel is a well conducted establishment, and the number of visitors annually increasing. The parishes of Glengairn and Tulloch are incorporated with Glenuick. The places of worship are the Established Churches at Ballater and Glengairn, Free Churches at Glenuick and Cromar, and a Roman Catholic Chapel at Glengairn. In addition to the schools already in existence in the parish a new public school has been recently erected at Glengairn by the School Board; the building is in the Gothic style of architecture, and affords accommodation for 80 pupils. Fairs are held at Ballater on the first Tuesday in May and the second Monday and Tuesday in September (o.s.), and on the Saturday previous to the 22nd of November (n.s.).

Post Office, Ballater, Elizabeth Farquharson, postmistress.—Letters from all parts arrive (in summer) at 10.30 a.m., 2 p.m., and 7.45 p.m., and are despatched at 7 a.m., 12.15 noon, and 6 p.m. Two mails only during the winter season. Telegraph, Money Order Office, and Savings' Bank.

CRATHIE,
BRAEMAR, BALMORAL, AND CASTLETOWN.

CRATHIE, a parish 51 miles distant from Aberdeen, situated among the Grampian mountains, in the centre of the district of Marr, is an extensive tract of mountainous country, formerly called the Forest of Marr, situated at a considerable elevation above the level of the sea. Ballater, the terminus of the Dee-side section of the Great North of Scotland Railway, the nearest railway station to the parish, is about nine miles from the small village and post office of Crathie.

BRAEMAR, formerly a separate parish, but now incorporated with that of Crathie, is situated about 60 miles from Aberdeen. In this district a considerable portion of the ancient forest remains un- cleared, and is largely stocked with deer. Owing to its healthy and beautiful situation, Balmoral Castle in this parish, was selected by Her Majesty the Queen and the late lamented Prince Consort, as a place of residence and retirement. Her Majesty spends a considerable portion of each year in this her favourite highland home, to the great delight of the inhabitants, to whom Her Majesty has become endeared by many acts of kind condescension and interest she takes in their welfare. A very large number of visitors are attracted during the summer season to this wild and romantic neighbourhood, especially during the time of Her Majesty’s residence at the Castle. A short distance from Balmoral is Aberdargeste Castle, the seat of H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, and several noblemen and gentlemen have seats or shooting boxes in the parish.

CASTLETOWN (Braemar) is a village on the military-road from Blairgowrie to Fort George. The river Cluny passes through and divides the village, one side of the river being named Auchendyrne. At Lochmagar in this parish is Mr. John Begg’s celebrated distillery of pure Highland whisky. The Lochmargar whisky, in addition to being under the special patronage of royalty, is highly esteemed by connoisseurs. Lochmargar mountain rises to the height of 3,780 feet above the level of the sea. The highest mountain in the parish is Ben Muck Din, 4,295 feet elevation. The lakes, or Lochs Callender and Brotachan in this neighbourhood, are fairly stocked with trout, salmon, and eels.

Post Office, Braemar, John Henry, postmaster.—Letters from all parts arrive at five minutes before one, and are despatched at half-past four morning, box closes at ten o'clock the previous night. Money Order Office.

Post Office, Crathie, Chas. Thomson, postmaster.—Letters from all parts arrive at twenty minutes before 12 morning, and are despatched at five minutes before 6 morning, box closes at ten o'clock the previous night. During three months in the summer season there is an additional mail.

CRIMOND,

CAIRNBLUG, INVERALLECHOY, MORMOND, RATHEN, ST. COMB, AND ST. FERGUS.

CRIMOND is a parish on the coast of Buchan, situated midway between the towns of Fraserburgh and Peterhead, nine miles from each, and three miles from the Leemany Station, on the Fraserburgh Section of the Great North of Scotland Railway. The coast is very dangerous at Ratray Head. Lonmay is a parish about ten miles in length and four in breadth, and has about four miles of sea coast. The soil is generally fertile. The fishing village of St. Combs is in the parish.

RATHEN parish is about four miles distant from Fraserburgh, about seven miles long and two in breadth. It is also a station on the Great North of Scotland Railway. There are two creeks in the parish, on which are the villages of Cairnblug and Inverallechoy.

ST. FERGUS, a village and parish, the former five miles distant from Peterhead, and 13 from Fraserburgh. Though locally situated in Aberdeenshire, St. Fergus is attached to Banffshire, and is assessed as part of that county. It has been owned by the family of Chynne, the hereditary sheriffs of Banffshire in the thirteenth century. The nearest railway stations to the village are at Peterhead and Inverugie.

ECHT,

DRUMOAK, KINELLAR, NEWHILLS, PETERCULTER, SKENE, BLACKBURN, BUXBURN, AUCHMILL, AND STONEYWOOD.

ECHT is a parish containing the village of its name, situated 12 miles west of Aberdeen and about 8½ miles from the Banchory station, on the Deeside section of the G. N. of Scotland Railway. The parish is about five miles in length and the same in breadth, the greater portion of which is under cultivation. Dunedh House, one of the seats of the Earl of Crawford and Buccars, is the only residence of note. The places of worship are the Established and Free Churches. Pairs are held on the first Monday in every month, with the following exceptions—when they are held on the second Monday in May, the day before Michaelmas fair in October, and the second Tuesday in November.

DRUMOAK parish is about four miles in length and the same in breadth, and is intersected by the Deeside line, on which there are two stations. The chief portion of the parish is in Aberdeenshire, and the remainder in the adjoining county of Kincardine. The parish is situated about ten miles from Aberdeen, its post town.

KINELLAR is an agricultural parish about eight miles from Aberdeen. It contains the pleasant village of Blackburn, situated two miles from the Kinakle railway station, on the Great North of Scotland line. The high road from Aberdeen to Inverness passes through the parish.

NEWHILLS is a parish situated five miles from Aberdeen, its post town.

BUXBURN is a thriving village in the parish, and is a station on the main line of the Great North of Scotland Railway. Messrs. Alexander Pirie & Sons, paper mills at Stonymouth in this parish are very extensive. Messrs. C. Davidson & Sons, Limited, Muggienness Works, are also paper makers and paper bag manufacturers on a large scale. There are several granite quarries and corn mills in the parish. The places of worship are the Established, the Free, and the Episcopal Churches.

PETERCULTER is a parish about eight miles in length and six in breadth, is situated on the banks of the Dee, and intersected by the Deeside line of railway, on which there are stations at Murtle, Milltimber, and Culter, in the parish; the latter is 7½ miles from Aberdeen, its post town. Paper making is extensively carried on here by the Cultor Mills Paper Co., Limited, at their works near the Culter station. There is also a manufactary for woven goods. A portion of the parish is under cultivation; the surface of the remainder is rocky, marshy, and otherwise unfitted for agricultural purposes. Established and Free Churches in the parish.

SKENE parish is about eight miles from Aberdeen, its post town, and about the same distance from the Kirnora Junction station, on the G. N. of Scotland line. The parish, eight miles long and four broad, is agricultural, with the exception of the large mill of Messrs. Alex. Hadden & Sons, woolen manufacturers. Established and Free Churches in the parish. A fair is held on the Tuesday before Easter.

ELLON, Aberdeenshire, is the site of a prehistoric camp, and its name is derived from the Gaelic word for a meeting place. The town and parish of Ellon are situated in the north-east of Scotland, in the county of Aberdeen, and are about 10 miles from Aberdeen. The parish church is dedicated to St. Andrew, and the village is surrounded by extensive fields of crops and woodlands.

The town of Ellon is noted for its historical events, including the Battle of Ellon in 1341, which was a significant battle in the Scottish Wars of Independence. The town is also known for its beautiful countryside, with rolling hills and picturesque villages.

The economy of the area is based on agriculture, with many farms and estates in the vicinity. There are also several small industries, including a sawmill and a creamery.

The town has a rich cultural heritage, with many historic buildings and monuments. The Ellon Castle, built in the 16th century, is one of the most notable landmarks in the area. The town also has a number of museums and galleries, including the Ellon Art Centre and the Ellon Heritage Centre.

The Ellon Railway Station, opened in 1854, is a significant feature of the town. The station was originally built to serve the agricultural needs of the area, but it has since become a popular tourist attraction.

The town is also home to several schools, including Ellon Academy and Ellon Primary School. The town has a range of amenities, including shops, restaurants, and public facilities.

In conclusion, Ellon is a vibrant community with a rich history, a prosperous economy, and a diverse culture. The town offers a range of attractions and opportunities for visitors and residents alike.
by the river Ythan which is here navigable some three miles from its mouth at Newburgh.

Slains is a parish on the south-east coast and extremity of the Buchan district 6 miles east from Ellon its post town. Slains Castle the seat of the Earl of Errol is built on rocks rising almost perpendicular from the German Ocean. The view from the castle, of the ocean and coast during the prevalence the furious storms which occasionally visit the coast, is awfully grand. Collieston and Old Castle are small villages.

FRASERBURGH

Is a parish and burgh of barony, containing the flourishing seaport town of that name, and is situated on the south side of Kinnaird Head, the Taizalam promontory of Plyn. It is distant by rail 47 miles from Aberdeen, and 20 from Peterhead, and by road 42 miles from Aberdeen, 22 from Banff, and 151 from Edinburgh. It has an excellent harbour, and is one of the most important herring fishing stations on the east coast. The arrival of the fishermen with their families, and others who assist in the curing operations, in the month of July, almost doubles the population of the town, and creates considerable excitement, and what is of more importance, is a large source of wealth to the town, and the inhabitants generally, who use every effort to accommodate their visitors, who are increasing rapidly with each succeeding year. The town, originally built in the form of a square, has been considerably extended during the last few years, owing to the increased success of the fishing operations. The streets are kept in excellent order, and are lighted with gas. The affairs of the burgh are regulated by a provost, a town council, and twelve councillors. A Sheriff's Small Debt Court is held quarterly in the Town House. There are two first-class hotels in the town, also several good inns. The banking interest is represented by four establishments, viz., the Aberdeen and County Bank, the Bank of Scotland, the North of Scotland Banking Co., and the Union Bank of Scotland. There is an excellent harbour, which was much improved by powers conferred by Act of Parliament, 2 and 3 Victoria, cap. 65. The Balaklava harbour contains an area of 14 acres, the North harbour 3½ acres, and the South harbour 5 acres. There are four quays, of the aggregate length of 3,700 feet, two entrances from the sea—one between the North and South piers, 70 feet wide, and one to the Balaklava harbour, 110 feet wide. The South harbour is entered from the North harbour by an entrance of 36 feet in the pier which separates them; the depth of water on silt, ordinary spring tides, in 13 feet 3. The present harbours having been found insufficient for the growing wants and safe refuge of the large fleet of fishing boats and other vessels frequenting the port, an Act of Parliament has been obtained for further extension and improvements of the harbour. It is proposed to widen the present Balaklava pier by adding an additional breadth of 15 feet for 1,000 feet; a parapet wall will also be erected along the back of the Balaklava pier, 13 feet from the surface of the pier, and 23 feet above high water mark, an addition of 7 feet, which will give much greater protection from the waves. The extension will consist of a breakwall, running from the present termination of Balaklava pier in an east south-east direction to the length of 650 feet, thence in a south south-east direction for a further length of 180 feet, terminating on the rock known as the Outer Bush. The new breakwater will be 30 feet wide at the outer end, and will completely protect the harbour entrances from all points at which they are at present exposed, and consequently facilitate access and operation. The works are estimated to cost £200,000, which sum the Public Works Commissioners have advanced on loan. The Harbour Commissioners have fortunately secured the services of John H. Bostock, Esq., c.e., as resident engineer. The foundation stone was laid amidst great demonstration of rejoicing on the 23rd of October, 1875, by the Right Honourable Lord Saltoun, of Philorth House, superior hereditary provost of the burgh, a nobleman who has taken a kindly interest in the undertaking. Sir Alexander Anderson, baron bailie of the burgh, and the Harbour Commissioners, of which he is the chairman, have been indefatigable in their exertions to obtain the sanction of the imperial parliament to the undertaking and the means to carry it out, and are deserving of the highest praise. There is a useful patent slip in the harbour for vessels up to 400 tons burthen, and a tolerable road for shipping in a bay nearly three miles in length and upwards of one in breadth. The places of worship consist of a Church of the Establishment, a Free Church, a Scotch Episcopal Chapel, and one each for United Presbyterians, Congregationalists, and Baptists. There are also several private and public schools in the parish. The markets, chiefly for corn, are held on Tuesday and Friday, fairs on the second Wednesday in March, second Thursday in June, and second Friday in September (all old style).

Post Office, Firthside-street, Fraserburgh, Helen M'Beath, postmistress.—Arrival of mails—From all parts at 5.50 a.m. and 2.20 p.m.; from Aberdeen, Peterhead, and New Pitsligo at 5.15 p.m.; from Peterhead, on Saturday only, at 8.40 p.m. Despatches of mails—To all parts at 6.35 a.m.; to Rosehearty and Aberdeen at 9.15 a.m.; to Aberdeen, Peterhead, and the South at 11.35 a.m.; to Aberdeen and Ellon at 5.20 p.m.; to Ellon, Saturday only, at 5.20 p.m. Money Order, Telegraph Office, and Savings' Bank. The Telegraph Office is open from 7 a.m. until 9 p.m.; on Sunday from 9 to 10 a.m.

