ABERDEEN.

DOUGLAS HOTEL,

(Purveyor by appointment to Her Majesty the Queen, the late Prince Albert, and the Royal Family).

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

PARTIES travelling from South to North, and vice versa, will find DOUGLAS' HOTEL the only one situated close to either of the Railway Stations (all the other Hotels being a considerable distance off), so that travellers can arrive at and depart from the Douglas Hotel with the greatest facility, at a considerable saving of expense for portage and conveyances, as an Omnibus with attendants, in connection with the Hotel, for the accommodation of passengers, direct to and from either of the Railway Stations, will be waiting the arrival of the different trains, of which travellers will find it greatly to their advantage to avail themselves.

T. D. begs to intimate that he has lately made a large addition to his present premises, and will now have increased accommodation for Private Families and others visiting the Hotel, where every effort will be made to make them comfortable.

T. D. has also to state, that by special request he has fitted up an Elegant Room for the accommodation of Commercial Gentlemen only, and from unremitting assiduity on his part to make them comfortable, he trusts they will kindly give him a share of their patronage and support.

Breakfasts, Soups, Dinners, &c., &c., are always in readiness on arrival of the Trains, whereby travellers are enabled to partake of refreshments previous to the departure of the different trains either South or North.

Charges very Moderate.

THOMAS DOUGLAS, Proprietor.

The Report by the Directors for the Year 1867, referred with satisfaction to the continued prosperity and progress of the Company during the year, as attested by the following facts:—

The NEW BUSINESS of the year largely exceeded that of the previous year, both as regards the number of Policies issued and the amount of the Sums assured.

The sum received for the purchase of Annuities was also in excess of that of last year.

The sum paid in discharge of Claims was considerably less than that of the preceding year; the mortality of both years being under the calculated expectation.

The ACCUMULATED FUNDS of the Company amounted to £1,010,916 : 5 : 2.

The Edinburgh Life Assurance Co^y.

SUMMARY OF REPORT FOR 1867—continued.

Since its establishment it has paid in Claims .	£1,608,250 0 0
The Bonus Additions of which alone amount to	£227,250 0 0
The number of Policies now in force is .	4800
The sum assured by these is .	£3,155,000 0 0
The Company's Annual Income amounts to .	£146,808 6 2

DISTRIBUTION OF PROFITS.

Nine-tenths, or Ninety per cent, of the Profits are divided every seven years among the Participating Policyholders. Policies of five years' duration, becoming claims between one division of Profits and another, are entitled to an Intermediate Bonus.

The Company's system of Division of Profits, while it does not exclude younger Policyholders from their fair share in the allocation of Bonus, reserves a much larger proportion for those whose Policies have existed for a long period, and who have themselves attained an advanced age.

Five Periodical Investigations have already been made, and the results of the equitable principle of Distribution are brought out in the very large Bonuses which attach to cases fulfilling these conditions, and are fully illustrated by the undernoted examples.

THE RATES OF PREMIUMS

are moderate, and will bear favourable comparison with those of other First-class Offices.

PLEASURE-BOATS FOR EXCURSIONS ON THE WYE.
FLIES AND OMNIBUSES MEET EVERY TRAIN.

Have you made the tour of the Wye? If not,—Why not?

Ross is the "The Gate of the Wye," and for the beauty and variety of the scenery on its banks, there is no river in England at all comparable with it; nor do we believe (notwithstanding the superiority of some of them in point of size) that there is a single river on the Continent of Europe that can boast such scenes of grandeur, gracefulness, and pastoral beauty. Its romantic beauties, whether where it glides majestically along the rich plains of Herefordshire—through orchards, meadows, cornfields, and villages—or, deep in its channel, runs between lofty rocks, clothed with hanging woods, and crowned at intervals with antique ruins of castellated and monastic edifices, yielding a panoramic succession of exquisite landscapes, have furnished many subjects for the poet and the painter, and cannot fail to charm every lover of nature.

KILLIN HOTEL, HEAD OF LOCH TAY, PERTHSHIRE.

JOHN M'PHERSON,

n thanking his numerous friends for their patronage and support since he became the Lessee of this Hotel, begs to intimate that Nobility, Gentry, Tourists, and others visiting his House may depend on receiving every attention conducive to comfort, combined with charges strictly moderate.

KILLIN HOTEL is situated in the midst of the finest and most romantic scenery in Scotland. Loch Tay is close at hand, on which Mr. M'Pherson's visitors have the right of Salmon and Trout Fishing. The boats are safe and comfortable, and the boatmen experienced and civil. The objects of interest in the vicinity are numerous and interesting, including Finlarig Castle, the burying-place of the Breadalbane family; Inch Buigh, the burying-place of the M'Nabs; Falls of Lochay; Auchmore House; Kinnell House; Ben Lawers, the second highest mountain in Scotland; Ben More, &c. The mountain scenery is unsurpassed for grandeur in the Highlands of Scotland. Visitors residing at the Hotel have liberty to fish for Trout and Salmon on a capital portion of the river Dochart.

Killin Hotel is 16 miles from Kenmore, 22 from Aberfeldy, 22 from Callander, 22 from Inverarnan (head of Loch Lomond), 19 from Tyndrum and the Black Mount. It is therefore the central Hotel on the Callander, Lochearnhead, Killin, Kenmore, and Aberfeldy, and the Aberfeldy, Kenmore, Killin, Inverarnan, and Fort-William Coach Routes. Parties coming by coach from Aberfeldy have twenty minutes for luncheon at Killin.

* * * The Posting and Hiring Establishment is complete.

Letters by Post will be carefully attended to.

KILLIN HOTEL, July 1868.

HEAD OF LOCHLOMOND.