FYVIE & METHLICK.

FYVIE is an agricultural parish, in the presbytery of Ellon, intersected by the high road from Aberdeen to Banff, also by the Great North of Scotland Railway. FYvie Station is situated about 31 miles by rail from Aberdeen (26 by road), 19 from Macduff or Banff Bridge, 7½ from Turriff, and 8 by road from Meldrum. The river Ythan flows through the parish. The principal object of note in the parish is FYvie Castle, the seat of Colonel Gordon. The Castle is in the Gothic style of architecture, stands in the midst of scenery peculiarly attractive. Cattle markets are held near the FYvie railway station on the third Thursday in each month. There is a Branch Bank and a Savings' Bank in the parish, also several large general merchants establishments. The places of worship include Established, Free, and Episcopal Churches, and there are several public schools in various districts in the parish. The railway company before-mentioned have also a station at Rothie Norman, three miles south from Fyvie Station.

METHLICK is a parish situated about 22 miles from Aberdeen (its post town), 7½ from Ellon and Oldmeldrum, and 5 from Armage, a country station on the Great North of Scotland Railway. The village is situated on the banks of the River Ythan, and enjoys a considerable trade with the surrounding agricultural population. Haddo House, the seat of the Earl of Aberdeen, is in the parish.

Post Office, Fyvie, Alexander Stephen, postmaster.—Letters arrive from the north at half-past seven morning, and are despatched therefrom at quarter-past eight morning. From Aberdeen and the south arrive at ten minutes past nine morning, and one noon, and are despatched at half-past six morning and half-past four afternoon. Money Order, Telegraph Office, and Savings' Bank.

Post Office, Methlick, Alexander Smith, postmaster.—Letters from Aberdeen arrive at ten minutes past eight morning, and are despatched thereto at a quarter before twelve noon.

GARIOCH,

CLUNY, CULSALMOND, DAVIOT, INSch, KEMNAY, LESLIE, MONYMUSK, OYNE, PITCAPLE, PREMNAY, AND RAYNE.

GARIOCH (or the Chapel of Garioch or Logic-Durno), is an extensive parish and seat of a presbytery, situated about 20 miles from Aberdeen, 5 from Inverurie, 20 from Huntly, 30 from Banff, and 33½ from Keith. The main line of the Great North of Scotland Railway passes through the parish, the Pitcaple Station on this line being situated about 14 miles from the Parish Church (or Chapel) of Garioch. The battle of Harlaw was fought in this district in 1411, between the Earl of Marr, and Donald, Earl of the Isles. In this desperate contest and bloody engagement many of the members of the first Scottish families were engaged, also the then Lord Provost of the City of Aberdeen. The ruins of the Castle of Balquhain are in this parish, and are particularly noted for a fine echo, said to be the most distinct in North Britain. The district is principally agricultural.

CLUNY is also an agricultural parish of considerable extent, situated about 18 miles from Aberdeen, 9 from Inverurie, and a short distance from the Monymusk Station on the Alford Valley branch of the Great North of Scotland Railway. Castle Cluny and Castle Frazer, erected about the commencement of the 16th century, are both in this parish. There are also several remains of druidical temples, cairns, &c.

CULSALMOND, 28 miles from Aberdeen, and about 10 miles from Huntly, is an agricultural parish, noted for its fertility. In the adjoining parish, Insch, is a station on the main line of the Great North of Scotland Railway. The annual fair of St. Sairs in Culsalmond is held on the Wednesday after the last Tuesday in June (old style).

DAVIOT, a parish in the district of Garioch, is 10 miles north-west from Aberdeen, and is about five miles in length by four in breadth; the surface is level, and has a south-eastern exposure. It has two druidical temples, one of which forms part of the churchyard. The small village of Daviot contains a church of the Establishment, and a school belonging to it.

INSCH is a parish, burgh of barony, and village in the Garioch district, 27½ miles from Aberdeen, 13 from Huntly, and 23 from Keith. Insch enjoys a considerable trade with the surrounding agricultural districts, contains various merchants establishments, three Branch Banks, a Savings' Bank, a large corn mill, &c. Blue slate is obtained from quarries on the hill of Poldnan in this parish. Railway communication is afforded by the main line of the Great North of Scotland Railway; the station is situated about a quarter of a mile from the village. An Established Church, a Free Church, and a Congregational Chapel are the places of worship.

LESLIE is a parish adjoining Insch, in the Garioch district. A church of the Establishment, a Free Church, and a Congregational Chapel are the places of worship. The inhabitants are principally engaged in agricultural pursuits.

KEMNAY is a parish and railway station, situated about 4 miles from Inverurie, 18 from Aberdeen, and 11½ from Alford, on the branch line of railway to the latter place. In the parish are several extensive granite quarries. The neighbourhood of Kemnay is very picturesque. Kemnay House and grounds are particularly worthy of notice.

MONYMUSK parish is about seven miles long, and from four to five broad, and is distant from Inverurie eight miles. The village is well built, in form of a square, with the church in the centre, and the houses being constructed of granite, the place altogether has a remarkably neat and clean appearance. The railway station, on the Alford branch of the Great North of Scotland Line, is about half-a-mile from the village.

OYNE, a parish in Garioch district, stretching about six miles in length, by two to three in breadth, is mostly of a fertile and cheerful aspect. Aberdeen is about 25 miles distant, and Huntly 14 miles. Oyne is also a station on the main line of the railway just named. In this parish may be seen the ruins of an old castle, which tradition states to have belonged at one time to the family of Leith.

PREMNAY is an agricultural parish, lying to the west of Oyne, by which it is bounded. It is situated 2½ miles from Aberdeen.

RAYNE is an agricultural parish 4½ miles in length and about 3 in breadth. In the central part of the parish stands the village of Rayne, 33 miles from Pitcaple, its post town and railway station, and on the public road, along the Urie, is the little village of Old Rayne, distant 24 miles N.W. from Aberdeen and 9 from Inverurie; it is in Rayne that the church is situated. An annual fair is held on the second Tuesday in August, on the Thursday before the 20th May, and the Thursday before the 22nd November.

HUNLTY,
CAIRNIE, GLASS, DRUMBLADE, AND GARTLY.

HUNLTY, one of the market towns in the county, is a burgh of barony, the seat of a presbytery, and a station on the main line of the Great North of Scotland Railway, situated 40½ miles (by rail) from Aberdeen, 159½ from Edinburgh, 192 from Glasgow, 24½ from Inveraray, 12½ from Keith, and 24 from Banff; the distance by road to Edinburgh is 123 miles, to Inverness 66, and to Fochabers 18. The town of Huntly presents a particularly respectable appearance; many of the buildings are of modern erection, and the business premises of most of the merchants and traders are large and well stocked with commodities of every description. Several branch banking establishments, agricultural implement works, woollen and hosiery manufactories, &c., flourish here, in addition to a large general trade with an extensive and important agricultural district. Visitors find every accommodation at and excellent hotel, or at the several inns in the town. Stewart’s Hall, in Gordon-street, recently erected, contains a large room, well adapted for public meetings, concerts, or other amusements. The lofty tower (in which there is an observatory, or clock, illuminated by night) is a notable feature in the surrounding landscape. The town occupies a healthy situation, on a point of land at the junction of the small rivers Bogie and Deveron, each of which streams are crossed by a bridge. Within a short distance of the town are the interesting ruins of Huntly Castle, the ancient residence of the Gordon family. The castle was built in 1314 after the battle of Glencrie, in the year 1594. Huntly Lodge, the residence of Michael Hughes, Esq., is a modern mansion, situated in the beautiful grounds surrounding the castle. The places of worship are the Parish, Free and Episcopal Churches, United Presbyterian, Congregational, and Roman Catholic Chapels. Several public and charitable educational establishments are well sustained and conducted with ability. The Gordon Schools were opened in 1841, by the late Duchess of Gordon. The school premises, which are handsome and fitted in every convenient way for their purpose, comprise four departments, namely, the parochial school, the school of the Free church, the industrial school, and one for the infants; the teachers of the latter classes have residences in the establishment. A home for the aged, founded and endowed by the late Alex. Scott, Esq., of Craigston House, affords an asylum for the aged destitute of both sexes. Markets for cattle are held on the first and third Wednesday of every month, and for horses on the 1st Wednesdays in January, March, July, and October. Markets for hiring servants are held on the Thursday before the 26th May, the second Thursday in July, and the Thursday before the 22nd November. The harvest hiring market is held on the Thursday before the 3rd Wednesday in July.

CAIRNIE (near Huntly) is a large parish, the chief portion of which is in Banffshire, and the remainder in Aberdeenshire. Though mountainous for the most part, the land is cultivated as far as possible, and produces average crops. The village is situated six miles from Huntly, its post town.

GLASS, 8½ miles from Huntly, is an agricultural parish, also situated in the two counties of Aberdeenshire and Banff.

DRUMBLADE, six miles from Huntly, its post town, is also an agricultural parish, about 5½ miles in length and 4½ in breadth.

GARTLY parish, of which the Duke of Richmond and Gordon is the sole landed proprietor, is twelve miles long and six broad, situated partly in Aberdeenshire and partly in the adjoining county of Banff. Gartly is a station on the Great North of Scotland Railway, 35½ miles from Aberdeen, and five from Huntly. An omnibus, conveying passengers to Rhynie, Lumsden, and the Strathspey district, leaves the station every week-day afternoon. The parish, which contains a quarry of blue slate, is generally hilly, but extensive tracts are in a high state of cultivation.

Post Office, The Square, Huntly, John Porter, postmaster.—Letters arrive from all parts at 9.10 a.m. and 1.5 p.m. and are despatched thereto at 9 am. at 12.50 noon on 4 p.m. in winter, and in summer at 7 p.m. Letters arrive from the north at 9.55 a.m. and 1.50 p.m. and are despatched thereto at 12.20 noon. A bag from Aberdeen every Saturday night at seven. Letters arrive on Sundays (by mail gig from Keith), at 5.30 p.m. and are despatched thereto at 7 a.m. Money Order Office, Telegraph and Savings’ Bank.

Post Office, Gartly, John Dallas, postmaster.—Letters arrive from Aberdeen and the South at 9.45 a.m. and 12.50 noon, and from the north at 10 a.m. and are despatched to Aberdeen and the South at 8.20 a.m. and 4.20 p.m. (in summer the afternoon despatch is three hours later), to the north at 9.40 a.m. and 12.30 noon. Nearest Money Order Office is at Huntly.

INVERURIE,
KEITH HALL, PORT ELPHINSTONE, KINMUCK, KINKELL, AND KINTORE.

INVERURIE is a very ancient royal burgh, town, and parish, bounded on the south by the river Don and on the north by the river Urie (from which the parish takes its name). The town is situated on the main line of the Great North of Scotland Railway, 16 miles from Aberdeen, 244 from Huntly, 224 from Turriff, 333 from Banff Bridge and Maeduff, 5 from Old Meldrum, and 10 from Dyce Junction. The local government of the burgh is vested in a provost, three bailies, a treasurer, and four councillors, and in conjunction with Banff, Cultell, Elgin, Kintore, and Peterhead returns a member to the imperial parliament. These places, styled the Elgin district of burghs, have constituencies 1875-6 numbering 3,627, of which number 385 are located in Inverurie. Mountstuart Elphinstone Grant Du, Esq., is the present member. The Town Hall is a fine granite building, occupying a commanding situation at the head of the Market place; in addition to offices, &c., it contains a large room suitable for public meetings, judicial proceedings, &c. The Sheriff Court for the recovery of small debts is held here quarterly in March, June, October, and December. Inverurie is pleasantly situated in the midst of a very picturesque district, and is a favourite resort during the summer season, the rivers before named affording ample sport to the angler. The Kintore Arms, a very superior hotel in every respect, is conveniently situated near the railway station and contains a library, and every requisite for the comfort of visitors. Keith Hall, in the adjoining parish, is the residence of the Earl of Kintore, who derives the title of baron from Inverurie. The local trade of the town is in a thriving condition, the cattle markets are largely attended by both buyers and sellers of stock, large quantities of meat in carcass is forwarded to the London market weekly, the tanning of leather is extensively carried on by Mr. Davidson. Four banking companies have branch establishments in the town, and in addition to the hotel before named there are several respectable inns. With reference to the early history of Inverurie it may be mentioned that in the preamble to the oldest charter in existence (one granted to the burgh by Queen Mary) it is stated that Inverurie had been a burgh from time immemorial; according to tradition, however, King Robert erected it into a burgh to commemorate a victory gained by him in the neighbourhood. The places of worship in the parish are Established and Free Churches, and Episcopal, Congregational and Methodist Chapels, and a Roman Catholic Chapel. Several of these are of considerable architectural pretensions, and are striking features in the town. A new Free Church in the Gothic style of architecture with spire, is in course of erection in West High Street; this handsome edifice will replace the church formerly used for worship in the same neighbourhood. There are public schools affording ample accommodation for the present educational requirements of the district. Markets are held every third week—2nd January, 20th January (cattle), 10th February, 6th March, 27th March, 17th April, 5th and 29th May (cattle), Wednesday before 26th May (faying), 19th June (cattle), 10th and 31st July (cattle—and 4th Tuesday (faying), 21st August (cattle), 11th September (cattle), 2nd and 23rd October (cattle), 13th and Wednesday before 22nd November (cattle), 4th and 25th December (cattle). PORT ELPHINSTONE, on the opposite bank of the Don, a short distance to the south of Inverurie, but connected with it by the bridge erected in 1791, is a pleasant village, near which are the extensive works of Messrs. Tait, paper makers and millers. KINTORE is also a royal burgh, town, parish, and railway station, 13 miles from Aberdeen, 3 from Inverurie, and 16 from Alford by the branch railway, which here joins the G. N. of Scotland main line. In the town are several good retail establishments and two inns, and in its immediate vicinity the extensive nursery grounds of Messrs. Smith & Son. In this parish are numerous cairns and tumuli, which are said to point out the place where Robert Bruce overtook and destroyed the army of Edward I., after the defeat of Comyn, Earl of Buchan, near Inverurie; and within the parish is Hall Forest Castle, formerly a hunting seat of King Robert, now the property of the Earl of Kintore, to whom three-fourths of the parish belongs. The burgh is governed by a provost, two bailies, a dean of guild, and a treasurer, who are assisted by a council of burgesses. As one of the Elgin district of burghs, Kintore shares in the return of a representative to parliament. Markets are held 11th January, 1st February, 14th March, 16th May, 4th July, and 28th November. The places of worship are the Established and Free Churches. The village of Port Elphinstone, though contiguous and closely connected with Inverurie, is in Kintore.

KEITH HALL and KINKELL, formerly separate parishes, are now united under the name of Keith Hall. The parish is separated from that of Inverurie by the narrow stream of the Urie, near its confluence with the Don. Keith Hall (before mentioned), the seat of the Earl of Kintore, Lord-Lieutenant of Aberdeen, is situated in this parish, in the midst of an extensive well-wooded demesne; the grounds adjoining the mansion are laid out with great taste, and are frequently open to the public by the permission of the Earl, a nobleman who is deservedly respected, not only in the neighbourhood but throughout the county, for his many estimable qualities. The Society of Friends have had a place of worship in this parish at Kinmuck for nearly two hundred years; the meeting house contains a library of interesting works relative to the society.

KINCARDINE-ONEIL is a parish and village, the latter situated three miles from the Torphins Station, on the Dee-side Section of the Great North of Scotland Railway, 26 miles from Aberdeen, and 16 from Ballater. The village, situated on the banks of the Dee, and on the public road from Aberdeen to Ballater, is a quiet and pleasant retreat in summer for those in search of retirement, or anglers; the latter find excellent sport in the Dee. There are several traders establishments, and a good inn in the village. The parish is agricultural, some portions are hilly, and there are extensive plantations. Fairs are held on the second Tuesday in May, and on the Wednesday and Thursday after the last Tuesday in August (old style). At Torphins, in this parish, a church has been recently erected, and the district formed into a good secure parish. Markets are held, for cattle, &c., on the first Thursday in February, 5th of March, the 2nd Monday in June, and the 2nd Thursday in December.

ABOYNE, or CHARLESTOWN OF ABOYNE, is a village in the parish of its name, district of Marv, most pleasantly situated on the north side of the Dee, 32½ miles from Aberdeen, and 11 from Ballater. Aboyne is a station on the Dee-side line above-mentioned, and during the summer months is much frequented. The streams are noted amongst anglers, as also the woods, forests, and moorlands in the surrounding district for game of various kinds. The Huntly Arms Hotel affords excellent accommodation for visitors to this delightful locality. In the village of Aboyne are several merchants and traders shops, a banking establishment, a corn mill, public schools, &c.

Inverurie.

A handsome suspension bridge across the Dee, built at the sole expense of the Marquis of Huntly, is a great convenience to the residents in the parishes on both sides of the river, Aboyne Castle, the seat of this nobleman, is situated here. In the midst of an extensive and well-wooded demesne. Fairs (cattle and horses), are held at Aboyne on the third Thursday in January, January, March, April, May, August, September, and December, the last Wednesday in June, the last Friday in July, and the first Tuesday and Wednesday in October (old style.) Hiring Fair is held on the first Tuesday in May.

BIRSE, situated on the south bank of the Dee, is a parish ten miles in length, and about the same in breadth. A considerable portion of the parish is hilly, and unsuitable for cultivation; the level tracts are fertile. Aboyne, on the opposite bank of the river, is the nearest railway station.

LUMPHANAN is an agricultural parish and station on the Dee-side railway, 15 miles from Aboyne, 27 from Aberdeen, and 103 from Ballater.

Post Office, Aboyne, Ann Moggach, postmistress—Letters from all parts arrive at 9.40 a.m. and 7.10 p.m., and are despatched at 7.30 a.m., 1 p.m., and 4.40 p.m. Letters arrive from Ballater at 8.0 a.m., and are despatched at 9.20 a.m. Money Order and Telegraph Office.

NEW & OLD DEER,
AUCHNAGATT, FETTERANGUS, LONGSIDE, MINTLAW, MAUD, AND STUARTFIELD.

NEW DEER is an extensive agricultural parish in the centre of the Buchan district, extending 14 miles in length and about 7 in breadth. At Maud, about three miles from the village, is a railway station, on the Fortmartine and Buchan section of the Great North of Scotland Railway. This station is situated 13 miles from Peterhead, 16 from Fraserburgh, and 31 from Aberdeen, and is the telegraph station for the district. The parish is intersected by the river Ugie, which encircles the park and grounds of Brucklay Castle. The castle, erected in 1540, occupies a romantic situation, and is one of the principal attractions of the neighbourhood. Fairs for horses, cattle, and sheep are held at stated times, and are well attended. In the village are various retail establishments, doing a considerable trade with the surrounding prosperous agricultural district.

OLD DEER is an extensive agricultural parish in Buchan, containing an area of 27,439 acres, a portion of which, 2,812 acres, forms a detached portion of Banffshire, which includes the village of Fetterangus. The village of Old Deer is situated about 16 miles west from Peterhead, 26 north from Aberdeen, and one mile from the Mintlaw station of the Great North of Scotland Railway. The river Ugie intersects the parish, along the banks of which are several mills. The Abbey of Deer is about a mile from the village; this place was built in the 13th century, and is now mostly in ruins. The Druids' temple at Bifie is an object of great attraction to the antiquarian and traveller. The mansion, woods, and beautiful grounds, of Colonel Ferguson, of Pitfour, are the great objects of interest to visitors to the district.

LONGSIDE, also an agricultural parish in Buchan, contains the village and railway station of its name, the village is about 30 miles north of Aberdeen, 6 west of Peterhead, and 4 from Old Deer. There is an Established Church, an Episcopal Chapel, a Free Church, and a parochial school in the village; a new school has also been erected for girls. The village of Mintlaw, in this parish, is 3 miles from Longside, on the road leading from Aberdeen and Fraserburgh; it is also a station on the Great North of Scotland Railway. Fairs are held at Mintlaw on the second Tuesday in every month.

Post Office, Mintlaw, Bather Leyoey, postmaster.—Letters arrive from Aberdeen and the South at 8 a.m. and 5:30 p.m.; from Peterhead, Fraserburgh, Mintlaw, Lumby, and Strichen at 7:30 a.m. Letters are despatched to Aberdeen and the South at 7:35 a.m. and 6:20 p.m.; to Peterhead and Mintlaw at 8:25 a.m.; to Fraserburgh, Lumby, and Strichen at 9:43 a.m. Telegraph Office at the Railway Station.

Post Office, Longside, Mary Watt, postmistress.—Letters arrive from all parts at 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., and are despatched thereto at 7:30 a.m. and 4:20 p.m. Money Order and Savings’ Bank. Telegraph Office at the Railway Station.

NEW MACHAR,
CRAIG DAM, DYCE, FINTRAY, AND UDNY.

NEW MACHAR is a parish, village, and railway station, in the Buchan district, situated about 11½ miles by rail and about 10 by road from Aberdeen. The parish is 10 miles in length and 2½ broad, is flat and in an excellent state of cultivation generally. The river Ythan and the Great North of Scotland Railway (Fortmartine and Buchan section) intersect the parish. There is a small lake near the boundary of Old Machar, called Bishop's Loch, in which is an island, whereon stands the ruins of a castle once belonging to the bishops of Aberdeen. At Craig Dam (near Tarves) is the chapel of the members of the United Secession, endowed by Mr. P. Barron, of Harpley, in Norfolk. Fairs are held on the third Thursday in January, March, May, and November, and the second Thursday in July.

DYCE is an extensive parish, situated about 4 miles from New Machar and 7½ from Aberdeen; to the parish kirk or by rail to the Dyce Junction station 6 miles. The manufacture of chemical manures is carried on here at works near the railway station, and there are extensive granite quarries in the hills, known as the Tyrebegar Ridge.

FINTRAY is a parish situated 10 miles from Aberdeen and a short distance from the Kinaldie station, on the G. N. of Scotland Railway. The river Don flows through the parish; on and near its banks agricultural operations are carried on successfully, the other portions are not favourable for cultivation. The parish is about five miles long and four broad.

UDNY is an agricultural parish in the Buchan district, about five miles square, situated 14 miles north from Aberdeen. Udny Castle, the elegant mansion of J. H. F. Udny, Esq., of Udny, is the principal residence in the parish. The G. N. of Scotland Railway runs through a portion of the parish on the east. Cattle markets are held on the last Thursday in each month, at the Udny Railway Station.

OLD MELDRUM,
BOURTIE AND TARVES.

OLD MELDRUM (or Meldrum) is a parish, a burgh of barony, and a market town, the latter situated on the crest of an eminence commanding extensive views of the adjacent picturesque and pastoral portions of the county. The town is distant 5 miles from Inverurie, 18 miles (by road) from Aberdeen, and 27 from Banff. A branch line from Inverurie connects it with the main line of the Great North of Scotland Railway system. The principal object of interest in the neighbourhood is Meldrum House, the seat of B. C. Urquhart, Esq., it is in the antique style of architecture, and is surrounded by fine scenery. In addition to a good retail trade the principal branches of business are an extensive distillayry, a brewery and agricultural implement works. There is an Established Church and a Free Church and one each for Presbyterians and Episcopalians. Extensive well-built school premises have been recently erected to supply the educational requirements of the neighbourhood.

BOURTIE is a parish situated between Meldrum and Inverurie, in length it is four miles and in breadth two. Agriculture is the chief employment of the inhabitants. There is an Established Church and a board school.

TARVES is a parish about nine miles in length and six in breadth, bounded on the north by Methlick and on the west by Old Meldrum from which it is distant 6 miles. The parish is a flat surface on the general outline and the soil is for the most part fit for agriculture. The nearest railway station is at Old Meldrum.

Post Office, Old Meldrum, Wm. Den, postmaster.—
Letters arrive from all parts at 8 a.m. and 12.30 noon, and are despatched north at 10.10 a.m. and to north and south at 12.55 a.m. and 5 p.m. On Sunday letters arrive at 8 a.m. and are despatched at 8.50 a.m.
Money Order Office, Telegraph Office and Savings Bank.

Post Office, Tarves, Frances Lumsden, postmistress.—Letters arrive from the north and from Aberdeen and England at 7.30 a.m. and are despatched to all parts at 12.25 noon. Nearest Money Order Office, Old Meldrum, Telegraph Office at Udny station 5½ miles distant.

PETERHEAD, BODDAM, BUCHANHAVEN, BURNHAVEN, AND INVERNETTIE.