M'GREGOR'S INVERARNAN HOTEL

THIS is the only landing-place on the Lake for the Coaches to Glencoe, Ballachulish, Fort-William, Killin, Kenmore, and Aberfeldy; the nearest starting-point for the Dalmally and Oban Coaches—all of which start daily from the Hotel, where seats are secured, maps of routes, and all necessary information supplied. Parties intending to proceed by either of the above routes would do well to be at Inverarnan the previous evening, so as to secure seats. The comfort and attention afforded at this Hotel, which is newly furnished, is equal to what can be enjoyed at any Lake or other Hotel in the Highlands. The Hotel is situated in the midst of mountain scenery, which for grandeur and beauty cannot be surpassed. It has convenient and easy access to Loch Katrine and the Trossachs; and adjacent are the Falls of Falloch, Rob Roy's Birthplace and Cave—all so much admired by Tourists.

WEEM HOTEL, 1868.

KENMORE HOTEL, PERTHSHIRE,

THIS well-known Hotel is picturesquely situated at the head of Loch Tay, in the midst of scenery the most varied, and surrounded with objects the most romantic and interesting. It will be found by Families and Tourists to be replete with every accommodation and comfort, combined with moderate charges, and forms a convenient and central position from which excursions to the best parts of the Perthshire Highlands can be made.

Parties residing at the Hotel are allowed the privilege of fishing for salmon and trout in Loch Tay and the River Lyon, and boats with experienced boatmen are always in readiness.

Strangers are allowed to visit the beautiful grounds and gardens of Taymouth at stated hours.

Coaches pass daily, during the summer months, to and from Callander, Loch Lomond, Oban, Glasgow, &c., and an omnibus runs to and from Aberfeldy in connection with the principal trains.

The Posting Department is conducted with every regard to comfort, safety, and expedition.

Letters for Apartments, conveyance, &c., punctually attended to.

HER MAJESTY'S FIRST ROUTE IN THE HIGHLANDS
FROM TAYMOUTH CASTLE.

THIS Hotel, situated at the foot of the wild Glen Ogle, Kyber Pass, and in the far-famed parish of Balquhidder, having been considerably enlarged and nearly rebuilt and re-furnished, offers first-class accommodation to Private Families, Tourists, and Travellers.

The views from the oriel windows of the Sitting-Rooms and large new Coffee-Rooms command the magnificent scenery of Lochearn and the surrounding country, including the upper part of Strathearn.

The Proprietor takes this opportunity to thank those of his friends who have hitherto patronised his Hotel, and begs to assure them and the public generally that no pains will be spared to increase their comfort and accommodation during their stay at his house, combined with strictly moderate charges.

The Hotel, from its beautiful situation and quiet character of the place, with its many objects of interest in the locality and along the various routes above mentioned, is particularly adapted for Families or Parties who wish to stay any length of time. The Hotel is entirely supplied by the produce of the Farm connected with it.

Boats are kept for Fishing on the Loch, and carriages of all kinds ready at a few minutes' notice for Posting or Driving.

There is a Daily Mail. A Four-horse Coach runs daily in the Summer months to and from Aberfeldy and Callander Railway Stations. A railway is now being made from Callander to Lochearnhead.

MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE.

THE

Scottish Provident Institution

ESTABLISHED 1837.

THE ADVANTAGES offered, as compared with other Offices, are :—

A greatly larger Original Assurance for the same Premium, with the prospect, to good lives (for whom exclusively the whole Profits are reserved), of eventually receiving very considerable Additions.

Thus, a Policy for £1200 or £1250 can at most ages be had, from the first, for the Premium charged elsewhere for £1000 only. Policies for £1000 which have shared at three Septennial Investigations have already been increased to £1400, £1600, and even to £1800.

THIS SOCIETY has taken a leading part in the relaxation of restrictions on Policies, and in the REMOVAL OF GROUNDS OF CHALLENGE. So long ago as 1849 it was declared that error in the original statements should not involve forfeiture, unless proved to have been fraudulent as well as untrue; and at same time the forfeiture which attached to death by capital punishment, by duelling, and even by suicide (unless occurring within six months), was removed.

Free Travelling and Residence.

Members (not seafaring men) are now at liberty, free of charge, to travel or reside in any part of the world (Asia excepted) north of 35° N., and south of 30° S. The Directors are also empowered, under certain conditions, to grant Certificates of Exemption from all restrictions.

In the year 1867, 1373 Policies were issued, assuring £621,574. The Subsisting Assurances were 13,168 for upwards of £6,000,000. The Annual Revenue above £230,000, and the Accumulated Fund at close of the year £1,365,365:12:10—all invested in unexceptionable securities in this country. [Continued.]

Head Office, 6 St. Andrew Square, Edinburgh.

* A person of 30 may secure £1000 at death for a yearly premium of £20:15s., which in other Mutual Offices would assure £800 only.

TO PROFESSIONAL MEN

and others, whose income is dependent on the continuance of health and activity, the system of Assurance is recommended—by Premiums restricted to a definite term of payment, as shown in the following TABLE of

PREMIUMS, PAYABLE FOR TWENTY-ONE YEARS ONLY,
For Assurance of £100 at Death with Profits.

Age.	Premium limited to 21 payments.	Age.	Premium limited to 21 payments.	Age.	Premium limited to 21 payments.

30	2 15 4	40	3 7 5	50	4 12 1

Thus, a person of 30, if unwilling to burden himself with payments during his whole life, may secure a Policy for £1000, for a Premium of £27:13:4, limited to twenty-one yearly payments—being thus relieved of payment before he has passed the prime of life—for a Premium little higher than most offices require during its whole term.

The Premiums may cease after 7, 14, or other number of years.

Reports and every information may be had at the Head Office, or at the Branches and Agencies.