PETERHEAD, a burgh of barony, seaport, and one of the principal fishing stations on the north-east coast of Scotland, is situated in the district of Buchan, Aberdeenshire, 32 miles N.E. from Aberdeen (44 by rail), 18 S.S.E. from Fraserburgh (29 by rail), 34 S.S.E. from Banff, 159 by rail from Edinburgh and 196 from Glasgow. Peterhead is the terminus of the Fortmartine and Buchan section of the Great North of Scotland Railway system. There are several trains daily to Aberdeen and the south, and to Fraserburgh, via Maud Junction, and to Banff and the north by Dyce Junction. Since the opening of the line in 1882 it has operated very beneficially on the trade of the town and district. Up to a comparatively recent date Peterhead ranked only as a creek under Aberdeen, it is now, however, a separate independent port, its jurisdiction extending from the Ythan river on the south to Rattray Head northwards. The harbours have been considered of importance from an early date. In the reign of Charles II. an Act of Parliament dated 1661 was passed for a contribution for repairing the said harbours; in 1705 the Scottish Privy Council authorised a voluntary contribution within the burgh of the total receipts for the same object; voluntary contributions were also sanctioned by the Convention throughout all the royal burghs of Scotland in the years 1729-39, since which period various Acts of Parliament have been obtained for extension, improvement, and maintenance of the harbours. To meet the increasing requirements of the shipping and fishing trades of the port, the Act of Parliament recently obtained provides for the amendment of the constitution of their management. The trustees will now comprise the provost of the burgh, the provost and factor of the Merchant Maidan Hospital, one person elected by the town council, one by the provost and magistrates, six by the proprietors of land and heritages, three by shipowners, and three by the rates payers of the burghs. The dues received can only be applied to the payment of interest, liquidation of the debt, and the necessary expenses of management and maintenance. Peterhead possesses the advantage of north and south harbours, respectively of eleven and seven acres in extent, communicating by means of a canal or channel, over which is a cast-iron swing bridge, upon the construction of which upwards of £8,000 was expended. In the north harbour are graving or dry docks, and at the entrance to both harbours are good lighthouses. There is a spacious bay, with good anchorage, on the south of the town, on the opposite side of which stands the Buchaness light-house, having a beautiful revolving light. The south harbour has twelve to fourteen feet of water at mean high water spring, and eight to ten feet at neap tides; and the north harbour has, at spring tides, eighteen feet of water. At an early-period its vessels traded to the ports in the Baltic, the Levant, and to America. The peninsula upon which Peterhead is built is the most easterly point of Scotland. The streets of the town present a clean appearance, the houses, etc., being built of grey granite. The elegant public hall buildings and those in Chapel-street recently erected have considerably improved the appearance of the centre of the town. The sanitary condition of the burgh is carefully attended to, and the supply of water has been recently much improved. Eighty years ago the first vessel was despatched from Peterhead to the Arctic seal and whale fishery; it has since been prosecuted with varying success. In 1857 thirty sailing vessels and two steamers were engaged in this hazardous business; the number of vessels has considerably declined during the past few years, but Peterhead is still largely interested in this specie of industry. The maximum height of the herring fishery in 1815 by a Joint Stock Company it has grown to be one of the principal sources of wealth to the burgh and its inhabitants, 219,588 barrels having been cured at this station in 1874, and in 1875 206,305, principally shipped to continental ports. The projected improvements and increased accommodation in the harbour for the boats will still further develop the trade. The curing establishments are on a most extensive scale, and during the season present a scene of considerable activity. Cod fish and other descriptions are largely taken and forwarded by rail fresh to the southern markets. Within a few miles of the town are the extensive granite quarries for which Peterhead is celebrated. Monuments, tombs, architectural and ornamental work, etc., for which the red and grey granite is so eminently suited, are sculptured, worked, and polished at two large works in the vicinity, and largely exported to the English and American markets. The manufacture of woolen goods is extensively carried on by Messrs. Thomas Smith & Co., at the Kirkburn and Millbrook Mills. There are also large saw mills, timber yards, breweries, iron foundry, agricultural implement works, ship and boat building establishments, works for the preparation of cattle feeding stuffs, manures, &c. The fish curers also find constant employment for a large number of coopers in the manufacture of herring.
PETE HEAD.

The Scottish Highland Distillery Co., Limited, Invernettie, are extensive distillers of pure Highland whisky. Timber is largely imported from Swedish and Norwegian ports for barrel staves, &c., also coal and salt, the latter principally from the Cheshire mines, via Liverpool and Runcorn. There are five banking establishments in the town and several hotels. Two weekly newspapers are published here, the Easter Aberdeenshire Journal (formerly the Buchan Observer) on Friday, and the Peterhead Sentinel. Both of these papers circulate largely throughout the Buchan and adjoining districts. The market is held on Friday. The town enjoys a good local trade with the adjoining agricultural parishes. The wholesale and retail merchants and traders' establishments are large and well-stocked with commodities of every description. A market for the sale of horses, cattle, and sheep has been recently established.

The town house occupies a commanding situation at the head of the principal street; it contains the town hall and the court room, in which the bailie court sits. The building is surmounted by a fine spire, 125 feet in height, containing a clock, illuminated by night. Immediately in front of the town house is a fine bronze statue of Field-Marshal James Francis Edward Knyvett, Esq., born in Inverurie, 1696; killed at the battle of Hochkirchen, 14 October, 1758. The gift of William 1st, King of Prussia, to the town of Peterhead, August, 1808. Probus visit, forts orb? The sheriff's court is held weekly in the court house, Queen-street. The town enjoys the privileges of a royal burgh, and with Kinmore, Inverurie, Elgin, Cullen, and Banff, returns one member to parliament. The present member is Mountstuart Elphinstone Grant Duff, Esq., of Eden, near Banff, and 4 Queensgate Gardens, London, who has represented the burghs since 1857. The Established church, situated at the conjunction of the south and west roads, combines elegance with convenience, and has a fine spire; and recently has been erected two Quad-Saca chapels, in Queen-street and at Blackhill. The Episcopal chapel is a handsome modern edifice, in the design of which the architect has displayed considerable taste. The other places of worship are, one for the Free church, a new chapel erected in 1870 for Independents, an United Presbyterian church, one for Methodists, a Baptist Meeting house, and a chapel for Roman Catholics. The governors of the Merchant Maiden Hospital of Edinburgh, proprietors of the estate of Peterhead, have recently laid out and enclosed a large space of suitable ground for a public cemetery. Since the elective franchise was conferred upon the burgh, the magistrates and councillors are elected by the householders in the burgh. Amongst the literary institutions of Peterhead may be mentioned as the principal a reading room, erected in 1808, and a mechanics' institution, founded in 1836. There is also a solicitors' library. In the handsome range of buildings recently erected in Chapel-street is located a very valuable museum, the property of the late Adam Arbuthnot, Esq., by whom it was bequeathed to the authorities for the use of the town, containing a great variety of specimens collected from the animal and mineral kingdoms. This collection is under the care and management of the magistrates and town council. There are several excellent schools. The walls of Peterhead formerly enjoyed a high reputation and were much frequented; the water is chalybeate, and possesses excellent medicinal qualities. A very agreeable excursion can be made from Peterhead to the interesting ruins of Inverurie Castle, 2½ miles distant. A portion of the walls of the castle still remain. A magnificent view is obtained of the valley of the Ugie by ascending to the roof by the winding staircase in one of the towers. The ruins of Ravens Craig Castle are situated about a quarter of a mile from Inverurie, on the opposite side of the river, and are well worthy of the notice of the antiquarian, being a fine specimen of the Scotch baronial style of the thirteenth century.

BODDAM is a neat village and considerable fishing station, in the parish of Peterhead, about four miles south of that town. The harbour here was extended a few years since by the Earl of Aberdeen, at a cost somewhat exceeding £2,000, and an Act of Parliament was passed in 1845 constituting Boddam a port or harbour. Some years ago the estate of Boddam was purchased from the Earl of Aberdeen by William Atton, Esq., who resides on the estate. The fishery here is prosecuted with great diligence and success. A manufactory of herring nets is successfully carried on in the village. A chapel of ease and a good parish school, supplementary to Peterhead, are in the village. Large school premises have been recently erected to meet the requirements of the district.

BUCHANHAVEN and BURNHAVEN are fishing villages near Peterhead.

INVERNETTIE is likewise in the parish of Peterhead, and is chiefly inhabited by fishermen. An extensive distillery has been established here by the Scottish Highland Distillery Co.

RHYNIE & ESSIE,
AUCHINDOIR, KEARN, LUMSDEN, CABRACH, CLATT, AND KENNETHMONT.

RHYNIE (united with Essie) is a very extensive parish comprising an area of 12,983 acres, situated in the district of Strathbogie. The village of Rhynie, about 33 miles from Aberdeen, 5½ from Gartly Station on the Great North of Scotland Railway, and 10 from Huntly, contains several merchants’ establishments, two banking establishments, two inns, and enjoys a considerable local trade. It is much frequented during the shooting season, the extensive tract of hilly country adjacent, abounding with game. Agricultural operations are carried on with much success on the lands adjacent to the river Bogie which flows through the parish. In the neighbourhood of the hills the soil is light and gravelly, but productive to a certain extent. The principal eminence in the neighbourhood is the “Tap Top,” which rises 1,832 feet above the level of the sea. On the top of the hill is a vitiﬁed fort. In the parish is a woolen mill and several saw mills, the various streams affording an unlimited supply of water power. A conveyance from the Gartly Station passes through the village daily en route to Lumsdon and Strathdon. Markets are held on the ﬁrst Wednesday in June, the day after Kuth in September, and the day after Kennethmont in October. Feeding markets are held on the Mondays before the 26th of May and the 22nd of November; also cattle markets during the winter are held on the Saturday following the fourth Monday in each month.

AUCHINDOIR (united with Kearn) is a parish 15,924 acres in extent. The village of Lumsdon is in the parish, and the only church is the “Tap Top,” which rises 1,832 feet above the level of the sea. A branch bank and several good retail establishments are located in the village. Lumdsen is the polling place for the 6th West Aberdeen District at the election of a member to the Imperial Parliament. Fairs are held on the last Tuesday in April, last Friday in May, and the third Saturday in August (o.s.).

CABRACH is a mountainous parish about 47 miles from Aberdeen partly in Banffshire and partly in Aberdeenhire. Game is abundant throughout the district.

Post Ofﬁce, Rhynie, James Roger, postmaster.—Letters arrive from all parts (except Strathdon) at 11.35 a.m. and are despatched at 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Letters arrive from Strathdon at 11 a.m. and are despatched at 8.30 a.m. Money Order Ofﬁce, Telegraph and Savings’ Bank.

Post Ofﬁce, Kennethmont, John Morrison, postmaster.—Letters arrive at 9.5 a.m. and 1 noon (extra mail on Saturday at 7 p.m.), and are despatched at 6.30 a.m. and 1.30 p.m. Money Order and Savings’ Bank. Telegraph Ofﬁce at the Railway Station.

Post Ofﬁce, Cabrach, James McComb, Croftpath (postmaster for lower or Banffshire district). Box closes for despatch, 10 a.m.; and arrival, 4.20 p.m. on week days, by messenger from Glass. Miss Macpherson, postmistress for upper or Aberdeenshire district.—Messenger to and from Rhynie three times a week—Monday, Wednesday, and Saturday. Arrival on these days, 2 p.m.; and despatch 3 p.m. Letters for Lower Cabrach should be addressed via Huntly, and for Cabrach via Rhynie. No direct communication between the two parish post ofﬁces.

ROSEHEARTY,

PITSLIGO, PITULLIE, AND SANDHAVEN.

ROSEHEARTY is a village in the parish of Pitsligo, 18 miles east from Banff, and about five miles west from Fraserburgh. The harbour, which is about to be considerably improved by the extension of the Portie Pier and other works, will afford increased protection and accommodation for the fleet of boats engaged in the herring fishery, and for other vessels frequenting the harbour. Fish curing is carried on extensively here, and there is a branch bank in the village. The imports are chiefly timber, coal, and salt, and the exports fish and grain. The places of worship are an Established, a Free, and an United Presbyterian Church, and there is a public school in the village.

PITSLIGO is a parish situated on the sea coast, between Fraserburgh and Aberdeen, commencing about two miles west of Kinnaird Head. The only object of interest in the parish is Pitsligo Castle, an ancient structure, and formerly the seat of Lord Pitsligo. The inhabitants are chiefly engaged in fishing, and others in agriculture.

SANDHAVEN and PITULLIE are villages in the above parish, situated between Rosehearty Point and Kinnaird Head. Fish curing is carried on to some extent in both villages.

STRICHEN,
ABERDOUR, NEW PITSILGO, PENNAN, AND TYRIE.

STRICHEN, in the district of Buchan, is an important village in the parish of its name and a railway station on the Fraserburgh line of the Great North of Scotland Railway 37 miles north (by rail) from Aberdeen 10 from Fraserburgh, 6 from Maud Junction and (by road) 20 west from Banff and 16 west-by-north from Turriff. The village, which is very pleasantly situated, enjoys a trade with the surrounding district. The Aberdeen Town and County Bank and the North of Scotland Banking Co. have each agencies here, and there are several general merchants establishments as well as other branches of industry including the manufacturing of tweeds, winceys and other wooden goods, extensively carried on by Messrs. Vass at a mill in the neighbourhood. The large figures of a horse and a stag formed by light coloured stones placed on the side of one of the lofty hills in this parish, generally excite the curiosity of the visitor from their singularity. The places of worship are a Church of the Established Church, a Free Church, an Episcopalian Chapel, also one for the Roman Catholics. Fairs are held here on the first Thursday of every month, and a hiring fair on the first Wednesday after the 12th of November.

ABERDOUR parish (now generally called New Aberdour to distinguish it from other places of the same name), is situated 9 miles west from Fraserburgh (its post town) and 16 from Banff. The parish extends along the Moray Frith about 10 miles, the shore being one series of precipitous rocks in which numerous chasms and caverns have been formed by the action of the waves. Upon a precipice overhanging the sea are the ruins of the ancient castle of Dundargue. Pennan is a small fishing village in this parish.

TYRIE is a parish situated five miles from Fraserburgh. The principal place in the parish is the village of New Pitsligo, 5 miles from Strichen, founded by the late Sir Wm. Forbes. A portion of the inhabitants are employed in agricultural pursuits and others in weaving linen. The Union Bank of Scotland has a branch in the village. The places of worship are the Established Church, the Free Church, the Congregational and Episcopalian Chapels. The village church of Tyrie is a very ancient structure situated in the Northern part of the parish.

There are also Stations at Plaidy and King Edward.

TURRIFF,

KING EDWARD AND NEW BYTH.

TURRIFF, a town of considerable importance, the seat of a presbytery and a free burgh of barony in the parish of its name, very pleasantly situated near the river Deveron and the Great North of Scotland line of Railway from Aberdeen to Macduff and Banff, the station at Turriff being 32½ miles from Aberdeen, 11 from Macduff or Banff, 17 N.N.W. by road, from Meldrum, 6 from Cumineston, and 8 from New Byth. Turriff enjoys a considerable trade with a large portion of the northern part of the county, of which the large and well-stocked merchants and traders’ establishments are sufficient evidence. Provision and fish curing is successfully carried on. Various other branches of industry flourish in the town, including agricultural implement works and coach building. Four of the important banking corporations have branches here, and the hotel accommodation is all that could be desired. A charter was granted in 1511 by James IV. in favour of Thomas Dickson, prebend of Turriff, entitling the inhabitants to hold a market weekly on Sunday, and three fairs annually, each to continue eight days. Markets for cattle, &c., are now held on the second and fourth Wednesday in each month, and hiring or offering markets on the Saturday before the 27th of May, the fourth Wednesday in July, and the Saturday before the 23rd November. The town being situated on an eminence commands an extensive view of the adjacent picturesque country. Forglen House, the seat of Sir George Abercrombie, Bart., and other elegant mansions are in the neighbourhood. The presbytery of Turriff includes the following parishes and missions:—Auchtelter, Drumblade, Forglen, Forgue, Fyvie, St. Mary’s Mission, Fyvie; Gamrie, Inverkeithney, King Edward, Macduff, Millbreg, Monquitter, New Byth, Turriff, and Ythan Wells. The Rev. Donald Stewart, King Edward, is clerk to the presbytery. The places of worship include the Established and Free churches, and an Episcopalian chapel. In addition to the usual public schools, there is a highly respectable boarding school for young ladies.

KING EDWARD or KEN-EDAR is an extensive parish, bounded on the south by Turriff and Monquitter, on the east by Fyvie, and on the north by Cairn; the G. N. S. railway station of King Edward is 64 miles from Turriff and 43 from Macduff. The parish, which extends 12 miles in length from south-east to north-west, and from two to five miles in breadth, is only partly under cultivation, but improving annually.

AUCHINBLAEB & FORDOUN.

AUCHINBLAEB is a market town situated on the banks of the river Ladder. It is distant 26 miles from Aberdeen, 11 from Stonehaven, 16 from Montrose and 24 from Fordoun station on the Caledonian Railway. Branches of the North of Scotland and the City of Glasgow Banks are established here as also a National Security Savings' Bank. The town is lighted by gas. A Public Hall was erected in 1870 by public subscription at a cost of £500, and can accommodate nearly 400 persons. The principal trade here is wool spinning, established as early as 1736. This being a place noted for the purity of the air, romantic walks and beautiful scenery, it is visited in the summer months by families from different parts of the country. The parish church, erected in 1829, is on a high rock and forms one of the most beautiful parts of the parish. It is a large handsome building in the Gothic style, with a tower nearly 100 feet in height. The manse is close to the church. In the valley below is the Free Church, a neat building, but much smaller than its neighbour. Markets are held at Auchenblae for the sale of cattle and hiring on the third Thursday of April, on Wednesday after the second Tuesday of May (old style), the 26th of May (hiring), Paddy fair (sheep) first Wednesday; cattle, first Thursday; horses, first Friday after first Tuesday in July (old style); on the day after Kincardine O'Neil in September, and on the 22nd November (hiring).

FORDOUN (the name of the parish) is a very small hamlet containing only a few houses and a small inn, close to the village of Auchenblae, but at Fordoun station, a distance of two and a-half miles, there are numerous shops having the appearance of doing a good retail trade, as also a good inn and posting establishment. Markets are held here every alternate Monday from October to May for the sale of cattle and grain.

IN FORDOUN PARISH.

Scott William, Fordoun station
BANCHORY-DAVENICK is a parish situated partly in Kincardine and partly in Aberdeenshire, the river Dee here forming the boundary between the two counties. The Deeside portion of the parish, studded with many elegant mansions and villa residences, is one of the most pleasant suburbs of the city of Aberdeen. The villages of Hillside and Port-Lethen are in this parish.

The parish of Maryculter lies on the south bank of the river Dee, about 3½ miles from Aberdeen. The neat wooden bridge for foot passengers erected across the river giving access to the Cults station, on the Deeside Railway. The Deeside hydropathic establishment at Heatcot, in this parish, most beautifully situated on the south bank of the river Dee, is under the superintendence of Dr. Johnstone. In addition to the advantage of the healthy and bracing climate, for which Heatcot is celebrated, visitors residing at Heatcot have the privilege of fishing in the river Dee, which runs through the estate.

Post Receiving House, Banchory-Davenick, Andrew Greig, receiver.—Letters arrive from Aberdeen at 7.30 a.m. and are despatched thereto at 2 p.m.

Post Receiving House, Maryculter, Wm. Wyllie, receiver.—Letters arrive from Aberdeen at 9 a.m. and are despatched thereto at 12.35 p.m. The nearest Money Order Office is at Aberdeen.

BANCHORY-TERNAN, (OR ARDSTRACHAN).

BANCHORY-TERNAN is a parish on the banks of the river Dee, containing the flourishing, respectable, and pleasantly-situated village of Banchory. The Deeside section of the Great North of Scotland Railway passes through the parish, and has a station at the village, 17 miles distant by rail from Aberdeen, 1½ from Aboyne, and 1½ from Ballater. The scenery in the neighbourhood is very beautiful, and attracts large numbers of visitors during the summer season, for whose accommodation there are several excellent inns and lodgings in the village. There are also three branch banks and several large general merchants establishments. The places of worship are the Parish Church, the Free Church, and an Episcopal Church. It may be mentioned that there is another parish bearing the name of Banchory-Davenick in the same county, situated 13 miles east from Banchory-Ternan.

DURRIS is an agricultural parish situated about three miles from Banchory-Ternan and fourteen from Aberdeen, on the southern bank of the river Dee.
The railway station is at Craithes, on the Deeside Railway before named.

STRACHAN is an extensive but mountainous parish, lying on the south of and adjoining Banchory.
Clachnabane, the principal eminence in the parish, risers to the height of 2,300 feet above the level of the sea. The nearest railway station is at Banchory, three miles distant from the church of Strachan.

BERVIE, ARBUTHNOTT, GOURDON, KINNEFF AND CATTERLINE.

BERVIE or INVERBERVIE is a parish and town of the same name; the latter is a royal burgh, a station on the Bervie and Montrose Railway Co.'s line, and the principal town for some miles round. It is situated 6½ miles from Forfar, 10 from Laurencekirk, 13 from Montrose, 10 from Stonehaven, 25 from Aberdeen, and 1 from Gourdon, and 4 from Johnshaven. The town is composed of one main street and several others branching therefrom, and contains some good buildings, the principal of which are the parish church, banks, and public hall. The banking interest is represented by branches of the Aberdeen Town and County Bank, North of Scotland Banking Co., National Securities Savings' Bank, and the Post Office Savings' Bank. The public hall is a handsome building, which has recently been built by public subscriptions; there is also a Town Hall and Oddfellows' Hall, all of which are let out for public meetings, amusements, &c. The places of worship are a Church of the Established and a Free Church; the former is a very handsome building, in the Gothic style of architecture, and is situated in the centre of the town. There are two schools here, one of which is under the management of the School Board; the other, a female school, is named after the late Mr. John Gordon, through whose liberality it was chiefly erected. Bervie was constituted a royal burgh by charter, from King David II. James VI. renewed the charter, confirming all the privileges and immunities granted by David. The burgh is governed by a provost, three bailies, a dean of guild, a treasurer, and nine councillors. It joins with Montrose, Arbuthnott, Brechin, and Forfar in returning one member to parliament. The sheriff's small debt court is held at Bervie on the third Monday in January, April, July, and October. The town is lighted with gas. The spinning of flax and tow is carried on here to a considerable extent, and affords employment to a large number of the inhabitants, there being five firms engaged in that business. The manufacture of woollen goods is also carried on here by one firm; there are also two firms engaged in the manufacture of winceys and sacks. In addition to the above, the firm of W. & S. Munro carry on the business of manufacturing chemists. The weekly market is held on Wednesday, and fairs on the Thursday before the 10th of May and September.

ARBUTHNOTT is a parish bounded by Bervie and Kinneff. There is no village in the parish. There is a Church of the Establishment and a board school.

KINNEFF-WITH-CATTERLINE is a parish on the sea coast, bounded on the west by Arbuthnott and the south by Bervie. The inhabitants are chiefly employed in fishing. The places of worship are a Church of the Establishment and a Free Church; there are also two board schools and an Episcopal school in this parish.

DRUMLITHIE AND GLENBERVIE.

DRUMLITHIE is a village in the parish of Glenbervie, 18 miles from Montrose, 8 from Laurencekirk, 7 from Stonehaven, and 4 from Auchinblie. There is a station on the Caledonian Railway close to the village. The parish of Glenbervie extends upwards of six miles in length, and is on the rivers Bervie and Carron. The northern part lies partly among the Grampian Hills. The hamlet of Glenbervie is a barony of the Douglas family. A Free church and an Episcopal church are in Drumlithie, and a church of the Establishment at Glenbervie. Michaelmas fair for horses, cattle, and grain is held on the first Thursday after the second Tuesday in October.

FETTERCAIRN

Is a parish and village situated on a small streamlet, a tributary to the North Esk, 5 miles from Edzell, 6 from Laurencekirk, 11 from Brechin, and 98 from Edinburgh. The Bridge of Gannochy crosses the river North Esk, a view from which has long been an object of admiration to the visitor. In the centre of the village a drinking fountain has been erected as a memorial to Sir J. H. Stuart Forbes, Bart. In the village square is the old cross of Kirkandine, an erection of great antiquity. There is a Branch of the City of Glasgow Bank, and a large distillery in the vicinity. The parish of Fettercairn lies at the foot of the lower range of the Grampians, extending considerably into the Mearns. Besides the handsome Parish Church, there is a Free church, an Episcopal chapel, and two libraries. Fairs for cattle and hiring servants are held on the day after old Whit Sunday, and day before Martinmas.

Post Office, Fettercairn, James Strachan, postmaster. Letters from all parts arrive (from Laurencekirk) at 7.30 a.m. and 12 noon, and are despatched thereto at 11.15 a.m. and 3.15 p.m. at 9 a.m., despatched at 10.30 a.m. Telegraph Office, and Savings' Bank.

JOHNSHAVEN, BENHOLM, AND ST. CYRUS.

JOHNSHAVEN is a village in the parish of Benholm, 4 miles from Bervie, 9 from Montrose, and 14 from Stonehaven. It contains an extensive manufactory for hemp, sackings, &c., which gives employment to a number of the inhabitants. There is also a good brewery here, but the principal trade in the village is fishing. A drinking fountain, of Aberdeen granite, has been recently erected here by public subscription, in memory of the late Rev. James Glen, A.M., Free Church minister. Brotherton Castle, the seat of Hercules Scott, Esq., is near this village. The parish of Benholm is mostly level and uncultivated. The places of worship are an Established Church, a Free Church, and one for United Presbyterians. There are also two board schools in the parish. The Montrose and Bervie Railway have a station at Johnshaven.

ST. CYRUS is a parish and village, the latter situated 4 miles from Johnshaven, 5 from Montrose, and 8 from Bervie, and is a station on the Montrose and Bervie Railway. The sea salmon fisheries along the coast are very valuable. The principal occupation of the inhabitants is salmon fishing. The parish contains limestone quarries, and there is also plenty of excellent freestone. The places of worship are the Parish and Free Churches, there are also two board schools and one private school, which is maintained by Miss Graham, of Kirkside.

Post Office, Johnshaven, John L. Beattie, postmaster.—Letters from all parts arrive (from Forfar) at 7:30 a.m. and 12 noon, and are despatched thereto at 7:30 a.m. and 12 noon. Money Order Office, Postal Telegraph Office, and Savings' Bank.
JOHNSHAVEN.

Sub-Post Office, St. Cyrus, James Stewart, post-master. — Letters from all parts arrive (from Montrose) at 8.10 a.m., and are despatched thereto at 3 p.m.

LAURENCEKIRK, GARVOCK, LUTHERMUIR, AND MARYKIRK.

LAURENCEKIRK, sometimes called Couveth, is a parish and village, the former being four miles in length, and three in breadth. It is situated on the main road from Perth to Aberdeen, 5 miles from Fettercairn, 10 From Edzell, 10 from Montrose, and is a station on the Caledonian Railway. It is governed by a bailie and four councillors. The main street in the village is nearly a mile in length, and there is one parallel to it, with several smaller ones diverging therefrom. There are two banking establishments, two first-class hotels, and a brewery. In the Market Muir, a Corn Exchange has been erected for the convenience of farmers attending the market. The places of worship are an Established and Free churches, and Episcopal and Independent chapels. There are also two board schools and an Episcopal school. Cattle and grain markets are held on every alternate Monday throughout the year.

MARYKIRK is a parish six miles in length and five in breadth, situated on the North Bank of the North Esk, five miles from Laurencekirk. The surface is level, and the soil is chiefly fertile. Some fine plantations ornament the district, which is interspersed with a number of handsome residences. Luthermuir is a village in this parish.

GARVOCK is a parish about 21 miles south-east from Laurencekirk. It is seven miles long by about four broad. The Parish Church is a plain building, erected in 1778. There is a board school in the parish.

Post Office, Laurencekirk, John Watt, postmaster. Letters arrive from all parts south at 7.30 and 10.20 a.m., and from the north at 2 and 5.30 p.m., and are despatched to the south at 1 and 4.45 p.m., and to the north at 2.20 a.m. and 2.40 p.m. Letters are despatched to Garvock and Mill of Kincardine at 7 a.m., and to Luthermuir and Garvock at 6.30 a.m. Money Order, Telegraph Office, and Savings’ Bank. Post Office (Sub to Montrose), Marykirk, Charles Carnegie, postmaster. Letters arrive from Montrose at 8.30 a.m., and are despatched thereto at 2.10 p.m. Letters for Luthermuir and Garvock should be addressed near Laurencekirk.

STONEHAVEN, CAINRHILL, COOKNEY, CRAWTON, DUNNOTTAR, FETTERESSO, MUCHALLS, NETHERLEY, NEWTONHILL, RICKARTON, AND SKATEROW.

STONEHAVEN, a town and seaport distant by rail about 16 miles from Aberdeen, 66 from Banff, 69 from Peterhead, 26 from Montrose, 41 from Forfar, 42 from Arbroath, 53 from Dundee and 77 from Perth. By road it is 15 miles from Aberdeen, 10 from Bervie, and 23 from Montrose. It is situated on the coast and on the rivers Carron and Cowie, and is divided into an old and a new town. The former, in the parish of Dunnottar, is a burgh of barony, under the superiority of Viscount Keith's trustees, and has a chief magistrate, second bailie, three councillors and town clerk. The new town, in Fetteresso parish, is not a burgh, but is governed by an association of farmers and householders, who elect a provost, bailies, and councillors, and discharge all the duties of a town council; all monies for improvements, &c. have to be raised by public subscription. The new town is laid out on a regular plan, having broad streets, with a square in the centre. In this square stands the market buildings, erected in 1827, with reading rooms in the upper storey and shops beneath. The buildings are a public property, but a very handsome spire 150 feet high, erected in the centre of them, is the property of the town, having been erected by public subscription. At present there is being erected a fine town hall, estimated to cost from £25,000 to £40,000. The old town consists of a few principal streets and several narrow ones. The shore head and the harbour, which is a natural basin sheltered by high rocks, and has good quays for loading and unloading vessels. There are eight vessels belonging to Stonehaven, averaging about 100 tons each. About 40 fishing boats are employed in haddock fishing, but during the herring season it is not unusual to have from 100 to 200 boats engaged. The boats come here from all quarters. The only charge made on boats is 5s. for each for the herring season. The revenue of the Harbour in 1875 was about £250. The imports are coal, lime, salt, timber, bark, stone for building and paving and millstones, also staves for fish barrels. The exports consist chiefly of grain, timber, and potatoes. The manufacture of woolen goods, tanning, brewing and distilling are carried on to some extent. A newspaper is published weekly. There are three banking establishments and several good inns. Sheriff Courts are held in the County Hall every Wednesday during Session and Small Debt and Debts Recovery Courts every alternate Wednesday. A fine new lifeboat and rocket apparatus are stationed at Stonehaven and have proved of service. The county buildings, offices, gaol and police station are in old town. The Combination Poor's House, a fine stone building is situated about half a mile from Stonehaven. It was opened for the reception of inmates on the 28th August 1867. The district comprises the parishes of Arbuthtoun, Banchory-Davenick, Banchory-Terman, Bervie, Dunnottar, Durness, Fettercairn, Fettersesso, Fordoun, Glenbervie, Kinneff, Laurencekirk, Marykirk and Strachan. Dunnottar and Fetteresso are situated about half a mile from the town; there is also a Free, an United Presbyterian and an Episcopal Church. A new Episcopal Church was built (1875) on a site of one acre, on the nave and aisles only being built at present, leaving tower, spire and chancel to be afterwards added. The portion at present in course of erection will cost upwards of £3,500, and will seat over 400 persons.

The foundation stone was laid by the late Right Rev. Bishop Forbes, on St. Matthew’s Day, 21st September, 1875. This was the bishop’s last episcopal act. He died on the 8th October, 1875. The architecture is what is generally called the early transition style, a mixture of Norman and early Gothic. A Roman Catholic Chapel is also being erected at the sole expense of Mrs. W. Rickart-Hepburn. There are some fine board schools in the town and neighbourhood. The market day is Thursday. Fairs are held 25th May and 21st November; if the above dates should happen on Sunday they are held the Saturday before. Cattle and sheep fairs the Thursday before Candlesmas, old style; Megray cattle market the third Thursday of June, old style; cattle and sheep, the Thursday before Lammas, old style; second Megray market, second Thursday in October, for cattle and horses; cattle and sheep, the Thursday before Christmas, old style. Cattle sales are held in the market square every alternative Thursday.

DUNNOTTAR is a parish comprising the old town of Stonehaven. It is about 5 miles in length by 3½ in breadth, and contains 7,783 acres of land for the most part cultivated. In this parish are the ruins of the celebrated Dunnottar Castle, which are situated on a rock 160 feet above the sea, about one mile from Stonehaven and occupy about 4 acres. They are a great attraction to visitors during the summer season. Cravton is a small fishing village in Dunnottar.

FETTERESSO is a very extensive parish extending about 10 miles in length and 5½ in breadth, and contains about 27,245 acres of land, about two-thirds of which is cultivated, the uncultivated portion is composed chiefly of bleak hills and barren land. All the following places pay rates to Fetteresso parish:— Cowrie is a small fishing village in Fetteresso parish, adjoining Stonehaven. Cookney was erected a quoad sacra parish in 1859, and was taken wholly from the parish of Fetteresso. The church is about 7 miles from Stonehaven, and about a mile from the village of Skaterow. The parish is about 6 miles in length and 4 in breadth. CAIRNIE is a small hamlet 6½ miles from Stonehaven in Cookney quoad sacra parish. MICHALLS is a station on the Scottish North-Eastern Railway, about 4½ miles from Stonehaven and 11 from Aberdeen. Fairs are held on the first Tuesday in May for cattle and horses, Tuesday before second Wednesday in June, first Tuesday in August, first Tuesday in October, old style, for cattle and horses. NEWTONHILL a hamlet and railway station is about 6 miles from Stonehaven and 9 from Aberdeen. NEBERSHILL is a small village about 8 miles from Stonehaven and one from Cookney. SKATEROW is a small fishing village adjoining Newtonhill. STRATHNAIRK is a small fishing village adjoining Michalls. RICKARTON quoad sacra parish, taken wholly from Fetteresso, is entirely agricultural.

BANFF,

ALVAH, BOYNDIE, ORD AND WHITEHILLS.

BANFF is a royal burgh and a parish, distant about 155 miles N. by E. from Edinburgh, 80 east from Inverness, 46 N. by W. from Aberdeen, 35 from Elgin, 25 from Foshakers, 13 from Cullen, 18 from Keith, 8 from Portsoy, and 1 from Macduff, pleasantly situated on the west bank of the Deveron. The burgh is governed by a provost, three bailies, treasurer, dean of guild, three councillors, town clerk, and town chamberlain, and with Macduff, Cullen, Elgin, Inverurie, Kintore, and Peterhead returns one member to parliament; the present representative is M. E. Grant Duff, Esq. Ordinary and small debt courts are held in the Court Room, County Buildings, once a week, and police courts are held in the Town House when necessary. The town comprises several good streets, of which are prominent, Spital, High, and Market streets, containing many fine buildings, including the County Buildings, Town House, churches, schools, banks, hotels, &c. In addition to these there is the museum, baths, library, institution, custom house, county prison, county asylum, life boat, rocket apparatus, and coast guard station. Railway communication is afforded by the Great North of Scotland Railway Co., who have two stations near the town, one at the harbour the other at Banff Bridge. Buses meet every train and ply to all parts of the town and neighbourhood. The river Deveron is crossed by a bridge of seven arches, about half-way between Banff and Macduff. From the bridge a fine view is obtained of Duff House, the seat of the Earl of Fife, surrounded by parks and plantations. The mansion is partly in the Corinthian and partly in the composite style of architecture.
The harbour of Banff is secure, but has not a great depth of water. The port of Banff is sixth in the list of Scotch ports as regards tonnage of sailing ships. The total number of vessels on the register is 118, the tonnage 17,000 tons. The number of fishing boats is 76, the principal imports, coal, timber, iron, slates, salt, and manures; exports, corn, meal, and fish. A large trade is done in fish curing. There are also a large foundry and implement works, shipbuilding yards, rope and sail works, a woollen factory, a brewery, a tannery, and a distillery. The banking interest is represented by six branch banks, a savings' bank, and a post office savings' bank. The Banffshire Journal newspaper is published here every Tuesday, and enjoys a wide circulation. The places of worship are a Church of the Establishment, Free and United Presbyterian Churches, and chapels belonging to Episcopalians, Baptists, Independents, Roman Catholics, and Wesleyan Methodists. Chalmers' Hospital was founded in 1801, in addition to a bequest by the late Alex. Chalmers, Esq., of Clunie, long a merchant in the town of Banff, and is for the support, maintenance, cure, and relief of destitute sick paupers (if not in actual receipt of parochial relief), lunatics, and other diseases, and poor infirm persons, of both sexes, born, domiciled, and resident in any town or parish of the county of Banff; the inhabitants whereof shall make collections at the respective parish churches and at the funds of the hospital. It is adapted to accommodate 60 patients. A permanent revenue for the support of the hospital is derived from the rental of the lands of Clunie, Knockorth, and Leithers. Besides the above there are several other bequests, by various persons, for the relief of the poor, aged, and infirm of the town. There are several private establishments in Banff for the education of young ladies and gentlemen, of which Boyndie House and St. Leonards are the principal. The burgh boards school are very large, and have an average attendance of nearly 400 children. The weekly corn and provision markets are held on Friday; Brandon fair on the Friday before the 19th May; and on the Friday before the 17th of November; the harvest fairing market on the 15th of August.

ALVAH is a parish commencing about a mile from Banff and extending about 6 miles; the breadth is very irregular, being crossed by a bridge, erected by the Earl of Fife. There is a Church of the Establishment and board schools. The hill of Alva is a conspicuous landmark for this coast.

ORD is a quadra sacra parish, erected 1843, and is comprised of part of the parishes of Banff, Alva, Boyndie, and Marnoch. The church is about six miles from Banff.

WHITEHILLS is a fishing village in the parish of Boyndie, 2 miles W.N.W. of Banff; here are fish curing establishments and brick works. The parish, which is five miles by two, contains an Established Church, a Free Church, and a Wesleyan Methodist Chapel. The ruins of Boyndie Castle and the Banffshire Lunatic Asylum are in this parish.

Post Office, Carnelitoe-street, Miss R. G. Smith, postmistress.—Arrivals: From Aberdeen, Aberchirder, King Edward, Macduff, &c., at 10.15 a.m.; to Dufftown at 11.15 a.m.; to Aberdeen, England, Foreign, Inverness, Speyside, &c., at 11.30 a.m.; to Portsoy, Cullen, Buckie, Einzle, &c., at 12 noon; to Macduff at 1.25 p.m.; to Turriff and Macduff at 3 p.m.; to Aberdeen, England, Foreign, Inverness, Portsoy, &c., at 3 p.m. in winter and 5 p.m. in summer. Buckie, in the parish of Rathven, is one of the most important fishing station in Scotland, having a total of 252 boats engaged for that purpose. It is situated 7 miles from Fochabers, 6 from Cullen, 11 from Portsoy, 12 from Keith, and about 19 from Banff. A new harbour, built solely of Portland cement concrete, is in course of erection, at the sole expense of John Gordon, Esq., of Cluny, and is estimated to cost about £50,000. When finished it will cover an area of eight acres; depth of water in the inner harbour at ordinary stream tide 21 feet, and at low water 10 feet; length of quayage accommodation for the discharge of vessels about 2,500 lineal feet. The ground in the immediate vicinity is being laid out for the erection of warehouses, shops, and new streets for dwellings. The harbour is expected to be finished in the early part of 1878. Buckie contains three banks, a tobacco manufactory, a herring nets manufactory, and many fish curing establishments and boat building yards. The places of worship are an Established Church, an Episcopal Church, a Free Church, a Roman Catholic Chapel, and an United Presbyterian Church. There are many very fine board schools in the town and parish. Small debt and police courts are held occasionally.
BUCKIE. 519

PORT GORDON is a village about two miles from Buckie, and has a good harbour, provided by the Duke of Richmond and Gordon in 1874, who is owner of the village. There are here 60 large boats for herring fishing and two for white fishing, also fish curing establishments.

GOLCHIE, the property of Gordon of Cluny, and Port Tennachie, belonging to A. Steuart, Esq., of Auchnunk, forms part of the village of Port Gordon.

PORTESSIE is a fishing village, about a mile east from Buckie. Here are about 100 fishing boats. Several fish curing establishments and boat building yards; also a Wesleyan Chapel.

RATHVEN is a parish about 10 miles in length by about 4½ in breadth, and is situated on the coast of the Moray Frith. The greater portion of the land is hilly, but the level parts near the sea are arable and fertile. There is a Church of the Establishment and a board school.

ENZIE is a quoad sacra parish, comprised of portions of Rathven and Bellie parishes and the village of Port Gordon. There is an Established, a Free, and a Roman Catholic Church; also board schools. Clochan is a hamlet in this parish, and about five miles from Buckie.

Post Office, Church-street, Buckie, Alexander Hendry, postmaster.—Letters arrive from North and South at 5.40 a.m.; and from North and South at 5.40 p.m. Letters are despatched to Banff, Portsoy, &c., at 9.25 a.m., to North and South at 10.50 a.m.; to Cullen, Portsoy, and Banff at 2.45 p.m., and Fochabers at 9.45 a.m. and 4.45 p.m.; and are despatched to Buckie and Banff at 9.30 a.m., and Fochabers at 6.10 a.m. and 2.45 p.m.

Post Office, Port Gordon, William Thomson, postmaster.—Letters arrive from all parts at 11.30 a.m. and 6.40 p.m., and are despatched at 1 p.m. and 9 p.m. Money Order and Telegraph Office.

DESKFORD, PORTKNOCKIE AND FINDOCHTY.

CULLEN is a royal burgh and parish, 191 miles from Edinburgh, 22 from Elgin, 13 from Fochabers, 14 from Banff, 6 from Portsoy, and 6 from Buckie, on the Moray Firth. The town consists of about half a dozen good streets. Cullen House, the seat of the Earl of Seafield, is in the parish; and to this nobleman the town is indebted for numerous improvements. The curing of fish and its exportation is carried on to some extent. There are branches of the Union Bank and the North of Scotland Bank; there is also a good hotel. The town is governed by a provost, two bailies, with a treasurer, dean of guild, and six councillors. The burgh joins with Banff, Elgin, Inverurie, Kintore, and Peterhead in returning one member to parliament. Fairs are held on the 7th January, the third Friday in May, and the second Friday in November (new style).

DESKFORD is a parish adjoining Cullen. The places of worship are a Church of the Establishment and a Free Church; there are also board schools.

PORTKNOCKIE is a fishing village in the parish of Rathven, two miles W.N.W. from Cullen and four miles E. from Buckie. It is situated in Moray Firth, and contains a Free Church, a Chapel of Ease, and a board school. Population given with Rathven parish.

FINDOCHTY is also a small fishing village in the parish of Rathven, three miles W. from Cullen. There are several fish curers in the parish. Here is a chapel for United Presbyterians. Population given with Rathven parish.

Post Office, Deskford, John Reid, postmaster.—Letters arrive from all parts (from Cullen) at 8.40 a.m., and are despatched thereto at 4.40 p.m. Letters are despatched from Cullen to Portknockie and Findochty at 7 a.m., and arrive at 1.40 p.m.

DUFFTOWN,

ABERLOUR, BOHARM, CHARLESTOWN, CRAIGELLACHIE, GLENRINNES, AND MORTLACH.

DUFFTOWN is a large village in the parish of Mortlach, 118 miles from Edinburgh, 43 from Aberdeen, 29 from Banff, 14 from Inverurie, 6 from Aberlour, 5 from Craigellachie, and 10 from Keith. The General Police and Improvement Act was adopted here in 1863. Sheriff courts are held four times a year. The town consists of a square and several good streets, and is improving in appearance. The principal owners are the Earl of Fife and the Duke of Richmond and Gordon. The streets are lighted with gas, and there is a railway station about half a mile distant. There is a Parish Church, a Free Church, a Roman Catholic Chapel, and board schools. The ruins of Balveny and Auchindown Castles are in this parish. Distilling and lime burning is carried on in the district. Fairs are held for cattle, &c., on the last Thursday in every month, and are well attended.

ABERLOUR is a parish containing the village of Charlestown, and has a Church of the Establishment and a Free Church. There are also branch banks, a railway station, &c. Fairs are held on the first Thursday in April, in May, and in November.

GLENRINNES is a quadra sacra parish, comprising part of Mortlach and Aberlour parishes.

BOHARM is a parish about 41 miles from Dufftown, in the counties of Banffshire and Morayshire.

CRAIGELLACHIE is a small village and railway station in Aberlour parish, distant about 4 miles from Dufftown.

INVEREAVEN,
BALLINDALLOCH, GLENLIVET, DRUMIN AND MARYPARK.

INVEREAVEN is a parish lying chiefly in Banffshire, but a small portion of it extends into Morayshire. It is situated about 42 miles from Banff, 8 from Aberlour, 22 from Keith, 14 from Rothes, 22 from Fochabers, 22 from Elgin, and 12 from Dufftown. There are two railway stations in the parish, one at Ballindalloch and the other at Blackboat. The manufacture of whisky is carried on here to a considerable extent, there being three firms of distillers engaged in that business. The Places of Worship are two Churches of the Establishment, a Free Church, and two Roman Catholic Chapels; there are also three schools under the management of the School Board, two Roman Catholic schools, and three female schools within the parish. The inhabitants are chiefly engaged in agricultural pursuits. Fairs are held on the Tuesday before the 20th of May, and the second Tuesday in July (old style), and another on the Tuesday before the 23rd of November. Glenlivet is a quad sacra parish, Ballindalloch a small village, and Drumin a hamlet within the parish of Invereaven.

Post Office, Ballindalloch, James Burges, postmaster.—Letters arrive from Tomintoul and Glenlivet at 8.20 a.m., from Grantown at 9.30 a.m., from the South (via Highland Sorting Carriage) at 5.25 p.m., from Aberlour, Craigellachie, Elgin, Aberdeen, and Banff at 7.25 p.m.; and are despatched to Craigellachie, Elgin, and Aberdeen at 8.20 a.m., to the South (via Highland Sorting Carriage) and Grantown at 10.35 a.m., to Grantown at 6.20 p.m., to Glenlivet and Tomintoul at 7.50 p.m. Money Order, Telegraph Office, and Savings’ Bank.

KEITH,

BOTRIPHNIE, NEWMILL AND GRANGE.

KEITH is a parish and town of the same name; the former is chiefly in the county of Banff, but a small portion of it extends into Morayshire. Keith is divided into three distinct towns, Old Keith, New Keith, and Fife Keith. New Keith is a town of some importance, built on the banks of the Isla, and is composed of several good streets. It is also a station on the North of Scotland and Highland Railway Company's line, situated about 170 miles from Edinburgh, 53 from Aberdeen, 18 from Banff, 17 from Elgin, 12 from Huntly, 10 from Rothes, and 8 from Fochabers. The town contains some good buildings, the principal of which are the churches, banks, and the Longmore Hall; the latter is a handsome building recently erected through the liberality of William Longmore, Esq., and presented by him to the inhabitants of the town. The banking interest is represented by branches of the Aberdeen Town and County Banking Co., North of Scotland Banking Co., the Union Bank of Scotland, and Post Office Savings' Bank. The places of worship are a Church of the Establishment, Free Church, Episcopal and a Roman Catholic Chapel; there are also three good schools under the management of the School Board, and a private academy for young ladies. The town is lighted with gas. Fife Keith, which is of more recent date than New Keith, is chiefly composed of one main street and others branching therefrom; the former is called Regent street, and is a very fine street, containing some good buildings. The North of Scotland Banking Co. have a branch office here. The manufacture of Scotch tweeds, agricultural implements, manures, &c., affords employment to a large number of hands. The business of tanning and leather selling is also carried on here to some extent by John Forsyth & Co. In addition to the above there are large flour and meal mills, a distillery, and a brewery.

NEWMILL is a small village in the Keith parish. There is a Church of the Establishment and a board school here.

BOTRIPHNIE is a parish situated about 44 miles from Keith, the inhabitants of which are chiefly employed in agriculture. There is a Church of the Establishment, a Free Church, and a board school in the parish; also a railway station at Drummonir, on the North of Scotland and Railway.

GRANGE is a parish situated about four miles from Keith, and is a station on the North of Scotland Railway. There is an Established Church, a Free Church, and an United Presbyterian Church here; also three schools under the management of the School Board. The inhabitants are mostly employed in agriculture. Post Office, Land-street, Keith, Barbara Keith, postmistress. — Arrivals: From Aberdeen, Perth, the South, and all parts at 10.30 a.m.; Aberdeen, Inverness, &c., 2.15 p.m. and 4.15 p.m. Despatches: To Aberdeen, and the South generally at 8.25 a.m.; Inverness and the North at 11.45 a.m.; Aberdeen, the South, and Banff at 12.30 p.m.; Crieff, Perth, Elgin, and Aberdeen at 3.15 p.m.; Aberdeen and all parts despatched at 6.20 p.m. Small goods delivered to carriers 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. and 4 to 5 p.m. Money Order, Telegraph Office, and Savings' Bank. Sub-Post Office, Fife Keith, G. Marsen, receiver.

Letters are despatched to Keith at 7.45 a.m. and 2.50 p.m. Letters are delivered from Keith. Post Office, Newmill, Malcolm Grant, postmaster. — Letters arrive (from Keith) at 11.20 a.m., and are despatched at 2.25 p.m. Post Office, Botriphnie, George Jamieson, postmaster. — Letters arrive (from Keith) at 1.20 p.m., and are despatched at 6.20 p.m. Post Office, Thornton, Grange, James Donald, postmaster. — Letters arrive (from Keith) at 12 noon, and from Edingight at 4 p.m., and are despatched to Keith at 5.45 p.m., and to Edingight at 12 noon. Post Office, Cross-roads, Grange, James Green, postmaster. — Letters arrive from Newmill of Keith at 2.30 p.m., and are despatched at 11 a.m.

MACDUFF, GROVIE, GARDENSTOWN, GAMERIE, AND DURFORD.

MACDUFF is a burgh of regality (by charter 1738) and a sea-port in the parish of Gamrie, situated a mile east from the town of Banff, on the side of a hill descending towards the seashore. The town has risen, within a century, from being a small fishing village to a place of considerable commercial importance, and is governed by a provost, two bailies and four councillors. There is also a police board consisting of six commissioners, three of whom are police magistrates who try any police cases which may arise. The harbour is large and convenient, and has one large dock. There is 11 feet of water at stream tides, and 7 at neap tides. There are 25 vessels belonging to Macduff and about 50 large fishing boats. The imports are chiefly timber, slate, coal, lime and bones, and the exports grain and meal. In the town are a number of fish-curing establishments, bone, meal, and saw mills. Rope and sail making and boat building is also carried on. There are two branch banks and a Post Office Savings' Bank, also a railway station on the Great North of Scotland Railway Company's line. The town hall is near the harbour. A Church of the Establishment, a Free Church, and an Independent Chapel are the places of worship; there are also board schools, and "Murray's Institution" for poor children. PORTSOY, FORDYCE, AND SANDEND.

PORTSOY is a seaport in the parish of Fordyce, 18 miles from Keith, 11 from Buckie, 8 from Banff, and 6 from Cullen, situated on the Moray Frith. It was made a burgh of barony in the year 1550. The town is small but a very considerable business is carried on in fish curing, ship and boat building, &c. In the neighbourhood brick works are conducted, a marble quarry, a distillery, a woollen manufactory and linen works. The harbour is good for vessels up to 200 tons burthen. The imports are coal, salt, timber, &c. The stones from the quarries, which are now held by Messrs. George MacDonald & Co. has obtained the name of “Portsoy marble,” and is wrought into beautiful vases, ornaments, chimney-pieces, columns, mural work, &c. The burgh is under the jurisdiction of a baron bailie and a justice of the peace. The Earl of Seafield is superior. The town and adjoining district was erected a quoad sacra parish in 1871. The places of worship are a church of the Establishment, a Free Church, an Independent chapel, an Episcopal chapel, a United Presbyterian Church and a Roman Catholic chapel. The school board has just erected in Chapel street a spacious and elegant school, having everything necessary for the comfort of those attending it.

FORDYCE is a village situated about three miles from Portsoy, and owns at the present day some celebrity from its educational institutions. Smith's academy is a handsome modern building in which boys are educated and clothed, £10,000 having been left by George Smith, Esq., of Bombay, for that purpose. It was here that Sir James Clerk, Bart., physician in ordinary to Her Majesty and John Forbes, Esq., physician extraordinary to his late Royal Highness the Prince Consort, received the early part of his education. A market is held in the village once a year, 8th November, for horses, feering, &c. Sandend is a small fishing village about 2 miles from Fordyce.

Post Office, Square, Portsoy, James Clark, postmaster.—Letters arrive from the South at 10.30 a.m. and 2.30 p.m. from the north and west at 11.40 a.m. and from Banff at 11 a.m. and 5.45 a.m. and are despatched to north and south at 7.55 a.m. and 3 p.m. to the south at 11.30 a.m. to the north and west at 12.45 noon and on Saturday's only, at 7.55 p.m. Rural messengers for Bogmunchs despatched at 12 noon and Tullynaught at 2.30 p.m. Money Order, Telegraph Office and Post Office Savings' Bank.

Post Office, Fordyce, Mrs. A. Ewing, postmistress.—Letters arrive from Portsoy at 1.40 p.m. and are despatched at 5.40 p.m.

JOHN TAYLOR,
HEATING ENGINEER,
71, WOOLMANHILL, ABERDEEN,
FORMERLY OF GILMORE PARK, EDINBURGH,

Begs to intimate to gentlemen who may be desirous of having their Houses, Business Premises, Churches, or other Buildings, made comfortably warm during the winter, that he undertakes the accomplishment of this by means of his Small Pipe Hot Water Apparatus, constructed to suit all buildings.

The advantages of his Heating Apparatus over others are, that the heat is immediately got up, they are safe, there is no smell, draft, nor dust; and all parts of the Building are equally and comfortably warmed, while the expense of fuel is astonishingly small for the amount of heat produced, and with which no other Heating Apparatus can compare.

J. T. guarantees the efficiency, the soundness, and substantiality of all his Apparatus.

Prices moderate and best material only used.

J. T. has for the last 26 years devoted his whole time and attention to the warming of buildings, during which he has constructed and fitted up some hundreds of Heating Apparatus in different parts of Scotland, all of which are giving entire satisfaction.

Having had extensive practical experience in this business, and by his personally superintending, in detail, the completion of all its parts, parties entrusting him with this kind of work may depend upon everything connected therewith being satisfactorily completed.

J. T. will be glad to wait on and advise parties wishing his Heating Apparatus as to the most satisfactory methods of plan and arrangement; and will give a minute written estimate of all costs on application.

Every Description of Steam, Gas, and Water Mounting.

Every year it is becoming more generally recognised that the Granite City affords facilities for Bathing that will favourably compare with those of the most celebrated watering places in the kingdom. The breezy downs where healthful recreation may be enjoyed, the beautiful beach with which the bay is fringed, and the security ensured by the presence of vigilant attendants, are all gaining for Aberdeen increasing fame as a place where those who seek for health may most satisfactorily spend the months of Summer. But, besides the advantages afforded by nature, the Messrs. Duncan have, for the benefit of those who may desire their baths in privacy, erected an establishment which is so fitted and accommodated that visitors will find themselves supplied with every pleasure which a luxurious bath at home could provide. All the newest appliances for furnishing ease and enjoyment have been adopted, everything conducive to comfort has been employed, and to all who visit the establishment the utmost courtesy will be extended. The high commendations here ascribed, to both Beach and Bathing Establishment, are not put forward merely by the advertisers, but is the heartily expressed opinion of many a tourist who has had experience of every well-known watering place at home and abroad.

The Beach may be reached in about 10 minutes' walk from the centre of the City, but for the convenience of those who wish to avoid the fatigue of walking, a conveyance is run, during the Summer months, to and from the Beach every half-hour, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. In the City the place of departure is the North Church, a point to which intending Bathers may be carried by the Tramway Cars. Fares moderate.

Further particulars may be had from the Proprietors,

GENERAL DYE WORKS,
42, UPPERCIRKagate, ABERDEEN,

ROBERT FERGUSON, DYER,

RESPECTFULLY returns thanks to the Nobility, Gentry, and Public in general of Aberdeen and the Country, and the surrounding Counties, for the liberal patronage conferred upon him during the thirty-nine years he has been in business in Aberdeen.

R. F. desires to state that he has introduced STREAM POWER into his premises, thus giving him greater facilities in executing all orders committed to his care; and he trusts, from his long practical experience and friendly correspondence with some of the first Masters of the Art, in the South and West of Scotland, to be able to give his employers every satisfaction.

The Dye-House arrangements at present are as follows:—Merinoes, Coburges, &c., dyed and dressed, commencing on Tuesday every week, Silks, Velvets, Poplins, &c., dyed and dressed on the most approved principles, commencing on Wednesday and Friday every week.

Silks watered on Thursday and Saturday. Carpets, Crumb-Cloths, and Hearth-Rugs cleaned. All sorts of Linen Drapery hot calendered. Moreen and Damask Furniture cleaned, re-dyed, and dressed. Printed Furniture cleaned, starched, and glazed. Straw Bonnets dyed black, Tuesday and Friday. Kid Gloves dyed black.

CURR'S
COFFEE ESSENCE.

THIS ESSENCE is Extracted from the Finest Mocha Coffee, by a new and much improved method, whereby the fine Refreshing Fragrance of Fresh Roasted Coffee is preserved to a degree not hitherto attained, and differs from other Coffee Essences in its resemblance to the best Coffee made in the ordinary way.

Considering the extreme convenience of Coffee in this form, the maker of this Essence has been long of opinion that if an Essence could be produced which would make a Cup of Coffee equal to the finest Coffee that could possibly be made in the ordinary way, and at the same cost, such an Essence would be a boon to the community of Coffee Drinkers, and could not fail in the long run to take the place of all other Coffees; after much careful labour, and many improvements, he offers this Essence with much confidence of its success. It is preserved with Refined Sugar, and is improved in taste by a small blending of Pure Chicory.

PREPARED BY THOMAS CURR,

THE
NORTH BRITISH AGRICULTURIST,
OFFICE:--377, HIGH STREET, EDINBURGH.

Price 3d.; by Post 3½d.
Post free for one year 14s.; Ditto for six months 7s.

The "Agriculturist" is the only Farmers Journal printed and published in Scotland and is read by almost every Scotch Farmer. It is essentially a practical paper, being issued exclusively in the interest of agriculture, and treating of that subject in all its branches.

The "Agriculturist" is published every Wednesday Afternoon in time for the evening mails and contains a Review of the British Corn Trade and all the chief Corn and Cattle Markets of the week held in the United Kingdom. From its very large circulation amongst Farmers and Land Owners in England and Scotland it is a first-class Journal for advertising—

Farms to Let; Farms for Sale; Agricultural Estates for Sale; Sales of Pure Bred Stock, such as Shorthorns, Herefords, Alderneys, Clydesdales, &c.; Agricultural Seeds; Artificial Manures; Agricultural Implements, Machinery, and Engines.

Money Orders should be made payable to CHARLES ANDERSON, Jun., Edinburgh.

THE COMBINATION COOKING RANGE.

ITS SPECIAL ADVANTAGES ARE--

An Open and Close Fire Range combined in one, which can in less than half a minute be absolutely converted from the one to the other without detaching any portion of the range. When used as an Open Range and the Vent inclined to smoke, the cure is simply to open the Flue Dampers, close the fire by slipping the Sliding Hobs over it, and drawing the Plates of the Vent Damper from either side across the Vent, thus forming a perfect Close Range.

This Range will be found so easily converted that it will be convenient to have it open when little cooking is required, a cheerful fire kept, and little fuel consumed. Then when a special amount of cooking is needed, it can instantly be closed, when a large hot plate forming the whole length and breadth of the Range is got, and heating one or more ovens at the same time.

Made in all sizes by Best Makers.

BROADBENT'S

PATENT FLOATING

BOILER SCUMMERS

ARE INVALUABLE.

THEY INCREASE THE SAFETY OF THE BOILERS AND SAVE COAL.

SILVER MEDAL AWARDED AT THE MIDDLETON AGRICULTURAL SHOW, 1871.

In submitting this important Invention to the notice of steam users and others, we feel confident of being able to supply a want which has long been felt, namely, a really good scummer, the thorough efficiency of which has been proved by the best of all tests—practical application. The great superiority of the movable or floating scummer over the fixed scummer is very evident; for while the latter can only remove the scum when at a particular elevation, the former carries it away ready混, no matter what may be the height of the water.

This Apparatus deserves the special attention of the owners of Marine Boilers, as its adoption would prevent, to a great extent, the large and rapid accumulation of scale, to which these boilers are peculiarly subject. The mechanism is slightly different from that applied to Stationary Boilers, in order to secure the proper working condition of the Scummer during any motion of the vessel. Whatever the vessel's position the float will be level with the surface of the water.

Another important feature is its simplicity of construction, rendering liability to get out of order very slight.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS ON THE SCUMMER.

Too much importance can scarcely be attached to a really good scummer, as it removes, in a great measure, a prolific source of expensive, and often lamentable results; in short, few users of steam boilers can be ignorant of the very numerous evils attendant on corrosion and incrustation. By the use of our Scummer the number of these evils may, at least, be materially reduced.

The Scummer ought always to be placed near the back end of the boiler, as the scum is carried there by the current of the water from the front end.

ADVANTAGES ARISING FROM THE USE OF THE FLOATING SCUMMER.

INCREASED SAFETY AND DURABILITY OF THE BOILER, AND STEAM EASIER GENERATED, is attained by the scum being blown outside the boiler, and prevents that rapid accumulation of scale and deposit, allowing the heat from the furnaces to act more directly upon the water, at the same time with less injury to the boiler plates.

LESS WEAR AND TEAR ON THE ENGINE CYLINDER AND VALVE SURFACES, by the steam passing from the boiler in a purer state, i.e., free from scum; the surface of valve faces are kept clean, they do not get fluted, fit well, and consequently, do their work better; the cylinder does not get (which is known among engineers) painted by a deposit of scum. There are more break-downs caused through this evil than any other, for immediately the scum gets upon the cylinder the friction is increased, and the velocity of the piston is suddenly retarded, causing a severe back lashing in the wheels, and often results in the passage of the whole works until the wheels are replaced. By the cylinder being kept clean the turning is more regular, and less steam required.

THE SCUMMER CAN BE ATTACHED TO BOILERS IN A FEW HOURS.

The following is an extract from a paper on the evil effects of incrustation—

WASTE OF COAL AND WEAR OF STEAM BOILERS.

Professor Joseph G. Rogers, in a paper upon steam-boiler waters and incrustation, read before the American Association for the Advancement of Science, says:—"The evil effects of scale are due to the fact that it is relatively a non-conductor of heat. It has been demonstrated that a scale of 1-16 of an inch thick requires an extra expenditure of 15 per cent. more fuel. As the scale thickens the ratio increases. When it is 1 of an inch thick 30 per cent. more is required; at 5 inch, 150 per cent. and so on. To raise steam to a working pressure of 90 pounds the water must be heated to 520 Feh. If 5 inch scale intervenes the boiler must be heated to 700 degrees—almost a low red heat. The higher the temperature at which iron is kept the more rapidly it oxidizes, and at any temperature above 600 degrees it soon becomes granular and brittle from carbonization or conversion into the state of cast iron. Weakness of boilers thus produced predisposes to sudden explosions, and makes expensive repairs necessary.
TESTIMONIALS.

Oldham Edge Iron Works, February, 1871.

We have one of Broadbent's Patent Floating Scummers at work, and are pleased to state that it gives entire satisfaction.

J. FRIELIABO & SONS.

Far Mill, Hollinwood, near Manchester, August 17th, 1872.

DEAR SIR,—In answer to your inquiries, we have had five of Broadbent's (one on each boiler) at work about twelve months, and are glad to say that we are very well pleased with them. We find the scale in the boilers gradually diminishing, and the pistons almost free from dirt, consequently needing less tallow. Before we applied the Scummers we cleaned the pistons every three months, but now we clean them once in six months, and yet we do not find one quarter of the dirt in the cylinders that we used to do.

Yours very truly,

P. PROOKKET, LILLET, & CO., THOMAS PROOKTER.

Park Mills, Hollinwood, near Manchester, February 15th, 1872.

SIR,—We have pleasure in testifying to the efficient working of Broadbent's Patent Scummer. Previous to applying it, we were very much troubled with "Engine Priming," we never are now; the boiler is also very much cleaner.

 Yours respectfully,

H. L. & G. BAXTER.

Albert Mills, Hollinwood, near Manchester, February 17th, 1872.

We have had your Patent Scummers at work for some time, on four of our boilers, and have found them very useful for preventing incrustation, and likely to continue operative for a long time without getting choked, or otherwise out of order.

Yours truly,

W. J. & B. LEES.

Moorside Mills, Oldham, March 2nd, 1872.

SIR,—We have very great pleasure in testifying to the efficiency of the Patent Scummers you have applied to our boilers. We have let the boilers off now after four months' working, and are glad to find that no scale or residue whatever exists, although we have usually cleaned our boilers once every six weeks, and were nevertheless troubled with scale to a great extent.

Yours respectfully,

THOMAS MELLODEW & CO.

Mr. J. BROADBENT.

Stanley New Mills, Stalybridge, February 17th, 1872.

DEAR SIR,—I have pleasure in stating that the Patent Floating Boiler Scummers you applied to my four boilers are doing their work exceedingly well. I work them double the time I used to do without cleaning, and I find scarcely any scale adhering to the face. I am, therefore, glad to recommend them to all users of steam power where they are troubled with scale.

I am, dear sir, yours truly,

For GEORGE ADSHEAD, ISAAC K. CLAYTON.

Willow Bank Mill, Rochdale Road, Oldham, September 17th, 1873.

SIR,—The Scummers which you have put on our boilers a few months ago seem to be working very satisfactorily so far.

Yours respectfully,

KERSHAW & BAMPFORD.
